Whitehall, September 24, 1914.

Warrant appointing Commissioners under the Welsh Church Act, 1914.

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Counsellor Sir Henry William Primrose, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Companion of Our Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Companion of the Imperial Service Order;

Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir John Herbert Roberts, Baronet; and

Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir William Plender, Knight;

Greeting!

Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to terminate the establishment of the Church of England in Wales and Monmouthshire, and to make provision in respect of the Temporalities thereof, and for other purposes in connection with the matters aforesaid," it is, amongst other things, enacted that such persons, not exceeding three in number, as We may by Warrant under Our Sign Manual appoint, of whom one at least shall be a member of the Church of England, shall be Commissioners under the said Act;

Now know ye that We, pursuant to the powers so vested in Us, have appointed, and do by these Presents appoint you, the said Sir Henry William Primrose, Sir John Herbert Roberts, and Sir William Plender to be Commissioners for the purposes of, and to hold office as provided by, the said Act.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-third day of September, 1914, in the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

R. McKenna.
