

of the number of persons present and voting make the following alterations in the aforesaid Statutes as altered by the said amending Statutes.

STATUTE XXIII. OF THE ELECTION OF SCHOLARS.

By repealing Sections 1 and 2 of Statute XXIII and substituting therefor the following Sections to form respectively amended Sections 1 and 2 of the same Statute.

1. The Scholars shall be elected by the Governing Body at a meeting duly summoned in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes. When an examination has been held for the purposes of selection this meeting shall be held at the earliest convenient date subsequent to the examination. The Governing Body being met together in the College there shall be read in their presence the foregoing Statute "Of the Scholars" and a list of the names of the persons recommended for election. The votes shall be taken by means of written voting papers which shall be filled up and delivered to the Master by those present. The Master shall audibly declare his own and the other votes and shall declare those persons to be elected Scholars who shall have obtained the votes of a majority of the electors present or of a moiety including the Master. Provided that the election to each Scholarship shall not necessarily be by separate voting.

2. The persons elected Scholars shall be admitted at once or at such subsequent meeting of the Governing Body as may be convenient. Each before he is admitted shall make the following declaration in the presence of a meeting of the Governing Body. "I A.B. hereby declare that I will faithfully observe the Statutes of this College so far as they concern me. I will pay due respect and obedience to the Master and all others in authority and will set an example of order and diligence and good conduct, and to the best of my ability I will promote everything which shall tend to the honour and advantage of the College and the University." And thereupon the Master shall admit the person or persons elected in the customary form.

STATUTE XLIII. OF THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE COLLEGE REVENUE.

By repealing Section 4 of Statute XLIII and substituting therefor the following section to form amended Section 4 of the same Statute.

4. The residue shall be divided into such a number of equal parts as will give

32 parts to the Scholarship Fund
9 parts to the Education Fund
4 parts to a fund to be called the Reserve Fund
10 parts to the Master
5 parts to each Senior and Junior Fellowship and one part to each Senior Fellow who has for fifteen years held and is still holding the office of Dean Tutor Bursar Lecturer or Assistant Tutor (whether the office so held has been the same throughout or not) and such parts shall be paid accordingly. Provided that if at any time the payment of the five parts allotted to each Senior and Junior Fellow would exceed two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) the excess above two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) shall be devoted to such other purposes as the Governing Body shall determine.

Given under our Common Seal this 29th day of July, 1914.

Privy Council Office, 10th August, 1914.

The following STATUTES made by the Governing Body of Queens' College, Cambridge, on the 20th day of June, 1914, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTES to add to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to Queens' College in the University of Cambridge duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the twentieth day of June, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and passed at such Meeting by the unanimous vote of all persons present and voting (there being then present the President and eight Fellows) and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

We the President Fellows and Scholars of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the fifty-fourth section of the said Act add to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the said Commissioners in relation to our said College in the following manner namely:— Statutes xiii, xiv, and xxii. By revoking these Statutes and by substituting therefor the following Statutes, namely:—

XIII. Of Honorary Fellows.

The Governing Body, at a special Meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of at least three-fourths of their whole number may elect as Honorary Fellows of the College any persons distinguished in Science or Literature or who have done good service to the State or to the University. The Governing Body may by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship. Honorary Fellows shall not by virtue of such Fellowship possess any voice or authority in the College, nor be entitled to any emolument. With these exceptions, the Governing Body may grant them such privileges as they think fit.

XIV. Of the proceeding to Degrees by Fellows and of the Vacation of Fellowships.

Every Fellow who at the time of his election is a member of the University, but has not taken any Degree qualifying him to be a member of the Senate, shall proceed to some Degree so qualifying him as soon as he is of standing to take such Degree.

Fellows not so proceeding to their Degrees in due course, unless prevented by illness or other cause to be approved by the Governing Body, shall forfeit their Fellowships.

Every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at
