A STATE OF WAR.

His Majesty's Government informed the German Government on August 4th, 1914, that, unless a satisfactory reply to the request of His Majesty's Government for an assurance that Germany would respect the neutrality of Belgium was received by midnight of that day, His Majesty's Government would feel bound to take all steps in their power to uphold that neutrality and the observance of a treaty to which Germany was as much a party as Great Britain.

The result of this communication having been that His Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin had to ask for his passports, His Majesty's Government have accordingly formally notified the German Government that a state of war exists between the two countries as from 11 p.m. to-day.

Foreign Office,
August 4th, 1914.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace.

The 4th day of August, 1914.

PRESENT.

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY being mindful, now that a state of war exists between this Country and Germany, of the recognition accorded to the practice of granting "days of grace" to enemy merchant ships by the Convention relative to the Status of Enemy Merchant Ships at the Outbreak of Hostilities, signed at The Hague on the 18th October,

1907, and being desirous of lessening, so far as may be practicable, the injury caused by war to peaceful and unsuspecting commerce, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. From and after the publication of this Order no enemy merchant ship shall be allowed to depart, except in accordance with the provisions of this Order, from any British port or from any ports in any Native State in India, or in any of His Majesty's Protectorates, or in any State under His Majesty's protection or in Cyprus.

2. In the event of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being satisfied by information reaching him not later than midnight on Friday, the seventh day of August, that the treatment accorded to British merchant ships and their cargoes which at the date of the outbreak of hostilities were in the ports of the enemy or which subsequently entered them is not less favourable than the treatment accorded to enemy merchant ships by Articles 3 to 7 of this Order, he shall notify the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty accordingly, and public notice thereof shall forthwith be given in the "London Gazette," and Articles 3 to 8 of this Order shall thereupon come into full force and effect.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order, enemy merchant ships which

- (i.) At the date of the outbreak of hostilities were in any port in which this Order applies; or
- (ii.) Cleared from their last port before the declaration of war, and, after the outbreak of hostilities, enter a port to which this Order applies, with no knowledge of the war:

shall be allowed up till midnight (Greenwich mean time), on Friday, the fourteenth day of August, for loading or unloading their cargoes, and for departing from such port:

Provided that such vessels shall not be allowed to ship any contraband of war, and any contraband of war already shipped on such vessels must be discharged.

4. Enemy merchant ships which cleared from their last port before the declaration of war, and which with no knowledge of the war arrive at a port to which this Order applies after the expiry of the time allowed by Article 3 for loading or unloading cargo and for departing, and are permitted to enter, may be required to depart either immediately, or within such time as may be considered necessary by the Customs Officer of the port for the unloading of such cargo as they may be required or specially permitted to discharge.

Provided that such vessels may, as a condition of being allowed to discharge cargo, be required to proceed to any other specified British port, and shall there be allowed such time for discharge as the Customs Officer of that port may consider to be necessary.

Provided also that, if any cargo on board such vessel is contraband of war or is requisitioned under Article 5 of this Order, she may be required before departure to discharge such cargo within such time as the Customs Officer of the port may consider to be necessary; or she may be required to proceed, if necessary under escort, to any other of the ports specified in Article 1 of this Order, and shall there discharge the contraband under the like conditions.

5. His Majesty reserves the right recognised by the said Convention to requisition at any time subject to payment of compensation enemy cargo on board any vessel to which Articles 3 and 4 of this Order apply.

6. The privileges accorded by Articles 3 and 4 are not to extend to cable ships, or to sea-going ships designed to carry oil fuel, or to ships whose tonnage exceeds 5,000 tons gross, or whose speed is 14 knots or over, regarding which the entries in Lloyd's Register shall be conclusive for the purposes of this Article. Such vessels will remain liable on adjudication by the Prize Court to detention during the period of the war, or to requisition, in accordance, in either case, with the Convention aforesaid. The said privileges will also not extend to merchant ships which show by their build that they are intended for conversion into warships, as such vessels are outside the scope of the said Convention, and are liable on adjudication by the Prize Court to condemnation as prize.

7. Enemy merchant ships allowed to depart under Articles 3 and 4 will be provided with a pass indicating the port to which they are to proceed, and the route they are to follow.

8. A merchant ship which, after receipt of such a pass, does not follow the course indicated therein will be liable to capture.

9. If no information reaches one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by the day and hour aforementioned to the effect that the treatment accorded to British merchant ships and their cargoes which were in the ports of the enemy at the date of the outbreak of hostilities, or which subsequently entered them, is, in his opinion, not less favourable than that accorded to enemy merchant ships by Articles 3 to 8 of this Order, every enemy merchant ship which, on the outbreak of hostilities, was in any port to which this Order applies, and also every enemy merchant ship which cleared from its last port before the declaration of war, but which, with no knowledge of the war, enters a port to which this Order applies, shall, together with the cargo on board thereof, be liable to capture, and shall be brought before the Prize Court forthwith for adjudication.

10. In the event of information reaching one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that British merchant ships which cleared from their last port before the declaration of war, but are met with by the enemy at sea after the outbreak of hostilities, are allowed to continue their voyage without interference with either the ship or the cargo, or after capture are released with or without proceedings for adjudication in the Prize Court, or are to be detained during the war or requisitioned in lieu of condemnation as prize, he shall notify the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty accordingly, and shall publish a notification thereof in the "London Gazette," and in that event, but not otherwise, enemy merchant ships which cleared from their last port before the declaration of war, and are captured after the outbreak of hostilities and brought before the Prize Courts for adjudication, shall be released or detained or requisitioned in such cases and upon such terms as may be directed in the said notification in the "London Gazette."

11. Neutral cargo, other than contraband of war, on board an enemy merchant ship which is not allowed to depart from a port to which this Order applies, shall be released.

12. In accordance with the provisions of Chapter III of the Convention relative to certain Restrictions on the Exercise of the Right of Capture in Maritime War, signed at The Hague on the 18th October, 1907, an undertaking must, whether the merchant ship is allowed to depart or not, be given in writing by each of the officers and members of the crew of such vessel, who is of enemy nationality, that he will not, after the conclusion of the voyage for which the pass is issued, engage while hostilities last in any service connected with the operation of the war. If any such officer is of neutral nationality, an undertaking must be given in writing that he will not serve, after the conclusion of the voyage for which the pass is issued, on any enemy ship while hostilities last. No undertaking is to be required from members of the crew who are of neutral nationality.

Officers or members of the crew declining to give the undertakings required by this Article will be detained as prisoners of war.

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and each of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and all Governors, Officers, and Authorities whom it may concern are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

And whereas a state of war at present exists between Great Britain and Germany:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Aliens entering the United Kingdom.

Aliens not to land at prohibited ports.

2.—(1) An alien shall not land in the United Kingdom at a prohibited port:

Provided that—

(a) where an aliens officer is satisfied that an alien friend who has arrived at a prohibited port had embarked for that port before this Order came into operation, and may safely be permitted to land, he may grant him permission accordingly; and

(b) where a Secretary of State is satisfied that an alien friend has arrived at a prohibited port in ignorance of the provisions of this Order or in any other circumstances entitling him to special consideration, and may safely be permitted to land, he may grant him permission accordingly; and

(c) subject to the provisions of this Order the foregoing prohibition shall not, unless in any particular case an aliens officer so directs, apply to an alien friend who is the master or a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at a prohibited port, if whilst he is on shore he complies with such requirements (if any) as may be imposed upon him or upon masters and seamen generally by an aliens officer at the port;

and any alien friend who lands in accordance with this proviso, and, if conditionally disembarked, who complies with the conditions, shall not be liable to any penalty for landing at the port in question.

Alien enemies not to land without permits.

3. An alien enemy shall not land in the United Kingdom at an approved port, unless provided with a permit issued by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

4. An alien arriving at an approved port may, if a Secretary of State so directs, or if an aliens officer at the port is satisfied that he cannot safely be permitted to land in the United Kingdom, be treated as though the port were a prohibited port.

Detention of aliens arriving in United Kingdom.

5. An alien landing in contravention of this Order, and an alien arriving at any port in circumstances in which he is prohibited from landing, may, until dealt with under this Order, be detained in such manner as a Secretary of State may direct, and whilst so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

Provided that where an aliens officer considers that an alien friend arriving at any port may safely be permitted to land with any such articles as aforesaid in his possession, he may permit him to land accordingly, and the foregoing provisions of this article shall not apply.

Conditional Landing.

7. An alien conditionally disembarked under the directions of an aliens officer for the purpose of inquiry or examination shall not for the purposes of this Order be deemed to have landed so long as the conditions are complied with.

(c) subject to the provisions of this Order the foregoing prohibition shall not, unless in any particular case an aliens officer so directs, apply to an alien friend who is the master or a member of the crew of a vessel leaving a prohibited port; and any alien friend who embarks in accordance with this proviso shall not be liable to any penalty for embarking in the United Kingdom at the port in question.

Provision as to Alien Enemies Leaving a Port Without Having Landed.

9. Where an alien enemy is about to leave any port on board a vessel on which he has arrived at the port he may for the purposes of this Order, if a Secretary of State so directs or if it appears necessary to an aliens officer in the interests of public safety, be treated as though he had embarked at that port in contravention of this Order, but shall not be subject to any fine or imprisonment for so embarking.

Alien Enemies not to Embark without Permit.

10. As from a date to be fixed by a Secretary of State an alien enemy shall not, except in pursuance of an order of deportation under this Order, embark in the United Kingdom at an approved port, unless provided with a permit issued by a Secretary of State:

Provided that an alien enemy about to embark in the United Kingdom at an approved port either before such date as aforesaid, or after that date when provided with such permit as aforesaid, may, if a Secretary of State so directs, or if in the opinion of an aliens officer he cannot safely be permitted to embark, be treated as though the port were a prohibited port.

Detention of Aliens Embarking.

14. The master of a ship about to call at any port shall, if so required by a Secretary of State or an aliens officer, receive an alien and his dependants, if any, on board his ship and afford him or them a passage to that port, and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage, and, if the ship is the same or belongs to the same owners as the ship in which the alien arrived in the United Kingdom, shall, if so required as aforesaid, afford such passage, accommodation, and maintenance free of charge.

Offences in relation to aliens officers.

16. If any alien, master of a ship, or other person arriving at or leaving any port lands or embarks without the permission of an aliens officer, or refuses to answer any question reasonably put to him by an aliens officer, or makes any false return, false statement, or false representation to an aliens officer, or refuses to produce any document in his possession which he is required by an aliens officer to produce, or obstructs or impedes an aliens officer in the exercise of his powers or duties under the Order, he shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order.

Prohibition on alien enemies residing in prohibited areas.

19. An alien enemy shall not reside or continue to reside either temporarily or permanently in any of the areas specified in the Second Schedule to this Order (in this Order referred to as prohibited areas) unless provided with a permit issued by the registration officer of the district, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State, and every alien enemy who at the time of the making of this Order is resident in a prohibited area shall within four days, unless in the meantime he obtains such a permit aforesaid, leave that area, having first reported his proposed residence to the registration officer of the registration district which he is leaving.

(d) if a registered alien ceases to be resident in his district, record the fact in the register.

(3) The obligation of a registration officer to enter particulars upon the register shall not be affected by the fact that the particulars may not have been furnished within the time required by this Order, without prejudice, however, to the liability of an alien to a penalty for not furnishing the particulars within the required time.

(4) Every alien shall furnish to the registration officer, in addition to any such particulars as aforesaid, any information which may reasonably be required for the purpose of registering the alien, or maintaining the correctness of the particulars entered on the register.

Provided that in the case of an alien enemy having a bonâ fide place of business more than five miles from his registered place of residence the registration officer may, if he thinks fit, grant a permit enabling him to travel to or from his place of business which shall be renewable from time to time as and when the registration officer so directs.

Where it appears to a superintendent or inspector of police, or any police officer of higher rank, that the case is one of great emergency, and that in the interests of the State immediate action is necessary, he may by a written order under his hand give to any constable the like authority as may be given by the warrant of a justice under this Article.

1911 TO 1913.

Notice is hereby given, under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed by the National Health Insurance Joint Committee, after the expiration of at least 40 days from this date, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Section 16 (1) of the National Insurance Act, 1913, and by the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912 and 1913, to make regulations prescribing the method of taking a poll of the members of an Approved Society, who are resident in a part of the United Kingdom other than that in which the registered office of the Society is situate, for the purpose of ascertaining whether they desire to be treated as if they formed a separate society for the purposes of Part I of the National Insurance Act, 1911, relating to valuations, surpluses, deficiencies and transfers.

Copies of the draft regulations can be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from Messrs. Wyman and Sons, Ltd., 29, Breems Buildings, Fetter Lane, London, E.C., and 54, St. Mary Street, Cardiff; or Clerk-in-Charge, Publications Department, H.M. NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Entry into Insurance) Order (Wales), 1914, dated 31st July, 1914, made by the Welsh Insurance Commissioners under Sections 78 and 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. V, c. 55).

Whereas by Section 78 read with Section 82 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called the "principal Act"), it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to bringing into operation in Wales Part I. of that Act, the

Welsh Insurance Commissioners, with the consent of the Treasury may, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for bringing that part of that Act into operation in Wales, and that any such order may modify the provisions of that Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by Section 5 of the principal Act as amended by sub-section (2) of Section 2 of the National Insurance Act, 1913 (in this Order called the "amending Act"), it is provided that in the case of a person who enters into insurance within sixty-five weeks after the commencement of the principal Act, the voluntary rate shall, if he is below the age of 45 at the date of entering into insurance, be the same as the employed rate, and shall, if he is of the age of 45 or upwards, be at the rate therein referred to, being a rate of contribution lower than that ordinarily applicable to a person entering insurance after the expiration of the said period of sixty-five weeks:

And whereas by sub-section (2) of Section 43 of the amending Act, that Act is deemed to be part of Part I. of the principal Act:

And whereas shortly before the 12th day of October, 1913 (being the last day of the said period of sixty-five weeks), many persons, being desirous of becoming voluntary contributors, applied to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners for the issue to them of contribution cards for that purpose, or, being desirous of becoming members of Approved Societies as voluntary contributors, applied to those Societies for membership thereof, and it is apprehended that by reason of delay in the consideration of those applications, such persons may have failed to enter into insurance before the 12th day of October, 1913, and in consequence thereof have been deprived of the benefit of paying contributions at the rates applicable to persons entering into insurance before that date, and a difficulty has thereby arisen within the meaning of the said Section 78:

Now, therefore, the Welsh Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the National Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1913, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. Where a person, entitled on the 12th day of October, 1913, to be a voluntary contributor, applied in writing on or before that date to an Approved Society to become a member of that Society as a voluntary contributor, or to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners for the issue to him of a contribution card in order that he might become a voluntary contributor, but had not paid any contribution before the 12th day of October, 1913, he shall, if he paid a contribution in respect of the week ending on that date within three months thereof, be deemed to have entered into insurance during that week, and where he applied as aforesaid to an Approved Society, he shall, if the application was accepted within three months after the 12th day of October, 1913, be deemed to have become a member of that Society at the time when he is so deemed to have entered into insurance.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Entry into Insurance) Order (Wales), 1914.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Welsh Insurance Commissioners this 31st day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

(L. S.)

Thomas Jones,

Secretary to the Welsh Insurance Commissioners.

We consent to this Order,

John W. Gulland,
Wedgwood Benn,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their office at Whitehall, London, on or before the twenty-fifth day of August, 1914.

(DATED 4TH AUGUST 1914.)

ANIMALS (LANDING FROM IRELAND) AMEND-MENT ORDER OF 1914 (No. 23).

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

PART I.

Revocation of Existing Orders.

1. The Animals (Landing from Ireland) Amendment Orders of 1914 (Nos. 19-22) are hereby revoked.

Regulation of Landing.

2. Cattle, sheep, goats or swine brought from Ireland shall not be landed in Great Britain except in accordance with the provisions of the Animals (Landing from Ireland) Orders of 1913, as amended by this Order.

PART II.

Landing of animals intended for movement, out of Landing Place after ninety-six hours' detention.

3.—(1) Cattle, sheep, goats or swine landed at any Landing Place or part thereof described in the First Schedule hereto shall be subject to the provisions of the Animals (Landing from Ireland) Orders of 1913, except that the animals shall not be moved from the Landing Place until the expiration of ninety-six hours after the landing of the last animal of the cargo, and then only in accordance with the following provisions of this Article.

(2) Any swine accompanied by a licence granted under the Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Order of 1906 may be moved from the Landing Place with the permission of an Inspector of the Board. Such swine shall be subject to the provisions of that Order as to subsequent movement and as to detention and isolation after arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence.

(3) The removal of any other animal from the Landing Place must be authorised by a licence granted by an Inspector of the Board.

(4) Before the issue of a licence under the preceding paragraph (3) for movement from the Landing Place each animal to which the licence relates shall be marked in such manner as may be required by an Officer of the Board.

(5) Each animal moved with a licence granted by an Inspector of the Board shall be moved to a slaughterhouse or other place of detention specified in the licence, and not elsewhere, and (except as hereinafter provided) shall be there detained and isolated, under the supervision of a Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority, from other animals for a period of fourteen days after the date of its arrival, unless it is previously slaughtered in the place of detention; provided that the animal may, with the written authority of an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the place of detention is situate, be allowed to come in contact in the place of detention with other animals, and in case of such contact all the animals shall become liable to detention and isolation as if they had been moved to the place of detention under the same licence.

(6) Animals moved under this Article shall be moved by the nearest available route, and as far as practicable by railway, and during such movement shall not be permitted to come in contact with animals not being moved under this Article.

(7) Animals landed at any Landing Place or part thereof referred to in this Article and intended to be slaughtered in the Landing Place shall not be so slaughtered until the expiration of ninety-six hours after the landing of the last animal of the cargo, unless such slaughter is required by a Veterinary Inspector of the Board under Article 24 (Injured Animals) of the Animals (Landing from Ireland) Order of 1913.

PART III.

Special Provisions as to Animals Destined for Manchester and Deptford Irish Animals Landing Places.

5.—(1) Animals, if intended to be landed at the Manchester Landing Place under this Order, shall not be carried through the East-ham lock until they have been examined by a Veterinary Inspector of the Board, and unless and until the Inspector certifies that his examination and information do not show that there is, or during the voyage has been, an animal on board affected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

(2) A vessel conveying animals intended to be landed at the Deptford Landing Place shall not, whilst any of such animals are on board, enter any port in Great Britain other than the Port of London.

PART IV.

GENERAL.

6. The landing of any animals under this Order must be authorised by the Superintendent or person in charge of the Landing Place.

Provisions as to Licences.

7.—(1) Where animals are moved with a licence under this Order, the licence shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up to an Inspector of the Local Authority, or be delivered up at, or sent by post, to the nearest Police Station in the same

District, by the person in charge of the animals at the time of completing the movement.

(2) A movement licence granted under this Order shall be in force for four days, inclusive of the day of issue.

(3) A copy of a licence under this Order shall be sent by the Inspector granting the licence to the Clerk of the Local Authority of the District in which the place of detention is situate.

Conditional Permits.

8. An Inspector of the Board may impose conditions on the removal of anything from a Landing Place for which a permission granted by an Inspector is required, and if any person fails to comply with any such condition which is specified in the permission and which he is thereby required to observe he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Movement from Landing Place subject to other Orders and to Regulations.

9. Nothing in this Order or in any Order relating to the landing or movement of animals brought from Ireland shall be deemed to authorise the movement of an animal in contravention of an Order of the Board or a Regulation of a Local Authority.
