

of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the county of York, and in the churchyard, be and the same is hereby varied, so that, notwithstanding anything in the said Order in Council, it shall be lawful, subject to the condition hereinafter set forth, to bury the body of the Right Honourable Isabella Anne, Dowager Lady Beaumont, at her decease, in a brick grave in the chancel of the said parish church of Carlton-by-Snaith, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, provided that, within a period of twenty-four hours after the deposit in the grave of the coffin containing the body, the coffin shall be wholly and permanently embedded in and covered with a layer or layers of good cement concrete not less in any part than six inches in thickness.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 16th day of December, 1902, directing (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, in the county of Salop, and in the churchyard:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 28th day of November, 1910, the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902, so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the said parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, was varied in the manner specified in the said Order in Council:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902, so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the said parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, should be further varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 16th day of December, 1902 (so varied as aforesaid), so far as it relates to burials in the churchyard of the parish church of Saint George, Pontesbury, in the county of Salop, be and the same is hereby further varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, the burial of the body of the late Edward Mainwaring Furley, Clerk in Holy Orders, may be allowed in the said churchyard, subject to the conditions that the coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that the grave shall be bricked to the surface of the ground.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, Whitehall,
April 3rd, 1914.

In the Matter of the Baronetcy of Dalryell of Binns.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of Clause IV of the Royal Warrant of the 8th February, 1910, the Secretary of State for the Home Department has referred to the Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council appointed for the purposes of the said Warrant by Order in Council, dated the 5th March, 1910, a Petition presented by Major James Bruce Wilkie Dalryell, to be placed on the Official Roll of Baronets in respect of the Baronetcy of Dalryell of Binns, and that the said Committee has provisionally fixed Wednesday, the 17th day of June next, for the consideration of the said Petition.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person desiring to oppose the said Petition must, not later than Tuesday, the 2nd day of June next, give notice of his intention in that behalf to the Clerk of the Council, Privy Council Office, Whitehall, S.W., and lodge in the Privy Council Office 20 printed copies of his case against the said Petition.
