Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, August 24, 1914.

H. 11936.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Telegram, dated the 19th August, from His Majesty's Consul-General at Alexandria stating that quarantine measures have been imposed against Trebizond.

Admiralty, S.W., 19th August, 1914.

Whereas it is provided by sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Pilotage Act, 1913, that "if any master or mate who is not a British subject shows to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade that he is the master or mate of a ship which is of substantially the same class, and is trading regularly between the same ports as a foreign ship which, on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and six, was except from the obligation to carry a licensed pilot, or had habitually been piloted by a master or mate of the ship who held a pilotage certificate, the Board of Trade may authorise the master or mate to apply to the Pilotage Authority for a pilotage certificate under this Act, and the provisions of this Act as to the granting of a pilotage certificate shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, extend to a master or mate so applying for a certificate, although he is not a British subject, as they extend to a master or mate who is a British subject:

"Provided that if the Admiralty at any time consider that, on the grounds of public safety, the provisions of this sub-section should not be applicable with respect to any pilotage district, or part of a pilotage district, they may make an order excluding that district, or part of a district, from the operation of those provisions; and while any such order is in force with respect to any such district, or part of a district, a certificate granted under those provisions shall not be of any effect within that district or part of a district."

And whereas the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom consider that on the grounds of public safety the provisions of the said sub-section should not be applicable with respect to the pilotage districts, or parts of pilotage districts, hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, the said Commissioners hereby order that the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Pilotage Act, 1913, shall not be applicable with respect to the following pilotage districts, that is to say, the Isle of Wight pilotage district, the Plymouth pilotage district, the Milford pilotage district, the Bristol pilotage district, and the Liverpool pilotage district.

Given under our hands this 19th day of August, 1914.
