NOTICE.

Owing to hostile acts committed by Turkish forces under German officers, a state of war exists between Great Britain and Turkey as from to-day.

Foreign Office,
November 5, 1914.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

EXTENDING TO THE WAR WITH TURKEY THE PROCLAMATIONS AND ORDERS IN COUNCIL NOW IN FORCE RELATING TO THE WAR.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS, owing to hostile acts committed by Turkish forces under German officers, a state of war now exists between Us and the Sultan of Turkey;

AND WHEREAS on the 4th day of August, 1914, a state of war came into existence between Us and the German Emperor;

AND WHEREAS We did on the same date and on certain other dates subsequent thereto issue certain Proclamations and Orders in Council connected with such state of war;

AND WHEREAS on the 12th day of August, 1914, a state of war came into existence between Us and the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary;

AND WHEREAS certain of the aforesaid Proclamations and Orders in Council have since been extended so as to cover the state of war between Us and the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable now to provide for the state of war between Us and the Sultan of Turkey;

AND WHEREAS the Convention relating to the status of enemy merchant vessels at the outbreak of hostilities, signed at The Hague on the 18th October, 1907, has not been ratified by the Sultan of Turkey, and therefore We do not think fit to extend to Turkish ships the Order in Council issued on the 4th day of August, 1914, with reference to the departure from Our ports of enemy vessels, which at the outbreak of hostilities were in any such port or which subsequently entered the same:

Now, THEREFORE, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation declaring, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The Proclamations and Orders in Council issued with reference to the state of war between Us and the German Emperor, or with reference to the state of war between Us and the German Emperor and the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary, other than the Order in Council issued on the 4th day of August, 1914, with reference to the departure from Our ports of enemy vessels, which at the outbreak of hostilities were in any such port, or which subsequently entered the same, shall, if still in force, apply to the state of war between Us and the Sultan of Turkey as from this 5th day of November, 1914.

2. The Proclamation issued on the 5th day of August, 1914, warning all Our subjects, and all persons resident or being in Our Dominions, from contributing to or participating in, or assisting in the floating of, any loan raised on behalf of the German Government, or from advancing money to or entering into any contract or dealings whatsoever with the said Government, or otherwise aiding, abetting, or assisting the said Government, shall be deemed as from this 5th day of November, 1914, to apply to all loans raised on behalf of, or contracts or dealings entered into with, or to aiding, abetting, or assisting the Ottoman Government.

3. The words "enemy country" in any of the Proclamations or Orders in Council referred to in Article 1 of this Proclamation shall include the Dominions of His Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey other than Egypt, Cyprus, and any territory in the occupation of Us or Our allies.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and in the Fifth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the Convention of Defensive Alliance between Her Majesty Queen Victoria and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, signed on June the 4th, 1878, the Annex to the said Convention signed on July the 1st, 1878, and the Agreement signed on behalf of Her Majesty and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan on August the 14th, 1878, His Imperial Majesty the Sultan assigned the Island of Cyprus to be occupied and administered by England upon the terms and conditions specified in the said Convention, Annex, and Agreement.

AND WHEREAS by reason of the outbreak of war between His Majesty and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan the said Convention, Annex, and Agreement have become annulled and are no longer of any force or effect.

AND WHEREAS it has, for the reasons hereinbefore appearing, seemed expedient to His Majesty that the said Island should be annexed to and should form part of His Majesty's Dominions, in order that proper provision may be made for the Government and protection of the said Island.

Now, THEREFORE, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) From and after the date hereof the said Island shall be annexed to and form part of His Majesty's Dominions, and the said Island is annexed accordingly.

(2) Nothing in this Order shall affect the validity of any Instructions issued by His Majesty under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus, or of any Order in Council affecting Cyprus, or of any Law or Proclamation passed or issued under any such Instructions or Order, or of any act or thing done under any such Instructions, Order, Law or Proclamation, save in so far as any provision of any such Order in Council, Law or Proclamation may be repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament which may, by reason of the annexation hereby declared, become extended to Cyprus, or to any Order or Regulation made under the authority of any such Act or having in Cyprus the force and effect of any such Act.

(3) His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to or amend this Order.

(4) This Order may be cited as the Cyprus (Annexation) Order in Council, 1914.

And the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 29th day of October, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas it is provided in Section 6 of the Indian Marine Service Act, 1884, that in case a state of War exists between Your Majesty and any foreign power, it shall be lawful for Your Majesty by Proclamation or Order in Council to direct that any vessel belonging to Your Majesty's Indian Marine Service and the Men and Officers from time to time serving thereon shall be under the command of the Senior Naval Officer of the Station where for the time being such ships may be:

"And whereas it is provided that while any such vessel is under such command, such vessel shall be deemed to all intents a vessel of war of the Royal Navy, and the Men and Officers from time to time serving in such vessels shall be under such Naval Discipline Act or Acts as may be in force for the time being, and subject to such Regulations as may be issued by Us with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council:

"And whereas a state of War exists between Your Majesty and the German Emperor:

"And whereas the Government of Your Majesty in India has agreed to place unreservedly at the disposal of the Naval Commander-in-Chief on the East Indies Station Your Majesty's Indian Marine Service Vessel 'Lawrence':

"Now, therefore, we beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to direct that Your Majesty's Indian Marine Service Vessel 'Lawrence' and the Men and Officers from time to time serving thereon shall be under the command of the Senior Naval Officer of the Station where for the time being such ship may be.

"The Secretary of State for India in Council has signified his concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 27th day of October, 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the very arduous and important duties and responsibilities of Range-takers in Your Majesty's Fleet are such as to warrant the institution of a non-substantive Rating of Range-taker, First and Second Class, with pay of 4d. and 2d. a day respectively:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the establishment of the paid non-substantive rating of Range-taker accordingly.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Downing Street,

4th November, 1914.

The KING has been pleased to give directions for the appointment of Salisbury Stanley Spurling, Esq., to be a Member of the Executive Council of the Bermudas or Somers Islands.

Board of Trade, Whitehall.

WHEREAS by Royal Proclamation relating to Trading with the Enemy, dated the 9th day of September, 1914, it was, amongst other things, declared as follows:—

“The expression ‘enemy country’ in this Proclamation means the territories of the German Empire and of the Dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, together with all the Colonies and Dependencies thereof.

“The expression ‘enemy’ in this Proclamation means any person or body of persons of whatever nationality resident or carrying on business in the enemy country, but does not include persons of enemy nationality who are neither resident nor carrying on business in the enemy country. In the case of incorporated bodies enemy character attaches only to those incorporated in an enemy country.”

AND WHEREAS it was also declared by the said Proclamation that from and after the date of the said Proclamation the persons therein referred to were prohibited from doing certain acts therein more specifically mentioned:

AND WHEREAS it was further declared by the said Proclamation as follows:—

“Nothing in this Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by Our licence or by the licence given on our behalf by a Secretary of State or the Board of Trade whether such licences be specially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons.”

AND WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2 the Board of Trade, acting on behalf of His Majesty by licence dated the 23rd day of September, 1914, granted licence to the persons therein referred to to pay the fees therein more specifically mentioned:

AND WHEREAS by Proclamation dated the 8th day of October, 1914, the said Proclamation dated the 9th day of September, 1914, called the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2, was amended as therein more specifically set forth, and the said Proclamation of the 8th day of October, 1914, was to be read as one with the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2:

AND WHEREAS in consequence of the provisions of the said Proclamation dated the 8th day of October, 1914, it is desirable to restate and modify the provisions contained in the before-recited licence dated the 23rd day of September, 1914.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Trade, acting on behalf of His Majesty, and in pursuance of the power reserved in the said Proclamation and all other powers thereunto them enabling, DO HEREBY revoke the said licence dated the 23rd day of September, 1914, and DO HEREBY give and grant licence to all persons resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom

To PAY any fees necessary for obtaining the grant or for obtaining the renewal of patents or for obtaining the registration of Designs or Trade Marks or the renewal of such registration in an “enemy country”;

AND ALSO to pay on behalf of an “enemy” any fees payable in the United Kingdom on application for or renewal of the grant of a patent or on application for the registration of Designs or Trade Marks or the renewal of such registration.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1914.

His MAJESTY THE KING has approved of the grant of the Medal for Distinguished Conduct in the Field to the undermentioned Non-commissioned Officers and Men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to Duty, whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force :—

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
3049	Company Quarter-master-Serjeant	Blake, G. H.	1st Scots Guards	On the 14th September, for gallantry in bringing up ammunition under a heavy shell fire.
9488	Lance-Corporal	Brett, A. R.	1st Lincolnshire Regiment	At Le Cateau he left the trenches to fetch ammunition, and distributed it under a heavy shell fire.
9157	Lance-Serjeant	Clay, C. P. P.	2nd Royal Sussex Regiment	Acted as Scout leader, sent in very good reports on the 14th September, and several times later. He has pushed well forward and reconnoitred on occasions right up to the enemy's lines.
4997	Serjeant	Davids, G.	9th Lancers	For gallant conduct in assisting to save the guns of the 119th Battery, Royal Field Artillery, near Doube, on the 24th of August, by manhandling them into shelter, only three gunners of the Battery being left alive.
9971	Private	Day, F.	1st Liverpool Regiment	When one of a patrol on the 5th of October, got some considerable distance in front of his patrol, located an observation station of the enemy and also four guns concealed in a wood. As a result our artillery were able to direct their fire on to the enemy's guns.
10492	Lance-Corporal	Delaney, J.	2nd Royal Irish Regiment	For smart scouting at the crossing of the river Petit Morin, at Orly, on the 5th September, when he discovered the position of the enemy in time to warn the advanced guard of danger.
7409	Private	Ford, T.	2nd West Riding Regiment	Volunteered to charge two motor cars occupied by German Staff Officers, and stayed behind to collect ammunition at Le Cateau when the trenches were abandoned, and was the first man to advance to re-occupy them.
5752	Serjeant	Graham, C.	5th Lancers	Near Messines on the 14th October, for engaging with his revolver the enemy behind a barricade, and, although wounded in the hand (which he will lose), giving a clear account of his reconnaissance whilst his hand was being dressed.
9465	Serjeant	Hunt, P. J.	1st Bedford Regiment	On 24th August was in charge of the trenches after his officer had been wounded, and, although once completely surrounded by the enemy a mile in rear of the 3rd Division rear-guard, he effected the retirement of his platoon.
12953	Lance-Corporal	Jonas, J.	No. 5 Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps	For bravery on the 14th of September at Pont Arcy in carrying in under a heavy fire Serjeant Stansfield, 49th Battery, Royal Field Artillery, who was dangerously wounded.
9065	Private	Malone, W. T.	3rd Worcestershire Regiment	Though wounded in the head at Caudry on 26th August he continued in the firing line, showing excellent example of coolness under fire.
9275	Serjeant (now 2nd Lieutenant)	Marillier, F. C. J.	2nd Royal Sussex Regiment	Led a party on the night of 1st October, and successfully filled one of the enemy's trenches.
16202	Lance-Corporal	McDonnell, P.	2nd Grenadier Guards	On 27th September made a first rate reconnaissance and discovered an unsuspected German trench.
7816	Acting Corporal	Munday, R.	1st Royal Berkshire Regiment	For ability and courage in scout leading in action near Le Metz Farm during 10th to 12th October.
5005	Private	Mutlow, A.	2nd South Staffs Regiment	This man volunteered to go and inform the Wiltshire Regiment of the presence of the South Staffordshire Regiment on the 20th September. In order to do so he had to cross an open fire-swept zone, where he ran considerable danger.
823	Company Serjeant-Major	Palmer, A. G.	56th Company, Royal Engineers	For gallantry and coolness at Le Cateau on 26th August, in assisting Lieutenant C. G. Martin, Royal Engineers, in the defence of a Post from which Infantry had been driven.

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Rank.	Regimental No.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8555	Serjeant ...	Redfern, A. ...	1st North Staffs Regiment	On 25th September went out with two men from the trenches under a heavy fire, and brought in an officer who had been shot 20 yards in front, not knowing that he was dead.
8085	Lance-Corporal	Russell, R. ...	1st Coldstream Guards	For coolness and gallantry in the night attack made by a party under 2nd Lieutenant M. B. Smith, in which he bayoneted two Germans who were attacking that officer.
14471	Lance-Corporal	Thomas, W. ...	2nd Grenadier Guards	On 1st October went with three men through a wood to burn a woodstack from which sniping took place, and meeting a patrol of 15 Germans fired at them and drove them off. After waiting they went on and successfully lighted the stack.
5001	Serjeant ...	Turner, A. W. ...	9th Lancers ...	For gallant conduct in assisting to save the guns of the 119th Battery, Royal Field Artillery, near Doube, on 24th August, by man-handling them into shelter, only three gunners of the Battery being left alive.
T27823	Driver ...	Vickers, H. J. ...	7th Company, Army Service Corps	At Vendresse on 14th September, when loading wounded, a bursting shell frightened the horses of the ambulance he was driving, but he kept control of them, and by his presence of mind, although the shell fire continued, he enabled the remainder of the wounded to be conveyed to a place of safety.
32430	Farrier Quarter-master-Serjeant	Watts, H. J. S. ...	11th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	When all the officers had been killed or wounded, he brought five out of six guns out of action.
9998	Drummer...	Wise, H. A. ...	1st Royal West Surrey Regiment	For several valuable reconnaissances under shell and rifle fire.

War Office,
6th November, 1914.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

The National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order (No. 3), 1914, dated October 31, 1914, made by the Insurance Commissioners under section 78 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (1 & 2 Geo. 5, c. 55).

Whereas this Order is intended to be supplemental to the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Orders, 1913 and 1914 (in this Order referred to as the "principal Orders"), which contained provisions for facilitating the admission to approved societies of persons who had become or were deemed to have become deposit contributors and certain consequential provisions relating to financial adjustments between the Deposit Contributors Fund and the funds of approved societies and to the conditions upon which the arrears of persons who became members of societies under the provisions of the principal Orders might be paid:

And whereas the operation of the principal Orders was limited to persons who became members of approved societies before the 3rd day of August, 1914:

And whereas the difficulties referred to in the recitals to the principal Orders with regard to persons obtaining admission to approved societies still exist, and accordingly it is expedient for the purpose of bringing into operation Part I. of the Act that the provisions of those Orders should be further extended in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, the Insurance Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 78 of the Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby order as follows:—

1. The principal Orders shall be read and shall have effect as if the 1st day of January, 1915, were substituted therein for the 3rd day of August, 1914.

2. This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Transfer of Deposit Contributors) Order (No. 3), 1914, and shall be read as one with the principal Orders.

Given under the Seal of Office of the aforesaid Insurance Commissioners this 31st day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

John Anderson,

Secretary to the Insurance Commissioners.
We consent to this Order:

*Wedgwood Benn,
William Jones,*

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 1706 of the year 1914.

NORTH SEA.

Former Notice.—No. 1626 of 1914; hereby cancelled.

Caution.—A system of mine fields has been established by H.M. Government and is being developed upon a considerable scale.

It is dangerous henceforth for ships to cross the area between the parallels of 51° 15' and 51° 40' North latitude and the meridians of 1° 35' and 3° 00' East longitude.

The Southern limit of the area in the North Sea which has been rendered dangerous by the enemy's mines is now, so far as is known at present, the parallel of 51° 54' North latitude and not as stated in the former Notice; this extension is owing to the enemy's mines having drifted from their positions.

Remarks.—Although these limits are assigned to the dangerous areas, it must not be supposed that navigation is necessarily safe in any part of the southern waters of the North Sea.

Authority.—The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. F. PARRY,
Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Department,
Admiralty, London,

No. 00359 of 1914.

In the Matter of the BIRMINGHAM TRUST Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order, dated the 27th October, 1914, the Court has directed separate Meetings of (1) the Preference Shareholders of the said Company; (2) the Ordinary Shareholders of the said Company; to be convened for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving (with or without modification) a scheme of arrangement proposed to be made between the said Company and the said Preference and Ordinary Shareholders; and that such Meetings will be held at the Grand Hotel, in the city of Birmingham, on Thursday, the 19th day of November, 1914, at the times following, namely:—

The Meeting of the holders of Preference shares at 12 o'clock noon; and

The Meeting of the holders of Ordinary shares at 12.15 o'clock in the afternoon, or so soon thereafter as the previous Meeting shall have been concluded, at which place and respective times all the such Preference and Ordinary Shareholders are requested to attend.

The said holders of Preference and Ordinary shares may attend such Meetings respectively, and vote either in person or by proxy.

In the case of joint holders, the person whose name stands first in the register shall alone be entitled to vote at such Meeting. In the case of joint holders voting by proxy the form of proxy must be signed by each of the joint holders.

All forms appointing proxies are to be deposited with the Company at its registered office, No. 4, New Bartholomew-street, in the city of Birmingham, not later than 12 o'clock on the 18th day of November, 1914.

A copy of the said scheme of arrangement can be seen and forms of proxy obtained at the registered office of the said Company.

The Court has appointed John Chamberlain, of "Beechcroft," Westbourne-road, Birmingham aforesaid, and, failing him, Hugh Goodwin Newton, of "The Barrells," Henley-in-Arden, in the county of Warwick, to act as Chairman of the said Meetings, and has directed the Chairman to report the result thereof to the Court.

The said scheme of arrangement will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Court.—Dated this 6th day of November, 1914.

1914 N. No. 082.

In the Matter of the NORTHERN FARMERS' INSURANCE SOCIETY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 23rd October, 1914, presented to the High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company, unanimously passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 23rd June, 1914, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 14th July, 1914, and which Resolution is as follows:—

"That (with a view of enabling the Company to carry on certain businesses which may conveniently and advantageously be combined with the objects of the Company) the memorandum of association of the Company be altered in the manner following, viz.: By including among the objects for which the Company is established the following: (1) To indemnify the Members of the Company, and no other persons, against proceedings, losses, costs, damages, claims and demands in respect of any accident or alleged accident resulting or alleged to have resulted in injury, whether fatal or otherwise, to any workman or other person employed by them and to take all such steps as may seem to the Company expedient with a view to investigating the circumstances of any accident or alleged accident and any claims or demands made or to be made in respect thereof, and to oppose, resist, compromise, or satisfy, in whole or in part, any such claims or demands. (2) To insure and grant, issue and effect policies and insurances in respect of horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, poultry and other live stock belonging to Members of the Company, and no other persons, against death, whether arising in the course of nature or caused by or the result of or arising from or out of disease, accident or surgical operation (including foaling and castration), and against injury or depreciation in value by accident or disease or by fire, flood, inundation, lightning, tempest or otherwise, and to take all such steps as may seem to the Company expedient with a view to investigating the circumstances of any death or injury or any claims or demands made or to be made in respect thereof, and to oppose, resist, compromise or satisfy, in whole or in part, any such claims or demands.

"And that the Directors of the Company are hereby directed to petition the High Court of Justice to confirm this alteration."

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Warrington, on Tuesday, the 24th day of November, 1914; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, policy holder, or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act may appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose; and he is required to give two clear days' previous notice of his intention so to appear, with the grounds of his objection, to the undersigned, the agents for the Solicitors of the said Company. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated the fourth day of November, 1914.

No. 00348 of 1914.

In the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and in the Matter of JOHN BROWN AND COMPANY Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 13th day of October, 1914, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice, by the above named Company, to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the said Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 22nd day of April, 1914, and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 7th day of May, 1914, and which Resolution was as follows:—

"That pursuant to the provisions of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, section 9, the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association be altered by adding to the original Memorandum of Association such additional objects as are set forth in the new Memorandum of Association submitted to this Meeting, and, for the purpose of identification, initialled by the chairman thereof, and that such new Memorandum of Association be and is hereby approved, and that in accordance with the said section the Directors be authorized to apply to the Court to confirm this Resolution."

The proposed extended objects referred to in the said Resolution are set out in the second schedule to the said petition, and are as follows:—

(16) To develop, maintain, manage, carry on, work, search for and deal with any ironworks, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, ordnance works, ammunition works, explosive works, steam, electric, gas, petrol, air, oil or other engine works, shipbuilding works, armament and steel plate works, collieries, mines, mining, ground quarries, coal, iron, slate, stone, fireclay, clay, ore or other mineral or mining or colliery rights of every description in England or elsewhere, or any options, licences, agreements or rights relating thereto, or any interest therein respectively.

(17) To search for, inspect, examine and explore, purchase, take on lease or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire and hold, occupy, develop and work, any oil wells, lands and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of affording a supply of petroleum or other mineral oils.

(18) To purchase, take on lease, or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, establish, utilise, maintain, manage, carry on and turn to account any pumping stations, pipe lines, refineries and other works, plant and conveniences necessary or suitable for those purposes, and to carry on the business of extracting, pumping, drawing, transporting, refining and purifying and dealing in such oils.

(19) To purchase, take on lease or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, construct, maintain, carry on, improve, work, manage and deal with any iron works, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, ordnance works, ammunition works, explosive works, steam, electrical, gas, air, oil or other engine works, coal works, coke ovens, by-product works, wagon works, gas works and electric construction, and supply works, oil works, oil refining works, reservoirs, water works, brick, lime, tile and terra-cotta works, railways, sidings, tramways, ropeways, canals, wharves, docks, warehouses, mills, plant, machinery and chemical and any other works and things necessary or convenient for any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or for the profitable use and disposal of the produce or refuse of such collieries, mines, lands, oil wells, quarries, works and minerals, or any of them, with power for the Company to carry out any of the objects aforesaid, independently of the others of the same object.

(20) To purchase, build, construct, own, hire, charter, equip, load on commission, navigate, sail, repair, exchange, trade and deal with freight, locomotives, engines, motors, trucks, trolleys, corves, rolling stock, carriages, ships, steamers, oil tanks, pipe lines, reservoirs, pumps, aeroplanes and airships and other vessels and vehicles of every description for the transport by land, or air, or water, and for the import or export of iron, steel, ammunition, ordnance weapons, machinery, explosives, coal, coke, slate, clay, ores, minerals, oils and other substances, liquids, articles and things whether manufactured or unmanufactured belonging to or in the possession of the Company or used or being capable of being used, in or in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to purchase, hire or otherwise acquire, animal or other motive power of any and every description.

(21) Generally without prejudice to any special object or power hereinbefore set out, to carry on all or any of the businesses of, and to carry on or conduct any business, transaction or operation usually carried on or conducted by iron workers, iron foundries, steel workers, steel refiners, steel converters, ordnance, weapon, ammunition, armament, steam engine, gas engine, electrical engine, air engine, oil, petrol or other engine manufacturers, colliery contractors, coke manufacturers, patent fuel manufacturers, manufacturers of chemicals and manures, chemists, druggists, distillers, dye makers, soap makers, colourmen, oil producers, oil refiners, oil merchants, metallurgists, smelters, engineers, tin plate workers, pipe, cement and concrete manufacturers, carriers, merchants, factors, ship builders, ship owners, wagon repairers, gas works owners, railway proprietors, wharf owners, dock owners, electric construction and supply companies, electricians and suppliers of electric light or power or of water, and manufacturers of and dealers in all appliances and things in connection with any of the above businesses in any part of the world.

(22) To screen, analyse, manipulate, treat, wash, make merchantable, convert, sell, deal in and dispose of metals, minerals and substances, liquids, gases and products arising from the several substances manufactured, raised or acquired by the Company or obtained independently.

(23) To construct, build, repair, maintain, alter, develop, improve, enlarge, replace, manage, work, control and superintend any ironworks, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, armament works, ordnance works, steel plate works, ammunition works, explosive works, chemical works, steam engine, electrical engine, gas engine, oil engine, air, petrol or other engine works and shipbuilding works.

(24) To construct, carry out, build, repair, maintain, alter, develop, improve, enlarge, replace, manage, work, control and superintend any pits, shafts, tunnels, roads, ways, adits, levels, tramways, railways, sidings, ropeways, bridges, viaducts, coaling stations, reservoirs, watercourses, aqueducts, docks, wharves, furnaces, coke-ovens, by-products, manufactories, electric works, tanks, pipe-lines, reservoirs, pump, plant, engines, machinery, tools, mills, factories, workshops, shops, warehouses, club-houses, offices, buildings and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, guarantee or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations.

(25) To purchase, sell and deal in patent fuel, brick earth, brick dust, clay, sand, trees, farm produce, live stock, oils and any other materials, articles or things relating to any of the above businesses, either on commission or otherwise, and to work, carry on, superintend, manage, administer and control any ironworks, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, shipbuilding works, armament works, ordnance works, steel plate works, explosive works, chemical works, engine works, collieries, coalfields, mines, works and concerns similar to those which the Company are hereby authorized to work, carry on, superintend, manage, administer and control, and to do any or all of the following things which the directors shall deem to be directly or indirectly incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects contained in paragraphs (1) to (6) inclusive of clause 3 of the original memorandum of association of the Company, or of any of the additional objects of the Company contained in paragraphs (16), (17), (18), (19), (20), (21), (22), (23), (24) and (25) hereof.

(26) To carry on business as capitalists and financiers and any other businesses (whether in manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(27) To develop, hire, mortgage, pledge, turn to account, improve, transfer, surrender, grant rights or licences over or in relation to the undertaking or all or any part of the lands, hereditaments and real and personal estates and properties and effects of the Company upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, whether wholly or partly paid up, stocks, Debentures or obligations of or interest in any other company.

(28) To build, construct, enlarge, maintain, work and obtain concessions, Provisional Orders or other statutory or other authorizations for constructing, enlarging, maintaining and working, and to support, contribute to or promote any ropeways, pipe-line, drainage works, sidings, docks or works which may be or appear to be directly or indirectly advantageous to or useful for the business of the Company.

(29) To carry on sale-shops for the sale and distribution of any goods, articles, matters or things.

(30) To build, purchase or otherwise acquire hotels, taverns, public houses, canteens or workmen's institutes and to use, convert, adapt and maintain any buildings for the purposes of hotels, taverns, public houses, canteens or workmen's institutes, and to fit up and furnish the same, and carry on the business of hotel, tavern and public house keepers, club proprietors, caterers, restaurant keepers, tobacco, wine and spirit merchants.

(31) To expend money in experimenting upon and testing, and in improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions, secret processes or rights which the Company may hold, acquire or propose to acquire.

(32) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act of Parliament or Provisional Order, or any licence of the Board of Trade or other authority for enabling the Company either alone or jointly or in partnership with any other company, firm or persons to carry out its objects or any of them, or for conferring on the Company any additional powers or for modifying these presents or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any Bills, proceedings or applications which may be thought to be directly or indirectly prejudicial to the Company.

(33) To pay out of the funds of the Company all the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of any other company promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company, and to contract with any person, firm or company to pay the same and to pay brokerage, commission, discount and other expenses to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, obtaining, selling or guaranteeing the subscription of or insuring or for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally for all or any of the shares or Debentures or other obligations of the Company or of any other company so promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company, and so that the remuneration for such services may be paid or made in cash or by the issue of shares, Debentures or other securities of the Company, or by the granting of options to take the same or in any other manner allowed by law and to charge any payment or remuneration aforesaid to capital or revenue.

(34) To issue or guarantee the issue of or the payment of interest on the shares, stocks, Debenture stocks or other securities or obligations of any such company, corporation or association, and to pay or provide for brokerage, commission and underwriting in respect of any such issue and to guarantee the performance of any contract or obligation of any such company, corporation or association.

(35) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire for any estate or interests any lands, buildings, easements, rights, privileges, concessions, machinery, patents, plant, licences, stock in trade and real and personal property of any kind necessary or convenient for any business which the Company is authorized to carry on whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

(36) To improve and turn to account any property, real or personal, in which the Company is interested and in particular to develop and assist in developing any landed property in which the Company is interested, and for that purpose to make advances, and to enter into guarantees and generally to make such arrangements as may be expedient.

(37) To create, issue at par or at a premium or discount, draw, make, accept, renew and negotiate mortgages, Debentures, Debenture stocks, bonds or obligations of the Company charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, and all or any of the real and personal property, estate, assets and effects of the Company, present and future (including or excluding uncalled capital), and payable either to bearer or registered holder, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, without or without a bonus or premium, and at such rate of interest and with such provision for the creation of a sinking fund, and such powers of sale, and of making and enforcing calls, and of appointment of Directors, Auditors, Receivers, Managers or otherwise, and generally upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine.

(38) To secure any securities issued by the Company by a trust deed or otherwise as the Directors may think fit and to purchase, pay off or redeem any Debentures or other securities either by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares of the Company, and to enter into any arrangements which may be deemed desirable for the payment of and to pay any premium in connection with such redemption and to convert Debentures into Debenture stock or vice versa.

(39) To pay out of the funds of the Company interest on so much as is for the time being paid up of any share capital which may be issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of sinking pits or the construction of any works, machinery or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a lengthened period.

(40) To receive money on deposit with or without allowance of interest thereon.

(41) To effect with any company or person policies of insurance to secure the due payment of any securities issued by the Company or sinking fund policies and to pay premiums and commissions in respect of such policies.

(42) To effect insurances and indemnities against risk of loss to the Company and to insure any servants of the Company against risk or accident in the course of their employment by the Company and to pay premiums on any such insurance or indemnity.

(43) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, negotiate, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, dock and other warrants, Debentures and other instruments so as to be negotiable or transferable by delivery or to order or otherwise.

(44) To issue any shares, Debentures, Debenture stock, or securities which the Company has power to issue by way of security and indemnity to any person whom the Company has agreed or is bound to indemnify.

(45) To subscribe to, guarantee money for, or invest in shares in any national, charitable, benevolent, scientific, literary, educational or public object, or any object likely to promote the interests of the Company.

(46) To undertake all or any part of the business, property, transactions and liabilities of any person, firm, association or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

(47) To pay for any property or rights acquired by and to pay, satisfy and discharge any debts or obligations due from the Company, either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of any securities which the Company has power to create or issue or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Board may determine.

(48) To accept payment for any property or rights sold or otherwise disposed of or dealt with by the Company either in cash, by instalments, or otherwise, or in shares of any company or corporation, with or without deferred or preferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of a mortgage or by Debentures or mortgage Debentures or Debenture stock of any company or corporation, or partly in one mode and partly in another and generally on such terms as the Board may determine.

(49) To enter into partnership or any joint-purse arrangement or any arrangement for sharing profits, co-operation, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any company, firm or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business within the objects of this Company in any place, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of any such company and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company.

(50) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company or companies whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over of all or any of the undertaking, assets and liabilities of, or which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligation of any such company.

(51) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of and the payment of dividends and interest on the stock, shares or securities of or belonging to any company, firm or person, or to make or give any other loan or guarantee in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interests of its shareholders, and whether with or without any security being received.

(52) To sell, exchange, lease, let on rent, royalty, share of profits, or otherwise grant licenses, easements and other rights of and over and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking or business and all or any of the property for the time being of the Company for such consideration as may be agreed, and in particular for shares, Debentures, or securities of any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, but subject where a winding-up is in contemplation to the conditions imposed by section 191 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

(53) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or Authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise), or any corporations, companies or persons that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, corporation, company or person any charters, rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, rights, privileges, and concessions.

(54) To register the Company or constitute or incorporate it as an anonymous or other society, and to procure it to be recognised in any foreign country or place.

(55) To arrange that any amalgamation of this Company with any other company whose objects are or include objects similar to those of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, shall be subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company as aforesaid, with or without winding-up, or shall be by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares or stock of this or such other company as aforesaid, or by partnership or any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner, and to arrange for the business of this Company to be managed and carried on by another company.

(56) To distribute among the Members in cash, in shares of other companies, in kind, specie or otherwise by way of dividend or bonus, or upon a return of capital, any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law.

(57) To form and apply a reserve fund or reserve funds of the Company for the purpose of providing for depreciation or losses, for special dividends, for equalising dividends or for carrying out the objects of the Company, for redeeming Debentures or Debenture stock or other securities of the Company or to cover the loss on wear or tear or other depreciation or diminution in value of any property of the Company, for the gradual liquidation of any debt or liability of the Company or for repairing, improving, enlarging or maintaining any of the property of the Company, to cover risks or liabilities not insured against by the Company, or for such other purposes as shall be considered conducive to the interests of the Company.

(58) To invest and deal with the reserve funds of the Company and any moneys of the Company not for the time being required for the general purposes of the Company in the business of the Company, and in such stocks, funds, shares, securities or investments (other than shares in the Company), although not of a nature authorized by law for the investment of trust funds, as the Directors may think fit, and from time to time to vary such investments and to deposit any moneys or securities of the Company with any other company or association.

(59) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized in any part of the world either alone or in conjunction with, or as contractors, factors, trustees or agents for, any other companies, corporations or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees or agents.

(60) To provide for the welfare of persons in or formerly in the employment of the Company, or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families and dependents of such persons, by grants of money, pensions or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards places of instruction and recreation and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, insurance and other assistance as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe to or otherwise aid benevolent, religious, scientific, national, or other institutions, exhibitions or objects which shall have any moral or other claims to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operations or otherwise.

(61) To promote freedom of contract and to resist, insure against, counteract and discourage interference therewith, and to subscribe to any association or fund for any such purposes.

(62) To advertise and to do all such other things as are incidental to or connected with any of the above objects or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(63) The objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or in the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense, as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct and independent company: in these presents words referring to persons include firms and corporations, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa.

And notice is further given, that the said petition, directed to be heard on the 3rd November, 1914, stands adjourned to Tuesday, the 17th November, 1914, before his Lordship Mr. Justice Neville, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, when any person whose interests will be affected by the said alteration in the Company's memorandum of association may appear, in person or by Counsel, and be heard. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the under-mentioned Solicitors, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated 5th day of November, 1914.

ASHURST, MORRIS, CRISP and CO., 17, Throgmorton Avenue, London, E.C., Solicitors for the Company.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 00327 of 1914.

In the Matter of the TREDEGAR IRON AND COAL COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 7th day of September, 1914, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the said Company, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 26th day of June, 1914, and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 23rd day of July, 1914, and which Resolution runs as follows:—

(A) That, pursuant to the provisions of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, section 9, the Company's memorandum of association be altered so as to include the extended objects submitted to this Meeting, and for the purpose of identification initialed by the Chairman thereof, and that the Directors be and are hereby authorized to apply to the Court to confirm such alterations.

The proposed extended objects referred to in the said Resolution are set out in the schedule to the said petition, and are as follows:—

ADDITIONAL OBJECTS AND POWERS APPLIED FOR:—

(13) To carry on the business of mechanical engineers, including, but not restricted to, the manufacture of and dealing in engines, stationary or locomotive boilers, and all accessories thereto respectively in the United Kingdom and elsewhere.

(14) To develop, maintain, manage, carry on, work, and deal with any ironworks, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, furnaces, coke ovens, by-products, manufactories, steam, electric, gas, petrol, air, oil or other engine works, collieries, mines, mining ground and quarries.

(15) To search for, develop, win, get, or otherwise acquire any coal, iron, ironstone, slate, stone, lime, limestone, slate, sandstone, fireclay, clay, ore, or other minerals, and to purchase, acquire, own, carry on, and deal with any colliery, mining, or other mineral rights and concessions of any description in England or elsewhere, or any options, licences, or rights concerning the same, or any interest therein, and to enter into any agreements relating thereto.

(16) To search for, inspect, examine and explore, purchase, take on lease or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire and hold, occupy, develop and work any oil wells, lands and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of affording a supply of petroleum or other mineral oils; and to carry on the business of extracting, pumping, drawing, transporting, refining, purifying and dealing in or with such oils.

(17) To purchase, take on lease, or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, establish, utilise, maintain, manage, carry on and turn to account any pumping stations, pipe lines, refineries and other works, plant and conveniences necessary or suitable for any of the purposes of the last preceding object.

(18) To purchase, take on lease or on licence, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, construct, maintain, carry on, improve, work, manage and deal with any iron works, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, steam, electrical, gas, air, oil or other engine works, collieries, coal works, coke ovens, by-product works, wagon works, gas works, and electrical construction and supply works, oil works, oil wells, oil refining works, reservoirs, water works, brick, lime, tile and terra-cotta works, railways, light railways, sidings, tramways, ropeways, canals, wharves, docks, warehouses, mills, plant, machinery, and chemical and any other works and things necessary or convenient for any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or for the profitable use and disposal of the produce or refuse of such collieries, mines, lands, oil wells, quarries, works and minerals, or any of them, with power for the Company to carry out any of the objects aforesaid, independently of the others of the same objects.

(19) To purchase, build, construct, own, hire, use, charter, equip, load on commission, navigate, sail, repair, exchange, trade and deal with freight locomotives, engines, motors, trucks, trollies, corves, rolling stock, carriages, ships, steamers, oil tanks, pipe lines, reservoirs, pumps, aeroplanes and airships and other vessels and vehicles of every description for the transport by land, or air, or water, and for the production and manufacture of sulphate of ammonia, sulphuric acid, tar, pitch, creosote, benzol, and other by-products, and for the import or export of iron, steel, machinery, explosives, coal, coke, slate, clay, ores, minerals, oils, and other substances, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, belonging to or in the possession of the Company, or used, or being capable of being used, in or in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to purchase, hire or otherwise acquire and to use animal or other motive power of any and every description.

(20) Generally, without prejudice to any special object or power hereinbefore set out, to carry on all or any of the businesses of, and to carry on or conduct any business, transaction or operation usually carried on or conducted by iron workers, iron founders, quarrymen, steel workers, steel refiners, steel converters, steam engine, gas engine, electrical engine, air engine, oil, petrol or other engine manufacturers, coal miners, mineral ore producers, colliery contractors, coke manufacturers, patent fuel manufacturers, manufacturers of chemicals and manures, chemists, druggists, distillers, dye makers, soap makers, colourmen, oil producers, oil refiners, oil merchants, metallurgists, smelters, engineers, pipe, lime, cement, brick, artificial stone, and concrete manufacturers, carriers, merchants, factors, ship builders, shipowners, wagon repairers, gas works owners, railway proprietors, wharf owners, dock owners, electric construction and supply companies, electricians and suppliers of electric light or power or of water, and manufacturers of and dealers in all appliances and things in connection with any of the above businesses in any part of the world.

(21) To screen, analyse, manipulate, treat, wash, make merchantable, convert, sell, deal in and dispose of metals, minerals and substances, liquids, gases, and products arising from the several substances manufactured, raised or acquired by the Company, or obtained independently.

(22) To construct, build, repair, maintain, alter, develop, improve, enlarge, replace, manage, work, control, and superintend any iron works, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, chemical works, steam engine, electrical engine, gas engine, oil engine, air, petrol or other engine works.

(23) To construct, carry out, build, repair, maintain, alter, develop, improve, enlarge, replace, manage, work, control and superintend any pits, shafts, tunnels, roads, ways, adits, levels, tramways, railways, light railways, sidings, ropeways, bridges, viaducts, coaling stations, reservoirs, watercourses, aqueducts, docks, wharves, furnaces, coke ovens, by-products manufactories, electric works, tanks, pipe lines, reservoirs, pumps, plant, engines, machinery, tools, mills, factories, workshops, shops, warehouses, club houses, offices, buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, guarantee or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations.

(24) To purchase, sell and deal in patent fuel, brick earth, brick dust, clay, lime, limestone, slate, sandstone, sand, trees, farm produce, live stock, oils and any other materials, articles or things relating to any of the above businesses, either on commission or otherwise, and to work, carry on, superintend, manage, administer and control, any ironworks, iron foundries, steel works, steel refineries, chemical works, engine works, collieries, coalfields, mines, lime quarries, works, and concerns similar to those which the Company are hereby authorized to work, carry on, superintend, manage, administer, and control, and to do any or all of the following things which the directors shall deem to be directly or indirectly incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects contained in paragraphs (1) to (5) inclusive of clause 3 of the original memorandum of association of the Company, or of any of the additional objects of the Company contained in paragraphs (13) to (24) hereof both inclusive.

(25) To carry on business as capitalists and financiers and any other businesses (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the Company's undertakings, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(26) To develop, hire, mortgage, pledge, turn to account, improve, transfer, surrender, grant rights or licences over or in relation to the undertaking, or all or any part of the lands, hereditaments and real and personal estates and properties and effects of the Company, upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, whether wholly or partly paid up, stocks, debentures, or obligations of, or interest in, any other Company.

(27) To build, construct, enlarge, maintain, work and obtain concessions, Provisional Orders, or other statutory or other authorizations for constructing, enlarging, maintaining and working, and to support, contribute to, or promote any ropeways, pipe line, drainage works, railways, light railways, sidings, waterways, docks or works which may be or appear to be directly or indirectly advantageous to or useful for the business of the Company.

(28) To carry on sale-shops for the sale and distribution of any goods, articles, matters or things.

(29) To build, purchase or acquire any interest in any hotels, taverns, public-houses, canteens or workmen's institutes, and to use, convert, adapt and maintain any buildings for the purposes of hotels, taverns, public-houses, canteens, libraries, or workmen's institutes, and to fit up and furnish the same, and carry on the business of hotel, tavern and public-house keepers, club proprietors, caterers, restaurant keepers, tobacco, wine and spirit merchants.

(30) To purchase, take in exchange, lease or otherwise acquire for any estate or interest therein, any lands, hereditaments, easements and premises which may be conveniently used or adapted for the purpose of forming a village or township for the use and occupation of workmen and others, and to erect, construct and maintain houses, cottages, shops, places of worship, baths and wash-houses, hotels, refreshment houses, public halls, libraries, drainage and sewage works, and any other buildings or works which can be conveniently occupied, used or enjoyed in connection with the use and occupation of any such village or township, and to develop, sell, lease, let or otherwise dispose of, or turn to account any such lands, hereditaments, easements, premises, buildings, works or other property, and to lay out, construct and maintain roads, pavements, streets, squares, avenues, or other places in connection with the use and occupation of the said village, or which may be conveniently used for the welfare, instruction or recreation of any of the residents therein.

(31) To expend money in experimenting upon and testing, and in improving or seeking to improve, any patents, inventions, secret processes or rights which the Company may hold, acquire or propose to acquire, or in which they may take, or propose to take, any interest.

(32) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act of Parliament or Provisional Order, or any Licence of the Board of Trade or other authority for enabling the Company, either alone or jointly or in partnership with any other company, firm or persons, to carry out its objects, or any of them, or for conferring on the Company any additional powers, or for modifying these presents, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any Bills, proceedings or applications which may be thought to be directly or indirectly prejudicial to the Company or any of its undertakings or interests.

(33) To establish or promote, organise and register, or concur in establishing or promoting, organising and registering of any other company or companies either in Great Britain or elsewhere, established for any one or more of the objects or purposes for which this Company is established, or for any other purposes or purpose whatsoever, and particularly of any company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over of all or any of the undertaking, assets and liabilities of, or which shall be in any manner calculated to advance directly or indirectly the objects or interests of this Company, with power to assist any such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by, or any other obligation of, any such company.

(34) To pay out of the funds of the Company all the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, organisation, establishment, registration and advertising of any other company promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company, and to contract with any person, firm or company to pay the same.

(35) To pay brokerage, commission, discount, expenses of issue and other expenses to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, obtaining, selling or guaranteeing the subscription of, or insuring, or for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for all or any of the shares or Debentures or other obligations of the Company, or of any other company promoted, formed, organised, established or registered by the Company, and so that the remuneration for such services may be paid or made in cash or by the issue of shares, Debentures or other securities of the Company; or by the granting of options to take the same or in any other manner allowed by law, and to charge any payment or remuneration aforesaid to capital or revenue.

(36) To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses attending the issue of any circular, map, plan or notice, or the printing, stamping and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the Members of this or any other Company; and to undertake the management and secretarial or other work, duties and business of any other company on such terms as may be determined. To give options or calls on the unissued capital of the Company at par, or at such premiums as the directors may from time to time think fit.

(37) To issue, or guarantee the issue of, or the payment of interest on the shares, stocks, Debenture stocks, or other securities or obligations of any company, corporation or association promoted, formed, organised, established or registered by the Company, and to pay or provide for brokerage, commission and underwriting in respect of any such issue, and to guarantee the performance of any contract or obligation of any such company, corporation or association.

(38) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire for any estate or interests, any lands, buildings, easements, rights, privileges, concessions, machinery, patents, plant, licences, stock-in-trade and real and personal property of any kind necessary or convenient for any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

(39) To improve and turn to account any property, real or personal, in which the Company is interested, and in particular to develop and assist in developing any landed property in which the Company is interested, and for that purpose to make advances and to enter into guarantees, and generally to make such arrangements as may be expedient.

(40) To create, issue, at par, or at a premium or discount, draw, make, accept, renew and negotiate mortgages, Debentures, Debenture stock, bonds or obligations of the Company, charged upon all or any part of the undertaking, and all or any of the real and personal property, estate, assets and effects of the Company, present and future (including or excluding uncalled capital) and payable either to bearer or registered holder, and either permanent or redeemable, or repayable with or without a bonus or premium, and at such rate of interest and with such provisions for the creation of a sinking fund and such powers of sale, and of making and enforcing calls, and of appointment of Directors, Auditors, Receivers, Managers, or otherwise, and generally upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine.

(41) To secure any securities issued by the Company by a trust deed or otherwise, as the Directors may think fit, and to purchase, pay off or redeem any Debentures or other securities either by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares of the Company, and to enter into any arrangements which may be deemed desirable for the payment of and to pay any premium in connection with such redemption, and to convert Debentures into Debenture stock, or vice versa.

(42) To pay out of the funds of the Company interest on so much as is for the time being paid up of any share capital which may be issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of sinking pits, or the construction of any works, machinery or buildings, or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a lengthened period.

(43) To receive money on deposit, with or without allowance of interest thereon.

(44) To effect with any company or person policies of insurance to secure the due payment of any securities issued by the Company, or sinking fund policies, and to pay premiums and commissions in respect of such policies.

(45) To effect insurances and indemnities against risk of loss to the Company, and to insure any servants of the Company against risk or accident in the course of their employment by the Company, and to pay premiums on any such insurance or indemnity.

(46) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, negotiate, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, dock and other warrants, debentures and other instruments so as to be negotiable or transferable by delivery, or to order or otherwise.

(47) To issue any shares, debentures, debenture stock or securities which the Company has power to issue by way of security and indemnity to any person whom the Company has agreed, or is bound to indemnify.

(48) To subscribe to, guarantee money for, or invest in shares in any national charitable, benevolent, scientific, literary, educational or public object, or any object likely to promote the interests of the Company.

(49) To undertake, manage or carry out all or any part of the business, property, transactions and liabilities of any person, firm, association or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

(50) To pay for any property or rights acquired by, and to pay, satisfy and discharge any debts or obligations due from the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of any securities which the Company has power to create or issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Board may determine.

(51) To accept payment for any property or rights sold or otherwise disposed of or dealt with by the Company, either in cash, by instalments or otherwise, or in shares of any company or corporation, with or without deferred or preferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by means of a mortgage, or by debentures, or mortgage debentures, or debenture stock of any company or corporation, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally on such terms as the Board may determine.

(52) To enter into partnership, or any joint-purse arrangement, or any arrangement for sharing profits, co-operation, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any company, firm or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business within the objects of this Company in any place, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of any such company, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company.

(53) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of dividends and interest on the stock, shares or securities of or belonging to any company, firm or person, or to make or give any other loan or guarantee in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely directly or indirectly to further the objects of this Company or the interests of its shareholders, and whether with or without any security being received.

(54) To sell, exchange, lease, let on rent, royalty, share of profits, or otherwise grant licences, easements, and other rights of and over, and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking or business, and all or any of the property for the time being of the Company for such consideration as may be agreed, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, but subject, where a winding-up is in contemplation, to the conditions imposed by section 181 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

(55) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise) or any corporations, companies or persons, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, corporation, company or person any charters, rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such charters, rights, privileges and concessions.

(56) To register the Company, or constitute or incorporate it as an anonymous or other society, and to procure it to be recognised in any foreign country or place.

(57) To arrange that any amalgamation of this Company with any other company whose objects are or include objects similar to those of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking shall be subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company as aforesaid, with or without winding-up, or shall be by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares or stock of this or such other company as aforesaid or by partnership, or any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner, and to arrange for the business of this company to be managed and carried on by another company.

(58) To distribute among the Members in cash, in shares of other companies, in kind, specie, or otherwise, by way of dividend or bonus, or upon a return of capital, any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law.

(59) To form and apply a reserve fund or reserve funds of the Company for the purposes of providing for depreciation or losses, for special dividends, for equalising dividends, or for carrying out the objects of the Company, for redeeming debentures or debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or to cover the loss on wear or tear, or other depreciation or diminution in value of any property of the Company, for the gradual liquidation of any debt or liability of the Company, or for repairing, improving, enlarging or maintaining any of the property of the Company to cover risks or liabilities not insured against by the Company, for developing new undertakings of the character which the Company is authorized to carry on, or for such other purposes as shall be considered conducive to the interests of the Company.

(60) To invest and deal with the reserve funds of the Company, and any moneys of the Company not for the time being required for the general purposes of the Company, in the business of the Company, and in such stocks, funds, shares, securities or investments (other than shares in the Company) although not of a nature authorized by law for the investment of trust funds, as the directors may think fit, and from time to time vary such investments, and to deposit any moneys or securities of the Company with any other company or association.

(61) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized in any part of the world, either alone or in conjunction with, or as contractors, factors, trustees, or agents for any other companies, corporations or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees or agents.

(62) To provide for the welfare of persons in or formerly in the employment of the Company, or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families and dependents of such persons, by grants of money, pensions or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards places of instruction and recreation, and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, insurance and other assistance, as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe to or otherwise aid, benevolent, religious, scientific, national or other institutions, exhibitions or objects, which shall have any moral or other claims to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operations or otherwise.

(63) To promote freedom of contract, and to resist, insure against, counteract and discourage interference therewith, and to subscribe to any association or fund for any such purposes.

(64) To advertise, and to do all such other things as are incidental to or connected with any of the above objects, or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

(65) The objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and, accordingly, shall be in no wise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or in the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense, as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct and independent company; in these presents words referring to persons include firms and corporations, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa.

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before His Lordship Mr. Justice Neville, on Tuesday, the 10th day of November, 1914; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor or Shareholder, or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitors, Messrs. Minchin, Garrett and Co., of No. 22 and 23, Laurence Pountney-lane, Cannon-street, London, E.C., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 20th day of October, 1914.
