

from time to time be prescribed by the Governing Body. The Dean, or, if there be two Deans, one at least of the Deans, shall reside in College during term, and at such other times as the Annual Congregation shall from time to time prescribe.

4. Either two or three Bursars, as the Annual Congregation shall, from time to time, determine, shall be elected every year. The Bursars shall have the care of the property of the College, receive all rents and moneys due to the College and make such payments, under the orders of the Governing Body, as may be due from the same. They shall superintend the buildings, offices, courts and gardens of the College, and provide, under the orders of the Governing Body, for their maintenance and repair. The several departments of these duties shall be distributed among the Bursars according to such regulations as shall from time to time be made by the Annual Congregation. The moneys of the College, which shall be received by the Bursars, and shall not be required for immediate College purposes, shall be kept by them in some bank or banks, or otherwise invested according to the orders of the Governing Body, and no loan or temporary or other investment shall be made by them unless in conformity with such orders.

5. Any change in the number of Deans or Bursars shall be made only after due notice (as defined in Statute D II. 6) of the intention to propose such change.

6. The Librarian shall be elected every year. He shall have the care of the College Library, and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties in connection therewith as may from time to time be conferred or imposed upon him by the Governing Body.

7. The Annual Congregation may from time to time create any new annual Offices which they may think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the College, or for the better enforcement of its discipline; provided that such Offices may be abolished by the same authority, and that the duties of them may, from time to time, be varied by the Governing Body.

8. Subject to the provisions of the foregoing sections, the Annual Congregation may, from time to time, make regulations governing the residence of any of the Annual Officers."

A STATUTE to alter a Statute made by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, (40 and 41 Victoria, Chapter 48.), in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge, and amended by a Statute dated the 3rd day of December, 1909, duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 13th day of June, 1914, and passed at such Meeting by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute E Chapter II made by the Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, (40 and 41 Victoria, Chapter 48.), in relation to the King's College of Our Lady and Saint Nicholas in Cambridge as amended by Statute dated the 3rd day of December, 1909, and approved by His Majesty the King in Council on the 19th day of July, 1910, it is enacted as follows:

" CHAPTER II.

" Conditions of Eligibility.

" 1. The Fellows shall be elected from among the Graduate Members of the College, who shall not have completed seven years from the 25th day of March next preceding the date of their commencing residence in the University.

2. Provided that a Congregation may, at any time, by the vote of an actual majority of the whole Governing Body, direct that all or any of the vacant Fellowships shall, either for the then ensuing year or thenceforth until otherwise determined, be open to all Graduate Members of the University not exceeding the standing mentioned in the first section of this chapter, and also, if thought advisable, to all Graduate Members of the University of Oxford of the like standing.

3. Provided further that in the case of Graduate Members of the College or of the University, who have entered the University as Advanced Students, or who have not kept the residence and passed the examinations generally required by the University for the first degree, the Governing Body shall determine from time to time the period and conditions of eligibility for a Fellowship.

4. Provided further that the Governing Body may direct that in any specified year one or more vacant Fellowships shall be open in the first instance only to persons who have entered the University as Advanced Students, and who are of sufficient merit for election, subject to any conditions as to eligibility or manner of election that they think fit; and may for that year exclude such persons from eligibility to any Fellowships which are open to other candidates.

5. Provided further that the electors may in any year elect to one vacant Fellowship any person not satisfying the conditions for the time being required, whom they shall consider specially fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of education, religion, learning, and research; and may, if previously authorized thereto by the Governing Body, make it at the time of election a condition that the Fellow so elected shall accept any College office to which he shall be elected or appointed within one year after becoming a Fellow, and shall hold such office until he shall be released from the obligation so to do, either by an express vote of the Governing Body or by his not being re-elected or re-appointed to such office, or until he has become entitled to retain his Fellowship for life: provided also that on any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant.

6. At every election of Fellows, every person qualified under the first section of this chapter and not coming under the provisions of the third section shall be deemed to be a candidate; and the Governing Body may from time to time
