TUESDAY, 7 APRIL, 1914.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act, 1878, and the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford, and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Bishopricks Act, 1878, and the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the bishoprick of Chelmsford and for the re-arrangement of the boundaries of the diocese of Chelmsford and of the contiguous dioceses of Ely, Saint Albans and Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich and of the patronage of the bishops of the said dioceses.

“Whereas by the seventh section of the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, it is enacted that whenever the certificate therein referred to shall have been given to Your Majesty by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with respect to the endowment fund of any new bishoprick mentioned in the schedule to the said Act, we shall lay before Your Majesty in Council a scheme for all or any of the matters in relation to such new bishoprick which in the same section are mentioned.

“And whereas by the first section of the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, it is enacted that, subject to the modifications set forth in the First Schedule to the same Act, the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, including the repealed portions thereof, shall have effect for the purpose of the foundation of the new bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich as if the Second Schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, were substituted for the Schedule to the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, and as if the last-mentioned Act had become law on the date on which the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, was passed.

“And whereas the bishoprick of Chelmsford is one of the bishopricks mentioned in the said Second Schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, and the said certificate was given by us with respect to the endowment fund of the said bishoprick of Chelmsford on the eighteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and thereupon by an Order of Your Majesty in Council of the twenty-first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, made in pursuance of the said Acts, and reciting that such certificate had been so given as aforesaid, which Order was published in the London Gazette on the twenty-third day of the same month of January, and came into operation on the day of the date of such publication (1) the bishoprick of Chelmsford was founded (2) the diocese of the said bishoprick was declared to consist (subject to the provisions contained in the First Schedule to the Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, as to re-arrangement of boundaries) of the county of Essex and that part of the county of Kent which lies north of the River Thames, (3) the parish church of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex (subject to the rights of the patron and Incumbent thereof), was declared to be the cathedral church of the said bishoprick, and (4) the Bishop of Chelmsford was constituted a body corporate and was invested with all such rights, privileges and jurisdictions as are possessed by any other bishop in England, and was subjected to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"And whereas among the modifications of the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, contained in the said First Schedule to the said Bishopricks of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, it is particularly provided in relation to the said bishoprick of Chelmsford that the scheme made under section seven of the said Bishopricks Act, 1878, in relation to that bishoprick may provide for the transfer of the whole or any part of the county of Bedford from the diocese of Ely to the residue of the diocese of Saint Albans remaining after the founding of the said bishoprick of Chelmsford, and as incidental thereto may provide for the re-arrangement of the patronage of the Bishops of Ely and Saint Albans, and make other necessary provisions therein described.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, the Right Reverend Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of Saint Albans, the Right Reverend Henry Bernard, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, and the Right Reverend John Edwin, Bishop of Chelmsford, do (so far as their respective consents are necessary) consent to this scheme and the several recommendations hereinafter contained, in testimony whereof they have respectively hereto set their hands and episcopal seals:

"Now therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose as follows, namely:—

"4. Until a dean and chapter of and for the cathedral church of the bishoprick of Chelmsford shall have been created, the Bishop of Chelmsford may, as to any and every matter with respect to which the confirmation or other agency of a dean and chapter is by law required for rendering effectual the action of a bishop, take action in such matter without such confirmation or agency, and his action so taken shall not for want of such confirmation or agency be ineffectual or invalid.

"5. During any and every vacancy in the See of Chelmsford, whether such vacancy shall happen before or after the creation of a dean and chapter of and for the cathedral church of the bishoprick of Chelmsford, the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being shall have the custody and be guardian of the spiritualities of the See of Chelmsford.

"6. The archidiaconal supervision of all the parishes, ecclesiastical districts, and other cures and places comprised within the diocese of Chelmsford and the archdeaconry of Colchester or the archdeaconry of Essex, shall remain vested in and be with and in and be exercised by the archdeacons of those archdeaconries respectively, and the said archdeacons shall be officers of the diocese of Chelmsford, and shall not be subject to the episcopal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Saint Albans, but shall be exclusively subject to the episcopal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Chelmsford, and the archidiaconal dignities of the said archdeacons shall be transferred from the cathedral church of Saint Albans to the cathedral church of the bishoprick of Chelmsford, and all the endowments belonging to the said archdeaconries respectively shall continue to belong to the same notwithstanding the transfer of the said archdeaconries from the diocese of Saint Albans to the diocese of Chelmsford.

"7. The archidiaconal supervision of the rural deaneries and parishes hereinbefore recommended to be severed from the diocese of Ely, and to be included in the diocese of Saint Albans (the parish of Tilbrook, in the county of Huntingdon being excepted) shall, with the further exception of the parish of Holwell, in the rural deanery of Shefford, remain or be vested in and be with and in and be exercised by the archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Bedford, and the parish of Swineshead shall be severed from the rural deanery of Kimbolton and archdeaconry of Huntingdon, and shall be included in the rural deanery of Riseley, and the archdeaconry of Bedford, and the said parish of Holwell shall be severed from the rural deanery of Shefford, and shall be included in and form part of the rural deanery of Hitchin, in the archdeaconry of Saint Albans, and the said archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Bedford shall be an officer of the diocese of Saint Albans, and shall not be subject to the episcopal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Ely, but shall be exclusively subject to the episcopal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Saint Albans, and the archidiaconal dignity of the said archdeacon shall be transferred from the cathedral church of Ely to the cathedral church of Saint Albans, and all the endowments belonging to the said archdeaconry shall continue to belong to the same notwithstanding the transfer of the said archdeaconry from the diocese of Ely to the diocese of Saint Albans.

"17. All tithes, tithe apportionments, maps, plans and other documents relating exclusively to any parish or parishes, ecclesiastical districts, or other cures or places situate within the diocese of Chelmsford as hereinbefore defined, or otherwise relating exclusively to the said diocese or relating exclusively to any part or parts of any diocese hereinbefore recommended to be included in any other diocese shall, subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained, be transferred from the custody of the registrar or other officer of the diocese or of the Bishop of the diocese within which the said parish or parishes, ecclesiastical districts, or other cures or places were situate immediately before the foundation of the said diocese of Chelmsford as aforesaid or (as the case may be) are now situate and shall become and be in the custody of such registrar or other officer or officers of the diocese or of the Bishop of the diocese of Chelmsford or other the diocese in which such places are hereinbefore recommended to be included as the Bishop of such diocese shall appoint in that behalf. And as to all documents which may remain in their present custody, although relating to or affecting the bishoprick of Chelmsford or any parish, ecclesiastical district, cure or place now situate in the diocese of Chelmsford as hereinbefore defined, or by this Scheme, and any Order of Your Majesty in Council confirming the same transferred from one diocese to another diocese, the registrar or other officer of the diocese of Chelmsford or other the diocese to which such parish, ecclesiastical district, cure or place shall be so transferred as aforesaid shall be at liberty at all convenient times to inspect such documents and take copies therefrom as freely as the registrar or other officer in whose custody such documents may so remain."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law on and after the thirteenth day of April of the present year, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and that this Order shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of Ely, Saint Albans, Chelmsford, and Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session two), chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria (Session two), chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain works of improvement at Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence belonging to the see of Winchester.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of Winchester, is desirous that certain works should be carried out for the improvement of the laundry at Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence of the see of Winchester, and has submitted to us the particulars of such works, and we have approved the same.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards the cost of the said works a sum of one hundred pounds (being a sum which, together with the two sums of five hundred pounds and nine hundred pounds recently authorized to be borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed two years' income of the see) should be provided by the borrowing of the same sum by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments, or emoluments, which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishop of Winchester.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said see, to the said Governors by deed for the term of thirty years, or until the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid, with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid, with interest, in the manner following: that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successor shall yearly, at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed, and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one twenty-fifth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also, at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from the tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Edward Stuart, now Bishop of the diocese of Winchester, as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being indorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge of the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed works of improvement of the laundry at Farnham Castle, the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Ely and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, and by virtue of an Order of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council made under the provisions of the same Act, and bearing date the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the twentieth day of the same month, certain lands and hereditaments, particularly described in the Schedule marked A to the said Order, became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas none of the said lands and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments formerly belonging to the said bishoprick and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint John Baptist, Crewe, situate within the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Christ Church, Crewe, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, and of the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereinafter written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John Baptist, Crewe, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis John, Bishop of Chester, as such Bishop, with the consents of the Honourable Charles Napier Lawrence, of Number 23, Eaton Square, London, S.W., the Honourable Arthur Henry Holland-Hibbert, of Munden, Watford, in the county of Hertford, Charles James Cropper, of Eller-green, Kendal, in the county of Westmorland, Esquire, and the Honourable Rupert Edward Cecil Lee Guinness, of Number 11, St. James's Square, London, S.W., a member of the Commons House of Parliament, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, and with the consents of the said Charles Napier Lawrence, the said Arthur Henry Holland-Hibbert, Sir Gilbert Henry Claughton, of The Priory, Dudley, in the county of Worcester, Baronet, the Right Honourable Lloyd Kenyon Baron Kenyon, of Gredington, in the county of Flint, and the said Rupert Edward Cecil Lee Guinness, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, and of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said church of Saint John Baptist, Crewe, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Baptist, Crewe.' "

We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John Baptist, Crewe, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Christ Church, Crewe, and of the new parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, which, taken together, are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, at the junction of Ruskin Road with Nantwich Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Nantwich Road (thereby following for a short distance the said boundary) for a distance of thirty-one chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with Mill Street, and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of Mill Street for a distance of twenty-two chains and a quarter, or thereabouts, to its junction with Chapel Street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Chapel Street for a distance of six chains and three-quarters, or thereabouts, to its junction with Edleston Road and Lawton Street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Lawton Street for a distance of eight chains and a half, or thereabouts, to its junction with the street called Derrington Avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of Derrington Avenue for a distance of one chain, or thereabouts, to its junction with Hammond Street, and extending thence westward along the middle of Hammond Street (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall), for a distance of nine chains and a half, or thereabouts, to its junction with Ruskin Road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Ruskin Road for a distance of thirty chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with Nantwich Road, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Paul, Coppenhall, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Crewe, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Caenby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Caenby is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession, free from incumbrances, in Sir Arthur Edward Middleton, of Belsay Castle, in the county of Northumberland, Baronet.

"And whereas the said Arthur Edward Middleton is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Caenby now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to, and be vested in, the Right Reverend Edward Lee, now Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Caenby, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Caenby:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Edward Middleton (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Caenby, now vested in him the said Arthur Edward Middleton as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage and places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop, that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and the said Archbishop, or Bishop, shall draw up a Scheme in writing (the Scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such Scheme, or to such modification thereof, as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such Scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such Scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Hereford hath made a Representation in writing, dated the 9th day of August, 1913, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Hereford, do hereby represent to Your Grace that there is in the county of Salop and my diocese of Hereford the vicarage of Caynham, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, part of the township of Bennetts End.

"That the other part of the said township of Bennetts End was, by Order in Council of the eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty, assigned to the consolidated District of St. Paul, Knowbury, which was formed from the parishes of Bitterley and Caynham, both in the county of Salop and our diocese of Hereford.

"That the part of the said township still remaining within the said parish of Caynham is situate at a distance of two and a quarter miles from the parish church of Caynham and only one quarter to three quarters of a mile from the district church of St. Paul, Knowbury, and the inhabitants of such portion of the said township of Bennetts End are in the habit of attending divine service at the church of St. Paul, Knowbury.

"That in the year 1911 the population of the ecclesiastical parish of Caynham amounted to 405, and the population of the parish of Knowbury to 1,026.

"That the annual value of the said vicarage of Caynham is two hundred and eighty pounds net, arising from tithe, rentcharge and glebe rents (including the estimated value of the vicarage and land belonging), and the annual value of the perpetual curacy of St. Paul, Knowbury, is two hundred pounds gross, arising from payments from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and from Queen Anne's Bounty, glebe rent, and surplice fees.

"That it appears to me that having regard to the close proximity to the Church of St. Paul, Knowbury, of that portion of the said township of Bennetts End still remaining in the parish of Caynham, that such portion may, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 106, and the 2nd and 3rd years of Her said Majesty, chapter 49, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Caynham, and be annexed to the parish of Knowbury, to which it is contiguous.

"That, pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation, describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe, rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, and I do submit the same to Your Grace, together with the consents in writing of Charles Francis Kynaston Mainwaring, the patron of the said vicarage of Caynham; the Reverend Somers Percy Heriz-Smith, the Incumbent of the same benefice; the Prime Minister, the patron on behalf of the Crown of the said benefice of St. Paul, Knowbury; and the Reverend George Russell Gipps, the Incumbent of the same benefice, to the intent that Your Grace may, if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said Scheme, certify the same and such consent to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"It is proposed to transfer to the parish of Knowbury such portion (hereinafter called the portion transferred) of the parish of Caynham as lies on the north-eastern side of a line commencing at Knowbury Hall Farm and proceeding in a southernly or south-eastern direction along the western boundaries of three fields, numbered respectively 577, 576, and 570 on the tithe map of the parish of Caynham to the road leading from Caynham to Knowbury, and thence to the northernmost point of Burford parish (and being Whitton, the second division of that parish), and near to Whiteway Head and thence following the boundary of the parish of Burford, second division aforesaid, in a southernly direction to the south or south-eastern boundary of a field numbered 423 on the tithe map of the parish of Caynham, the eastern side of which is crossed by a brook called the Colly Brook, and thence following in a north-eastern direction the western fence of the said field and across a lane or cart-way leading from The Hollins on the south to Cumberley on the north, and thence following in a northernly direction the eastern fence of the Craft Cottage to a point where same meets the boundary of Hope Bagot parish, and thence following the western side of such last mentioned boundary to the point where it crosses the lane leading to Bennetts End aforesaid (all which portion intended to be transferred is coloured pink on the plan attached hereto).

"That the yearly sum of fifteen pounds shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July out of the annual value of the said vicarage of Caynham to the Incumbent of the benefice of Knowbury.

"That baptisms, churchings, marriages and burials arising out of the portion transferred shall henceforth be performed at the parish church of Knowbury, and that the fees, if any, for all such offices and all Ecclesiastical dues, offerings and other emoluments arising within the limits of the portion transferred, and usually payable to the Incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the Incumbent of the said district church of Knowbury.

"That the Incumbent of the said parish of Knowbury shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the portion transferred.

"That the inhabitants of the portion transferred shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the parish church of Caynham, but shall become liable, in common with the inhabitants of the said parish of Knowbury, to the repairs of the district church of Knowbury. •

"CONSENTS.

"I, Charles Francis Kynaston Mainwaring, of Oteley Park, in the county of Salop, Esquire, the patron or the person entitled to present to the vicarage of Caynham, in the county of Salop and diocese of Hereford, in case the same were now vacant, and I, the Reverend Somers Percy Heriz-Smith, clerk, vicar of the said vicarage, do hereby respectively signify to Your Grace our consent to the scheme above proposed for separating the portion transferred from the parish of Caynham, and annexing same to the parish of Knowbury.

"C. F. K. MAINWARING.

"SOMERS PERCY HERIZ-SMITH.

"I, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Prime Minister of Great Britain, and, on behalf of the Crown, the patron of the benefice of Knowbury, in the county of Salop and diocese of Hereford, and I, the Reverend George Russell Gipps, clerk, Incumbent of the said benefice, do hereby respectively signify to Your Grace our consent to the Scheme above proposed for transferring to the parish of Knowbury the portion transferred.

"H. H. ASQUITH.

"GEORGE RUSSELL GIPPS."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report, dated the 21st day of October, 1913, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of the province of Canterbury, do hereby represent to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Hereford has represented unto us (amongst other things).

"That there is in the county of Salop and his diocese of Hereford the vicarage of Caynham, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, part of the township of Bennett's End, the other part of the said township having been transferred some time since by Order in Council to the consolidated district of St. Paul, Knowbury.

"That the part of the said township still remaining within the said parish of Caynham is situate at a distance of two and a quarter miles from the parish church of Caynham, and only one quarter to three quarters of a mile from the church of Saint Paul, Knowbury.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that under the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 106, and the second and third years of Her said Majesty, chapter 49, such portion of the said township of Bennetts End still remaining in the parish of Caynham (more particularly described in the Scheme appended hereto and coloured pink in the plan annexed to such Scheme) may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Caynham and annexed to the parish of Knowbury, to which it is contiguous.

"That, pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament, the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a Scheme in writing, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebelands, tithe rentcharges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which Scheme, together with the consents thereto, in writing, of Charles Francis Kynaston Mainwaring, the patron of the said vicarage of Caynham; the Reverend Somers Percy Heriz-Smith, vicar of the said vicarage; the Right Honourable Herbert Asquith, K.C., M.P., Prime Minister of Great Britain, on behalf of the Crown, the patron of the benefice of Knowbury; and the Reverend George Russell Gipps, Incumbent of the said benefice, has been transmitted to us for our consideration.

"The Representation and Scheme of the said Lord Bishop of Hereford and the consents above referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we, the said Archbishop, being on full consideration and inquiry satisfied with the said Scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said first mentioned Act of Parliament, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said Scheme into effect.

"RANDALL CANTUAR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.
