The expression "application" means an application to the Court under section one of the Act.

Courts by which Powers under Act are to be Exercised.

2. For the purposes of paragraph (a) the Court to which application is made shall be the Court by which the judgment or order for the payment or recovery of a sum of money has been given or made or in which it is being sought.

3. For the purposes of paragraph (b)—

(1) In cases where any action, suit, or other proceeding (including any action in ejectment for non-payment of rent) shall be instituted by a creditor (whether as landlord, mortgagee or otherwise) to obtain a judgment, decree or order of a Court of appropriate jurisdiction adjudging him entitled to any such right or remedy as is mentioned in paragraph (b)—

The Court to which application is to be made shall be the Court in which any such action, suit or proceeding shall be instituted or is being heard.

(2) In cases where a creditor intends to exercise any remedy mentioned in paragraph (b) which he claims to be entitled to exercise without previously instituting any action, suit or proceeding in any Court for the purpose of having his right thereto adjudicated upon—

The Court to which application is to be made may be—

(a) in any case, the High Court;

(b) alternatively, in cases where the value of the subject-matter (as hereinafter defined) of the application does not exceed one hundred pounds, the County Court; and

(c) as a further alternative, in the case of distress for rent where the aggregate rent payable under the lease or contract of tenancy under which the rent sought to be distrained for is claimed would not exceed the rate of £15 a year if the letting continued for a year; or in cases where it is sought to enforce either the lapse of a policy to which sub-section (1) of section one of the Act applies, or a hire-purchase agreement the original liability on which does not exceed twenty pounds, a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

in the case of an application for leave to levy distress, the amount for which distress is proposed to be levied; in the case of an application for leave to take, resume, or enter into possession of any property, or to exercise any right of re-entry, including cases of recovery or possession of land for non-payment of rent, the amount of the sum or rent sought to be recovered;

in the case of an application for leave to foreclose, or realise any security, the amount of the principal sum secured; in the case of an application for leave to forfeit any deposit, the total amount payable in respect of which the deposit has been made; and in the case of an application for leave to enforce the lapse of a policy of insurance to which sub-section (1) of section one of the Act applies, the amount ultimately recoverable under the policy.

(4) Applications shall, in the absence of special circumstances, be made to a County Court or to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, as the case may be, where application to such a Court is permitted by this Rule.

The Court may order any increased costs occasioned by disregard of this sub-rule to be borne by the applicant.

Where an application is made to the High Court which in the opinion of that Court ought to have been made to a County Court or to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, the case may, if thought fit, be remitted or transferred to the proper Court; and where an application is made to a County Court which in the opinion of that Court ought to have been made to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, the County Court may remit or transfer the case to a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

4.—(1) In cases under paragraph (a) when a judgment or order has been already made application shall be made as follows:—

To the High Court by summons, to be served at such time and in such manner and to be dealt with according to such practice generally as may be in conformity with the practice of the Court, or division of the Court, in question.

To the County Court by notice of motion, to be served upon the debtor in the manner prescribed for the service of notices by the County Courts (Ireland) Orders, 1890, or any amendment thereof, three clear days before the first day of the sessions in the place at which such application is to be heard unless the County Court shall, in any case where special circumstances in the opinion of the Court exist, permit such other service as shall appear just to such Court.

To a Court of Summary Jurisdiction by a summons to be served in the manner and within the time prescribed for the service of ordinary summonses to said Court.

Every such summons or notice shall be entitled in the matter of the action or proceeding in which such judgment or order has been made, and of "The Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914," and the substance of the proposed application and the time and place of making same having been stated therein, there shall be appended to every such summons or notice the note in Form I in the Schedule to these Rules.

(2) In cases under paragraph (a) where no judgment or order has been already made, application may be made at the time of the making of the judgment or order without any summons. Provided that unless the debtor is actually present by himself or his solicitor at the time of the making of the judgment or order such application shall not be entertained unless the creditor shall have served on the debtor, in accordance with the practice of the Court in question as to the service of summonses, a notice of intention to make the application, which shall be in the form or to the effect set out in Form II in the Schedule to these Rules.

(3) Any such notice as in sub-rule (2) of this Rule mentioned may be served either with the writ, civil bill, summons or other document originating the proceedings or at any later time not being less than two clear days before the making of the judgment or order unless in any case the Court shall otherwise order.

and as to substituted service and otherwise shall apply to the service of a notice under this Rule as if such notice were a summons.

5.—(1) (a). In cases to which sub-rule (1) of Rule 3 aforesaid applies, an application for leave to execute or otherwise enforce any judgment, decree or order therein mentioned may be made by the creditor at the time of making such judgment, decree or order, without any summons or notice, if the Debtor shall then be actually present by himself or his solicitor, but otherwise no such application shall be entertained at the time aforesaid, unless the Creditor shall have previously served upon the Debtor, in accordance with the practice of the Court in question as to the service of summonses or notices, a notice of intention to make the application, which shall be in the form or to the effect set out in Form II in the Schedule to these Rules, and may be served with the writ, civil bill, summons or other document originating the proceedings or at any later time, not being less than two clear days before the making of the judgment decree or order, unless in any case the Court shall otherwise order.

(b) If such application is not made until after the making of such judgment, decree or order as aforesaid, the mode and form of application shall mutatis mutandis be that prescribed by Rule 4 (1) hereof.

(2) In cases to which sub-rule (2) of Rule 3 applies:—

Applications if made to the High Court—

(a) Shall be made by way of originating summons and shall be dealt with in chambers in accordance with the practice of the division of the High Court in which the application is made, but any such application may be adjourned into court at any stage of the proceedings or during the hearing.

(b) Application shall be to the Division of the High Court which ordinarily deals with subject matters similar to the subject matter of the application. Any application made in contravention of this sub-rule may be remitted to the proper division, but may, if it is thought fit, notwithstanding anything in this sub-rule, be dealt with by the division in which it is made.

(c) The debtor shall not be required to enter any appearance to any such originating summons as aforesaid, and service of same shall be made as in the case of summonses other than originating summonses under Order 54, Rule 5 of the Rules of the Supreme Court (Ireland), 1905.

(b) Every such application shall be made in the division of the County where the Debtor resides unless the Judge shall otherwise direct on being satisfied that same can be more conveniently heard in any other division.

(c) Every such application shall be grounded on an originating notice entitled in the matter of "The Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914," in the form or to the effect set out in Form IV in the Schedule to these Rules.

relief required by him. But if any contest arises between the parties the court to which the application is made may make such requirements or give such directions as to evidence on the part of either party or both parties as the case shall require.

Whereas by paragraph 5 (1) of the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2, dated September 9th, 1914, the payment of any sum of money to or for the benefit of any person or body of persons resident in the territories of the German Empire or in the Dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary or in the respective colonies and dependencies thereof, in this licence and in the said Proclamation referred to as "enemy country," is prohibited:

And whereas by paragraph 8 of the said Proclamation it is provided that nothing in the Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by the licence of a Secretary of State, whether such licence be expressly granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons:

The KING has taken into His Royal consideration that upon the decease of John Douglas Sutherland, Duke of Argyll, which happened on the 2nd day of May last past, the title and dignity of Duke of Argyll devolved upon Niall Diarmid, now Duke of Argyll, as the only son and heir of Archibald Campbell, who was, at the time of his death, brother and heir presumptive of the said John Douglas Sutherland, Duke of Argyll, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said Niall Diarmid, now Duke of Argyll, cannot enjoy that title, rank, place, pre-eminence, and precedence which would have been due to her had her father, the said Archibald Campbell, survived his brother, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Duke of Argyll. His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Elspeth Angela Campbell, spinster, sister of the said Niall Diarmid, now Duke of Argyll, shall henceforth have, hold and enjoy the same title, rank, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as the daughter of a Duke, to which she would have been entitled had her father, the said Archibald Campbell, survived his brother, the said John Douglas Sutherland, Duke of Argyll, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Duke of Argyll.

And to command that the said order and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
