

issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby proclaim, direct, and ordain as follows:—

1. If on the presentation for payment of a bill of exchange which has before the fourth day of September, nineteen hundred and fourteen, been re-accepted under the terms of Our said Proclamation, dated the second day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, the bill is not paid, then, the said Proclamation shall, in its application to that bill, have effect as if the period of two calendar months had been in the Proclamation substituted for the period of one calendar month, and the sum mentioned in the form of re-acceptance under the said Proclamation shall be deemed to be increased by the amount of interest on the original amount of the bill for one calendar month calculated at the Bank of England rate current on the date when the bill is so presented for payment as aforesaid.

2. Our said Proclamation, dated the sixth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, as extended by Our said Proclamation, dated the twelfth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, shall apply to payments which become due and payable on or after the fourth day of September and before the fourth day of October, nineteen hundred and fourteen (whether they become so due and payable by virtue of the said Proclamations or otherwise) in like manner as it applies to payments which became due and payable after the date of the said first-mentioned Proclamation and before the beginning of the fourth day of September, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

3. Nothing in this Proclamation shall affect the payment of interest under the Proclamations extended thereby, or prevent payments being made before the expiration of the period for which they are postponed.

4. Our said Proclamation, dated the first day of September, nineteen hundred and fourteen, is hereby revoked.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and in the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Islington.
Mr. Pease.
Sir William Carington.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which in the opinion of His Majesty was passed for the purpose of meeting any emergency created by the present war, subject to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Postponement of Payments Act, 1914, shall extend to the Isle of Man, adapted as set out in the Schedule hereto.

Almeric FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE.

POSTPONEMENT OF PAYMENTS ACT, 1914.

(1). Our Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man may, with Our consent, signify to him by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, by Proclamation, authorize the postponement of the payment of any bill of exchange, or of any negotiable instrument, or any other payment in pursuance of any contract, to such extent, for such time, and subject to such conditions or other provisions, as may be specified in the Proclamation.

(2). No additional Stamp Duty shall be payable in respect of any instrument as a consequence of any postponement of payment in pursuance of a Proclamation under this Act unless the Proclamation otherwise directs.

(3). Any such Proclamation may be varied, extended, or revoked, by any subsequent Proclamation, and separate Proclamations may be made dealing with separate subjects.

(4). The Proclamations dated the 8th day of August, 1914, relating to the postponement of payment of certain bills of exchange and of certain other payments are hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed to have been made under this Act.

2.—(1). This Act may be cited as the Postponement of Payments Act, 1914.

(2). This Act shall remain in force for a period of six months from the date of the passing thereof.

[In substitution for the Order in Council published in the Supplement to the London Gazette of Tuesday, the 1st of September, 1914, pp. 6968-9.]

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 12th day of August, 1914, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the Defence of the Realm Regulations, 1914) under the Defence of the Realm Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the Realm:

And whereas by the Defence of the Realm (No. 2) Act, 1914, the power of making Regulations under the first mentioned Act was extended:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said Regulations in manner herein provided:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the Defence of the Realm Regulations, 1914:—

1. After Regulation 3 the following Regulations shall be inserted:—

“3A. The competent naval or military authority may by order authorise the use of land within such limits as may be specified in the order for the training of any part of His
