His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received a telegram from His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Santo Domingo reporting that a blockade of Puerto Plata has been established by the Government of the Dominican Republic under Presidential Decree of the 9th instant.

Whitehall, May 21, 1914.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to William Broomhall under the following circumstances:—

On the morning of the 26th March, 1914, William Broomhall, a workman employed by the Clay Cross Coal, Lime and Iron Company, and Edwin William Birkumshaw were charging blast furnaces on a platform seventy-five feet above the ground when a severe explosion took place in one of the furnaces, accompanied by an outburst of flaming gases at a high temperature. Birkumshaw was standing about ten feet away from the furnace; his clothing caught fire, and he was severely burned. Broomhall was at the far end of the platform near the other furnace, about fifty feet away. A gale of wind carrying the gases was blowing almost straight down the platform, and he was burned about the face and hands. In attempting to escape, he fell into the hopper of the other furnace. He again reached the platform and heard a cry for assistance. In the teeth of the gale and the flaming hot gases which were still escaping he made his way, at the risk of his life, to Birkumshaw, and succeeded in pulling off his burning clothes. In doing so he sustained further injuries. To add to his danger a wooden cabin and some timber near which he had to pass caught fire, and he also ran the risk of a further explosion in the furnace.

In all probability Broomhall, by his prompt and courageous action, saved the life of his fellow-workman.

Special Extension Order (Unemployment Insurance) Rules, 1914. Dated May 21, 1914.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 113 (1) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, the Board of Trade hereby make the following rules for the conduct of inquiries with regard to Special Orders proposed to be made under Section 103 of the Act:—

(1) The inquiry shall be opened at such time and place as may be fixed by the person appointed by the Board of Trade to hold the inquiry (in these rules referred to as "the Commissioner"), and notice of the time and place so fixed shall be sent by post by the Board of Trade to all persons who have sent to the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Special Order: Provided that the non-receipt of such notice by any such person shall not invalidate the proceedings or render necessary an adjournment of the inquiry.

(2) The Commissioner may adjourn the inquiry from time to time as he sees fit, and may hold adjourned sittings at any place which he thinks necessary for the convenience of persons who objected to the draft Special Order.

(3) The Commissioner may give such directions as he thinks necessary as to the order in which any portions of the draft Special Order and the objections thereto shall be considered, and as to the order in which the parties appearing at the inquiry shall be heard.

(4) If any person who has not made objections to the draft Special Order in accordance with Section 113 (1) claims to be heard at the inquiry, the Commissioner may require him to state his objection in writing in the manner provided by the Ninth Schedule to the National Insurance Act, 1911.

(5) If the objections to any draft Special Order made by more than one person appearing at the inquiry appear to the Commissioner to be the same in substance, he may select any person whom he considers representative of the largest number of persons affected by the draft Special Order to state such objections, and to call evidence (if required) in support of such objections. Any other person making the same objections may be heard subsequently by consent of the Commissioner.

(6) The Commissioner may stop any statement which appears to him to be irrelevant to the draft Special Order or objection under consideration, or to involve unnecessary repetition of arguments already fully stated.

(7) Subject to the provisions of Section 113 (1) and to the foregoing rules, all the proceedings shall be conducted in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

(8) These rules may be cited as the Special Extension Order (Unemployment Insurance)
