

shall not again reside in that area without a permit for the purpose from that authority."

6. In Regulation 27, after the words "for the purpose of assisting the enemy" there shall be inserted the following words "or in respect of any contravention of Regulation 21 if the offender proves that he acted without any intention to cause disaffection or alarm."

7. At the end of Regulation 29 the following words shall be inserted:

"The Admiralty or Army Council may authorize the competent naval or military authority to delegate, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, all or any of their powers under these Regulations to any officer qualified to be appointed a competent naval or military authority."

8. The Defence of the Realm Regulations, 1914, shall apply in respect of any area (in these Regulations referred to as "a proclaimed area") which may for the time being be proclaimed by the Admiralty or Army Council to be an area which it is necessary to safeguard in the interests of the training or concentration of any of His Majesty's forces in like manner as they apply in respect of a harbour or defended harbour as the case may be, and accordingly in Regulations 6, 7, 17, 20, 22, 23 and 24 the words "or proclaimed area" shall be inserted after the word "harbour" wherever it occurs.

9. These Regulations may be cited as the Defence of the Realm (No. 2) Regulations, 1914.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of September, 1914.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the effect:—

That an Order should be issued withdrawing the prohibition on the exportation from the United Kingdom of Jams and Marmalades and of Condensed Milk, sweetened or not, established by His Majesty's Proclamation dated the 20th August, 1914:

Now, therefore, Their Lordships having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved:

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
