TUESDAY, 17 NOVEMBER, 1914.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances Tithings, Hamlets, Chapelries, and other Places, or Districts, may be separated from the Parishes or Mother Churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and Places altogether extra-parochial may, in some instances, with advantage, be annexed to Parishes or Districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate Parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own Diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any Diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop, that any such Tithing, Hamlet, Chapelry, Place, or District, within the Diocese of such Archbishop, or the Diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any Parish of Mother Church, and either be constituted a separate Benefice by itself or be united to any other Parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining

Tithing, Hamlet, Chapelry, Place, or District, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate Parish or Benefice, or that any Extra-Parochial Place may with advantage be annexed to any Parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate Parish for ecclesiastical purposes; And the said Archbishop, or Bishop, shall draw up a Scheme in writing (the Scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, Glebe Lands, Tithes, Rent Charges, and other Ecclesiastical Dues, Rates, and Payments, and in respect to Patronage and Rights to Pews, may be made with justice to all Parties interested; and if the Patron or Patrons of the Benefice or Benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such Scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such Scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such Consent as aforesaid, by his Report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such Scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

"I, the Right Reverend George Rodney, Lord Bishop of Wakefield, do hereby represent to Your Grace as follows:—

"That there is in the County of York, and within my Diocese of Wakefield, the New Vicarage and Parish of Coley particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured Pink.

"That there is also in the same County and Diocese the New Vicarage and Parish of Lightcliffe particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured Blue, Yellow and Purple.

"That the population of the said Parish of Coley is according to the last Census 2,000.

"That the population of the said Parish of Lightcliffe is according to the last Census 4,863.

"That the net annual value of the said New Vicarage of Coley is £420, and that of the said New Vicarage of Lightcliffe £290.

"That George Thomas Jowett, Clerk, Master of Arts, Doctor of Divinity, is the present Incumbent of the said New Vicarage of Coley, and Andrew Ewbank Burn, Clerk, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of Halifax, and Prebendary of Lichfield Cathedral, is the Patron or person entitled, in right of his said Vicarage of Halifax, to present to the said New Vicarage were the same now vacant.

"That Charles Lacy Hulbert, Clerk, Master of Arts, is the present Incumbent of the said New Vicarage of Lightcliffe, and the said Vicar of Halifax is also the Patron or person entitled to present to the said New Vicarage were the same now vacant.

"That the said Patron and Incumbents have all consented to the separation and annexation hereafter proposed, and their Consents in writing are hereunto annexed.

"That that portion of the said Parish of Lightcliffe (coloured Yellow on the said map or plan hereto annexed) within which is situated part of the Village of Hipperholme is at a distance of two-thirds of a mile from the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, and at a distance of three-quarters of a mile from the Parish Church of Coley.

"That that portion of the said Parish of Lightcliffe (coloured purple on the said map or plan hereto annexed) within which is situated the Hamlet of Norwood Green is at a distance of one and a third miles or thereabouts from the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, and at a distance of one and a quarter miles or thereabouts from the Parish Church of Coley.

"That the two portions of the said Parish of Lightcliffe coloured respectively yellow and purple on the said map or plan contain populations respectively estimated at 511 and 700.

"That there is a licensed Mission Church situate within that portion of the Parish of Lightcliffe coloured purple on the said plan, viz.: at Norwood Green, sufficient for the Inhabitants there, but beyond this there is no Church or Chapel within either of the said two portions, and it would be more convenient for the Inhabitants of the said portions coloured yellow and purple to attend Divine Service at the Parish Church of Coley than at the Parish Church at Lightcliffe, and that the Incumbent of Coley could more easily work the said portions of the Parish of Lightcliffe coloured as aforesaid yellow and purple than can the Incumbent of Lightcliffe.

"That it appears to me that the said two portions of the said Parish of Lightcliffe, coloured respectively yellow and purple on the said plan, may, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament passed in the First and Second years of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 106, and the 2nd and 3rd years of the Reign of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 49, be advantageously separated from that Parish, and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Coley.

"That, pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th Section of the first before-mentioned Act of Parliament, I, the said George Rodney, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it seems to me that the alteration above proposed may be made with justice to all parties interested, and I do submit the same to Your Grace to the intent that Your Grace may, if on full consideration and Inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said Scheme, certify the same and such Consents as aforesaid to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme, drawn up by the said Bishop, and the Consents referred to in the said Representation, are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate two portions of the Parish of Lightcliffe, in the County of York, and Diocese of Wakefield, more particularly delineated on the map or plan annexed hereto, and thereon coloured respectively yellow and purple, from the said Parish of Lightcliffe to which they belong, and to annex them to the Parish of Coley, in the same County and Diocese, to which they are contiguous, for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That the Vicar of the said Parish of Lightcliffe shall cease to have cure of souls within the said two portions of Lightcliffe proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, and the Vicar of the said Parish of Coley shall have sole and exclusive charge of souls within the same.

"That the inhabitants of the said two portions of Lightcliffe, proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the Parish Church of Lightcliffe, or any other Church or Chapel now or hereafter to be erected within that Parish, but shall be liable as other Inhabitants of the said Parish of Coley to the repairs of the said Parish Church of Coley, and the Inhabitants of the said two portions shall have the same rights as to Pews and the performance of all Offices and Services of the Church at the said Parish Church of Coley, and otherwise in relation to the same Church and the Parish belonging thereto, as the other Inhabitants of the same Parish.

"That the Fees for such Offices and Services performed for the Inhabitants of the said two portions of Lightcliffe as aforesaid, or arising within the limits of the same, and usually payable to the Incumbent of a Benefice, shall belong to the Incumbent of the Benefice of Coley.

"That no alteration shall be made in respect of the Patronage, or any Glebe Land, Tithe, Tithe-Rent-charge, or other Endowment of either of the said Benefices of Coley and Lightcliffe."

"CONSENTS.

"We, George Thomas Jowett, Clerk, Master of Arts, Doctor of Divinity, the present Incumbent of the New Vicarage of Halifax, Charles Lacy Hulbert, Clerk, Master of Arts, the present Incumbent of the New Vicarage of Lightcliffe, both in the County of York and Diocese of Wakefield, and I, Andrew Ewbank Burn, Clerk, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of the Vicarage and Parish Church of Halifax, in the same County and Diocese, the Patron or person entitled (in right of my said Vicarage of Halifax) to present to the said two Benefices were the same now vacant, do hereby give this our consent in writing to the foregoing Representation and Scheme, and to the several matters and things therein stated and proposed.

"As witness our hands this 17th day of April, 1914.

"GEO. THOS. JOWETT,
Incumbent of Coley.

"CHARLES LACY HULBERT,
Incumbent of Lightcliffe.

"ANDREW E. BURN,
Patron of Coley and Lightcliffe."

And whereas the said Scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said Scheme, hath certified the same, and the Consents aforesaid, to His Majesty in Council by his Report dated the 22nd day of May, 1914, which said Report is in the words and figures following:—

"We, the undersigned, Cosmo Gordon, by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that The Right Reverend George Rodney, by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Wakefield, has represented to Us that it appears to him that the two portions of the Parish of Lightcliffe (more particularly described in the Map and Scheme hereto annexed and on the said map coloured yellow and purple) in the County of York, and Diocese of Wakefield, may be advantageously united and consolidated with the contiguous Parish of Coley, in the same County and Diocese, for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a Representation, and Scheme, in writing, and has transmitted the same to Us for our consideration, describing the mode in which it appears to him that the separation and union may best be effected with justice to all parties.

"That the Patronage of the said two Benefices of Coley and Lightcliffe is vested in the Reverend Andrew Ewbank Burn, Clerk, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of the Vicarage and Parish Church of Halifax, in the same County and Diocese, in right of his said Vicarage of Halifax.

"That the Reverend George Thomas Jowett, Clerk, Master of Arts, Doctor of Divinity, is the present Incumbent of the New Vicarage of Coley, and the Reverend Charles Lacy Hulbert, Clerk, Master of Arts, is the present Incumbent of the New Vicarage of Lightcliffe.

"That the Patron and Incumbents of the said Benefices of Coley and Lightcliffe are consenting parties to the Scheme hereinafter proposed.

"The Representation of the said Lord Bishop, together with the Consents of the Patron and Incumbents are hereunto annexed, and we, the said Archbishop, on full consideration and inquiry, being satisfied with such Scheme do hereby certify the same, and such Consents as aforesaid, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying such Scheme into effect.

"COSMO EBOR."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Scheme be carried into effect.

Almeric FitzRoy.

His MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men for their conspicuous bravery whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Rank.	Name.	Corps, etc.	Action for which commended.
Captain ...	Francis Octavus Grenfell	9th Lancers ...	For gallantry in action against unbroken infantry at Andregnies, Belgium, on 24th August, 1914, and for gallant conduct in assisting to save the guns of the 119th Battery, Royal Field Artillery, near Doubon the same day.
Captain ...	Douglas Reynolds...	37th Battery Royal Field Artillery	At Le Cateau, on 26th August, he took up two teams and limbered up two guns under heavy Artillery and Infantry fire, and though the enemy was within 100 yards he got one gun away safely. At Pisseloup, on 9th September, he reconnoitred at close range, discovered a battery which was holding up the advance and silenced it. He was severely wounded 15th September, 1914.

Rank.	Name.	Corps, etc.	Action for which commended.
Captain	... Theodore Wright... [Габриэль] [Габриэль]	Royal Engineers	Gallantry at Mons on 23rd August in attempting to connect up the lead to demolish a bridge under heavy fire; although wounded in the head he made a second attempt. At Vailly, on 14th September, he assisted the passage of 5th Cavalry Brigade over the pontoon bridge and was mortally wounded whilst assisting wounded men into shelter.
Lieutenant	... Maurice James Dease	4th Battalion, The Royal Fusiliers	Though two or three times badly wounded he continued to control the fire of his machine guns at Mons on 23rd August until all his men were shot. He died of his wounds.
Captain	... Harry Sherwood Ranken	Royal Army Medical Corps	For tending wounded in the trenches under rifle and shrapnel fire at Hautvesnes on 19th September, and on 20th September continuing to attend to wounded after his thigh and leg had been shattered. (He has since died of his wounds.)
Battery Sergeant-Major	George Thomas Dorrell (Regtl. No. 12343) (Now 2nd Lieut.)	"L" Battery Royal Horse Artillery	For continuing to serve a gun until all the ammunition was expended after all officers were killed or wounded, in spite of a concentrated fire from guns and machine guns at a range of 600 yards, at Nery, on 1st September.
Sergeant	... David Nelson ... (Regtl. No. 34419) (Now 2nd Lieut.)	"L" Battery Royal Horse Artillery	Helping to bring the guns into action under heavy fire at Nery on 1st September, and while severely wounded remaining with them until all the ammunition was expended—although he had been ordered to retire to cover.
Corporal	... Charles Ernest Garforth (Regtl. No. 7368.)	15th Hussars	At Harmignies on 23rd August volunteered to cut wire under fire which enabled his squadron to escape. At Dammartin he carried a man out of action. On 3rd September, when under maxim fire, he extricated a sergeant whose horse had been shot, and by opening fire for 3 minutes enabled the sergeant to get away safely.
Lance-Corporal	Charles Alfred Jarvis (Regtl. No. 3976.)	57th Field Company Royal Engineers	For great gallantry at Jenappes on August 23rd in working for 1½ hours under heavy fire in full view of the enemy, and in successfully firing charges for the demolition of a bridge.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 14TH NOVEMBER 1914.)

SUFFOLK (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER OF 1914.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Power for Local Authority to make Regulations as to movement of swine within their District.

1.—(1) The Local Authority of any District specified in the Schedule to this Order may, with a view to the prevention of the spreading of swine-fever, make such Regulations as they think fit for:—

(i) prohibiting or regulating the movement of swine within the whole of their district or within any part or parts thereof;

(ii) regulating the movement of swine from any market, fairground, or saleyard within their District;

(iii) regulating the detention and isolation of swine so moved.

(2) Nothing in any Regulation made under this Order shall affect, and no Licence or Declaration under any such Regulation shall be required for, the movement of swine which are being moved with a licence granted under any other Order of the Board.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

2.—(1) Every person in charge of a pig or thing being moved, where under this Order or under any Regulation of a Local Authority under this Order, a Movement Licence or Declaration is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Movement Licence or Declaration, if any, authorizing the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Every person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

3.—(1) A Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board a copy of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Notice served or any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, that the same is for any reason objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Offences.

4.—(1) If a pig is moved in contravention of any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2) If a pig is not isolated as required by any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the occupier of the place where the pig is detained shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(3) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order, or under any Regulation made by a Local Authority under this Order, a Movement Licence or Declaration is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Short Title.

RHONDDA URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL
(TRAMWAYS EXTENSIONS, &c.).

(Construction of Additional Tramways in Clydach Vale and Blaenrhondda and of new Road and Street Improvements; Further Tramway Powers, including Granting of Leases of Tramways; Increased and Differential Tolls, Rates and Charges; Construction of certain Works by Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway Company; Breaking up of Streets and Alterations of Levels; Acquisition of Lands and Modification of Lands Clauses Acts; Street and Building Regulations; Sewers and Drains; Infectious Diseases and Sanitary Provisions; Registration of Slaughtermen; Regulation of Shows, Fairs, etc.; Licensing of Hackney Carriages; Further Powers in respect of Gas and Water Undertakings of the Council; Subscriptions to Local Government Associations and Payment of Expenses of Deputations and Public Ceremonies; Appointment of Clerks, etc., to assist Overseers; Borrowing Money and other Financial Provisions; Incorporation, Application, Amendment and Repeal of Acts and Orders and other provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Rhondda Urban District Council (hereinafter called "the Council") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Council to construct and maintain all or some of the tramways hereinafter described with all necessary and proper rails, plates, sleepers, channels, passages and tubes for ropes, cables, wires and electric lines, junctions, turntables, turnouts, crossings, passing places, stables, carriage houses, engine, boiler and dynamo houses, sheds, buildings, posts, wires, works and conveniences connected therewith respectively.

(In this Notice, unless otherwise stated, where in any description any distance is given with reference to any street or road, such distance is measured from the centre of such street or road, and where a distance is given with reference to the junction of any two or more streets or roads, such distance is measured from the points at which lines drawn along the centres of such streets or roads and produced would intersect each other. A point described as opposite to any street or road is to be taken as being opposite the centre of such street or road, and in the description of the proposed tramways, new road, street works and narrow places all distances and lengths given are to be read as if the words "or thereabouts" had been inserted after each such distance or length.)

The tramways proposed to be authorized will be wholly situate in the parish of Rhondda and Rhondda Urban District, in the county of Glamorgan, and are the following:—

Tramway No. 1.—A single line 3·9 chains in length, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway in Llwynypia-road at a point 16 yards measured in a northerly direction from the junction of Llwynypia-road, De Winton-street and Church-street, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway in Llwynypia-road at a point 18 yards measured in a southerly direction from the south-eastern corner of the Thistle Hotel.

Tramway No. 1 will be a doubling between the before-mentioned points of the existing line authorized by the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways, &c.) Act, 1902.

Tramway No. 2.—A double line 1 furlong 6·10 chains in length, commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 1 at a point 52 yards measured in a southerly direction from the south-eastern corner of the Thistle Hotel, passing thence along Llwynypia-road, Berw-road, the new road (Work No. 1) hereinafter described, and Court-street, and terminating at the junction of Davies-street with Court-street.

Tramway No. 3.—1 mile 9·7 chains in length, of which 2 chains is single line and 1 mile 7·7 chains is double line, commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 2 at its termination as hereinbefore described, passing thence along Court-street, Clydach-road, Wern-street and Howard-street, and terminating at the junction of Park-street with Howard-street.

Tramway No. 4.—6 furlongs 4·4 chains in length, of which 4 furlongs 2·4 chains is single line and 2 furlongs 2 chains is double line, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway in Wyndham-street, Tynewydd, opposite the southern corner of the boundary wall of St. Alban's Church, passing thence along Wyndham-street, Blaen-y-cwm-road, Blaenrhondda-road, and Brook-street, and terminating at the junction of Cross Brook-street with Brook-street.

In the following instances the tramways will be so laid that for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpaths on the side or sides of the roads or streets hereinafter mentioned and the nearest rail of the tramway (that is to say):—

Tramway No. 1.

In Llwynypia-road on both sides of the street.

Tramway No. 2.

(3) In Blaen-y-cwm-road on the northern side between a point 65 yards measured in an easterly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that road over the Rhondda Fawr river and the centre of such bridge.

(4) In Blaen-y-cwm-road on the southern side between points respectively 48 yards and 26 yards measured in an easterly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that road over the Rhondda Fawr river.

(5) In Blaen-y-cwm-road on the southern side between points respectively 27 yards and 107 yards measured in a westerly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that road over the Rhondda Fawr river.

(6) In Blaen-y-cwm-road on the northern side between a point 27 yards measured in a westerly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that road over the Rhondda Fawr river and the junction of Blaen-y-cwm-road with Blaenrhondda-road.

(7) In Blaenrhondda-road from its junction with Blaen-y-cwm-road to the centre of the bridge over the Rhondda Fawr river.

(8) In Blaenrhondda-road on the western side between a point 13 yards measured in a southerly direction from the southern side of the bridge carrying the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway over that road and a point 50 yards measured in a northerly direction from the south side of such bridge.

(9) In Blaenrhondda-road on the western side between a point 138 yards measured in a northerly direction from the southern side of the bridge carrying the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway over that road and the centre of the bridge over the Rhondda Fawr river.

(10) In Brook-street on both sides of the street from the centre of the bridge over the Rhondda Fawr river to a point 50 yards measured in a northerly direction from the centre of such bridge.

(11) In Brook-street on both sides of the street from a point 10 chains measured in a northerly direction from the centre of the bridge over the Rhondda Fawr river to the junction of Cross Brook-street with Brook-street.

The intended tramways are proposed to be constructed on a gauge of 3 feet 6 inches or such other gauge as may be approved by the Board of Trade, and it is not intended to run thereon carriages or trucks adapted to run on railways. The motive power proposed to be employed upon the tramways will be animal or mechanical power (including electrical or any other power not being animal power) or partly one such power and partly another.

To constitute the tramways part of the tramway undertaking of the Council and to incorporate in the intended Act and to extend and make applicable, with or without modification or exception, and to repeal or render inapplicable to the said tramways and the working thereof all or some of the provisions of the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways, &c.) Act, 1902, the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways Extensions, &c.) Act, 1910, and the Rhondda Urban District Council Act, 1911, and to substitute therefor all or some of the provisions of the intended Act.

To empower the Council in connection with their existing and authorized tramways and the tramways to be authorized by the intended Act to make from time to time such crossings, passing places, sidings, loops, junctions and other works, in addition to those specified herein, as may be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of such tramways or any of them, or for affording access to the stables, carriage houses, sheds and works of the Council or their lessees, or for effecting junctions with the tramways or railways of the Council or of any other corporation, district council, company or person, and to lay down double in lieu of single lines and single in lieu of double lines or interlacing lines in lieu of double or single lines, and to enable the Council to exercise all or any of the before-mentioned powers, whether with or without the consent of the Board of Trade or of the owners or occupiers of premises abutting on the streets in which such powers may be exercised.

To empower the Council from time to time when by reason of the execution of any work in or the alteration of any street, road, highway or thoroughfare in which any tramway shall be laid it is necessary or expedient so to do, to alter, remove or discontinue all or any of such tramways, and to make and lay down, temporarily or permanently, in the same or any adjacent street, road, highway or thoroughfare, a substituted tramway or substituted tramways.

To provide for the repair by the Council, their lessees or other persons, of any streets or roads in which any tramway may for the time being be laid, and for the use or disposition of any materials or things found in the construction or repair of any of the intended tramways.

To empower the Council from time to time to take up and remove any of the existing or intended tramways or any part thereof respectively, and to relay the same in such part of the streets or roads as the Council may think fit.

To empower the Council to erect and maintain shelters and waiting rooms in connection with their tramways, and to enable them to make bye-laws and regulations with regard to any of the proposed tramways.

To provide that so much of section 34 of the Tramways Act, 1870, as limits the extent of any carriages used on any tramway beyond the outer edge of the wheels of such carriages shall not apply to carriages used on the said intended tramways.

To authorize the Council and their lessees to work the said intended tramways and to place and run carriages thereon, and to demand and take tolls in respect of the use of such carriages.

To authorize the Council and their lessees or other the person or persons working the said intended tramways to levy tolls, rates and charges for the use thereof and for the conveyance of passengers, goods, parcels, minerals, animals, merchandise and other traffic upon the same, and for such purposes to increase the tolls, rates and charges (including fares for workmen) which the Council or their lessees are empowered to levy in respect of the existing tramways, and to levy differential tolls, rates and charges (including fares for workmen) in respect of the said intended tramways or any one or more of them, and to confer exemptions from tolls, rates and charges.

To empower the Council and their lessees for the purpose of working the said intended tramways to erect, place, make and maintain works, engines, machinery, dynamos and apparatus for the production, storage and supply of electricity or other power, and to generate electricity upon any existing and authorized generating station, and to lay down, erect, construct, maintain, above, upon and below the surface of the ground, and to attach to houses and buildings, mains, wires, pipes, conductors, cables, ropes, posts, brackets, boxes, apparatus and things necessary or proper for the transmission of electricity or other power and the working of the intended tramways or any of them by electricity or other power.

To authorize the Council on the one hand, and the Rhondda Tramways Company, Limited, or any other company, local authority, body or person on the other hand, from time to time to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for and in relation to the construction, working, lease, sale and purchase of the whole or any part of the tramways, and with respect to the placing or running of carriages on any such tramways, the supply of rolling-stock, plant, machinery, and electrical energy, the conveyance and interchange of traffic thereon and the payment, collection, division and apportionment of rents, tolls, rates and charges arising from such tramways and traffic for such consideration and generally upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the contracting parties or as the Bill may define.

To confer special powers upon the Council in respect to the granting of a lease of all or any of the intended tramways to the Rhondda Tramways Company, Limited, or any other company, body or person, for such periods (extending if thought fit beyond the period of 21 years named in the Tramways Act, 1870), at such rent, nominal or otherwise, and upon and subject to such terms and conditions (including the payment or contribution of money by the Council to the lessees) as may be agreed upon or prescribed by the intended Act, to provide for the construction by the lessees of any tramways so leased, and to prescribe the terms upon which the same shall be purchased by the Council upon the expiration of any such lease, and for those purposes, or any of them, to vary or amend the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, and of the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways, &c.) Act, 1902, and the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways Extensions, &c.) Act, 1910.

To confirm any agreement which may have been or which during the progress of the Bill may be entered into touching any of the matters aforesaid.

To incorporate in the intended Act and to apply to the Council and their lessees, with or without alteration, all or some of the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, and to make all other provision which may be necessary or convenient for all or any of the purposes of constructing, maintaining and working the proposed tramways.

To empower the Council to make and maintain the following works and improvements in the said parish of Rhondda (that is to say):—

Work No. 1. A new road at Tonypany, 36 feet wide, commencing by a junction with Berw-road at or near the north-western corner of the premises of the Conservative Club, and terminating by a junction with Court-street at a point in that street 44 yards measured in an easterly direction from the junction of Davies-street with Court-street.

Work No. 2. An alteration (by increasing the headway) of the bridge carrying the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway over Blaenrhondda-road, and an alteration of the levels of the said road for a distance of 61 yards in a northerly direction and of 97 yards in a southerly direction from the centre of such bridge.

Work No. 3. An alteration (by increasing the headway) of the bridge carrying the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway over Blaen-y-cwm-road, and an alteration of the levels of the said road for a distance of 42 yards in an easterly direction and of 25 yards in a westerly direction from the centre of such bridge.

To empower the Council to make and carry out an improvement and alteration of the levels of the following public streets or parts of streets in the said parish of Rhondda (namely):

(a) Of Berw-road from its junction with Llwynypia-road to a point 30 yards measured in a north-westerly direction from its junction with School-terrace and Thistle-terrace.

(b) Of Thistle-terrace from a point 35 yards measured in a southerly direction from its junction with Berw-road to such junction, and of School-terrace from its junction with Berw-road to a point 22 yards measured in a northerly direction from such junction.

(c) Of Court-street from a point 45 yards measured in a westerly direction from the junction of Waun-road with Court-street to a point 41 yards measured in a westerly direction from the junction of Fern-terrace with Court-street.

(d) Wern-street from a point 30 yards measured in an easterly direction from the junction of Oak-street with Wern-street to the western end of Wern-street.

To authorize the Council in connection with the before-mentioned works and improvements or otherwise for the purpose of the intended Act to make all necessary approaches, excavations, retaining walls, piers, abutments, embankments, girders, girder-bed-stones, bridges, arches, roads, footways, piling, sewers, drains, culverts and other works and conveniences, to replace the road metalling and footways, paving and channelling, to take down, build and rebuild so far as may be necessary any iron-work or masonry that may require to be taken down, built, or rebuilt, to make good any iron-work or masonry disturbed during and consequent on the construction of the before-mentioned works and improvements, and to make junctions and communications with any streets or roads which may be intersected or interfered with by the before-mentioned works and improvements or may be adjacent thereto, and to make diversions or alterations in the lines and levels of existing carriageways and footways of any streets or roads for the purpose of connecting the same with or making a convenient communication therewith, and to authorize the Council for the purposes of the intended Act and of the before-mentioned works and improvements to remove or alter the position of or interfere with any steps, areas, forecourts, railings, walls, fences, works or apparatus.

To make provision, if thought fit, for the repair and maintenance by the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway Company of the before-mentioned works and improvements so far as they affect the property of that Company, and to enable the Council and that Company to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the construction, maintenance and repair of such works and improvements.

To authorize the Council, in connection with any of the intended works, to stop up or cause to be stopped up temporarily all or any part of any carriageway or footway which it may be deemed necessary to stop up, and to construct temporary works for keeping any such carriageway or footway open for traffic, and to make such orders for regulating the traffic as may be necessary or expedient.

To empower the Council to widen the carriageway of any road along which the existing or intended tramways are or will be laid by reducing the width of the footpath or otherwise as may be expedient for or in connection with the construction of any of the intended works.

To empower the Council in the construction of any of the intended works and improvements (other than tramways) to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels shown upon the deposited plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, and to underpin, support, and otherwise strengthen walls and buildings near to or which may be affected by any of the proposed works, without being required to purchase the same.

To enable the Council for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act to stop up, break up, alter, divert, and interfere with, either permanently or temporarily (and if permanently to appropriate the site and soil of and to extinguish all rights of way over), and to cross over, under or upon all such public or private streets, roads, highways, bridges, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, rivers, navigations, canals, streams, brooks, watercourses, footways, sewers, drains, gas and water and other pipes, and telegraphic, telephonic, and electric and other apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to do for any of the purposes of the intended Act.

To empower the Council for the purposes of the intended works and improvements and of the intended Act to purchase and take, by compulsion or agreement, all or any of the lands, houses and buildings shown upon the deposited plans and described in the deposited books of reference thereto hereinafter referred to, and also any rights and easements in or over any such lands, houses and buildings, and to empower the Council to appropriate and use for the purposes of the intended Act any lands belonging to or vested in them, and to make exchanges of land with other bodies and persons, and upon any such exchanges to pay or receive money for equality of exchange, and to empower the Council to retain and hold and appropriate any lands acquired by them under the intended Act and not required for the purposes of the intended works and improvements freed from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to superfluous lands, and to erect buildings thereon, and to grant leases of such lands and buildings.

To empower the Council to purchase so much only of or such easements or right in, under or over any property as they may require for any of the purposes of the Bill, and to exempt the Council from the liability imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To make special provisions as to determining the purchase money and compensation payable in respect of lands and property acquired for the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide for limiting the amount thereof and claims in respect thereof in cases of recent buildings and alterations and recently created interests therein, for taking into account the increased value of any lands retained by the claimants by reason of the proposed works, and as to the payment of costs in certain cases of disputed compensation by persons failing to send in sufficient particulars of their claims.

To confer on the Council new and enlarged powers, and to make further provisions with reference to the width of new streets in certain cases, the widening of new streets by owners of property on either side, the restriction on placing of rails, beams or other apparatus over streets, the fencing of forecourts from streets, the prohibition of the erection of retaining walls except in a manner to be prescribed, and in accordance with approved plans, sections, and specifications, the building up of chimneys in case of buildings erected to greater height than adjoining buildings, the taking down or repair of dilapidated buildings, the materials to be used in the construction of buildings, the provision of accommodation for storage of food in new houses, the floor area of habitable rooms, the construction of specially large sewers in new streets, the laying of drains in private streets, the reconstruction of drains, the ventilation of soil pipes, the submission of plans before watercourses are culverted or covered over, and to provide that choked-up streams and watercourses be deemed a nuisance within the meaning of the Public Health Acts.

To confer further powers on the Council with regard to infectious diseases, sanitary and other matters, and in particular:—To make provision for restricting the attendance of children in Sunday Schools when infectious disease exists and to close Sunday Schools; to require information to be furnished in case of infectious disease; to prevent the contact of other persons with the body of a person who has died of infectious disease, and to make regulations for the conveyance of the body of any such person by railway or other conveyance; the examination of inmates of common lodging-houses where infectious disease is supposed to exist; the removal of persons suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis to hospital; to enable the Council to cleanse houses infested with vermin and the contents of such houses, and to cleanse verminous persons and their clothing; to compel dairymen, cowkeepers, and purveyors of milk to cleanse milk vessels; to provide for imposition of penalties for wilful damage to drains and sanitary apparatus; to prohibit any place where food is stored being used as a sleeping place; to extend the provisions of the Public Health Acts and Sale of Food and Drugs Acts so as to authorize the inspection, taking of samples and seizure by officers of the Council of meat and other food-stuffs, whether exposed for sale or not, and to prohibit the sale thereof except after such inspection; to define the establishment of a new business; the appointment of additional inspectors of nuisances; to make provision for the inspection of slaughterhouses and the registration and licensing of slaughtermen; and to confer upon the Council and their officers powers of entry and inspection of premises in respect of all or any of the foregoing matters.

To prohibit the letting or use of land for circuses, shows, fairs and other similar purposes without proper provision for water supply and sanitary conveniences, and the approval of plans, sections and other particulars of any building, tent, van or shed intended to be used for such purposes.

To enable the Council to grant occasional licences for hackney carriages and other public vehicles.

To make further provision with regard to the gas undertaking of the Council, and particularly with regard to the following matters:—The pressure and testing of gas; the payment of a minimum charge for gas supplied to any person having a separate supply of gas or of electricity, and the terms and conditions upon which a supply in such cases is to be given by the Council, and the entry by the Council upon premises to remove gas fittings.

To make further provision with regard to the water undertaking of the Council, and particularly with regard to the following matters:—The repair by the Council at the expense of the owner or occupier of communication pipes; the contribution towards the maintenance of a common pipe by the owner or occupier of the houses supplied by that pipe; to empower persons liable to maintain pipes and apparatus to open the ground between the mains of the Council and the premises of such person for the purpose of maintaining, repairing and relaying such pipes and apparatus; and to empower the Council to make additional charges for water used for washing horses; carriages and motor-cars.

To enable the Council to subscribe to local government associations and to pay the expenses of deputations from the Council and their officials in attending conferences and other meetings, and the expenses of or connected with public ceremonies.

To empower the Council to appoint and remove such clerks, collectors and other officers as they may deem necessary to assist the Overseers in the discharge of their duties, to provide for the payment of their salaries, and to require them to give security for the performance of their duties.

To empower the Council to borrow or raise money for the purchase of land for and the construction of the intended tramways, and of the several works and improvements to be authorized by and for other the purposes of the intended Act, and to charge such money on the district fund and general district rate or other local rates and the undertakings, rates, rents, revenues and other property of the Council or on any of such securities, and to grant and issue mortgages, stock, debentures, debenture stock and annuities in respect thereof, and to authorize the Council to apply any of their funds or any money which they are authorized to borrow to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to exclude any sums so borrowed from calculations as to the limit of borrowing powers under the Public Health Acts

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with, or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, repeal or amend, or to extend and apply to the intended Act all or some of the provisions of the following local Acts and Orders (namely):—The Ystrad Gas and Water Acts, 1868, 1874, and 1890; the Ystrad Gas and Water Orders, 1872, 1879, and 1883; the Ystradyfodwg Urban District Council (Gas and Water) Act, 1896; the Rhondda Urban District Council Act, 1899; the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways, etc.) Act, 1902; the Rhondda Urban District Council Act, 1905; the Rhondda Urban District Council (Tramways Extensions, etc.) Act, 1910; the Rhondda Urban District Council Act, 1911; and any other Act or Order relating directly or indirectly to the Council or to their tramway, gas and water undertakings.

To incorporate and apply, with or without modification, or render inapplicable, all or some of the provisions of the following public Acts:—The Public Health Acts; the Local Loans Act, 1875; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Tramways Act, 1870; the Light Railways Act, 1896; the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; the Arbitration Act, 1889; and all Acts amending those Acts respectively.

Plans and sections of the proposed tramways, and other works, including plans of the lands proposed to be acquired or used compulsorily under the authority of the intended Act, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at his office, at Cardiff, and with the Clerk to the Rhondda Urban District Council, at his Office, at Pentre.

Printed copies of the intended Act or Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Board of Trade.—Session 1915.

LIVERPOOL GAS.
(Provisional Order.)

(Inclusion of Fazakerley in Limits of Supply of the Liverpool Gas Company and Transfer to Them of Gas Undertaking of Liverpool Corporation; Repeal of Corporation's Gas Powers; Terms and Conditions of Transfer; Agreements with Corporation; Rates and Charges; Maintenance and Erection of Gasworks and Residual Products Works; Houses for Employees, &c.; Disposal of Stock, Deposits, &c., of Employees, &c., by Nominations and on Intestacy, &c.; Application of Funds; Incorporation, Extension, Repeal and Amendment of Acts, Orders, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the twenty-third day of December next by or on behalf of the Liverpool Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, and section 66 of the Liverpool Gas Act, 1914 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1914") for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas so as to include in such limits the township of Fazakerley, in the city of Liverpool, and to extend to and apply within the said township with or without exceptions or modifications all or some of the provisions of the Liverpool Gas Acts, 1848 to 1914, and to confer upon the Company and enable them to exercise within the said township all or any of the powers, privileges and authorities for or in relation to the supply of gas which they have or may exercise within their existing limits for the supply of gas, including the powers of opening, breaking up or interfering with roads, bridges, highways, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, apparatus and other property, and laying down and constructing mains, pipes and other works.

2. To empower the Company to demand, take and recover such rents and charges (differential or otherwise) for and with respect to the supply of gas and the supply or hire of meters and fittings within the said township of Fazakerley as may be prescribed by or under the provisions of the intended Order.

3. To transfer to and vest in the Company or to empower the Company to acquire and the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the city of Liverpool (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") to sell to the Company the gas undertaking of the Corporation authorized by the Liverpool Corporation (Fazakerley) Gas Orders, 1906 and 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Fazakerley Gas Orders"), and all mains, pipes and works in the said township of Fazakerley belonging to and used by the Corporation for the manufacture and supply of gas (which undertaking, mains, pipes and works are hereinafter referred to as "the Fazakerley undertaking") and all or any of the stock in trade, residual products and other stores of the Corporation held by them in connection with the Fazakerley undertaking at such date, for such consideration, upon and subject to such terms and conditions and subject to such provisions with respect to the loans, liabilities and obligations of the Corporation or otherwise as are prescribed by the said section 66 of the Act of 1914 or as may have been or may be agreed between the Company and the Corporation or as may be settled by arbitration or expressed in or provided for by the intended Order or determined under the provisions thereof.

4. To make all such provisions for and with regard to or consequential on the transfer to and vesting in the Company or the sale and purchase of the Fazakerley undertaking or any of the matters aforesaid as may be necessary or expedient, including provisions for and with regard to the recovery and apportionment of rents, charges and other moneys accrued or accruing due in connection with the Fazakerley undertaking, the handing over of consumers' deposits held by the Corporation; the powers and obligations of the Corporation with regard to the carrying on of the Fazakerley undertaking until the transfer or sale thereof, and any other matters which may be in any way incidental to or consequential on or convenient in connection with the transfer, vesting, sale or purchase of the Fazakerley undertaking.

5. To confirm and give effect to any agreement between the Company and the Corporation with reference to any such transfer and vesting or purchase and sale which may have been or may be entered into by them.

6. To empower the Company to continue, maintain, alter, extend, enlarge, improve, renew and use or discontinue the gasworks and other works of the Corporation upon the lands in the said township of Fazakerley hereinafter described, and all mains, pipes and other works in the said township transferred to or acquired by them by or under the intended Order, and also on the said lands hereinafter described to construct, erect, alter, maintain and use additional or new works for the manufacture, storage, conversion, working up and utilisation of residual products and other matters used in or resulting from the manufacture of gas, and to make and store gas and manufacture, convert, work up, prepare and store such residual products and matters as aforesaid.

The lands above referred to are a plot of land belonging to the Corporation and comprising the site of their existing gasworks, which plot of land contains three and a half acres or thereabouts and is bounded on the north by the Fazakerley and North Mersey Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, on the south in part by land in the occupation of Thomas Spencer, and in other part by land in the occupation of the Moor Park Estate Company, on the west by Barlow's-lane, and on the east by an accommodation road leading from Longmoor-lane to the Railway Signal Works.

7. To empower the Company to purchase by agreement, take on lease, erect, fit up, maintain and let houses and cottages for persons in their employ, offices, showrooms and other buildings.

8. To make provision for and with respect to the disposal, application, and distribution on the death of the owners thereof of stock, deposits, and other moneys held under the Company's co-partnership scheme or deposited with the Company by any employees, to authorize the disposal of such stock, deposits, and moneys by nomination, to make or authorize the Company to make regulations with reference to such nominations, to confer powers upon the Company, the directors, and the trustees under the co-partnership scheme for giving effect to such nominations, and for the disposal and application of such stock, deposits, and moneys in cases of intestacy, minority of beneficiaries, and otherwise, and to empower the Board of Trade to modify, amend or repeal the provisions of the intended Order or any of them in regard to the aforesaid matters, and to prescribe new provisions in lieu thereof.

9. To empower the Company to apply to any of the purposes of the intended Order any money which they have raised or are authorized to raise under the Liverpool Gas Acts, 1848 to 1914.

10. To amend, extend, or repeal the provisions or some of the provisions of the Liverpool Gas Acts, 1848 to 1914, the Fazakerley Gas Orders, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or the Corporation, and to re-enact any of such provisions with or without modification or amendment, and particularly but not exclusively to re-enact, subject to modification, the provisions of Articles IX and X of the Liverpool Corporation (Fazakerley) Gas Order, 1906, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the thirtieth day of November, 1914, a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, and a map showing the lands to be used for the manufacture of gas and residual products, and a plan of the works proposed to be continued and maintained, will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade, and also for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster at his office at Preston.

And that on or before the twenty-third day of December next the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Offices of the Board of Trade, and printed copies thereof as so deposited and of the Provisional Order when made by the Board of Trade may be obtained at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents, at the price of one shilling for each copy.

Every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, on or before the fifteenth day of January, 1915, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents.

In forwarding to the Board of Trade such representation or objection the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Company's Solicitors or Agents.

Dated this tenth day of November, 1914.

Board of Trade.—Session 1914-1915.

BURY CORPORATION TRAMWAYS (PROVISIONAL ORDER).

(Powers to Corporation of Bury to Construct Additional Tramways in the Borough, to be Worked by Animal, Electrical or other Mechanical Power, and to Run Carriages Thereon, and Take Tolls and Charges for the Use Thereof; Breaking up Streets; Levying Tolls, Rates and Charges; Borrowing Moneys; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the county borough of Bury (hereinafter called "the Corporation") intend to apply to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order, to be confirmed by Parliament in the Session of 1914-1915, for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To enable the Corporation to make, lay down, form and maintain wholly in the township and county borough of Bury the tramways hereinafter described, with all necessary and proper rails, plates, sleepers, channels (including in that word where used in this notice channels, passages and tubes for cables, wires, poles and electric lines), junctions, turn-tables, turnouts, crossings, passing places, and conveniences connected therewith, and where in the description of the proposed tramways any distance is given with reference to any street which intersects or joins the street in which a tramway is to be laid, the distance (unless otherwise stated) is to be taken as measured along the centre of the street, from the point at which lines drawn along the centres of the two streets and continued would intersect each other, and a point described as being opposite a street is to be taken (unless otherwise stated) as opposite the centre of the street.

The proposed tramways are the following (that is to say):—

Tramway No. 1.—5 furlongs in length, commencing by a junction with the existing Tramway No. 6, authorized by the Bury Corporation Tramways Act, 1901, at its termination in Walmersley-road at Limefield, passing thence along the said road in a northerly direction and terminating in the centre of such road at a point measured 2.09 chains in a northerly direction from the northerly corner of the "New Inn."

Tramway No. 1 will be a double line throughout, except at the following place, where it will be a single line, viz., for a distance of 1.36 chains from the termination of the tramway.

Tramway No. 2.—3 furlongs 5 chains in length, commencing by a junction with that portion of Tramway No. 25, authorized by the said Act, which has been completed, at its termination in Rochdale Old-road, passing thence along the same road in an easterly direction, and terminating in the centre of such road, at the boundary of the borough and of the borough of Heywood.

Tramway No. 2 will be a single line throughout, except at the following places, where it will be a double line, viz.:—

(a) Between points 2.28 chains and 5.28 chains respectively east of the commencement of the tramway.

(b) Between a point 10 yards, measured in a south-westerly direction, from the south-westerly corner of the house numbered 519, Rochdale Old-road, and a point 16 yards, measured in an easterly direction from the easterly corner of the house numbered 531, Rochdale Old-road.

The proposed tramways will be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, and it is not intended to run on such tramways carriages or trucks adapted to run on railways, and it is not proposed to lay any tramways so that for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath on either side of the street and the nearest rail of the tramway, except in the case of the following tramways, and then only at the places hereinafter described (that is to say):—

Tramway No. 1.—In Walmersley-road on the westerly side thereof, extending from a point 1 yard north of the gable of the house numbered 669, Walmersley-road, to the northerly boundary wall of the churchyard of Christ Church.

Tramway No. 2.—In Rochdale Old-road on both sides thereof, extending from a point 37 yards, measured in a westerly direction, from the centre of the road leading to the Workhouse, to a point in the said Rochdale Old-road 29 yards, measured in an easterly direction from the centre of the last mentioned road.

In Rochdale Old-road on both sides thereof, extending from a point 10 yards, measured in a south-westerly direction, from the south-westerly corner of the house numbered 519, Rochdale Old-road, to a point in the same road 16 yards measured in an easterly direction from the easterly corner of the house numbered 531, Rochdale Old-road.

In Rochdale Old-road on both sides thereof, extending from a point at the boundary of the borough and of the borough of Heywood, to a point in the same road a distance of 100 yards, measured in a westerly direction.

To empower the Corporation to make from time to time such turnouts, crossings, passing places, sidings, loops, junctions, temporary tramways and other works, in addition to those specified herein, as may be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the proposed tramways, or for effecting junctions with other tramways of the Corporation, or for affording access to works or property of the Corporation.

To empower the Corporation to convert single lines into double or interlacing lines, or double lines into single, or interlacing lines, or interlacing lines into double or single lines on any of their tramways.

To empower the Corporation from time to time when, by reason of the execution of any work in or the alteration of any street, road, highway, or thoroughfare in which any tramway channel or electric line shall be laid or placed, it is necessary or expedient so to do, to alter, remove or discontinue all or any part of such tramway, and to make and lay down temporarily or permanently in the same or any adjacent street, road, highway, or thoroughfare, a substituted tramway or substituted tramways, or channels, or electric lines.

To confer on and to reserve to the Corporation and their lessees the exclusive right of using on any tramways to be constructed or maintained under the powers of the intended Order, carriages drawn or propelled by any motive power hereinafter mentioned, or having wheels adapted to run on or in an edged, grooved or other rail on such tramways.

To authorize the Corporation and their lessees, or other the person or persons working the said tramways, to levy tolls, rates, and charges for the use of the said tramways by carriages passing along the same, and for the conveyance of passengers, goods, minerals, animals, merchandise, and other traffic upon the same, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates and charges, and to alter existing tolls, rates and charges, and any exemptions therefrom.

To constitute the proposed tramways for all purposes part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation.

To empower the Corporation and their lessees to place or run carriages on and to work the new tramways by animal power or by any mechanical power (including in that expression electric and any other motive power, not being animal power), and partly by one power and partly by another, and for that purpose to supply and use electrical energy from any generating station of the Corporation, and to erect, place, work and maintain works, engines, machinery, dynamos and apparatus for the production, storage and supply of electricity or other power, and to lay down, erect, construct, and maintain above, upon and below the surface of the ground, and to attach to houses, buildings or trees, mains, wires, pipes, conductors, cables, ropes, posts, supports, brackets, boxes, apparatus and things necessary or proper for the transmission of electricity or other power, and the working of the new tramways or any of them by electricity or other power.

To empower the Corporation for all or any of the purposes of the Order to stop up, break up, alter, remove, cross, and interfere with temporarily or permanently public and private streets, roads, highways, footways, tramways, bridges, streams, water-courses, sewers, drains, gas, water and electricity mains, valves, hydrants, pipes, tubes, and street boxes, and telegraph, telephone, electric lighting and other apparatus.

To enable the Corporation for all or any of the purposes of the new tramways and works, to acquire lands and houses by agreement, and to take easements over lands and houses, and to erect and hold offices, buildings, and other conveniences on any such lands.

To empower the Corporation to make regulations and bye-laws for all or any of the purposes mentioned in section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, and to extend all or any of such bye-laws to the existing as well as to the said intended tramways.

To incorporate with the Order the provisions of section 265 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

To empower the Corporation to apply to the purposes of the Order their borough fund and borough rate, and any other funds, rates and revenues over which they have control, and any moneys they are now authorized to borrow, and to borrow such further sums as may be necessary for the purposes of the Order.

The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which might in any way interfere with its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will or may incorporate with itself, and with or without alteration, all or some of the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, the Lands Clauses Acts (except the compulsory powers thereof), and the Local Loans Act, 1875, and enable the Corporation (in addition to the powers herein specifically mentioned) to exercise all or any of the powers by the Tramways Act 1870 conferred on the persons therein referred to as Promoters, and will or may so far as may be necessary alter, amend, extend, and repeal the provisions of the Bury Corporation Act 1909 and any other Acts relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation, and of any and every other Act which will interfere with any of the objects of the Order.

Duplicate plans and sections of the proposed tramways and works, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster at his office at Preston, and on or before the same date a copy of the said plans and sections and of this Notice will be deposited with the Town Clerk of the county borough of Bury at his office at Bank-street, Bury, and at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Board of Trade.—Session 1915.

STAVELEY GAS.
(Provisional Order.)

(Extension of Limits of Supply of Gas to Include Parish of Barlborough, in the County of Derby; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; Application of Funds; Rates, Rents, and Charges; Price of Gas in Extended Limits; Incorporation of Acts and Amendment of Order and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by or on behalf of the Staveley Gas Light and Coke Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas so as to include within such limits the parish of Barlborough, in the rural district of Clown, in the county of Derby, and to extend to and apply within the new limits the provisions of the Staveley Gas Order, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1905"), subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the intended Order, and to confer upon the Company and to enable them to supply gas and to exercise within the new limits all or any of the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities which they have or may exercise within their existing limits of supply, including the powers of opening and breaking up public and private roads, highways, bridges, railways, canals, electric lines, sewers, drains, streams, watercourses, and other property, and laying down and constructing mains, pipes and other works, and to sanction and confirm the laying down and construction of and authorize the Company to maintain and use any mains, pipes, or other works which may have been or may before the commencement of the intended Order be laid down, constructed, or acquired by the Company within the new limits or any part thereof, and to empower the Company to demand, levy, take, and recover such rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas and meters and fittings within the new limits as may be prescribed by or under the provisions of the intended Order, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rents and charges.

To empower the Company for the purposes of their undertaking to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock and by borrowing upon mortgage and by the creation and issue of debentures or debenture stock, or by any of such means, and to attach to such new shares, stock, mortgages, debentures or debenture stock or some part thereof any preference or priority of principal dividends or interest, and such other rights and privileges as may be defined in the Order, and to empower the Company to apply to any of the purposes of the intended Order any moneys which they have raised or are authorized to raise under the Order of 1905.

To make provision as to the price of the gas supplied by the Company within the new limits of supply.

The intended Order will or may vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will or may alter, amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the Order of 1905.

To incorporate with the intended Order, with or without modification, all or any of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and the Acts amending those Acts respectively.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, and a map showing the existing and proposed limits of supply will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, and also for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Derby at his office in Derby.

And that on or before the 23rd day of December next the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade aforesaid, and printed copies thereof, as so deposited, and of the Provisional Order when made by the Board of Trade, may be obtained at the offices of the undersigned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agents, at the price of one shilling for each copy.

Every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January next ensuing, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitor or Parliamentary Agents.

In forwarding to the Board of Trade such representations or objections the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Company's Solicitor or Agents.

Dated this 4th day of November, 1914.

ALBERT EDWARD HALL, Eckington, near Sheffield, Solicitor for the Order.

Board of Trade.—Session 1915.

HOYLAKE AND WEST KIRBY GAS AND WATER.

(Additional Lands for Gasworks Purposes; Power to Raise Additional Gas Capital; Borrowing Powers; Further Provisions as to Testing of Gas; Laying of Gas and Water Pipes in Streets not dedicated to Public Use; Supply of Gas in Bulk; Further Powers for and in connection with the Supply of Gas and Water; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts and Orders; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December, 1914, by the Hoylake and West Kirby Gas and Water Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under and in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act (1870) Amendment Act, 1873, for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Company on the lands hereinafter described, or some part or parts thereof, to erect and maintain, alter, extend, renew and improve works for the manufacture, storage, conversion, utilization and distribution of gas and of materials used in and about the manufacture of gas and of residual products arising in or resulting or producible from such manufacture, and to make and store gas and make, convert, store, utilize and distribute all such residual products and materials as aforesaid, and on such lands to construct and maintain houses, buildings and other works connected with their gas undertaking.

The lands above referred to are:—

A piece of land forming part of the Hoylake Estate, and containing by admeasurement 3·094 acres, situate at Hoylake, in the township or parish of Hoylake-cum-West Kirby, in the county of Chester, bounded on the north-westerly and north-easterly sides thereof by Carr-lane, on the south-easterly side by land belonging to the Hoylake and West Kirby Urban District Council, and on the south-westerly side by an occupation road, which said piece of land forms part of the piece of land numbered 335 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map of the said township or parish (edition of 1912).

2. To authorize the Company for the purposes aforesaid to acquire by agreement and to hold and use the lands hereinbefore described.

3. To empower the Company to raise additional capital for the general purposes of their gas undertaking, or for such other purposes as may be authorized by the Order, by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, and by borrowing, and to attach to such new shares or stock, or some part thereof, a preference or priority in the payment of interest or dividend or other rights or privileges, and upon such conditions as may be prescribed in the Order.

4. To increase the borrowing powers of the Company for the purposes of their gas and water undertakings, and to authorize the Company to pay a higher rate of interest upon borrowed money.

5. To make further provisions in regard to all or some of the following matters in connection with the gas undertaking of the Company (that is to say):—

The testing of gas, the charges for supply of gas by means of prepayment meters, the size and material of pipes to be used by consumers, the refusal to supply gas to persons in debt, notice of discontinuance of supply of gas, requiring gas consumers to give notice to the Company before removing, the laying of pipes for ancillary purposes and in streets not dedicated to public use the use of anti-fluctuators for gas engines; to enable the Company to require any person who has a separate supply of gas or of electricity to pay a minimum charge for gas supplied by the Company, and to impose other terms and conditions in connection with such supply and to extend the powers of the Company of entering premises and removing pipes and fittings afforded by the Gasworks.

Clauses Act, 1871, so as to enable the Company and their officers and servants where any person entering into occupation of premises previously supplied with gas by the Company does not require such supply to enter upon such premises and remove any fittings or other apparatus belonging to the Company.

6. To authorize the Company to supply gas in bulk beyond their limits of supply.

7. To make further provision in regard to all or some of the following matters in connection with the water undertaking of the Company (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to break up streets not dedicated to public use; to make additional charge for water used for washing horses, carriages and motor cars; to enter houses to which a supply of water has been discontinued and to remove meters and fittings and to refuse to supply persons in debt for other premises; to empower the Company in certain cases to repair communication pipes and to recover from the owner or occupier the cost of so doing and to discharge water temporarily from any of their works into any available stream or watercourse; to make provision with regard to the selling of meters and fittings by the Company, to the removal thereof by the Company and to the exemption thereof from liability to distress and being taken in execution, to the giving of notices by consumers for the discontinuance of supply and before connecting or disconnecting meters; to provide that the Company shall not be bound to supply several houses by one pipe and as to maintenance of a common pipe supplying several houses in different ownership or occupation; the supply of water by measure for farming purposes, to houses partly used for trade and the rates payable by owners of small houses and to confer upon persons liable to maintain pipes and apparatus the like powers of opening the ground as are conferred upon them by the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, in relation to the laying of communication pipes.

8. The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which will or may interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges.

9. To incorporate with the Order so far as applicable and except so far as is varied thereby all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847; the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871; and the Lands Clauses Acts (except the provisions with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement and with respect to the entry upon lands by the Company) and to alter, amend, extend and repeal any of the provisions of the Hoylake and West Kirby Gas and Water Order, 1878, and of any other Acts or Orders relating to the Company or which would interfere with the objects of the Order.

And Notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant a copy of this advertisement as published in the London Gazette and a map shewing the land proposed to be used for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products and a plan of the proposed gasworks will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Chester at his office at Chester in the said county and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Printed copies of the draft Order will be deposited at the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and on and after that date copies can be obtained on application at the offices of the undersigned and at the office of the Company, The Quadrant, Hoylake, in the county of Chester, at the price of one shilling each; and if and when the said Order is made by the Board of Trade printed copies of the Order will be deposited for public inspection with the said Clerk of the Peace at his said office, and may also be obtained on application at the office of the undersigned or of the Company at the price of one shilling each.

Every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before that Board any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1915, and copies of such representations or objections must at the same time be sent to either of the undersigned, and in forwarding such representations or objections to the Board of Trade the objectors or their Agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent accordingly.
