

to be destroyed, or any property to be moved from one place to another, or to be destroyed;

(e) to do any other act involving interference with private rights of property which is necessary for the purpose aforesaid.

3. The competent naval or military authority and any person duly authorised by him shall have right of access to any land or buildings, or other property whatsoever.

4. The competent naval or military authority may by order require all vehicles, boats, and vessels, and all forms of equipment and warlike stores, within any area specified in the order to be removed from that area within such time as may be so specified, or in the case of military stores incapable of removal to be destroyed, and if the owners thereof fail to comply with the requisition, the competent naval or military authority may himself cause them to be removed or, in the case of military stores, destroyed.

5. Where the competent naval or military authority so orders, all persons residing or owning or occupying land, houses, or other premises within such area as may be specified in the order, shall furnish within such time as may be so specified a list of all or any animals, vehicles, boats, vessels, and warlike stores which may be in their possession or custody within the specified area, stating their nature and quantity, and the place in which they are severally situated, and giving any other details that may reasonably be required.

6. The competent naval or military authority may by order require the inhabitants to leave any area (specified in the order) within or in the neighbourhood of a defended harbour if the removal of persons from that area is necessary for naval or military reasons.

7. The competent naval or military authority may by order require all premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor within or in the neighbourhood of any defended harbour to be closed except during such hours as may be specified in the order.

8. No person shall obstruct or otherwise interfere with or impede, or withhold any information in his possession, which he may reasonably be required to furnish, from, any officer or other person who is carrying out the orders of the competent naval or military authority, or who is otherwise acting in accordance with his duty under these regulations.

9. No person shall trespass on any railway, or loiter under or near any bridge, viaduct, or culvert, over which a railway passes.

10. If any person knows that any other person has without lawful authority in his possession or custody, or under his control, any firearms or ammunition (other than shot guns and ammunition for them), dynamite, or other explosives, it shall be his duty to inform the competent naval or military authority of the fact.

11. The competent naval or military authority shall publish notice of any order made by him in pursuance of these Regulations in such manner as he may consider best adapted for informing persons affected by the order, and no person shall without lawful authority deface or otherwise tamper with any notice posted up in pursuance of these Regulations.

12. If the competent naval or military authority has reason to suspect that any house, building, land, ship, vessel, or other premises are being used for any purpose or in any way prejudicial to the public safety or the defence of the Realm, the authority, or any person duly authorised by him, may enter, if need be by force, the house, building, land, ship, vessel, or premises at any time of the day or night, and examine, search, and inspect the same or any part thereof, and may seize anything found therein which he has reason to suspect is being used or intended to be used for any such purpose as aforesaid.

13. Any police constable, officer of customs, or any other person authorised for the purpose by the competent naval or military authority, may arrest without warrant any person whose behaviour is of such a nature as to give reasonable grounds for suspecting that he has acted or is acting or is about to act in a manner prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the Realm, or upon whom may be found any article, book, letter, or other document, the possession of which gives grounds for such a suspicion, or who is suspected of having committed an offence against these Regulations.

Any person so arrested shall, if he is to be tried by court-martial, be handed over to or kept in military custody, and in other cases shall be detained until he can be dealt with in the ordinary course of law, and whilst so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

No person shall assist or connive at the escape of any person who may be in custody under this Regulation, or knowingly harbour or assist any person who has so escaped.

PART II.

Regulations specially designed to prevent persons communicating with the enemy and obtaining information for disloyal purposes, and to secure the safety of means of communication and of railways, docks, and harbours.

14. No person shall without lawful authority publish or communicate any information with respect to the movement or disposition of any of the forces, ships, or war materials of His Majesty or any of His Majesty's allies, or with respect to the plans of any naval or military operations by any such forces or ships, or with respect to any works or measures undertaken for or connected with the fortification or defence of any place, if the information is such as is calculated to be or might be directly or indirectly useful to the enemy.

15. No person shall without the permission of the competent naval or military authority make any photograph, sketch, plan, model, or other representation of any naval or military work, or of any dock or harbour work in or in connection with a defended harbour, and no person in the vicinity of any such work shall without lawful authority have in his possession any photographic or other apparatus or other material or thing suitable for use in making any such representation.

For the purpose of this Regulation the expression "harbour work" includes lights, buoys, beacons, marks, and other things for the purpose of facilitating navigation in or into a harbour.
