

have been made by the Board of Trade, entitled the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912, and dated May 6th, 1912, and the Unemployment Insurance (Supplementary) Regulations, 1913, and dated January 8th, 1913, respectively, now the Board, in further exercise of their powers under the said section of the National Insurance Act, 1911, and in exercise of their powers under the National Insurance (Part II Amendment) Act, 1914, and all other powers in this behalf, make the following Regulations:

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Supplementary) Regulations, 1914, and shall be construed as one with the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912, and the Unemployment Insurance (Supplementary) Regulations, 1913.

(2) These Regulations shall come into operation on the date hereof.

2. In these Regulations the expression "the Act" means the National Insurance Act, 1911, and the expression "the amending Act" means the National Insurance (Part II Amendment) Act, 1914.

3. The following sub-section (4) shall be added to Regulation 3 of the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912:—

"(4) Whilst the employer is responsible for the custody of the book in accordance with these Regulations, he shall produce it for inspection at any reasonable time when required to do so by an Inspector appointed for the purposes of Part II of the Act."

4. Regulation 13 of the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912, is hereby repealed, and the following Regulation shall be substituted therefor:—

Where a Court of Referees have recommended that a claim for unemployment benefit should be allowed, and the recommendation has been referred by the Insurance Officer to the Umpire, the workman shall be entitled to receive unemployment benefit as from the date of the recommendation until the claim is finally determined by the Umpire as if the Insurance Officer had not disagreed with the recommendation and in accordance with sub-section 3 of section 2 of the amending Act such benefit received by the workman shall, except as is hereinafter provided, be deemed to be duly paid, and shall not be recoverable from the workman;

Provided that where for the purpose of obtaining such benefit the workman has made any false statement or representation or has concealed any material facts, he shall, without prejudice to any other liability under section 101 of the Act or otherwise, be liable to repay to the Unemployment Fund the amount of such benefit received by him whilst the statutory conditions were not fulfilled in his case, or whilst he was disqualified for receiving unemployment benefit, and the amount of such benefit may, in accordance with sub-section 5 of section 101 of the Act, be recovered as a debt due to the Crown.

5. The following paragraph shall be added after the words "on the Court" in Regulation 21 (1) of the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912:—

"Provided that any claim or question which is reported or referred to a Court of Referees may be proceeded with in the absence of any member or members of that Court other than the Chairman, but only if the claimant or person or Association in whose case the question arises consents, and in such case the Court shall be deemed to be properly constituted, and the Chairman shall, if the number of the members of the Court is an even number, have a second or casting vote."

6. The expression "Insurance Year" referred to in sub-section 2 of section 18 of the amending Act means—

(i) the period commencing on the 15th day of July, 1914, and ending on the 17th day of July, 1915;

(ii) thereafter the period commencing on the day next after the last day of the preceding insurance year, and ending on the Saturday nearest to the 14th day of July in the following calendar year, and so on from year to year.

Signed by Order of the Board of Trade this 10th day of August, 1914.
