

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 20. to Monday July 24. 1693.

Rome, June 4.

ON Monday last the Constable of Colonna presented to the Pope, in the name of the King of Spain, the yearly Tribute for the Kingdom of Naples, which was performed with the usual solemnity. Several Conferences have been held here this Week, for adjusting the difference between the Emperor's Ambassador and this Court; and in the mean time the Servants of the former, who assaulted the Sbirris or Officers of Justice, are privately re- tized from hence. The Spanish Fleet continues still at Naples.

Milan, July 6. Our Troops are on their march towards Piedmont; a Detachment of them invested the Castle of St. George near Casal on the 30th past, and raised a Battery against it of 4 pieces of Cannon and Mortars, and the 3d instant the Garrison Capitulated, and was to be conducted to Turin, and from thence to Pignerol or Susa. Our Governor the Marquis de Leganes is gone to Turin, to confer with the Duke of Savoy about the designs of the Campagne.

Venice, July 10. By a Vessel from Corfu we have advice, That the Doge Morosini was arrived there, and designed to Sail again on the 20th, having taken on Board several Companies of Soldiers that were raised in that Island for the service of the Republick. From the Morea we have advice, That Lieutenant-General Domenigo had drawn the Venetian Forces together near Napoli di Romania, consisting of 12000 Foot and 3000 Horse, and that with the Troops that were expected with the Doge, from Dalmatia, &c. they proposed to have an Army this Campagne of 20000 Men; which the Turks were not in a condition to oppose, the Serasquier of the Morea having only with him a Body of 7 or 8000 Men, whom he had posted near the Isthmus of Corinth. From Constantinople we have advice, That the Grand Visier had pitched his Tents near Adrianople; but that it would be the middle of June at soonest before he could be ready to begin his march towards Belgrade, and the end of July before he could reach that place.

Dantzick, July 8. By Letters from Warsaw we understand, that the new Envoy from the Cham of Tartary was arrived there, and had had Audience of the King of Poland, to whom he represented, That the Cham his Master was very desirous to see a Peace re-establish'd between the Ottoman Port and the Crown of Poland, and had sent him with Proposals in order thereunto; He was answered by the Crown General, That the King would consult with the Senate and give him a speedy dispatch. The same Letters add, That the Troops of Poland, who were assembled about Gliniani, were ordered to advance towards Craslow; That the Cossacks had obtained a great advantage over the Tartars; and that the Moscovites made preparations to attack the Fortrefs of Precop, which is in the possession of the Tartars, and had commanded the Cossacks, under the subjection of the Czars, to joyn their Army, and to provide themselves with Provisions for four months.

Vienna, July 15. We have an account from Hungary, That the Imperial Army, consisting of 32000 Men passed the Danube on the 7th instant near Veris Marton, with Orders to advance on that side the River towards Peter Waradin, by reason the ways about Esficke are very marshy and unpassable through the great overflowings of Waters; The Army will continue between the Danube and the Theysse, till they are joyned by the Auxiliary Troops of Brandenburg; and the Imperial Regiments who lately took Jeno, and are now marching by the way of Segedin and Zelnock towards the Danube.

Francfort, July 23. The Dauphin and the Marshal de Lorge, who joyned some days ago at Swerzingen, are separated again; The first is encamped near Bretten, and the other near Pfortzheim. Prince Lewis of Baden lay by our last advice very advantageously Posted between Neckars Ulm, and Kockendorf, where the Saxon and Hessian Hoite have in all probability by this time joyned him, and the Foot will do so in 2 or 3 days more.

Copenhagen, July 21. The King of Denmark has given Orders for an Encampment of 8000 Foot and 4000 Horse at Oudestoe, with a Design, as 'tis said, to oblige the Duke of Lunenburg to demolish the Fortifications newly made at Ratzbowg, and to put that Town, and the whole Duchy of Saxe Lawenburg, by way of Sequestration, into the hands of the Emperor, or the Directors of the Circle of the Lower Saxony, until the dispute about the Succession of the said Duchy be determined by the Imperial Chamber. The King intends to go for Holstein on Wednesday next, and General Wedel, who Commands the Troops, went away yesterday.

Hamburg, July 24. We hear that the King of Denmark is going to form a Camp of 10 or 12000 men near Oudestoe in Holstein; and that the Troops are ordered to be all there on the 4th of the next month. There are at present 3 or 4000 men in Ratzburg; and the Dukes of Lunenburg have ordered 3000 men more to march towards the Elbe to reinforce that Garrison, if it shall be found necessary.

Paris, July 24. An Express arrived at this Court some days ago with the News, That the English and Dutch Streights Convoy was fallen in with the French Fleet off of Cape St. Vincent; but the particulars are not yet made publick, they expecting to hear farther from Monsieur Tourville. They write from Flanders, that Huy was invested on the 19th by the Marquis de Harcourt, on the side of the Condros, and by the Count de Guiscard on the other side of the Meuse; and that the Duke of Villeroy made the Siege with a detachment from the Duke of Luxemburg's Army which was Encamped with its Right at Falais, and its Left on Val de nostre dame. The 18th in the evening ing the Enemy forced our Lines between the Schilde and the Lys, the Marquis de la Valette, who was Posted with 6 or 7000 at Ottigney, retiring 2 Leagues beyond Lille; The Enemy have since sent out their Parties to raise Contributions. They write from Germany, That the Dauphin marched towards Hailbron.

From His Majesty's Camp at Nether Hefpen, July 27. On Friday last the Army Marched from Vellem to Hopertinge, where His Majesty received advice, That the Castle of Huy was surrendered the day before about Noon, the Garrison having Capitulated to be conducted to Liege; whither His Majesty detached on Saturday 20 Battalions, and the same day the whole Army marched, and returned to this place. The Duke of Luxemburg is Encamped between the Mehaigne and the Jecker, having sent a detachment towards Flanders. The Duke of Wirtemberg continues within the Enemies Lines, where he is raising very large Contributions.

Hague, July 28. N.S. The Letters from Cadiz of the 4th instant, bring a List of divers English and Dutch Ships of the Streights Fleet that were come to Cadiz, St. Lucar, and Gibraltar (which is the same with that we received by the way of the Groyne, and which has already been made publick in the Gazette) among whom are four English Turkey Ships, the Shandois, the Asia, the Italian-Merchant, and the Loyalty. The Merchant-Men at Cadiz lay behind the Pontall, being so well secured by the Batteries a-shore, and the other Provision that had been made for their defence, that they were under no apprehensions of the Enemy. Of the English we hear but of one Ship burnt, to wit, the Joseph, William Morris Commander, and none taken. Of the Dutch, two Men of War Commanded by Captain Van Poel, and Scryvers, are taken, after having made a very stout resistance; 7 Merchant Ships taken, and 4 burnt; one Hamburg burnt, and 4 or 5 taken. The French Fleet had lain several days before Cadiz; and 'twas said they would return to the Bay of Lagos to expect the Count d'Estree, of whom our last advice is, that he was seen the 26th past-off of Uivica, Steering Westward. There are Letters which say, That the Troops of Saxony and Hesse had joyned Prince Lewis of Baden, whose Army is reckoned to be by this Conjunction 5000 stronger than the Enemies under the Dauphin and the Mareschal de Lorge. They write from Brussels of the 26th, That they had advice the night before, that the Duke of Wirtemberg had routed near Pont a Trefin 2000 French Horse; and that he had extended the Contributions a great way beyond Lille.

Plymouth, July 18. The Fleet Sailed yesterday out of Torbay, and this afternoon came in here the Discovery Brigantine, which left them off of this Harbour plying to the Westward, the Wind at S.W.

Chester, July 19. The Lord Capel and the Lord Justice Duncombe are come to this place, where they stay for a fair Wind in order to Embark for Ireland.

Whitehall, July 22. Their Majesties have been graciously pleased to constitute the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Sydney, Master General of the Ordnance.

These are to give Notice, That the Governor, Assistants, and Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, commonly called the Hamburg Company, for encouraging the exportation of the Woolen Manufacture, have resolved, and Ordered, That all and every of Their Majesties Subjects (Handycrafts Men only excepted) that desire to take the Freedom of the said Company, (upon application to the Governor of the said Company in London, or to the respective Deputies of the said Company at York, Hull, or Exon) shall and may be admitted thereunto on or before the 25th day of March, 1694. for Forty Shillings Fine: And that all persons whatsoever shall have Liberty until the said 25th day of March next, without any molestation or interruption of or from the said Company, to Export the Woolen Manufactures of this Kingdom, into Holland, Zealand, Brabant, Flanders, and the other places of the said Companies Privileges, Excepting the Rivers of Elbe, Weser, and Eyder, and places adjacent.

These are to give Notice, That the Lotteries are lately reduced to so small a number, and under such regulations, as hath been by experience found the most effectual way and means to suppress all such as are without any Licence or Authority (who are far the greater number) and whose Affairs have occasioned the common prejudice, so generally conceived against the Lotteries; and which has lately caused the present Farmers to Publish a Printed Paper to this purpose; to which all Persons concerned are further referred for more particular satisfaction: Desiring all Civil Magistrates to suppress all such unlicensed Persons, according to the prohibition in Their Majesties Grant of the Lotteries to that purpose; there being never a Lottery allowed or set up in the City of London.

Whereas a Plate of 50 l. value is to be run for in Quinton Meadow, in the County of Buckingham, on the last Wednesday in August next; These are to give Notice, that every Horse, which runs for the said Plate, must be shewn, and have his name entered by the Steward, or his Deputy, at the George-Inn in Aylesbury, on the Thursday before, between the hours of three and five in the afternoon.

Advertisements.

This present Monday will be Published, Examens Poeticum, being the Third Part of Miscellany Poems, containing variety of new Translations of the Ancient Poets: With many Original Copies never before Printed. By the most eminent Hands. Publish'd by Mr. Dryden. Printed for Jacob Tonson at the Judges-Head in Chancery Lane near Fleetstreet.

*† The second Volume of Medicinal Experiments by the Honourable R. Boyle Esq; being a Collection of Choice and safe Remedies, containing about 300 New Receipts Published from the Authors Original Manuscripts, with a large Preface written by the Author's own hand, designed for the use of Private Families, and Country people in 120. Printed for S. Smith, and B. Walford, at the Princes Arms in St. Pauls Church-yard.

‡ Of Contentment, Patience and Resignation to the Will of God. Several Sermons. By Isaac Barrow, D. D. late Master of Trinity College in Cambridge, and one of His Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary. Second Edition. Printed for M. Bazou Aylmer, and are to be sold by James Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

‡ On Thursday the 27th of July, will be sold by Auction, at Tom's Coffee-house without Ludgate; The Curious Collection of Drawings, Books of Mathematicks, Architecture and Perspective, &c. late of Mr. Isaac Rowi; containing 300 Uprights, and 1200 Ground Plots of Houses, Churches, &c. 10 in each Lot: They will be exposed to view on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the afternoons before the Sale: The Sale to begin exactly at 3 in the Afternoon.

Stolen the 16th instant out of the house of Mr. Wil. Clement Archdeacon of Bath, 24 l. in old Gold, and 60 l. and upward in Guineas and Silver; 1 Table-Diamond set between two others, with 4 Sparks on the sides; 2 lesser Focket-Diamonds at 5 l. value each; a small Diamond Ring, with 5 or 6 Rubies round it like a Rose; a Table-Emerald, with 2 small Diamonds on each side; 4 Chrysal Locketts set in Gold, with Hair; 4 Gold Rings, &c. Whoever brings them to Mr. Robert Waring of the Inner-Temple, London, or to Mr. Clement at Bath, shall have 10 Guineas reward.

Lost out of the Grounds of William Player of little Walden Park in Essex, a Chestnut Sorrel Gelding above 14 hands, full aged, a blaze down his Face; and a Brown-bay Gelding above 14 hands, full aged, a Star in his fore-head, with several small bumps about his Shoulders and Neck. Whoever gives Notice of them to W. Patch, Postmaster of Saffron-Walden in Essex, or to Mr. Higgins Cabinet-maker near Fuller's Rents in Holborn, London, shall have a Guinea reward for each.

Thomas Buctroud, Butcher, went from his House at Wimbleson in Surrey on Monday the 26th past (upon suspicion of Felony) on an old Gelding betwixt a Chestnut and a Dun with Flaxen Main and Tail, three parts of the Main storn: He is a middle-sized Man, aged about 35, speaks thick, and hath lank Flaxen Hair: Whoever secures him, and gives Notice to Mr. Tho. Nuthall at Roehampton in Surrey; or to Mr. John Blackstone at the Unicorn in Newgate-Market, London, shall have a Guinea Reward.

Stolen out of the Grounds of Tho. Chappell of Chippenham in Wilts on the 11th instant, a brown Mare with a White Tail, about 14 hands, no white about her, her Hair worn off the Buttocks: Also about 34 Ells of Flaxen Cloth full Ell wide, worth 2 s. 6 d. per Ell. Supposed to be stolen by Tho. Lewis, a short thick Welshman, with a Yellowish Coat, and a sad coloured Brock. Whoever secures the Mare or Cloth, and gives notice to Mr. William Lord at the Golden Horseshoe in the Strand, London, or to Tho. Chappell aforesaid, shall have a Guinea, and Charges.

Stolen or strayed out of the Grounds of Mr. Rob. Sumerville at Aston in Gloucestershire, the 5th instant, a Gray Roan Nag Colt, 14 hands, well made, Deck'd short: a white Tail, marked L upon his Hip and Shoulder, 3 years old. Whoever gives notice of him to the Minister of Aston aforesaid, or to Mr. Webb on old Fishers Hill, London, shall have 3 Guineas and reasonable Charges.

Bright Bay Gelding, with no white, and all his goings above 14 Hands, a large head, and a short Tail strayed out of great Gaddelton Grounds in Hertfordshire. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Will. B-mford, at the Grayhound in Smithfield: or to Mr. Wimpey at Dintstable, shall have a Guinea Reward.

T His
Co
for number, w
to Marsilles
War under
the Ocean.
made a Pea
ral French S
pursuance th
Milan, J
Fort of St
Articles as v
at Discretio
sent to Nova
rins, who w
as Rebels to
the French S
which was
Duchy by C
Emperor
remain abou
Troops are Venice, J
have Advice
detached 15
buck, which quence to the
sent: but a Turks havin
their Troops
to reinforce
farther, Tha
liged the En
Post between means their
open to our I Parties had n
brought back
themselves in Warsaw, J
that our Tro
me do great
ving defeated
were detach
Neighbourin
taken a Con
guard of sever
of them kille
Turks at C