FRIDAY, 3 APRIL, 1914.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme or Representation, bearing date the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme or Representation for altering the boundaries of the New Parish of Hope, and the New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, both in the county of Stafford and in the Diocese of Lichfield.

“Whereas, by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the twentieth day of the same month, a certain part of the District Parish of Shelton, in the said county and diocese, was constituted a separate District for spiritual purposes, and the said District was named ‘The District of Hope.’

“And whereas, by the authority of another Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-third day of the same month, a Consolidated Chapelry was assigned to the Consecrated Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate within the limits of the District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, in the said county and diocese, and the said Consolidated Chapelry was named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall.’

“And whereas the said District of Hope, and the said Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, have become New Parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said New Parish of Hope and of the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Augustine, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme or Representation), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or Representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said New Parish of Hope and of the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said District Parish of Shelton which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such District Parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said New Parish of Hope; and (secondly) all that portion of the said District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green, shall be dissevered from such District Parish, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or any of them, or any other Act of Parliament.

"The Schedules to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference:—

"THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the District Parish of Shelton, in the county of Stafford and in the Diocese of Lichfield, and to be annexed to the New Parish of Hope, in the same county and diocese, being:

"All that portion of the said District Parish of Shelton which is bounded upon the east and upon the north by the said New Parish of Hope, upon the west by the New Parish of Etruria, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side—that is to say, upon the south—by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Etruria from the said District Parish of Shelton (which follows the old course of Boothen Brook) crosses the middle of the Potteries Loop Line of the North Staffordshire Railway, and, extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of eight chains and a half or thereabouts, to the centre of the bridge which carries such line of railway across the line of railway belonging to the Shelton Iron, Steel, and Coal Company Limited, and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway for a distance of fourteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its terminus, and extending thence in a straight line due east for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Clough-street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Clough-street for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with Marsh-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of Marsh-street for a distance of fifteen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Brunswick-street upon the boundary which divides the said District Parish of Shelton from the said New Parish of Hope.

"THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, in the said county and diocese, and to be annexed to the New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, which is bounded upon the south-west and upon the south-east by the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, and upon the remaining sides—that is to say, upon the east, upon the north-east, and upon the north—by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall, from the said District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, at the junction of John-street with High-street, and extending thence northward along the middle of High-street for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road running along the southern side of Market-square, and extending thence first south-westward along the middle of such road and then north-westward along the middle of the road running along the western side of the said square for a distance in all of six chains and a half or thereabouts to the junction of the last-mentioned road with Paradise-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Paradise-street for a distance of one chain and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Cross-street, and extending thence first north-westward, then northward, and then again north-westward, along the middle of Cross-street (thereby crossing Wellington-street) for a distance of seven chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Well-street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Well-street for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sneyd-street upon the boundary which divides the said District Parish of Christ Church, Tunstall, from the said New Parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Tunstall."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation, and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said Scheme or Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme or Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Viscount Knollys.
Lord Colebrooke.
Lord Emmott.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in China:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1914," and shall be read as one with the China Order in Council, 1904, hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order," and this Order and the China Orders in Council, 1904 to 1913, may be cited together as the "China Orders in Council, 1904 to 1914."

2.—(1.) In addition to the documents to be deposited and filed in the office of a consulate, in accordance with article 46 of the China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1913, on the registration of a company in accordance with the provisions of that Order, there shall be deposited and filed a list of the directors of the company, showing in respect of each director his full name and nationality and his address.

(2.) Every company registered under the China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1913, shall register in the month of January in every year a list of the directors of the company, showing in respect of each director his full name and nationality and his address, and shall from time to time, as may be necessary, register any alterations in such list.

(3.) On every registration under sub-article (2) of this article there shall be payable a fee of 2s.

3. Where any municipal regulations or byelaws have been established for any foreign concession in China, the Court may entertain a complaint against a British subject for a breach of such municipal regulations or byelaws, and may enforce compliance therewith,

Provided—

(1.) that the said municipal regulations or byelaws have been accepted by His Majesty's Government. Acceptance of the municipal regulations or byelaws of a foreign concession by His Majesty's Government shall be signified by a copy thereof being exhibited and kept exhibited in the public office of His Majesty's consulate at such treaty port.

(2.) that no punishment other in nature or greater in degree than that provided by the Principal Order shall be imposed.

(3.) that the Court is satisfied that effectual provision exists for the punishment in the Court of the foreign Powers whose municipal regulations or byelaws it is sought to enforce of breaches by the subjects or citizens of that Power of the municipal regulations or byelaws of British concessions in China.

4. In article 21 of the China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1913, the reference to article 13 should be read as a reference to article 19, and in article 29 the references to articles 21 and 22 should be read as references to articles 27 and 28, and in article 50 the reference to article 41 should be read as a reference to article 48.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 23rd day of July, 1889, to direct (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish church of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the county of York, and also in the churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, so far as it relates to burials in the said parish church of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the county of York, and also in the churchyard, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 23rd day of July, 1889, so far as it relates to burials in the parish church of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the county of York, and in the churchyard, be and the same is hereby varied, so that, notwithstanding anything in the said Order in Council, it shall be lawful, subject to the condition hereinafter set forth, to bury the body of the Right Honourable Isabella Anne, Dowager Lady Beaumont, at her decease, in a brick grave in the chancel of the said parish church of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, provided that, within a period of twenty-four hours after the deposit in the grave of the coffin containing the body, the coffin shall be wholly and permanently embedded in and covered with a layer or layers of good cement concrete not less in any part than six inches in thickness.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 16th day of December, 1902, directing (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, in the county of Salop, and in the churchyard:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 28th day of November, 1910, the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902, so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the said parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, was varied in the manner specified in the said Order in Council:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902, so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the said parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, should be further varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902 (so varied as aforesaid), so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, in the county of Salop, be and the same is hereby further varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, the burial of the body of the late Edward Mainwaring Furley, Clerk in Holy Orders, may be allowed in the said churchyard, subject to the conditions that the coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that the grave shall be bricked to the surface of the ground.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, Whitehall,
April 3rd, 1914.

In the Matter of the Baronetcy of Dalryell of Binns.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of Clause IV of the Royal Warrant of the 8th February, 1910, the Secretary of State for the Home Department has referred to the Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council appointed for the purposes of the said Warrant by Order in Council, dated the 5th March, 1910, a Petition presented by Major James Bruce Wilkie Dalryell, to be placed on the Official Roll of Baronets in respect of the Baronetcy of Dalryell of Binns, and that the said Committee has provisionally fixed Wednesday, the 17th day of June next, for the consideration of the said Petition.

Civil Service Commission,

April 3, 1914.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF MALE LEARNER IN THE DEPARTMENT OF THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL IN DUBLIN.

These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 15 and 17. If an examination begins in one of the first four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of January in that year. If an examination begins in one of the second four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of May in that year. If an examination begins in one of the last four months of any year, Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of September of that year.

2. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners,

(a) That they are duly qualified in respect of health and character.

(b) That they are natural-born or naturalised British subjects.

3. At each examination the number of Candidates to be selected will be such as the Postmaster-General may from time to time fix.

4. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

1. English Composition (including Writing and Spelling).

2. Arithmetic (first four rules, Simple and Compound, including English and Metric Weights and Measures, Reduction, Vulgar Fractions and Decimals, excluding Recurring Decimals).

3. Geography.

Candidates who fail to obtain such an aggregate number of marks as may indicate in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners a competent amount of general proficiency will not be regarded as qualified.

5. No Candidate will be admitted to examination who does not, at such time as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners, produce an undertaking, signed by his parent or guardian, that he will, if successful, reside within a suitable distance from the Post Office, either with his parents or guardians, or with relations or friends approved by such parents or guardians.

6. Candidates must be at least 5 feet in height, and no officer will be retained in the Service who does not attain the height of 5 feet 4 inches before reaching the age of 19.

7. (i) Persons actually serving in the Army or Navy are ineligible to compete. (ii) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service, Probationary Engineer Cadets in the Navy, and Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the Examination, before the commencement of the competition.

8. Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer, will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

9. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

10. A fee of 5s. will be required from every Candidate attending an Examination.

Civil Service Commission,

April 3, 1914.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination of Candidates for registration as Temporary Boy Clerks will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Leeds, Liverpool, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Glasgow, Belfast, and Cork, commencing on the 23rd June, 1914, under the Regulations dated the 13th December, 1912, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

The number to be registered will depend partly on the requirements of the service, and partly on the number of Candidates who may show sufficient proficiency; but it is not likely to be less than 205, if so many shall be found competent; that is to say, 200 for service in London, Edinburgh, and provincial towns in England, Scotland, and Wales, and 5 for service in Dublin and provincial towns of Ireland exclusively.

No Candidate will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 21st May, an application, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (FOREIGN MEAT) AMENDING REGULATIONS, 1909.

WE, THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, in pursuance of the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Amending Regulations, 1909, HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that, for the purposes of those Regulations, the Official Certificates of which the details are set forth in the representations or designs in the Schedule appended to and forming part of this Notice are, subject to the instructions given therein, hereby declared to be admissible, in the case of Sweden, from the date of the publication of this Notice, in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the rules and conditions prescribed in this Notice, as evidence that the pig from which any foreign meat is derived has been certified by a competent authority in the place of origin to be free from disease at the time of slaughter, and that the meat has been certified by the like authority to have been dressed or prepared, and packed with the needful observance of all requirements for preventing danger to public health from using the meat as an article of food:

AND FURTHER, with respect to the manner, to the extent, and to the rules and conditions in, to, and subject to which every Official Certificate is admissible as evidence for any such purpose as is hereinbefore described, We hereby prescribe as follows, that is to say:—

(i.) An Official Certificate, used in relation to foreign meat, or in relation to a box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the meat is derived from a pig.

(ii.) An Official Certificate in the form of a label shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the label is securely affixed or attached to any foreign meat, or to any box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat; and where the label so affixed or attached has not, in any other circumstances, or on any other occasion, been used as an Official Certificate.

(iii.) In this Notice, any word or expression to which a special meaning is assigned by the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Amending Regulations, 1909, has the same meaning as in those Regulations.

NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE CORPORATION.

[PETITION FOR ADDITIONAL PROVISION.]

(Provision and Use of Omnibuses in Urban District of Weetslade and along portion of North-road (North Gosforth); Tolls, Fares and Charges; By-laws; Financial and Incidental Provisions; Application and Amendment of Provisions of Existing Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in Parliament under the title of the "Newcastle-upon-Tyne Corporation Bill," promoted by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") provision for the following purposes, namely:—

To empower the Corporation to provide, equip, maintain and use omnibuses propelled by mechanical power (including in the term "mechanical power" electrical power) in and through the parish and urban district of Weetslade, in the county of Northumberland, and also along the North-road, in the parish of North Gosforth, in the rural district of Castle Ward, in the said county, from the termination of the existing tramways of the Tyneside Tramways and Tramroads Company at the west entrance to Gosforth Park to the boundary between the said urban district of Weetslade and the said rural district of Castle Ward, either generally or for such purposes and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be defined in the Additional Provision or prescribed by Parliament, and to enable the Corporation to demand and take tolls, fares and charges for the use of such omnibuses and to make and enforce by penalty or otherwise by-laws with respect to the use thereof and the travelling therein and thereon and passengers using the same, and to enable the Corporation to provide buildings, works, conveniences and appliances for and in connection with such omnibuses and to provide that such omnibuses shall form part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation.

To extend and apply to and in relation to any service of omnibuses proposed to be authorized by the Additional Provision the provisions or some of the provisions of section 97 (Power to provide and run motor omnibuses) of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Corporation Act, 1911.

To authorize the Corporation from time to time for the purposes aforesaid to apply their existing rates, funds and revenues, to make and levy additional or increased rates, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions from the payment of any existing or future rates, to alter and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the Corporation, to enable the Corporation to apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are already authorized to borrow, and to borrow further moneys by mortgage, stock or annuities, and to charge such moneys and all or any moneys already borrowed or authorized to be borrowed upon all or any one or more of the following securities (that is to say), the tramway revenue, the tramway rate, the city fund and city rate.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects of the Additional Provision, and to confer such rights and privileges as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

To amend or extend or to make applicable to the purposes aforesaid with or without modification the provisions or some of the provisions of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne Corporation Act, 1911, and of any other Act or Order relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation or the city or to the said urban district or rural district or the respective Councils thereof or to the County Council of Northumberland.

Printed copies of the proposed Additional Provision may be obtained at the offices of the undersigned.

Dated this 31st day of March, 1914.
