(2) The master of a vessel arriving at or leaving any port shall not permit any persons to land or to embark without the sanction of an aliens officer at the port.

(3) Where a person lands or embarks at any port in contravention of this Order, the master of the vessel from which he lands or on which he embarks shall, unless he proves the contrary, be deemed to have aided and abetted the offence.

Obligation to afford passage to Aliens.

14. The master of a ship about to call at any port shall, if so required by a Secretary of State or an aliens officer, receive an alien and his dependants, if any, on board his ship and afford him or them a passage to that port, and proper accommodation and maintenance during the passage, and, if the ship is the same or belongs to the same owners as the ship in which the alien arrived in the United Kingdom, shall, if so required as aforesaid, afford such passage, accommodation, and maintenance free of charge.

Prohibition on alien enemies residing in prohibited areas.

18.—(1) An alien enemy shall not enter, or reside or continue to reside either temporarily or permanently in, any of the areas specified in the Second Schedule to this Order (in this Order referred to as prohibited areas) unless provided with a permit issued by the registration officer of the district, subject to the general or special instructions of a Secretary of State.

(2) A Secretary of State may by order, after consulting the Admiralty and the Army Council, add any area to the list of prohibited areas in the said Schedule, or remove any area or part of an area from that list; and this Order shall thereupon have effect accordingly.

(b) where any such permit is granted to any person with a view to his leaving one registration district and going to reside in another, the permit may, at the end of the period for which it was issued, be delivered to the registration officer of the new district instead of being returned to the registration officer by whom it was granted; and

(c) in the case of an alien enemy having a bonâ fide place of business more than five miles from his registered place of residence the registration officer may, if he thinks fit, grant a permit enabling him to travel to or from his place of business, which shall be renewable from time to time as and when the registration officer so directs.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Special Constables Act, 1914, power is conferred on His Majesty to make regulations with respect to the appointment and position of special constables appointed during the present war under the Special Constables Act, 1831, or under section one hundred and ninety-six of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and by those regulations to make such provisions as are in the said Act mentioned.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The power to nominate and appoint special constables under the Special Constables Act, 1831, may, during the present war, be exercised although a tumult, riot, or felony has not taken place or is not immediately apprehended.

2. Any special constable so appointed shall be appointed for the preservation of the public peace, and for the protection of the inhabitants, and the security of property in the police area for which, or for any part of which, the justices making the appointment act.

3. The declaration to be made by a special constable shall be made in the following form:—

I, _____ of _____ do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm that I will well and truly serve Our Sovereign Lord the King in the office of special constable, without favour or affection, malice or illwill; and that I will to the best of my power cause the peace to be kept and preserved, and prevent all offences against the persons and properties of His Majesty's subjects; and that while I continue to hold the said office I will to the best of my skill and knowledge discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law.

4. A special constable shall throughout the police area for which he is appointed, and also in any adjoining police area, have all the powers, privileges, and duties which any constable duly appointed has within his constable-wick by virtue of the common law or of any statute for the time being in force.

5. All special constables shall in the execution of their duty act under the direction and control of the chief officer of police of the police area for which they are appointed, except that in exceptional circumstances they shall, if the Secretary of State so directs, act under the direction and control of such other authority as the Secretary of State may designate.

6. A special constable may, with the consent of the chief officer of police or other authority under whose direction and control he acts, resign his office, and the chief officer of police or such other authority may at his pleasure determine the service of, or suspend or dismiss, any special constable.

7. Any person who puts on the dress or accoutrements or takes the name, designation, or character of a special constable for any unlawful purpose shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

8. Any expenses incurred in respect of special constables may, if the police authority so directs, be paid out of the police fund.

9. If any special constable is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, or if he dies from the effect of any injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, the police authority may grant him or to his widow and children a pension or pensions and allowances at the same rates as under the Police Act, 1890, are payable in the case of police constables who have completed not more than five years' service and are drawing pay at the rate of five shillings a day, and all such pensions and allowances shall be paid out of the police fund.

10. For the purposes of this Order the expression "police area" means one of the areas set forth in the first column to the schedule hereto, and the expressions "police authority," "chief officer of police," and "police fund" mean, as respects each police area the authority, officer, and fund respectively mentioned opposite the area in the second, third, and fourth columns of that schedule.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Order the Special Constables Act, 1831, as amended by any subsequent enactment, or as the case may require, section one hundred and ninety-six of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, shall apply to the special constables appointed under those enactments respectively.

12. This Order shall apply as respects special constables appointed since the commencement of the present war whether before or after the date of the making of this Order, and the appointments of special constables made before that date are hereby confirmed: but nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring special constables appointed before that date to make a new declaration under this Order.
