FRIDAY, 18 SEPTEMBER 1914.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF TRADE TO TAKE POSSESSION OF ARTICLES OF COMMERCE WHICH ARE BEING UNREASONABLY WITHHELD FROM THE MARKET.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by the Second Section of the Articles of Commerce (Returns, etc.) Act, 1914, it is enacted as follows:—

“(1) If from any such return as aforesaid” (meaning the return provided for by Section 1 of the said Act) “or from any other source of information the Board of Trade are of opinion that any article of commerce is being unreasonably withheld from the market, they may, if so authorized by His Majesty’s Proclamation (made generally or as respects any particular kind of article of commerce) and in manner provided by the Proclamation, take possession of any supplies of the article, paying the owners of the supplies such price as may, in default of agreement, be decided to be reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, by the arbitration of a Judge of the High Court selected by the Lord Chief Justice of England in England; by a Judge of the Court of Session selected by the Lord President of the Court of Session in Scotland; and by a Judge of the High Court of Ireland selected by the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland in Ireland.”

“(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as preventing the Board of Trade exercising their powers under this Section without having first obtained, or endeavoured to obtain, returns under this Act.”

AND WHEREAS WE, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, deem it necessary and expedient that the Board of Trade should be authorized in manner following:—

Now WE, by and with the advice aforesaid, do hereby authorize the Board of Trade, if from any such return as aforesaid, or from any other source of information, they are of opinion that any article of commerce is being unreasonably withheld from the market, to take possession of any supplies of such article, paying the owner of such supplies such price as in default of agreement may be decided to be reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, by the arbitration of a Judge of the High Court selected by the Lord Chief Justice of England in England; by a Judge of the Court of Session selected by the Lord President of the Court of Session in Scotland; and by a Judge of the High Court of Ireland selected by the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland in Ireland; and for the purpose of so taking possession of any such article as aforesaid We do further authorize that any Officer of the Board or any Officer of any other Government Department or any other person authorized in that behalf by the Board may enter any premises on which he has reason to believe that there is kept or stored any such article and take possession thereof.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this seventeenth day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and in the Fifth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the 12th day of August, 1914, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the Defence of the Realm Regulations, 1914), under the Defence of the Realm Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the Realm:

And whereas it is expedient to amend such Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendment be made in the said Regulations:—

1. After Regulation 7 the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

7A. The Secretary of State may by order direct that all or any lights, or lights of any class or description, shall be extinguished, or obscured in such manner and between such hours as the order directs, within any area specified in the order and during such period as may be so specified, and if the person having control of the light fails to comply with the order, the Secretary of State may cause the light to be extinguished or obscured as the case may be, and for that purpose any person authorised by the Secretary of State in that behalf or any police constable may enter the premises in which the light is displayed, and do any other act which may be necessary for the purposes.

2. After Regulation 12 the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

12A. No person shall bring into the United Kingdom any military arms or ammunition without the permit of the competent naval or military authority, and any person authorised for the purpose by the competent naval or military authority, and any police constable or officer of customs, may examine, search and investigate any ship for the purpose of the enforcement of this provision, and may seize any military arms or ammunition which are being or have been brought into the United Kingdom without such permit as aforesaid.

3. The power of arrest conferred on police constables and officers of customs by Regulation 13 shall be exercisable, and be deemed always to have been exercisable, without any authorization from a competent naval or military authority, and accordingly that regulation shall have effect as if for the words "Any police constable, officer of customs, or other person authorised for the purpose by the competent naval or military authority" there were substituted the following words:—"Any person authorised for the purpose by the competent naval or military authority, and any police constable or officer of customs."

4. At the end of Regulation 16, the following words shall be inserted after the words added by Regulation 3 of the Defence of the Realm (No. 2) Regulations, 1914:—

"No person shall without such permission as aforesaid bring any carrier or homing pigeon into the United Kingdom, and any police constable or officer of customs may cause any such pigeon brought into the United Kingdom in contravention of this Regulation to be immediately returned in the ship in which it came, or to be liberated."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, under sub-section (4) of section two of the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty has power, by Order in Council, to provide, amongst other things, that that Act shall have effect subject to such limitations as may be contained in the Order:

And whereas it is desirable that that Act shall have effect subject to the limitation hereinafter set out:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, nineteen hundred and fourteen, shall have effect subject to the following limitation, that is to say, that sub-section (1) of section one thereof shall not apply in the case of any proceedings for the levying of any fine, or for the enforcement of the payment of any sum due under a recognizance, or for the enforcement of any order of affiliation or any order enforceable in the same manner as an order of affiliation.

2. This Order may be cited as the Courts (Emergency Powers) Order, 1914.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Special Constables Act, 1914, as applying to Scotland, power is conferred on His Majesty to make regulations with respect to the appointment and position of special constables appointed during the present war under the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, so far as relating to special constables, the corresponding provisions of any local Act, and the Special Constables (Scotland) Act, 1914, and by those regulations to make such provisions as are in the said Act mentioned:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. If any special constable appointed under any of the above-mentioned Acts is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, or if he dies from the effect of any injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, the police authority may grant to him or to his widow and children a pension or pensions and allowances at the same rates as are payable in Scotland in the case of police constables who have completed not more than five years' service and are drawing pay at the rate of five shillings a day, and all such pensions and allowances shall be paid out of the police fund.

2. Any person who puts on the dress or accoutrements or takes the name, designation, or character of a special constable for any unlawful purpose shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

3. For the purposes of this Order the expressions "police authority" and "police fund" shall have the same meaning as in the Police (Scotland) Act, 1890.

4. This Order shall extend to Scotland only, and may be cited as the Special Constables (Scotland) Order, 1914.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of September, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 7th day of March, 1913, to establish a fixed minimum rate of pension of £95 per annum for Commissioned Warrant Officers, exclusive of Chief Schoolmasters:

"And whereas we consider that, in the case of Officers who retire from Your Majesty's Naval Service before reaching the age of 55, this minimum rate of pension should only be granted if they have served 10 years since promotion to Warrant rank:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to establish minimum rates of pension for Commissioned Warrant Officers (exclusive of Chief Schoolmasters) who may hereafter be promoted to that rank and who retire before reaching the age of 55 years, as follows:—

"With 10 years' service as Warrant Officer and Commissioned Warrant Officer combined £95 a year.

"With over 5 years and under 10 years £75 a year.

"With under 5 years £60 a year.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of September, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of September, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 4th day of March, 1884, an allowance of 5s. a day is sanctioned for the Accountant Officer of the Depôt Ship at Malta, and by Order in Council of His late Majesty bearing date the 2nd day of April, 1909, it is provided that Accountant Officers of Depôt Ships for Torpedo Boat Destroyers in Home Waters shall receive allowances on the following scale:—

2	6	a day when the average numbers borne per Quarter in Depôt Ship and Tenders exceed 1,000.
4	0	a day when the average numbers borne per Quarter in Depôt Ship and Tenders exceed 1,500.
5	0	a day when the average numbers borne per Quarter in Depôt Ship and Tenders exceed 2,000.

“And whereas in consequence of certain duties connected with the Mediterranean flotilla of Torpedo Boat Destroyers having been transferred from the Depôt Ship at Malta to a Seagoing Depôt Ship, we consider the allowance to the Accountant Officer of the Depôt Ship at Malta should be at the rate of 2s. 6d. a day; and we further consider that the Senior Accountant Officers of Destroyer Depôt Ships abroad should receive similar allowances to those provided for Accountant Officers of Destroyer Depôt Ships at home.

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the grant of allowances on the above sliding scale to the Senior Accountant Officer of any Depôt Ship for Torpedo Boat Destroyers in Fleets abroad, with effect as from the 5th May, 1914, and to approve of the allowance to the Accountant Officer of the Depôt Ship at Malta being fixed at the rate of 2s. 6d. a day from the date upon which the instruction for the reduction of the allowances is received at Malta.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Astbury.

No. 00283 of 1914.

In the Matter of RAGOSINE and CO. Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of The Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the High Court of Justice for confirming a resolution of the above Company for reducing its capital from £30,000 to £26,660. A list of persons admitted to have been creditors of the Company on the 5th day of September, 1914, may be inspected at the offices of the Company at Albion Wharf, Bow, London, E., or at the office of the undersigned, at any time during usual business hours, on payment of the charge of one shilling. Any person who claims to have been on the last mentioned date and still to be a creditor of the Company, and who is not entered on the said list and claims to be so entered, must, on or before the 30th day of September, 1914, send in his name and address, and the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any) to Harold George Brown, a member of the firm of Linklater, Addison and Brown, at 2, Bond-court, Walbrook-London, E.C., or, in default thereof, he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.—Dated this 18th day of September, 1914.

LINKLATER, ADDISON and BROWN, Solicitors for the said Company.

In the County Court of Northumberland, holden at Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

S. 2853.

In the Matter of the SHOTLEY LODGE ESTATES COMPANY Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the County Court of Northumberland, holden at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, dated the 20th day of August, 1914, confirming the reduction of the capital of the above named Company from £30,000 to £24,000, and the Minute approved by the Court, showing with respect to the capital of the Company as altered the several particulars required by the above Statute, was registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on the 10th day of September, 1914.

The Minute is in the words and figures following:—
“The capital of the Shotley Lodge Estates Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £24,000, divided into 30,000 shares of 16s. each, instead of the original capital of £30,000, divided into 30,000 shares of £1 each. Ten thousand of the said shares have been issued, and at the time of registration of this Minute the sum of 10s. has been and is to be deemed to be paid up on each of the said 10,000 shares which have been issued.”

Dated this 15th day of September, 1914.
