FRIDAY, 20 NOVEMBER, 1914.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of November, 1914.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the effect:—

That there should be added to the list of prohibitions of export to all destinations, contained in the Proclamation dated the 10th day of November, 1914, the following article:—

Rubber, raw.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved:

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, 20th November, 1914.

WELSH CHURCH ACT, 1914.

Notice is hereby given that, after the expiration of forty days from the date hereof, it is proposed to submit to His Majesty in Council the draft of an Order in Council confirming General Rules made by the Welsh Commissioners pursuant to Section 11 (4) of the above-named Act.

And Notice is hereby further given that, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, copies of the proposed General Rules can be obtained by any public body, within forty days of the date of this Notice, at the Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

THE COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS)
ACT, 1914.

RULES FOR COUNTY COURTS in accordance with the following draft are about to be issued under the above Act.

November, 1914.

STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS,

THE COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS)
ACT, 1914.

[Draft.]

THE COUNTY COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS)
RULES, 1914, DATED , 1914, MADE
BY THE LORD CHANCELLOR FOR COUNTY COURTS UNDER THE COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS) ACT, 1914 (4 & 5 GEO. 5, c. 78).

Preliminary.

The following Rules under the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914, shall apply to the County Courts and to the City of London Court, which shall for the purposes of these Rules be deemed to be a county court.

These Rules may be cited as the County Courts (Emergency Powers) Rules, 1914, and shall come into operation on the day of , 1914.

These Rules shall be read and construed with Rules 1 and 2 of the Courts (Emergency Powers) Rules, 1914, dated the 8th of September, 1914 (herein called the principal Rules); and expressions used herein shall have the same meaning as in those Rules, which are for convenience of reference prefixed to these Rules, and shall in their application to the County Courts and to the City of London
Court have effect subject to the modifications contained in these Rules.

On the coming into operation of these Rules the principal Rules (with the exception of Rules 1 and 2), so far as they relate to the County Courts and the City of London Court, and the Additional Rules for County Courts, dated the 15th of October, 1914, shall be annulled, without prejudice to anything already done thereunder; and these Rules shall apply to all proceedings pending under the said principal and Additional Rules on the day when these Rules come into operation.

THE COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS) RULES,
1914, RULES 1 AND 2.

1. In these Rules—

The expression "the Act" means the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914;

The expressions "paragraph (a)" and "paragraph (b)" mean respectively paragraph (a) and paragraph (b) of sub-section
(1) of section 1 of the Act;

The expression "creditor" means any person who has obtained or is seeking to obtain any judgment or order for the payment or recovery of a sum of money to which paragraph (a) applies, or who is (apart from the provisions of the Act) entitled to enforce any of the remedies mentioned in paragraph (b);
and the expression "debtor" has a corresponding meaning.

The expression "application" means an application to the Court under section 1 of the Act.

2.—(1) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the court to which application is made shall be the court by which the judgment or order for the payment or recovery of a sum of money has been given or made or in which it is being sought.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (b) the court to which application is made may be—

(a) in any case whatever, the High Court;

(b) alternatively, in cases where the value of the subject-matter (as hereinafter defined) of the application does not exceed one hundred pounds, the county court; and

(c) as a further alternative, in the case of distress for rent where the amount of the yearly rent does not exceed twenty pounds, or in cases where it is sought to enforce either the lapse of a policy to which sub-section (1) of section 1 of the Act applies, or a hire-purchase agreement the original liability on which does not exceed twenty pounds, a court of summary jurisdiction.

(3) For the purposes of this Rule, the value of the subject-matter of an application shall be deemed to be—in the case of an application for leave to levy distress, the amount for which distress is proposed to be levied;

in the case of an application for leave to take, resume, or enter into possession of any property, or to exercise any right of re-entry, the amount of the sum sought to be recovered;

in the case of an application for leave to foreclose, or realise any security, the amount of the principal sum secured;

in the case of an application for leave to forfeit any deposit, the total amount payable in respect of which the deposit has been made; and in the case of an application for leave to enforce the lapse of a policy of insurance to which sub-section (1) of section 1 of the Act applies, the amount ultimately recoverable under the policy.

(4) Applications shall, in the absence of special circumstances, be made to a county court or to a court of summary jurisdiction, as the case may be, where application to such a court is permitted by this Rule.

The court may order any increased costs occasioned by disregard of this sub-rule to be borne by the applicant.

Where an application is made to the High Court which in the opinion of that court ought to have been made to a county court or to a court of summary jurisdiction, the case may,
if thought fit, be remitted or transferred to the proper court; and where an application is made to a county court which in the opinion of that court ought to have been made to a court of summary jurisdiction, the county court may remit or transfer the case to a court of summary jurisdiction.

THE COUNTY COURTS (EMERGENCY POWERS)
RULES, 1914.

[NOTE.—For convenience of reference, notes are appended in brackets to these Rules, showing their relation to the annulled Rules:
in the Notes "E.P." means the Courts
(Emergency Powers) Rules, 1914; "A.R." means the Additional Rules for County Courts.]

Applications under Paragraph (a).

1.—(1) In cases under paragraph (a), where no judgment or order has been already entered or made, application for leave to proceed to execution on or otherwise to the enforcement of the judgment or order may be made at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made: Provided that unless the debtor is present, either in person or by his solicitor, or by some person allowed by the court to appear for him, at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, the application shall not be entertained unless the creditor shall have served on the debtor a notice according to the form in the Appendix of his intention to make the application. [E.P., 3 (2).]

(2) Any such notice as in the preceding paragraph mentioned may be annexed to and served with the summons or other document originating the proceedings; or it may be served at any later time, not being less than two clear days before the judgment or order is entered or made, unless in any case the court gives leave for shorter service. [E.P., 3 (3).]

(3) Any such notice, if it is to be served otherwise than with the summons or other document originating the proceedings, shall be served in accordance with the practice of the court as to service of notice of an interlocutory application. [E.P., 3 (4); A.R., 2.]

(4) Provided as follows:—

(i.) Notice of intention to apply under this rule shall not be served unless the creditor intends to apply at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made for an order for payment forthwith, or within fourteen days from the date of the judgment or order.

(ii.) Where any such notice is served, and an order is made for payment of a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, exclusive of costs, by instalments, or within a period longer than fourteen days from the date of the judgment or order, instead of an order for payment forthwith or within fourteen days, no costs of the notice shall be allowed against the debtor.

(iii.) In any case in which an order is made for payment by instalments, or within a period longer than fourteen days from the date of the judgment or order, either after notice has been served, or without notice having been served, leave to proceed shall not be given at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made: but in any such case, if default is made in payment, the creditor may proceed in accordance with Rule 2. [New.]

(5) Where leave to proceed is given at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, and default is made in payment, a warrant of execution may be issued without further leave; or the creditor may proceed in accordance with Rule 2. [New.]

2. Where a judgment or order has been entered or made, and leave to proceed is not given at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, the following provisions shall apply if default is made in payment, viz.:—

(i.) The creditor may issue a judgment summons in accordance with Rule 3, or a garnishee summons in accordance with Rule 5.

(ii.) If the creditor desires to apply for leave to proceed in any other way, he shall serve on the debtor a notice of his intention to apply for such leave, according to the form in the Appendix: Such notice may be deemed to be a notice of an interlocutory application, and shall be served in accordance with the practice of the court as to service of notice of an interlocutory application. [Substituted for E.P., 3 (1, 4); A.R., 2.]

Judgment Summons and Order of Commitment.

3.—(1) A judgment summons may be issued as heretofore: Provided that there shall be annexed to such summons and served therewith a notice according to the form in the Appendix, and the indorsement or affidavit of service shall state that the notice was so served. [A.R., 1.]

(2) Paragraph 1 of Rule 2 of the principal Rules shall not apply to any case in which a creditor desires to issue a judgment summons under Order XXV., Rule 29 or Rule 30, of the County Court Rules in a court other than the court in which the judgment or order was obtained. [A.R., 1.]

4.—(1) Where an order of commitment is made on the hearing of a judgment summons served with a notice annexed thereto in accordance with Rule 3, the following provisions shall apply—

(a) The order of commitment may be issued without further leave, unless the execution of the order is suspended for twenty-eight days or longer, pursuant to Order XXV., Rule 46, paragraph 2, of the County Court Rules:

(b) If the execution of the order is suspended for twenty-eight days or longer, liberty may be reserved to the creditor to apply under the notice already served, without payment of a further fee, for leave to issue the order; and the Judge may on application so made on notice to the debtor served in accordance with Rule 2, paragraph (ii.), give leave accordingly. [New.]

(2) In any other case an order of commitment made before or after the passing of the Act shall not be issued without leave of the judge granted on application made on notice served in accordance with Rule 2, paragraph (ii.). [New.]

Attachment of Debts.

5.—(1) A garnishee summons may be issued as heretofore: Provided that a notice according to the form in the Appendix shall be substituted for the notice which is by Order XXVI., Rule 4b, of the County Court Rules required to be served on the judgment debtor with a copy of the garnishee summons.

(2) The provisions of these Rules as to applications for leave to proceed under paragraph (a) shall apply to applications for leave to proceed on any judgment entered or order made against a garnishee; and for the purposes of any such application the garnishee shall be deemed to be the debtor, and the forms in the Appendix shall be used with such modifications as may be necessary to adapt them to the case of a summons issued or a judgment or order entered or made against a garnishee.

(3) Paragraph 1 of Rule 2 of the principal Rules shall not apply to any case in which a creditor desires to issue a garnishee summons under Order XXVI., Rule 2, of the County Court Rules against a garnishee who is not within the jurisdiction of the court in which the judgment or order was obtained. [New.]

Execution against Goods.

6.—(1) An application for leave to issue execution against goods, if made at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, may, where the judgment or order is entered or made by the registrar, be made to him, subject to the provisions of Rule 16.

(2) An application for leave to issue execution against goods, if made after the judgment or order has been entered or made, may be made to the registrar, subject to the provisions of Rule 16. [A.R., 3.]

Appointment of Receiver.

7.—(1) These Rules shall not affect ex-parte applications for the appointment of receivers; but if an order is made on any such application it shall be an interim order only (with or without an injunction), and such order shall be served on the debtor in accordance with Rule 21.

(2) A final order for the appointment of a receiver shall not be made unless notice of the intention of the creditor to apply for such order, according to the form in the Appendix, has been served on the debtor in accordance with these Rules. [New.]

Other Applications for Leave to Proceed.

8. Any other application for leave to proceed under paragraph (a), not in these Rules provided for, shall be made to the judge. [A.R., 3.]

Applications under Paragraph (b).

9. Rule 2 of the principal Rules shall have effect subject to the following modifications, viz.:—

(a) An application for leave to take, resume, or enter into possession of any property, or to exercise any right of re-entry, may be made to the county court where

(i.) the amount of the sum for enforcing payment or recovery whereof, or in default of payment or recovery whereof, the remedy is sought to be enforced, does not exceed one hundred pounds; and

(ii.) In the case of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, neither the value of the premises nor the rent payable in respect thereof exceeds one hundred pounds a year.

(b) An application for leave to foreclose or to realise any security may be made to the county court where the amount of the principal sum secured does not exceed five hundred pounds. [New.]

10.—(1) Applications to the County Courts under paragraph (b) may be made:—

(i.) in the case of an application for leave to levy any distress, to the court in the district of which the premises are situate;

(ii.) in the case of an application to take, resume, or enter into possession of any property, or to exercise any right of re-entry, or to foreclose or realise any security on any premises, to the court in the district of which the property or premises is or are situate;

(iii.) in any other case, to any court which would have jurisdiction in the matter without leave granted under section 74 of the County Courts Act, 1888, if the creditor were a plaintiff and the debtor a defendant in an action brought to enforce the remedy which the creditor desires to enforce.

(2) Provided as follows:—

(i.) If in any case any other court would, if the creditor were a plaintiff and the debtor were a defendant in an action brought to enforce the remedy which the creditor desires to enforce, have jurisdiction in the matter if leave were granted under section 74 of the County Courts Act, 1888, to commence the action in such other court, the creditor may apply to such other court for leave to make his application therein, on filing an affidavit showing that the court would have such jurisdiction;

(ii.) The provisions of Order V., Rule 13, of the County Court Rules shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to any application under this paragraph; and if leave is granted a copy of the affidavit, with a copy thereon of the order granting leave, shall be annexed to and served with the summons mentioned in the next following rule. [Substituted for E.P., 5 (1).]

11. Applications under paragraph (b) shall be made by means of a summons according to the form in the Appendix, entitled "In the Matter of the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1914. [E.P., 5 (2).]

12. A summons under paragraph (b) shall be served on every person affected thereby four clear days at least before the day fixed for the hearing of the summons, unless the judge or registrar gives leave for shorter service. Service shall be effected in accordance with the County Court Rules as to service of notice of an interlocutory application. [A.R., 4.]

13. An application under paragraph (b) may be made to the registrar, subject to the provisions of Rule 16. [E.P., 5 (3).]

14. Where rent is claimed under section one hundred and sixty of the County Courts Act, 1888, and the bailiff is required to distrain for the same, leave so to distrain shall not be required. [New.]

Substituted Service.

15. The practice of the courts as to substituted service of notices and summonses shall apply to notices of applications and summonses under these Rules. [Substituted for E.P., 3 (4).]

Applications to Registrar.

16. Where under these Rules an application may be made to the registrar, the following provisions shall apply:—

(i.) the registrar may in any case refer the matter to the judge;

(ii.) where the amount of the subject matter of the application exceeds five pounds, the registrar shall, on the application of either party, refer the matter to the judge; and

(iii.) the judge may vary or rescind any order made by the registrar, and may make such order as may be just. [E.P., 5 (3).]

Evidence in Support of Application.

17. It shall not be necessary in the first instance for a creditor to support any application either under paragraph (a) or under paragraph (b) by any affidavit or other evidence, except such evidence, if any, as may be required to show the nature and extent of the relief required by him. But the court may in any case make such requirements or give such directions as to evidence on the part of either party or both parties as the case shall require. [E.P., 9.]

Power to Hear Cases in Private.

18. The court may at any stage of the proceedings on an application under the Act order that the case shall thenceforward be heard in private. [E.P., 16.]

Forms.

19.—(1) The forms in the Appendix hereto, with such modifications as may be necessary, shall be used for notices of applications to and summonses issued by the County Courts. Every such notice or summons shall have appended thereto a note in the form in the said Appendix. [E.P., 3 (1, 2), 4 (4); A.R., 5.]

(2) The registrar of any court may apply to the Treasury for any of the said forms to be printed and supplied to him, and if the application is granted may obtain such forms and supply the same without charge for the use of parties requiring the same. [New.]

Preparation, Filing, &c., of Notices and Summonses.

20. A notice of an application, or a summons (other than a judgment summons or a garnishee summons), shall be prepared by the applicant and filed with the registrar, with as many copies as there are parties to be served; Provided that any notice or summons, with the necessary copies, may, if the registrar so thinks fit, be prepared in his office: And the registrar shall examine, complete, seal, and where necessary sign the same, and shall, where notice of an application under paragraph (a) is pursuant to Rule 1 or Rule 3 to be served with the original or judgment summons, annex the copy of the notice to the copy summons for service, and shall in any other case return the copies of the notice or summons to the applicant for service. [A.R., 6.]

Orders on Applications.

21. An order giving leave to proceed under paragraph (a) if made pursuant to Rule 1 at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, shall be entered in the minute book and be included in the judgment or order.

In any case, where an order is made under either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b), the registrar shall make a note of the order on the notice of application or summons, but no order need be drawn up or served unless the order is made subject to conditions, or the court so directs. If the order is made subject to conditions, or the court so directs, an order shall be prepared and sealed by the registrar and delivered to the bailiff, who shall within twenty-four hours send the same, by post or otherwise, to the party against whom the order is made; but it shall not be necessary for the party in whose favour it is made to prove, previously to taking proceedings thereon, that it was posted or reached the opposite party. [A.R., 7.]

Power to impose Conditions.

22. The conditions on which under sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Act the court may stay execution or defer the operation of any of the remedies therein referred to may, if the court thinks fit, include the giving of any undertaking or the deposit in court or otherwise of any securities, or the appointment of a receiver or the granting of an injunction. [E.P., 11.]

Revocation or Variation of Orders.

23. Any order made under the Act or these Rules may, should subsequent circumstances render it just so to do, be suspended, discharged, or otherwise varied or altered on interlocutory application to the court which made the order. [E.P., 12.]

Process issued, etc., pursuant to Order.

24. Where process is issued by or any proceeding taken in the court pursuant to any order made under either paragraph (a) or paragraph (b), it shall be stated on the face of the process or proceeding that it is issued or taken by leave of the court. [A.R., 8.]

Fees.

25. The following fees shall be payable under Schedule B, Part I., of the Treasury Order regulating Fees in the County Courts, on proceedings under the Act and these Rules, in lieu of all other fees heretofore prescribed on such proceedings, viz.:—

On any notice of application or summons under—

- Rule 1, paragraph 1;
- Rule 2, paragraph (ii);
- Rule 3, paragraph 1;
- Rule 4, paragraph 2;
- Rule 5, paragraph 2;
- Rule 7, paragraph 2;
- Rule 10;

6d. in the £ on the amount of the subject-matter of the application or summons, not exceeding 2s. 6d.

Provided that where leave to proceed is given at the time when the judgment or order is entered or made, no fee shall be payable under this rule in respect of any notice of application (other than a notice under Rule 5, paragraph 2) given pursuant to such leave.

The fee on a notice of application or summons shall include drawing, sealing and issuing the order (if any), other than an order for the appointment of a receiver, and the fee prescribed by paragraph 12 of Schedule B, Part I., of the Fees Order, shall not be taken.

The court may remit or excuse in whole or in part any fees paid or payable under this rule. [Substituted for E.P., 13.]

Proceedings on Application.

26. The proceedings on any application under the Act shall, so far as not expressly provided for by these Rules, be conducted in accordance with the ordinary practice of the court in dealing with similar matters. [E.P., 14.]

Costs.

27.—(1) The costs of any application under the Act shall be in the absolute discretion of the court.

(2) The court may either fix the amount of such costs, or allow them on the scale applicable to an interlocutory application in an action for the amount of the subject-matter of the application; provided that Column B of the scale shall apply to all cases above twenty pounds to the exclusion of Column C.

(3) Where the amount of the subject-matter does not exceed ten pounds, there may be allowed for all work done by a solicitor in relation to the application—

If the amount exceeds £2, but does not exceed £5, 3s.

If the amount exceeds £5, but does not exceed £10, 5s.

(4) The court may direct that any costs allowed shall be payable forthwith, or that they shall be included in the sum recovered under the judgment or order, or added to the costs of the proceedings authorized to be taken for the enforcement of the judgment or order, or, in the case of an application under paragraph (b), to the costs of any proceedings (other than proceedings by way of distress) authorized to be taken. [Substituted for E.P., 16.]

The Governor and Company of the Bank of England are authorized to receive applications for this Loan, which will take the form either of Inscribed Stock, or Bonds to Bearer, at the option of the Subscribers.

If not previously redeemed, the Loan will be repaid at par on the 1st March, 1928, but His Majesty's Government reserve to themselves the right to redeem the Loan at par at any time on, or after, the 1st March, 1925, on giving not less than three calendar months' notice in the London Gazette. Both Capital and Interest will be a charge on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

The Books of the Loan will be kept at the Bank of England and at the Bank of Ireland. Dividends will be paid half-yearly on the 1st March and 1st September. Dividends on Stock will be paid by Warrant, which will be sent by post. Dividends on Bonds will be paid by Coupon.

Inscribed Stock will be convertible into Bonds to Bearer at any time without payment of any fee; and Bonds to Bearer will be exchangeable for Inscribed Stock on payment of a fee of one shilling per Bond.

In case of partial allotment, the balance of the amount paid as deposit will be applied towards the payment of the first instalment. Should there be a surplus after making that payment, such surplus will be refunded by cheque.

The instalments may be paid in full on, or after, the 7th December, 1914, under discount at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum. In case of default in the payment of any instalment by its proper date, the deposit and the instalments previously paid will be liable to forfeiture.

Scrip Certificates to Bearer, with Coupon attached for the dividend payable on the 1st March, 1915, will be issued in exchange for the provisional receipts. As soon as these Scrip Certificates to Bearer have been paid in full they can be inscribed (i.e. can be converted into Stock); or, they can be exchanged for Bonds to Bearer (as soon as these can be prepared) in denominations of £100, £200, £500, and £1,000. Inscribed Stock will be transferable in any sums which are multiples of a penny.

Application Forms may be obtained at the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland; at any Bank or Money Order Office in the United Kingdom; of Messrs. Mullens, Marshall and Co., 13, George Street, Mansion House, E.C.; and of the principal Stockbrokers.

The List of Applications will be closed on, or before, Tuesday, the 24th November, 1914.

GERMAN VESSELS DETAINED BY THE BELGIAN AUTHORITIES AT ANT- WERP ON THE OUTBREAK OF HOSTILITIES.

As notified in the Supplementary London Gazette of September 2nd, 1914, and in the London Gazette of September 4th, 1914, a Commission was originally appointed by the Belgian Government to prepare inventories of the cargoes of these vessels, claims in respect of which were to be submitted to the Belgian Tribunal of First Instance at Antwerp.

It is understood that in some cases the cargoes were unloaded by the Belgian Authorities; in other cases the cargoes remained on board the vessels.

According to the latest reliable information the vessels were lying in dock with their cargoes intact at the time of the investment of the city by the German forces.

His Majesty's Government have no information to show what treatment will be applied by the German Government to merchandise either on board ship or warehoused at Antwerp.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 19th November, 1914.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient that Bawdeswell Sub-district of Mitford Registration District should be abolished, and that, with the exception of Swanton Morley, which should be added to East Dereham Sub-district of that Registration District, its constituent parishes should be added to North Elmham Sub-district of the same Registration District.

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above-mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of December, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

Witness my hand this 19th day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

Bernard Mallet,
Registrar-General.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 1752 of the year 1914.

UNITED KINGDOM.

New Pilotage stations to be established at certain Ports on account of defensive Mine-fields.

In view of the extension of the system of Mine defence, notice is hereby given that on and after the 27th instant, Pilotage will be compulsory at the following ports, and that it will be highly dangerous for any vessel to enter or leave such ports without a pilot.

- (1) RIVER HUMBER.—All incoming vessels must call for a pilot at a station to be established in Lat. 53° 36' N., Long. 0° 30' E.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots at the same station.

- (2) RIVER TYNE.—All incoming vessels from the northward must call for a pilot off Blyth, and those from the southward off the River Wear.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots off one or the other of these places.

- (3) FIRTH OF FORTH.—All incoming vessels must call for a pilot at a station to be established on the Isle of May.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots at the same station.

It will be dangerous for any vessel to be under way to the westward of the Isle of May without a pilot.

- (4) MORAY FIRTH.—All vessels bound to Cromarty or Inverness must call for a pilot at Wick or Burghhead.

Outgoing vessels are to discharge their pilots at one or the other of these places.

It will be dangerous for any vessel to be under way to the south-westward of a line joining Findhorn and Tarbetness without a pilot.

- (5) SCAPA FLOW.—All entrances are dangerous.

Examination services have been established in the entrances to Hoxa and Hoy sounds: vessels wishing to enter must communicate with the Examination vessel and follow the instructions received from her very carefully.

The only vessels permitted to enter Hoy sound from the westward are those bound for Stromness: vessels cannot enter Scapa Flow from Stromness.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Lincoln and county of the same city (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation" and "the City" respectively), for an Act for all or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

Commons and Other Lands.

1. To make provision for extinguishing all rights of common or other rights or interests (if any) belonging to or claimed by the freemen and inhabitant householders of the city in, over, or in respect of the commons and common lands known as the South or Canwick Common, and the West or Carholme Common in the city, and the Cow Paddle, partly within and partly without the city, and hereinafter referred to as "the Commons."

2. The Commons comprise the lands or commons known as the South or Canwick Common and the West or Carholme Common, both wholly situate within the parish and city of Lincoln, and the Cow Paddle, situate partly within the said parish and city and partly in the parish of Canwick in the rural district of Branston, and county of Lincoln (parts of Kesteven). The area of the South or Canwick Common is 181 acres 3 roods 23 perches, of the West or Carholme Common 266 acres 1 rood 19 perches, and of the Cow Paddle 38 acres 1 rood 19 perches, and the whole of the Commons are shown upon the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

3. To empower the Corporation to acquire by compulsion or agreement all rights of common and other rights (if any) exercisable over the Commons, to make provision for the payment by the Corporation to or on behalf of the said freemen of such annual sum or capital sum as may be prescribed by the intended Act in respect of the acquisition and extinction of the said rights of common and other rights (if any) in, over, or in respect of the Commons belonging to or claimed by the said freemen, and to enable the Corporation to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the purposes aforesaid.

4. To empower the Corporation to purchase by compulsion or by agreement, and to hold certain lands in the parish and city of Lincoln, forming part of the straight mile of the Lincoln Racecourse and certain other lands adjacent thereto belonging to the Lincoln Race Committee, Limited, which said lands are bounded as follows:—On or towards the north in part by land belonging to Frederick Kent and in other part by the boundary of the City, on the south in part by Long Leys Road and in other part by the West or Carholme Common, on the east by lands of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and on the west by Saxilby Road, and which said lands are intersected by Long Leys Road.

5. To confer all necessary powers upon the Corporation with reference to the management and maintenance of the Commons and other lands hereinbefore referred to, and amongst other things to empower them to dedicate parts thereof for the purpose of making or widening roads and footpaths; to sell other parts of such lands and exchange parts thereof for other lands, and to purchase adjoining lands to replace any part sold; to set apart, let or lease parts thereof for the purposes of racecourses, for agricultural, horticultural, and other shows, exhibitions, markets and fairs, for the drilling of soldiers and the Territorial forces, the exercising of horses, sports, the playing of games, and for circuses and public entertainments; to maintain the grandstand and other buildings appertaining to the racecourse at present existing upon part of the Commons, and to erect such other stands, enclosures, and buildings as may from time to time be necessary or convenient in connection with the racecourse, or other racecourses which may be formed by the Corporation, stables, booths, tents and stalls; to charge for pasturing cattle, sheep and horses upon the Commons, or to let all rights of pasture thereover; to lay out the Commons or parts thereof as public gardens or recreation grounds, and to plant the same with trees and shrubs, to construct artificial lakes, flower-beds, bowling greens, cricket and football pitches, golf courses, tennis lawns, racing tracks, and rifle ranges, and to erect pavilions, refreshment rooms, conveniences, bandstands, platforms, stands, caretakers' houses, offices and other buildings and erections in connection with any of the purposes for which the Commons may be used, and generally to carry out such improvements of and do such other things in connection with the Commons as the Corporation may consider necessary or desirable for purposes of health, recreation, or enjoyment.

6. To authorize the Corporation to make and enforce byelaws and regulations for regulating, limiting, and prescribing the use of the Commons and any gardens, recreation grounds, and racecourse laid out thereon, for preventing any improper or offensive use thereof, to appoint and pay officers for the management and maintenance of and the keeping of order upon or in the Commons and the gardens, recreation grounds, and racecourses laid out thereon, and for securing the observance of such bye-laws and regulations.

7. To authorize the Corporation to close the commons or part or parts thereof, and to charge for admission thereto or to any shows or exhibitions held thereon, or to any stands or enclosures erected or constructed thereon in connection with horse-racing or other sports; to enable the Corporation to charge for games played upon the Commons and for the use of cricket pitches, football and lawn tennis grounds, golf courses, and rifle ranges, and to let the same or any of them for such period or periods as they may think fit, and to enable them to let every year or to lease for a number of years the racecourses, and the right of holding races upon the Commons, and any stands, enclosures, stables, or other buildings in connection therewith, and the right of charging for the use thereof.

8. To transfer to the Corporation the custody of the awards made by the Commissioners under the Inclosure Acts hereinafter referred to under which the Commons or any part or parts thereof were allotted.

9. To authorize the Corporation from time to time for the purpose of holding race meetings to divert Saxilby-road, and to close Long Leys-road, in the said parish and city of Lincoln, for such periods as they may think fit.

Trolley Vehicles, Motor Omnibuses and Tramways.

10. To empower the Corporation to provide, maintain, equip, work and run mechanically propelled vehicles adapted for use upon roads and moved by electrical power supplied by means of overhead conductors (hereinafter called "trolley vehicles") along the following routes:—

Route No. 8.—Commencing at the junction of the proposed new road leading from Monks-road to Greetwell-road at the city boundary, thence proceeding along the said proposed new road to and terminating at its junction with Greetwell-road;

and along such other routes as the Corporation may determine or as may be indicated in the intended Act.

11. To authorize the Corporation to provide, erect, lay down and maintain in connection with and for the purposes of such trolley vehicles all necessary and proper posts, standards, brackets, wires, conductors, mains, apparatus, sheds, buildings, works and conveniences, and to provide and maintain all other necessary and proper electrical and other equipment in, over, under, along and across any public street or road in the city and rural district and parishes aforesaid; to supply electrical energy therefor, and to confer on the Corporation the exclusive right of using any apparatus provided, erected or used by them for the purpose of working the said trolley vehicles.

12. To authorize the taking of fares, rates and charges for the use of and for the carriage and conveyance of passengers by such vehicles, and the making and enforcing of bye-laws and regulations in relation thereto.

13. To extend and apply to the trolley vehicles to be provided by the Corporation under the powers of the intended Act and to the works for moving the same by electrical power all or some of the provisions relating to the tramway undertaking of the Corporation, including provisions contained in Parts II and III of the Tramways Act, 1870, and in the Lincoln Corporation (Tramways, etc.) Act, 1900, or any other Act or Order relating to the tramway undertaking of the Corporation, with such modifications, alterations and exceptions as may be indicated in the intended Act, and to extend and apply to such vehicles all or some of the regulations and bye-laws relating to the tramways of the Corporation.

14. To provide that the trolley vehicles and the trolley vehicle undertaking proposed to be authorized by the intended Act shall for certain purposes form part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation.

15. To exclude the said trolley vehicles from the operation of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878; the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896; the Locomotives Act, 1898; the Motor Car Act, 1903, or any of the Orders made thereunder respectively, and from the enactments mentioned in the Schedule to the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, and from any other Acts or Orders relating to locomotives, motor cars or omnibuses.

16. To authorize applications by the Corporation to the Board of Trade for, and the grant by the Board of Trade of authority for the exercise by the Corporation, upon routes other than those hereinbefore specified, of the powers to be conferred by the intended Act, and to prescribe the conditions upon which such applications may be made, and such powers may be granted, and the procedure to be followed in connection therewith.

17. To provide that the trolley vehicles shall be deemed to be tramcars for the purposes of the Town Police Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1889.

18. To empower the Corporation to provide and run motor omnibuses within the city, and also outside the city along trolley vehicle route No. 8 hereinbefore described, and in any other direction which may be necessary or expedient; to empower the Corporation to demand and take fares, tolls and charges in respect thereof; to make bye-laws for the regulation thereof; to provide that the running of motor omnibuses along the said routes or any of them shall be deemed to be part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation; and to extend and apply thereto all or some of the enactments, regulations and bye-laws relating to that undertaking.

19. To authorize the Corporation to provide on or by the side of highways shelters, waiting-rooms and gangways in connection with their tramway, trolley vehicle and motor omnibus undertakings.

20. To empower the Corporation and the local and road authorities in the districts traversed by the trolley vehicle and motor omnibus routes to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the erection of posts and overhead and underground equipment, the breaking up of streets, the use of the vehicles and other matters relating thereto, and also to empower the Corporation and such local authorities and any companies or persons to enter into agreements with respect to the provision, equipment, maintenance, management and repair of the trolley vehicles or motor omnibuses, the working and leasing of such vehicles and omnibuses and any of such posts and equipment, the conveyance of traffic, the supply of electrical energy for working any such trolley vehicles, and the subsidising by the Corporation of any company or person entering into any agreement with the Corporation to work such vehicles or motor omnibuses.

21. To empower the Corporation to attach brackets and rosettes to buildings for the support of the overhead equipment and apparatus of their trolley vehicle undertaking.

22. To authorize the Corporation to use trolley vehicles for road watering, for the conveyance of scavenged matter and road metal, and for other sanitary or municipal purposes.

23. To authorize the Corporation to sell unclaimed property found in their tramcars, trolley vehicles and motor omnibuses, and to credit the proceeds to the revenue of the tramway undertaking.

24. To empower the Corporation to lop trees along the trolley vehicle and motor omnibus routes.

25. To enable the Corporation to purchase by agreement and take on lease lands and buildings for and in connection with the trolley vehicle and motor omnibus undertakings, and to appropriate any lands belonging to them to the purposes of those undertakings.

26. To enable the Corporation to provide and use and attach to any cars on the tramways of the Corporation a secondary or trailer-car or trolley vehicle, and to authorize the use upon the said tramways of any two or more cars attached together, and to make or provide for the making of such special regulations (if any) with reference to such use as the intended Act may define, or as Parliament may prescribe, and to enable the Corporation to take fares, tolls and charges for the use of such trailer-cars or trolley vehicles.

27. To make provision for dealing with tramway, trolley vehicle and motor omnibus routes respectively, on race days or other special occasions, and to enable the Corporation to run a special service of cars, and to set apart special cars for the conveyance of passengers travelling on or using the same on any such race day or other special occasion and to restrict the use of the ordinary service of cars appointed from time to time by the Corporation on any route or routes of the Corporation tramways, trolley vehicles or motor omnibuses, on which any such special cars may be run.

28. To enable the Corporation to demand and take tolls, fares and charges for the use of special cars in excess of the fares and charges authorized to be charged by the Corporation in respect of the ordinary services of cars provided by the Corporation on the routes whereon such special cars may be run, and the intended Act will or may prescribe the fares so to be charged, and will or may contain provisions enabling the Corporation to enforce by penalty or otherwise the observance of the provisions of the intended Act or any bye-law made thereunder with respect to such special cars and by persons using the same.

29. To authorize the Corporation to convey passengers' luggage, and goods, and parcels upon their trolley vehicles and motor omnibuses, and to make charges therefor.

30. To empower the Corporation to use their motor omnibuses for conveying members and officials of the Corporation to the Corporation waterworks, and other undertakings outside the City in connection with Corporation business.

31. To authorize the Corporation to erect a shelter or waiting-room in connection with their tramways, trolley vehicles and motor omnibuses, on part of the disused churchyard of St. Benedict's Church, in the parish and city of Lincoln, and for that purpose to take compulsorily or by agreement so much of the said churchyard as may be necessary, and (if necessary) to empower the Corporation to remove bodies interred in such churchyard and to make provision for the re-burial of the bodies so removed.

32. To empower the Corporation to provide cloak-rooms and rooms or sheds for the storage of bicycles, tricycles and other vehicles at the tramway, trolley vehicle and motor omnibus depôts, and at other places on the routes of the Corporation tramways, trolley vehicles and motor omnibuses, and to charge for the use of such cloak-rooms, rooms and sheds.

Electricity.

33. To authorize the Corporation, for the purpose of extending their generating station and works in connection therewith, to purchase compulsorily or by agreement certain lands in the parish and city of Lincoln adjoining the electrical generating station of the Corporation, and bounded on the west by that generating station, on the north by property belonging to Benjamin Wilmott and Julia Fletcher, on the south by Brayford Wharf North, and on the east by property belonging to Thomas Fawcett.

34. To empower the Corporation for the last-mentioned purposes to acquire parts of premises without being compellable to take the whole, to hold any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act free from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to superfluous lands, to confer powers upon the Corporation with reference to the retention, sale, lease, and disposal of lands acquired by them, to enact that persons claiming compensation shall be liable to their costs in certain events, and to make provision for enabling them to amend their claims.

35. To empower the Corporation to erect and maintain in any street, road, footpath or way whether public or private, and on or over any lands or premises, posts and electric lines above ground, and to break up and interfere with such street, road, footpath, way, lands and premises for the purpose of supplying electrical energy.

36. To authorize the Corporation to allow discounts for prompt payment, to recover summarily charges in respect of the supply of electricity and in respect of work done in repairing fittings owned by the Corporation, and to require all fittings used in connection with the supply of electricity to be of a standard approved by the Corporation.

37. To authorize the Corporation to provide, sell, let for hire, fix, repair and remove lamps, meters, electric lines, fuses, switches, lamp-holders, motors and other electrical fittings and apparatus incidental to the supply and use of electricity, and to exclude the same from liability to distress or to be taken in execution or in bankruptcy proceedings; to provide for the Corporation entering into contracts for the execution of the said powers; to enable the Corporation to provide and maintain show rooms, promote and hold exhibitions and exhibit electrical appliances, machinery, apparatus or fittings, and to promote the use of electricity by advertisement or otherwise; to empower the Corporation to refuse to supply electrical energy to persons in debt to them, whether for electricity, gas or water; to provide for the payment of a minimum charge for a supply of electricity; to make provision as to payment for supply of electricity to premises having separate supply; to empower the Corporation to lay down electric lines, wires and cables in streets not dedicated to public use; to empower the Corporation to sell or otherwise dispose of by products incidental to the generation and distribution of electricity; to confer further powers upon the Corporation with regard to the entry of premises for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of electricity consumed, or for the removal of fittings and other property belonging to them, and to prescribe penalties for hindering or obstructing them in so doing, to authorize the Corporation to apply the net surplus from their electricity undertaking and the proceeds of their reserve fund to any purposes of the undertaking, including the formation of a fund for working capital; and to extend the provisions of the Conspiracy and Protection of Property Act, 1875, so as to apply to electrical energy and electricity works.

Gas.

38. To extend the limits within which the Corporation may supply gas so as to include therein the parishes of Bracebridge Heath, North Hykeham and Waddington in the rural district of Branston in the county of Lincoln (parts of Kesteven) and to enable the Corporation within such extended limits to have and exercise all the powers and authorities which they now have or may exercise within their existing limits, and to demand, take and levy rates, rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas within such extended limits.

39. To make further and better provision with regard to the gas undertaking of the Corporation, and the supply of gas, with respect to the following amongst other matters:—The laying down pipes for purposes ancillary to the supply of gas throughout the area of supply; the requirement by the Corporation of antifluatuators for gas engines; power for the Corporation to refuse to supply persons in debt to them, whether for gas, electricity, or water; power to recover charges for gas where slot meters are found defective, and power to provide, sell, and let for hire, fix, repair and remove cookers and other fittings and appliances.

Water.

40. To authorize the Corporation to charge for water supplied by meter whether within or beyond the city a minimum charge based on the rateable value of the premises supplied, and to empower the Corporation to refuse to supply persons in debt to them, whether for gas, electricity or water.

Markets and Fairs.

41. To empower the Corporation to alter and vary the place at which any of their markets or fairs shall be carried on, and to establish, provide, construct and maintain new markets and fairs with all requisite and convenient market houses, shops, stalls, sheds, yards, works, approaches and conveniences connected therewith; to empower the Corporation from time to time to close and discontinue all or any of their markets and fairs for the time being, and to enable the Corporation to sell and dispose of or to utilise for such purposes as they may think fit the site of any market or fair so closed or discontinued.

Streets, Buildings, Sewers, Drains, etc.

42. To make further provision with regard to the streets and buildings in the city, and especially in respect of the following matters:—

The continuation of existing streets to be new streets; the provision of intersecting streets at specified distances where new streets are constructed or laid down; the widening of roads where only one side is built upon; requiring owners of lands or premises to prevent water from flowing on footpaths; requiring forecourts to be fenced off from streets and courts, yards and passages to be flagged or otherwise paved and drained and gullies in private streets to be cleansed; the lopping of trees and shrubs overhanging streets and footpaths; the prevention and removal of projections such as cranes and other apparatus over streets and, in connection therewith, the extension of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847; restricting the placing of overhead rails, beams, signs or cables over streets without the consent of the Corporation; the regulation of the width, gradient and construction of bridges in the city; requiring paved crossings in new streets; requiring new street which will become a main thoroughfare to be made of greater width than that prescribed by the bye-laws as to new streets, subject to the Corporation paying cost of additional width; the width of carriage-ways and footpaths in new streets; the prevention of culs-de-sac; defining the future line of existing streets and prohibiting the erection of buildings beyond the same and enabling the Corporation to purchase the land lying between such line and the existing street, and to require buildings erected in contravention of the provisions of the intended Act, whether erected before or after the passing thereof, to be pulled down; the extension of the definition of "new building"; the submission of plans to the Corporation, showing the general scheme for the development and laying out of estates in cases where application is made for the approval of the laying out of a new street or the widening of an existing street; the giving of notice to the Corporation before any street is named and the approval by the Corporation of the name proposed; prohibiting the erection of buildings until the streets upon which the same are proposed to be erected are defined; empowering the Corporation to make external and internal inspections of buildings reported to them to be dangerous and empowering the officials of the Corporation to enter buildings suspected of being dangerous; empowering the Corporation to require the owners of dilapidated or ruinous buildings to take down, repair or rebuild such buildings, and to make applications to any court of summary jurisdiction for orders in that behalf and to make other provision with regard thereto; the erection of retaining walls and the submission of plans, sections and specifications to the Corporation; enabling the Corporation to make bye-laws as to the materials with which new buildings shall be constructed and as to the manner in which, and the materials with which, grates, stoves and fire-places shall be set in new buildings, and the thickness and construction of walls of ovens and furnaces, the uniting of buildings and the making or closing of openings in party walls and the provision of fire-resisting doors, as to the use of woodwork in external walls of buildings and as to the testing of drains in new buildings; the provision of sanitary conveniences for workmen engaged upon buildings; the provision of means of escape from new buildings in case of fire; the provision of staircases in new buildings and bye-laws relating thereto; provision with regard to the erection of buildings to a greater height than adjoining buildings; prescribing the area of habitable rooms; requiring the provision of food storage accommodation in new houses; and prohibiting new houses from being occupied until certificate of completion and fitness obtained from Corporation.

43. To make further provision for controlling and regulating the erection of buildings or structures in reinforced concrete or of iron or steel construction, or in which iron or steel is largely used, and to authorize the erection or construction of such buildings, subject to the deposit of such plans and under such restrictions and conditions (if any) as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act or may be imposed by the Corporation, and so far as may be necessary to alter, amend and extend in their application to such buildings and structures the provisions of, and the powers conferred by, any of the Acts or bye-laws of the Corporation relating to buildings in general.

44. To make further and better provision with regard to the sewers and drains and other sanitary matters of the city, especially in respect of the following:—

Empowering the Corporation to require separate sewerage systems for sewage and surface water, and to declare with reference to existing sewers whether the same are surface-water sewers or sewage sewers; enabling the Corporation to require specially large sewers in new streets; provision with regard to the repair of surface-water channels; further provision with regard to the construction of communications between drains and sewers, and empowering the Corporation at the request of the owners or occupiers of premises to construct such communications; requiring the giving of notice to the Medical Officer of Health and Inspector of Nuisances of intention to repair drains; provision with regard to the testing of drains in new buildings and buildings not occupied as dwelling-houses at the date of the intended Act; empowering the Corporation to repair drains and recover the expense of so doing; requiring provision to be made for securing the adequate ventilation of soil pipes; the extension, alteration or repeal of the provisions of Section 19 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, in their application to the city, and provision that combined drains shall be deemed to be drains and not sewers; empowering the Corporation to order that houses shall be drained by a combined drain under certain circumstances, and providing for the construction of such combined drain; requiring pipes from sinks, slop-stones, baths, or basins in buildings to be properly trapped beneath such sinks, slop-stones, baths or basins; the improper construction or repair of water-closets, drains and other sanitary apparatus, and the imposition of penalties with regard thereto; to enable the Corporation to require the owner or occupier of any dwelling-house or shop to provide suitable dustbins and for regulating the size and construction of dustbins; water-courses choked up to be deemed to be a nuisance within the meaning of the Public Health Acts; prohibiting the throwing of solid matter into any stream or water-course; and provision for the recovery of penalties in respect of such matters; prohibiting the covering over of water-courses except in accordance with plans, sections, and specifications approved by the Corporation; provision with regard to the repair of surface-water channels;

imposing penalties upon owners allowing houses to be occupied without a proper water supply, and upon occupiers refusing the execution of the intended Act; the extension to the Medical Officer of Health and Inspector of Nuisances of all or some of the powers conferred by the Public Health Acts upon the City Surveyor with regard to conveniences in factories.

45. To enact that an owner or occupier of a house receiving notice from the Corporation to provide any of the matters which may be required under section 23 or section 36 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and failing to provide such matters to the satisfaction of the Corporation, shall be liable to penalties in addition (in the case of an owner) to repaying the expense incurred by the Corporation in providing such matter.

46. To make provision for the treatment before discharge into any watercourse in the city from any tannery, manufactory, or trade or business premises of any poisonous, noxious, offensive or polluting matter so as to render such matter harmless and inoffensive, and to enable the Corporation to regulate the discharge into sewers in the city of trade effluents or refuse, and to provide for penalties against persons offending.

47. To empower the Corporation to close any public or private well, tank or cistern which is or is likely to be polluted or dangerous to health.

Infectious Disease and other Sanitary Matters.

48. To make further and better provision for the prevention of disease in the city, and with regard to other sanitary matters, and particularly with respect to the following matters:—

Requiring information to be furnished to the Medical Officer in cases of infectious disease occurring in the city, and prescribing penalties for neglecting to furnish such information or for furnishing false information; regulating the sale and manufacture of ice-cream and the inspection of premises used therefor, and requiring that dealers in ice-cream shall have their names painted on their carts, barrows or stands; the closing of Sunday Schools to prevent the spread of disease and other provisions for the prevention or spread of infectious disease among children in Sunday Schools, including the prevention of children from attending such schools under certain circumstances without a certificate from the Medical Officer of Health; requiring that cases of measles, German measles and whooping-cough in children attending school shall be notified to the head-teacher by the parents or guardians of such children, and provision for the prevention of the exposure of such children; original vendor and owner of unsound food to be liable to penalties under Public Health Acts; registration of premises for manufacture of potted or preserved food and the prohibition of the manufacture thereof except on registered premises; penalties for failure to protect from contamination or infection sausages, pressed or pickled meat or other similar commodity; and the deposit of articles of food (whether solid or liquid) in the Corporation abattoir or cold stores to be deemed to be deposited for purposes of sale or of preparation for sale for the food of man within the meaning of section 117 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

49. To enable the Corporation by any of their officers to enter and cleanse houses which are infested with vermin and the contents of such houses.

50. To define the establishment of a new business and to empower the Corporation to deal with and remove offensive trades and to deal summarily with nuisances arising in the city and to alter or amend the Public Health Acts accordingly.

51. To provide that the trade of a fried fish or chipped potatoes dealer shall be an offensive trade within the meaning of the Public Health Act and to require the occupiers of such premises to be registered and periodically re-registered; to empower the Corporation to examine and analyse fat, oil and other substances used for frying fish and potatoes in fried fish shops and to take samples thereof and for such purposes to apply some or all of the provisions of the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts.

52. To require the registration of hair-dressers' shops and to make bye-laws and regulations for securing the cleanliness thereof and of the articles used therein.

Common Lodging-houses and Houses Let in Lodgings.

53. To require the giving of notice to the Corporation of the death of a common lodging-house keeper; to empower the Corporation to medically examine the inmates of common lodging-houses where infectious disease prevails or is suspected and to close common lodging-houses where infectious disease exists.

54. To confer further powers upon the Corporation with regard to the making of bye-laws as to houses let in lodgings, and for such purpose to extend the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, and to enable the Corporation by such bye-laws to require amongst other things placards as to cubic contents and accommodation to be displayed and separate approaches to all rooms and tenements.

Good Rule and Government.

55. To make further provision for the good rule and government of the city, and particularly as follows:—

To empower the Corporation to provide fire alarms in the streets, to restrict the use of advertising vehicles, to impose penalties in respect of the unauthorised posting in the city of bills, posters and advertisements, to make bylaws with regard to the use of bicycles, tricycles and other similar vehicles on certain footpaths on the Commons in the city, and to prohibit the throwing of confetti and other similar matter at fairs, shows, race meetings, sports and on other occasions.

56. To make liable to fine or imprisonment every person in any street, market, market place, market hall, park, recreation ground or other enclosure, place, building or erection to which the public are admitted upon or without payment, engaging in any fight or brawl or guilty of any disorderly, riotous or indecent behaviour therein, and every person found in possession of property suspected to be stolen or unlawfully obtained and unable to give a satisfactory account of the manner in which he came by the same.

57. To enable the Corporation to make bye-laws under the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, for fixing the rates or fares for hackney carriages by a combination of time and distance, and to authorise the Corporation to test, inspect and certify all taximeters or other similar apparatus used or intended to be used on hackney carriages within the city.

58. To empower the Corporation to require periodical examinations of all mechanically propelled hackney carriages licensed in the city, and to revoke the licence granted in respect of any hackney carriage not brought for examination when required or being found on examination to be unsafe or unfit for use.

Prevention of Flooding.

59. To enable the Corporation to require owners of property situate below the level to which flood waters are liable to rise in the part of the city in which their property is situate to execute works to prevent the flooding of their premises, and also to empower the Corporation to require owners of property adjoining the River Witham, the Foss Dyke, the Sincil Dyke, and any other watercourse or drain within the city, to raise banks along the boundaries of their property to such height as may be required by the Corporation so as to prevent the flooding of their premises.

60. To empower the Corporation in times of flood to pump flood waters from lands or streets in the city, into any river, watercourse or drain.

Superannuation Fund.

61. To make provision for the payment of superannuation allowances to the officers and servants appointed by or in the employment of the Corporation, and assistant overseers, rate collectors, and other persons in the employment of the overseers of the parish of Lincoln (all of whom are hereinafter called "officers and servants"), to prescribe the scale of such allowances and the ages at which and the circumstances under which the same shall be paid, and to provide for the establishment and administration of a superannuation fund; the payment of contributions thereto by the said officers and servants (by deduction from their salaries or wages or otherwise) and by the Corporation and overseers, the investment and application of the money standing to the credit of the fund, determining the amount of such contributions, and the method of meeting deficiencies.

62. To enact all necessary provisions incidental or ancillary to and in respect of:—

The establishment of the said fund, the payment of allowances, the age at which officers and servants shall cease to hold office, the forfeiture of benefits, &c., in cases of fraud or misconduct, the return of contributions in certain cases, the cessation or reduction of allowances in certain cases, the payment of gratuities, the prohibition of assignment of interests or charging thereof, the inclusion therein or otherwise of existing officers and servants, and the determination of disputes.

63. To make provision for the payment out of the city fund and city rate, poor rate, or other rates or funds of the expenses incurred by the Corporation and overseers in carrying the intended provisions as to superannuation into execution, and to incorporate or apply, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Friendly Societies Acts, 1896 and 1908, and such provisions of other public Acts as may be necessary or convenient for carrying such intended provisions into execution, to require that notice of the provisions of the intended Act relating to superannuation shall be given to existing officers and servants, and to prohibit the coming into operation of any such provisions until the Corporation shall have obtained a report from an actuary, as to the amount of the sum to be raised annually from the revenues of the Corporation and overseers and carried to the credit of the Superannuation Fund, and the Local Government Board shall have been satisfied that such report complies with the provisions of the intended Act with regard to the establishment of a Superannuation Fund.

Miscellaneous and Financial.

64. To make provision for regulating the sale of coke in the city in quantities under two hundredweights.

65. To enact all necessary provisions for giving full effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the city, including the making and confirmation of bye-laws, the imposition of penalties for breach of the provisions of the intended Act or of any bye-laws thereunder or for failure to comply with the terms or conditions of any consent given by the Corporation under any Act or otherwise, the payment of penalties to the Corporation and the recovery and application of penalties and expenses, the recovery of demands in the county court, the entry of premises, penalties for obstructing execution of Act, the payment of expenses of carrying the Act into execution, evidence of appointments and resolutions, and the authentication and service of notices.

66. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way prevent, interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

67. To empower the Corporation to establish out of the rates and revenues of the Corporation an accident fund to meet claims under the Employers' Liability and Workmen's Compensation Acts or otherwise, and to retain any sums paid into such fund in the account of the Corporation at their bankers as a set-off against temporary overdrafts for other purposes.

68. To amend the provisions of the Lincoln Corporation (Water, &c.) Act, 1908, with regard to the recovery of rates so as to abolish the limitation for the summary recovery of any rate.

69. To empower the Corporation to borrow or raise additional money for executing the water works authorized by the Lincoln Corporation (Water, etc.) Act, 1908, and to borrow or raise money for any of the purposes of the intended Act, and for any of the purposes of their tramway, trackless trolley vehicle, motor omnibus, gas, water and electricity undertakings, and to charge such money upon the city fund and city rate, the district fund and general district rate, and upon the estates, undertakings, rates, rents, revenues and other property of the Corporation, or on any of those securities, and to execute and grant mortgages or to create and issue Corporation stock in respect thereof, and to empower the Corporation to apply any of their existing funds and rates, or any money they are authorized to borrow, to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide that all moneys already borrowed and to be borrowed for the purposes of the electricity undertaking of the Corporation and all moneys to be borrowed under the powers of the intended Act shall not be reckoned in the limit of borrowing prescribed by the Public Health Act, 1875.

70. To authorize the Corporation to use one form of mortgage for all purposes for which they are for the time being authorized to borrow money, charging the loans upon all or any of the revenues, rates or property of the Corporation.

71. To alter, amend, repeal, re-enact or extend, with or without modification, all or any of the provisions of the following Inclosure Acts, viz.:—26 Geo. III., c. 47 (relating to the South or Canwick Common) and 43 Geo. III., c. 120 (relating to the West or Carholme Common); and also the following local Acts and Orders, viz.:—9 Geo. IV., c. xxiv. (Extension of Limits of Supply; New Works; Acquisition and Sale of Lands, Springs and Waters; Easements; Acquisition of Parts Only of Property; Amendment of Lands Clauses Acts; Rents, Rates and Charges; Power to Lay Mains, Pipes, &c., within and beyond Limits; Protection of Water Supply; Supply for flushing and other Purposes; Directors; Guarantees by Local or other Authorities; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; Dividends; Provisions as to Raising New and Already Authorized Capital and as to Borrowing or Issuing Debenture Stock to be or already authorized; Underwriting and other Commissions; Application of Funds; Incorporation, Repeal, Application and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session by the South Staffordshire Waterworks Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To extend the limits of supply of the Company so as to include therein the parishes or places of Brewood, Stretton, Lapley, Kinvaston, Penkridge, Teddesley Hay, Hatherton, Saredon, Sharesill, Featherstone, Hilton, Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley, in the rural district of Cannock, in the county of Stafford.

To authorize the Company within the said parishes or places to exercise all or some of the powers, privileges and authorities for and in relation to the supply of water, the recovery of water rents, rates and charges and otherwise which they now have and may exercise within their existing limits, or which they may acquire under the intended Act, and to extend and apply within the proposed additional limits with or without exceptions and modifications the provisions of the South Staffordshire Waterworks Acts and Order, 1853 to 1913, or any other Act or Order relating to the Company, and to extend and make applicable throughout the whole of the limits of the Company as proposed to be so extended with or without modification all or some of the provisions of the intended Act.

To empower the Company to make and maintain and from time to time to alter, improve, enlarge, extend, renew, reconstruct or discontinue all or any of the works hereinafter described in the county of Stafford (that is to say):—

Work No. 1.—A well and pumping station to be situate in the parish of Brewood, in the enclosures numbered 367, 368 and 388, or in some or one of them on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map (2nd edition, 1902) of that parish.

Work No. 2.—A line or lines of pipes commencing at the said well and pumping station (Work No. 1) and terminating in the said parish of Brewood by a junction with the line or lines of pipes (Work No. 4) hereinafter described at a point in the road from Four Ashes to Wolverhampton two chains or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction along the said road from the occupation road leading therefrom to Aspley Farm.

Work No. 3.—A well and pumping station to be situate in the said parish of Brewood, in the enclosures numbered 1584, 1639, 1640, 1642, 1643, 1644, 1660, 1661, 1662, 1663 and 1669, or some or one of them on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map (2nd edition, 1902) of that parish.

Work No. 4.—A line or lines of pipes commencing at the said well and pumping station (Work No. 3), and terminating in the parish and county borough of Walsall by a junction with the existing main of the Company in the road leading from Cannock to Walsall at the junction of that road with the road leading from Bloxwich to Wolverhampton.

Which said intended works will be situate in the parishes or places following or some of them (that is to say):—

The parish and county borough of Walsall; the parishes of Brewood, Featherstone, Shreshill, Hilton, Saredon and Essington in the county of Stafford.

To authorize the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned to such extent as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act.

To enable the Company to make and maintain on, in, under, or upon any of the before-mentioned lands, or any lands belonging to the Company or any lands in respect of which they may have acquired any necessary easements all such cuts, channels, catchwaters, tunnels, adits, mains, pipes, conduits, culverts, drifts, wells, shafts, bores, drains, sluices, relief-valves, washouts, overflows, bye-washes, waste-water channels, gauges, filter beds, water-towers, tanks, banks, embankments, walls, bridges, piers, approaches, engines, machinery, buildings, works, electric wires, telegraphs, telephones, and other apparatus and appliances as may be necessary or convenient in connection with or subsidiary to the intended works or to their undertaking.

To enable the Company to pump, collect, impound, take, use, divert, and appropriate for the purposes of their undertaking all such streams, springs, and waters as will or may be intercepted by any works of the Company to be authorized by the intended Act or any other works of the Company.

To enable the Company by compulsion or agreement to purchase and acquire, and to hold and use, the lands hereinbefore described or referred to, and other lands in the before-mentioned parishes or places and elsewhere, or any easements, rights, or interests therein, thereover, or thereunder, for the purposes of their existing and the intended works, for protecting their water supply against fouling and for other purposes of the intended Act and of the Company's undertaking.

To provide, and that notwithstanding anything contained in the Lands Clauses Acts, for the reference to and determination by a single arbitrator of any disputed claim for compensation arising or made under the intended Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, and to make provision for the appointment of any such arbitrator and any incidental provision with reference to the conduct of proceedings before him.

To enable the Company to purchase or acquire so much only of any property as may be required for the purposes of the intended Act, and to exempt the Company from the liability imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To enable the Company by agreement to purchase and acquire, and to take on lease and to hold lands, buildings, waters, wells, springs, streams, easements and rights of water and other rights, easements and hereditaments for the purposes of the intended Act and for the general purposes of their undertaking, and to purchase or take on lease houses, cottages and buildings for persons in their employ and offices and other buildings for the purposes of their undertaking, and to erect, maintain and let buildings upon lands of or leased to the Company.

To enable the Company, notwithstanding any provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, to hold, use, lease, let, sell, exchange or dispose of any lands or buildings for the time being belonging or leased to them with or without the reservation of water or water rights or other easements in, over, or relating thereto.

To enable the Company within and beyond their limits of supply to lay down, maintain, alter, repair, take up and renew mains, pipes, culverts, tubes, wires and other works and apparatus for the distribution and supply of water or any purpose connected with the undertaking, or for the prevention and detection of waste, and to open, break up, cross, divert, remove, alter, stop up and interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, footpaths, streets (including streets not dedicated to public use), dykes, pipes, sewers, canals, navigations, rivers, springs, streams, bridges, railways, tramways, tunnels, drains, wires and apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to open, break up, cross, divert, remove, alter, stop up, or interfere with, for the purposes of the Company or in connection with the supply of water or of the intended Act, and to apply for any such purposes the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes.

To stop up, vary or extinguish all rights over any lands and properties acquired by the Company under the authority of the intended Act, and to empower the Company in, under and upon those lands or any of them, and in, under and upon any other lands for the time being held by the Company, or in respect of which they may acquire an easement in connection with their undertaking to exercise all or any of the powers of section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

To provide that all works authorized by, or lands, rights or easements acquired under, the intended Act shall form part of the undertaking of the Company, and to apply thereto, with or without modification, all or any of the provisions of any Act or Order relating to or affecting the Company.

To empower the Company to raise further capital by the creation and issue of new stock, and by borrowing on mortgage and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and in such proportions as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act, and to attach to such new stock, mortgages or debenture stock, or the holders thereof such rate of dividend or interest and such preference or priority in the payment of dividend or interest and such other rights, privileges and conditions both as between themselves and other holders, and as regards other stock, mortgages and debenture stock of the Company as may be prescribed or authorized as aforesaid: to make provision as to the dividends payable by the Company: to apply to the purposes of the intended Act, and to empower the Company to apply to the general purposes of their undertaking the moneys proposed to be raised as aforesaid, and to apply to the purposes of the intended Act or such general purposes any capital or funds of the Company or any moneys which they have raised or may be authorized to raise under any former Act or Order.

To provide for the creation, issue, raising and borrowing of all or any of such further capital, and all or any of such stocks and of any capital, debenture stock or moneys which the Company are authorized to issue or raise under their existing Acts and Order, but which shall not have been issued or raised, in such manner or subject to and in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or provided for by or under the intended Act; to enable the Company to pay underwriting and other commissions in respect of any stock issued or moneys borrowed or raised by them; and to amend, vary or repeal all or any existing provisions limiting or relating to the creation, issue or raising of any such already authorized capital or stock or the exercise of any borrowing powers of the Company.

To empower the local or other authority of any county or district wholly or partly within the limits of supply of the Company to guarantee returns upon the cost of affording a supply of water to any part of the county or district of any such authority, and to empower any such authority to raise moneys or apply funds under their control for the purpose.

To authorize and empower the Company on the one hand and any county or other local authorities, bodies or persons on the other hand to make, enter into and execute contracts, agreements and other arrangements in relation to any of the subject matters of the intended Act.

To sanction, confirm, and provide for the carrying out and execution of or to give effect to all or any contracts or agreements which have been or may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, by or on behalf of the Company and any such authority or person.

To provide that directors shall not be disqualified by contracting with the Company, and to make other provision as to directors, as to attorneys of stockholders appointing proxies to vote for such stockholders and voting by joint holders.

To make provision in respect of the supply of water by the Company for flushing purposes or for washing horses, carriages or motor cars, and the recovery of penalties and demands.

To incorporate with the intended Act with or without modification all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889; the Lands Clauses Acts and the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; and such parts of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as relate to the temporary occupation of lands; to confer on the Company all necessary powers for the purposes aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might impede or interfere with such purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, extend or repeal, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes aforesaid, all or any of the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and all or some of the provisions of the South Staffordshire Waterworks Acts and Order, 1853 to 1913, and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Company or their undertaking.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections showing the lines, situation and levels of the intended works, and the lands and other property which may be taken compulsorily under the powers of the intended Act, together with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will on or before the 30th day of November instant be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford at his offices at Stafford, and that on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections and book of reference as relates to the several areas hereinafter mentioned, together with a copy of this Notice published as aforesaid, will be deposited as follows (that is to say):—

As relates to the county borough of Walsall, with the Town Clerk of that county borough at his office; as relates to the rural district of Cannock, with the Clerk to the Council of that district at his office at Cannock; as relates to each of the parishes of Brewood, Sharesill, and Essington, with the Clerk of the Parish Council of each such parish at his office, or, if he have no office, at his residence, or, if there be no clerk, with the Chairman of such parish council at his residence; and as relates to the parishes of Featherstone, Hilton and Saredon with the Chairman of the parish meeting of each such parish at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1914.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Great Eastern Railway Company (in this Notice called "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Company to make and maintain with all necessary and convenient bridges, arches, piers, abutments, walls, piles, embankments, stations, junctions, rails, sidings, buildings, approaches, roads, coffer dams, warehouses, cranes, lifts, machinery, and other works and conveniences, the following works or some of them, or some part or parts thereof (that is to say):—

(a) A railway wholly in the parish and borough of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, commencing at a point in the Company's goods yard, situate to the west of the River Chelmer 50 yards or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the boundary fence at the north-east corner of such goods yard, and terminating at a point on the Colchester main line of the Company immediately to the south-west of the bridge carrying the road leading from the London-road to All Saints Church, Springfield, over the said railway of the Company.

(b) A widening in the county of Essex of the Colchester main line of the Company on its northern side, commencing in the parish and urban district of Romford at a point on the said main line 237 yards or thereabouts measured in a westerly direction along the said main line from the west corner of the Company's Romford Junction Signal

Box, and terminating in the parish of Hornchurch, in the rural district of Romford, at a point on the said main line 303 yards or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction along the said main line from the south-east corner of the Company's Romford Factory Signal Box.

(c) The laying down in the hamlet or parish of Mile End Old Town, in the metropolitan borough of Stepney, in the county of London, of a line or lines of rails (No. 1) on the south side of the Colchester main line of the Company, from a point situate 7 yards or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the south-west corner of the subway underneath such railway, east of the Globe-road and Devonshire-street Station of the Company to a point on the Company's premises 7 yards or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the south-east corner of the abutment of the bridge carrying the Company's said railway over Morpeth-street, together with a bridge for carrying the said line or lines of rails over a portion of the northern side of Devonshire-street, Mile End.

(d) The laying down partly in the parish of Poplar Borough, in the metropolitan borough of Poplar, in the county of London, and partly in the parish and county borough of West Ham, in the county of Essex, of a line or lines of rails (No. 2) on the south side of Carpenters-road, near the point where that road crosses the River Lee, from a point in the said parish of Poplar Borough, 127 yards or thereabouts, measured in a south-westerly direction from the north-east corner of the Company's property adjoining Carpenters-road and abutting on the west side of the River Lee to a point in the said parish and county borough of West Ham on the east side of the River Lee, 43 yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction from the south-east corner of the match works in the occupation of Messrs. George M. Judd and Brothers Limited, situate between the City Mill river and the Waterworks river, together with a bridge for carrying the said line or lines of rails over the River Lee.

(e) The laying down in the said parish and county borough of West Ham of a line or lines of rails (No. 3) on the north-west side of the Colchester main line of the Company from a point at or near the eastern end of the ropewalk adjoining Marshgate works to a point on the boundary fence on the north-west side of the said main line 17 yards or thereabouts measured along such fence in a north-easterly direction from the point where such fence adjoins the City Mill river, together with a bridge for carrying the said line or lines of rails over the City Mill river.

(f) The laying down in the parish and urban district of Ilford, in the county of Essex, of a line or lines of rails (No. 4) immediately adjoining the north side of the Company's Colchester main line from a point 33 yards or thereabouts measured in a westerly direction from the western end of the northern abutment of the bridge carrying Goodmayes-road over the Company's said railway, to a point 53 yards or thereabouts, measured in an easterly direction from the said western end of the said abutment of such bridge, together with a bridge for carrying Goodmayes-road over the said line or lines of rails.

(g) The laying down in the rural district of Billericay, in the county of Essex, partly in the parish of Hutton and partly in the parish of Ingrave, of a line or lines of rails (No. 5) on the west side of the said Colchester main line, between points measured respectively 44 yards north and south along the said main line from the public footpath crossing the said main line on the level at or near the southern boundary of the said parish of Hutton.

(h) The laying down in the parish and county borough of Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk (Eastern Division), of a line or lines of rails (No. 6) on the north-east side of the Norwich main line of the Company from a point 30 yards or thereabouts, measured in a northerly direction from the northern end of the parapet on the west side of the bridge carrying London-road over the Company's railway to a point 38 yards or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the said northern end of the said parapet, together with a bridge for carrying London-road, Ipswich, over the said line or lines of rails.

(i) A diversion in the county of Cambridge of the stream leading into the River Cam at Swan's Corner, commencing at a point in the parish of Sawston, in the rural district of Linton, immediately west of the Company's Cambridge main line, 270 yards or thereabouts measured along such main line in a northerly direction from the bridge carrying the said main line over the River Cam and terminating in the said parish of Sawston at a point immediately west of such main line 360 yards or thereabouts measured in a northerly direction along such main line from such bridge.

The said diversion will be made or pass from, in, through, or into the said parish of Sawston and the parish of Whittlesford, in the said rural district of Linton.

2. To authorize the Company in the construction of the aforesaid works and the diversions of footpaths hereinafter referred to, to deviate from the lines and levels thereof shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to stop up, alter or divert temporarily or permanently the City Mill River, the River Lee, and the River Chelmer at or near the crossing thereof by the works above described and the stream leading into the River Cam where the same is intended to be diverted, and all or any roads, streets, footpaths or other highways, towpaths, bridges, rivers, canals, streams, watercourses, sewers, drains, pipes, telegraphic and other tubes, wires, and apparatus, and all other constructions or works of any description which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter or divert for any of the purposes of the Bill, and to provide that the Company shall not be liable under section 46 of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to maintain the surface of any road or public highway which shall be carried over the intended railway, or widening of railway, or any of the intended line or lines of rails by a bridge or the immediate approaches thereto, except so far as the level of such road, highway or approaches is permanently altered.

3. To authorize the Company to demand, levy, take and recover tolls, rates and charges for or in respect of the aforesaid works, and to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates and charges respectively.

4. To authorize the Company to purchase by agreement additional lands for extraordinary purposes and for getting ballast and materials and for any other purposes of their undertaking.

5. To authorize the Company for the purposes of the aforesaid works and of the footpath diversions hereinafter described, and for the purposes of reinstating any person whose property may be acquired, and of the Bill to purchase by compulsion or agreement lands (including the bed and foreshore of the City Mill River, the River Lee, and the River Chelmer), and buildings and rights and easements in, over, under or affecting lands and buildings in the aforesaid parishes and in the parishes hereinafter mentioned in which the said footpath diversions will be situate, and also to purchase by compulsion or agreement for the purposes of laying down additional sidings and providing and extending stations, sidings, engine sheds, workshops, coal, mineral, goods and other depots, warehouses, yards, buildings, wharves and other accommodation, and for providing access thereto and to their railways and otherwise for any of the purposes of their undertaking the lands and buildings hereinafter described or referred to or some of them or some part or parts thereof respectively, and any rights or easements or outstanding estates or interests in, over, under or affecting any of such lands and buildings, and to confirm and sanction the purchase by the Company of any of such lands or buildings which may have been or may be acquired by them, and the expenditure of money for or in connection with any such purchase, and to authorize the Company to use the same for all or any such purposes as aforesaid (that is to say):—

and to empower the Company to stop up and discontinue for traffic of every description so much of the existing footpaths as will be rendered unnecessary by the proposed diversions.

7. To authorize the purchase by the Company of so much only of any house, building, manufactory or property as may be required for the purposes of the intended works or of the Bill notwithstanding anything contained in the 92nd section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

8. To extinguish all public or private rights of way or other rights, if any, in, over or affecting any river, stream, street, road, footpath or way to be diverted or stopped up under the Bill, and to vest in the Company or the adjoining owners, or partly in one and partly in the other, the site and soil of the river, stream, street, road, footpath or way stopped up, freed and discharged from all or any such rights, and to provide for the dedication to and repair by the public or in such manner as the Bill may prescribe, of any street, road, footpath or way to be constructed or diverted under the Bill.

9. To make special provision with respect to the entry upon survey and valuation at any time of lands and buildings to be purchased or used as aforesaid or under the powers of the Bill and as to the payment of costs in certain cases of disputed compensation by persons claiming compensation in respect of lands and buildings, and as to determining the purchase money and compensation payable in respect of lands and property required for the purposes of the Bill, and to provide for limiting the amount thereof and claims in respect thereof in cases of recent buildings and alterations and recently created interests therein.

10. To further extend the periods now respectively limited for the completion and, if necessary, to revive the powers for the construction of the following works, namely:—

(a) The widening and improvement authorized by section 5, sub-section (F) of the Great Eastern Railway (General Powers) Act, 1897, of the Company's Ware and Hertford Branch Railway.

(b) The widening and improvement (No. 2) of the Company's main line at West Ham authorized by section 4, sub-section (D) of the Great Eastern Railway (General Powers) Act, 1900.

11. To extend the periods respectively limited by the Great Eastern Railway Act, 1912 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1912") for the compulsory purchase of lands for and for the completion of the following works authorized by section 6 of that Act, namely:—

The deviations and improvements (No. 1) and (No. 2) of the Company's Beccles to Yarmouth line, with the swing bridges for carrying the deviated railways over the River Waveney described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of sub-section (F) of the said section 6, and, if necessary, to revive the powers for such compulsory purchase.

12. To extend the period limited by the Act of 1912, and, if necessary, to revive the powers for the compulsory purchase of lands for the following works authorized by section 6 of that Act, and described respectively in sub-sections (A), (C), (D), and (E) of that section (that is to say):—

The Widening and Improvement (No. 1) and the Widening and Improvement (No. 2) of the Company's Norwich to Cromer line of railway.

The Widening and Improvement (No. 4), the Widening and Improvement (No. 5), the Widening and Improvement (No. 6), and the Widening and Improvement (No. 7) of the Company's Felixstowe branch railway.

The Widening and Improvement (No. 8) of the Company's Ely and Newmarket branch railway; and

The Widening and Improvement (No. 9) of the Company's Cambridge main line.

13. To extend the period limited by the Act of 1912, and, if necessary, to revive the powers for the compulsory purchase by the Great Northern and Great Eastern Joint Committee of the lands authorized to be acquired by and described in section 31 of that Act.

14. To alter and amend the New Pension Supplemental Scheme established under the powers of the Great Eastern Railway (Pensions) Act, 1898, or to empower the Managing Committee of the New Pension Supplemental Fund established under the provisions of the said Act with the consent of the Directors of the Company to alter and amend the said scheme and to make new and additional provisions in regard to persons entitled to join such scheme and as to contributions by and benefits to be received by members thereof, and to extend the benefits of membership of such scheme to such persons engaged by the Company in piece work, whether such persons are engaged wholly in piece work or partly in piece work and partly by time, as the Bill may prescribe or as may be settled by the said Managing Committee and to provide for the contributions by such class of persons and to make any consequential amendments in the said scheme or Act.

15. To make more effectual provision for the prevention of and punishment for throwing stones or other missiles at trains, and for making unlawful use of communication cords in trains travelling over the railways now or hereafter belonging or leased to or worked by the Company solely or in conjunction with any other Company or Companies or by any Joint Committee on which the Company is represented and to impose and provide for the recovery of penalties for such offences.

16. To authorize the Company for all or any of the purposes of the Bill or other the purposes of the Company to apply the funds of the Company, and to raise or borrow and appropriate any capital which the Company already have power to raise or borrow, and to authorize the Company or the directors of the Company without further authority for all or any of those purposes, to raise further capital by the creation and issue of ordinary or deferred stock or by preference stock or preference stock convertible into ordinary stock at such times and upon such terms (pecuniary or other) and conditions as they may think proper or the Bill may prescribe, and by debenture stock and by mortgage or by any or either of such means, and to alter and to define, prescribe and regulate the voting powers of the shareholders and stockholders of the Company in respect of the new capital, and to authorize the Company or the directors of the Company to raise any portion of the capital authorized to be raised by the Company, or any debenture stock which the Company or the directors of the Company are or may be authorized to create, whether under the intended Act or otherwise by the issue of redeemable preference shares or stock or redeemable debenture stock at such times and in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the directors of the Company think fit or as may be prescribed or provided for by the Bill, and to issue new shares or stock, whether ordinary or preference or debenture stock, and whether redeemable or otherwise for the purposes of redemption of or in substitution for any such shares or stock, and to provide for the setting apart out of income such sums as may be necessary for the purpose of redeeming any such redeemable preference shares or stock or debenture stock.

17. To alter, amend, extend or repeal the provisions or some of the provisions of the several local and personal Acts following (that is to say):—

The Acts 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 223; 60 and 61 Vict., cap. 95; 61 and 62 Vict., cap. 121; 63 and 64 Vict., cap. 110; and 2 and 3 Geo. 5, cap. 37, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company or their undertaking; 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 71, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Great Northern Railway Company or their undertaking; and 42 and 43 Vict., cap. 110; and 50 and 51 Vict., cap. 161, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Great Northern and Great Eastern Joint Committee or their undertaking.

18. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would in any way interfere with the purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Plans and sections showing the lines, situations and levels of the works proposed to be authorized by the Bill (so far as the same are works of the second class mentioned in the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament), and the lands and other property in or through which the same will be made or pass or be situate, and plans of the other lands and property intended to be compulsorily taken or used under the powers of the Bill, and of the footpath diversions proposed to be authorized by the Bill, together with books of reference to such plans respectively, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, together with in the case of each deposit a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will on or before the 30th day of November instant be deposited for public inspection as follows (that is to say):—

MERSEY RAILWAY.

(Extension of Periods Limited by the Mersey Railway Acts, 1900, 1906 and 1910, with Respect to the Payment of Interest on Certain Debenture Stocks and other Matters; Allowances for Depreciation and Renewals of Electric Plant, Rolling Stock, &c.; Altering, Renewing, Extending or Cancelling Agreement made 10th July, 1889, between the Proprietors of the Lyceum, Liverpool and the Mersey Railway Company; Power to said Proprietors and Company to Enter into Agreements, &c., and Confirmation thereof; Amendment or Repeal of Acts, and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mersey Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for leave to introduce a Bill (hereinafter called "the Bill") for effecting all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To amend section 25 of the Mersey Railway Act, 1900 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1900") as amended and extended by the Mersey Railway Act, 1906, and the Mersey Railway Act, 1910 (hereinafter respectively called "the Act of 1906" and "the Act of 1910"), and to alter and further extend the period within which the Company may apply the moneys in the said Section 25 mentioned in payment of interest on the debenture stocks therein specified.

2. To amend sections 27 and 28 of the Act of 1900 and paragraphs 2 and 6 of the Scheme of Arrangement set forth in the Schedule to that Act as amended and extended by the Act of 1906 and the Act of 1910, and to alter and further extend the periods thereby respectively limited within which (a) the payment of interest on certain of the debenture stocks of the Company is to be contingent on the revenue of the Company available therefor, and (b) the holders of such stocks may appoint a director or directors of the Company and such director or directors may hold office.

3. To require or enable the directors of the Company in determining for the purposes of paragraph 2 of the Schedule to the Act of 1900 the revenue available for the payment of interest on the debenture stocks referred to in that paragraph, to allow or deduct such sum in each separate year as they think reasonable for depreciation and renewals of the electrical plant, rolling stock and permanent way of the Company in manner provided by section 5 of the Act of 1910 or as may be provided by the Bill.

4. To confer and impose on the Company and the holders of the shares, stocks or loans of the Company and its creditors all such powers, rights, privileges and obligations as are or may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill and to sanction and confirm with or without modifications any agreements or arrangements between such holders and the Company in that behalf and enable trustees and other persons under disability to consent thereto and to the Bill.

5. To amend, alter, renew or extend the agreement made the 10th day of July, 1889, between the proprietors of the Lyceum, Liverpool (hereinafter called "the Proprietors"), of the one part and the Company of the other part set forth in the Second Schedule to the Mersey Railway Act, 1889 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1889"), and in particular to extend for such period as may be agreed upon between the Proprietors and the Company, or may be prescribed by the Bill, the term specified in such agreement as the term during which the Company may hold, use and occupy portion of the premises known as the Lyceum, Liverpool, or if deemed expedient to cancel and rescind all or any of the provisions of such agreement, and to repeal so much of the Act of 1889 as relates thereto and to empower the Proprietors on the one hand and the Company on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect any agreement or lease with respect to the occupation by the Company of the said premises or portion or portions thereof, and to sanction and confirm with or without modification any such agreement or lease.

6. To provide for the payment of the costs of the Bill out of the New First Debenture Stock authorised by the Act of 1900, or out of the moneys to be raised by the issue thereof or otherwise as the Bill may provide.

7. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any manner interfere with the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

8. To repeal or alter so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill all or some of the powers or provisions of the Act of 1889, the Act of 1900, the Act of 1906, the Act of 1910, and any other Act relating to the Company or their undertaking.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1914.

ABERDARE URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL (TRAMWAYS, &c.).

(Construction, etc., of Tramways, Tramroads and Railless Traction in Urban District of Aberdare; Gauge; Motive Power; Temporary Tramways, etc.; Stopping up, etc., of Roads, etc.; Power to Council to Work Tramways, Tramroads and Railless Traction; Power to Lease, etc.; Agreements; Posts, etc., in Streets, etc.; Abandonment of Railless Routes; Power to Run Omnibuses; Depôts, etc.; Shelters, etc.; Starting and Stopping Places, etc.; Power to Carry Animals, Goods, etc.; Trailer Vehicles; Patent Rights, etc.; Lopping and Removal of Trees, etc.; Appointment of Stages; Power to Board of Trade to Sanction other Routes; Brackets, etc., on Buildings, etc.; Interchange of Traffic; Working Agreements; Supply of Electricity in Bulk; Street Improvements, etc.; Acquisition of Common or Commonable Land and Laying out of same for purposes of Recreation; Deviation and other Powers; Compulsory Purchase of Lands; Exemption from Section 92 of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; Compensation; Single Arbitrator; Borrowing Powers; Amendment of Section 91 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and Provisions as to Dangerous Buildings; Bye-laws, etc.; Penalties; Tolls, Rates, and Charges; Incorporation, Amendment, and Repeal of Acts and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Urban District Council of Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan (hereinafter referred to as "the Council"), intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called "the Bill") for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To enable the Council to construct, lay down and maintain all or some or some part of the tramways and tramroads hereinafter described (in this Notice collectively referred to as "the tramways"), and for that purpose to construct, lay down and maintain all necessary and proper rails, plates, sleepers, channels (including in that word where used in this Notice channels, passages and tubes for ropes, cables, wires and electric lines), junctions, turntables, turnouts, crossings, passing-places, posts, poles, brackets, wires, stables, car-sheds, engine, boiler and dynamo houses, waiting-rooms, buildings, engines, dynamos, works and conveniences connected therewith respectively.

(In the following descriptions of the intended tramways, railless routes and street works, narrow places and lands to be acquired, all distances, lengths and areas given are to be read as if the words "on thereabouts" had been inserted after each such distance, length and area, and where any distance is given with reference to or stated to be measured from a particular street or road, such distance is to be taken as measured from a point at which the line of frontage on the nearest side of such street or road intersects or would if continued intersect the centre line of the street or road in which the tramway or other work is intended to be situate.)

The tramways proposed to be authorized by the Bill will be situate wholly within the parish and urban district of Aberdare (in this Notice referred to as "the District"), and are as follows:—

Tramway No. 1.—Commencing in Cardiff-road by a junction with the existing tramways at their termination, passing thence in southerly and south-easterly directions along Cardiff-road, John-street (Capcoch) and Cardiff-road, and terminating in the latter road at the point at which the boundary between the urban districts of Aberdare and Mountain Ash crosses that road.

Tramway No. 2.—Commencing in Cardiff-road by a junction with the existing tramways at a point 10 yards north-west of Mount-street, passing thence into and along Regent-street, Jubilee-road, Gooseberry-hill, Fairview-terrace, Cwmaman New-road, Aberneol-street and Fforchaman-road, and terminating in the latter road at a point opposite the southern side of School-street.

Tramroad or Tramway No. 3.—Commencing in Cemetery-road by a junction with the existing tramways at their termination, passing thence in a generally north-westerly direction along Cemetery-road, Hirwain-road and Brecon-road, and terminating in the latter road at Hirwain at a point 12 yards north-west of Harris-street.

The tramways will be constructed on a gauge of 3 feet 6 inches or such other gauge as the Board of Trade may approve, and it is not intended to run on such tramways carriages or trucks adapted to run on railways.

In the following cases the intended tramways are proposed to be laid along the several streets and roads hereinafter mentioned, so that for a distance of 30 feet or upwards a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath on the side or sides hereinafter mentioned of such streets or roads and the nearest rail of the tramway (that is to say):—

No. of Tramway.	Road, Street or Place.	Side or sides of Road, Street or Place.	Narrow Places.

In Parliament.—Session 1915.

CHELMSFORD CORPORATION GAS.

(Acquisition by Chelmsford Corporation of the Undertaking of the Chelmsford Gas Company compulsorily or by agreement; Winding-up and Dissolution of that Company; Provisions incidental to Transfer of Undertaking and Winding-up of Company; Transfer to and exercise of Powers of the Company by the Corporation, including existing powers of Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Residual Products and Maintenance, Erection, etc., of Gas Works on authorized gas lands; Supply of Gas within existing Limits of the Company by the Corporation; Rates, Rents and Charges; Charges for Supply of Gas; Differential Rates; Calorific Power; Breaking up of Streets, etc.; Purchase, Holding, Use and Disposal of Lands; Meters, Stoves, Pipes, Fittings, etc.; Application of Company's Act to Corporation; Sale of Portions of Gasworks, etc., beyond Borough of Chelmsford; Financial Provisions; Power to Borrow and Re-borrow; Form of Mortgage; Application of Revenue;

Deficiency; Accounts; Bye-laws; Penalties; Incorporation, Repeal and Amendment of Acts; General and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called "the intended Act") for the following or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize and empower the Corporation to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, and to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Corporation of the undertaking of the Chelmsford Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company").

To provide for the determination by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, of the price or consideration to be paid for the undertaking or to define in the intended Act the price or consideration to be paid and the terms and conditions of the transfer.

To confirm and give effect to any agreement between the Corporation and the Company respectively with reference to any purchase and sale of the undertaking which may have been or may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act.

To empower the Corporation to carry into effect the terms, conditions and stipulations expressed in or prescribed by Section 91 of the Chelmsford Gas Act, 1914 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1914") relative to the purchase and sale of the undertaking of the Company.

To empower the Corporation to pay compensation to the officers and servants of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Act of 1914.

To empower the Corporation to discharge any debts, obligations or liabilities (other than mortgages or debenture debts and the interest thereon) of the Company existing at the date of transfer; to provide that the contracts of the Company shall be binding on the Corporation; and that actions are not to abate or be discontinued and other usual transitory provisions.

To provide for the winding-up and dissolution of the Company and for the distribution of the purchase money and assets amongst the stockholders of the Company and other persons entitled or interested therein and in payment of such compensation or bonuses (if any) as the Company decide to grant to any Directors, officers or servants of the Company, and for the payment, redemption, cancellation or extinction by the Company of all mortgages and debentures and for the payment and discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Company or the transfer of the same or any part thereof to the Corporation, and for inspection of the Company's books and in other respects to define and limit their powers or to make such other provisions with respect to the matters aforesaid as may be contained in the intended Act.

To apply to the Company for the purposes of winding-up and distribution of assets the procedure under the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, applicable to Companies to which that Act applies.

To make provision as to the maintenance and carrying on of the undertaking of the Company until the same shall be transferred to the Corporation and pending the completion of the transfer to restrict the powers of the Company in reference to the issue of further capital or expenditure of money on capital account and as to contracts, agreements and other similar arrangements and obligations to be entered into by them.

To make such provisions as may be necessary or incidental with reference to or in connection with the transfer of the undertaking of the Company to the Corporation and the winding-up and dissolution of the Company.

To authorize and empower the Corporation to exercise in connection with the said undertaking such of the powers conferred upon the Company by the Act of 1914 as may be defined or prescribed by the intended Act or to incorporate in the intended Act with or without modification or amendment and to make applicable to the Corporation all or any of the provisions of the Act of 1914, and to repeal that Act wholly or in part.

To authorize the Corporation to supply gas in and throughout the existing limits of supply of the Company comprising the Borough and Parish of Chelmsford and the parishes of Springfield, Broomfield, Great Baddow, Great Waltham, Little Waltham, Great Leighs, Little Leighs, Fairsted, Faulkbourne, Terling, Hatfield Peverel, Boreham, Little Baddow, Danbury, Woodham Ferrers, Sandon, East Hanningfield, West Hanningfield, Chignall, Writtle, Roxwell, Widford and Margaretting, all in the county of Essex.

To authorize the Corporation to maintain and carry on the undertaking of the Company and to exercise the powers conferred by the Act of 1914 with respect to the maintenance, continuance, erection, alteration, improvement, extension and renewal of the Gasworks of the Company, and the manufacture and storage of gas and materials employed in or about the manufacture of gas, and the conversion and manufacture and storage of all or any products resulting or arising from the manufacture of gas upon the lands described in the Schedule to the Act of 1914 or any part thereof.

To empower the Corporation for the purposes of the Gas undertaking when transferred, and for the general purposes of the intended Act, to purchase by agreement and to take on lease and hold lands, houses, tenements and hereditaments and easements, rights of way and other rights in, over, or affecting lands and houses within the limits of supply, and to retain, hold and use any lands or houses, and to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any lands and houses for the time being belonging to them, and to provide for the application of proceeds from the sale of surplus lands.

To empower the Corporation within the limits of supply aforesaid to break up streets, roads, paths, highways, lanes, and other public and private roads, ways, passages and places, sewers, drains, bridges, railways, tramways, telegraphic, telephonic and electric wires and apparatus, and to lay down, repair, maintain and renew mains, pipes and other works, apparatus and appliances, and to manufacture, purchase, provide, sell, let on hire, supply, fix and deal in and repair or remove meters, lamps, stoves, ranges, machinery, engines and fittings, and to exercise all such other powers as are necessary for or incidental to the supply of gas or as are contained in the Act of 1914, and to manufacture, produce, store, convert, sell and deal in coal, coke, culm, patent fuel, tar, oil, lime, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor and other residual products of gas, and to have and exercise all such powers, rights, authorities and privileges with respect to the supplying of gas as may be necessary, proper or convenient.

To empower the Corporation to levy and recover gas rents and charges and to make special provision for the recovery of rates, rents and charges for the supply of gas and residual products manufactured or otherwise, and for the hire or use of meters, lamps, stoves, machinery, engines and fittings, and, if thought fit to grant exemptions and discounts.

To define and fix the price of gas to be charged by the Corporation, and to provide that the Corporation may charge for gas supplied by them at different rates in different parts of the limits of supply.

To make such provisions as may be thought expedient with reference to the quality of the gas to be supplied and the pressure at which the same is to be supplied by the Corporation and the testing thereof.

To enable the Corporation to provide apparatus for testing the calorific power of gas supplied by the Corporation, to prescribe the calorific power of gas so supplied, and to exclude the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, relating to illuminating power.

To empower the Corporation to purchase, sell, and let on hire or otherwise deal in, fix and repair or remove meters, pipes, fittings, engines, machines, stoves, ranges, lamps, burners, motors, apparatus, appliances, articles and things incidental to the supply, use or consumption of gas, and to exclude the same from liability to be taken in distress or execution, and to provide that apparatus let on hire shall remain the property of the Corporation notwithstanding that it may be affixed to the soil.

To make provisions with reference to the purchase by and sale to any local authority whose district is beyond the borough, but wholly or partially within the limits of supply of portions of the gas undertaking, gasworks and plant of the Corporation on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the intended Act.

To authorize the Corporation and any other local authority or any company, body, commissioners or persons to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with respect to the supply by the Corporation of gas within or beyond the limits of supply aforesaid, and to confer upon the Corporation special powers with reference thereto, and to the laying down and maintaining pipes and apparatus in streets or roads or railways.

To enable the Corporation to provide, erect, fit up, maintain and let dwelling-houses for persons employed by them for the purposes of or in connection with their gas undertaking.

To authorize the Corporation to borrow money for the purposes of the intended Act, including the costs, charges and expenses of and incident to the promotion of the intended Act and the opposition of the Corporation to the Bill for the Act of 1914, and the extension and improvement of the gas undertaking and to charge the same on the borough fund and borough rate, the district fund and general district rate, and the undertakings, estates, rates, revenue, and other property of the Corporation or any of such securities, and to execute and grant and issue mortgages, stock, debentures, debenture stock, annuities and other securities, and to authorize the Corporation to apply any of their funds or other moneys authorized to be raised to any of the purposes of the intended Act and to provide that moneys borrowed under the powers of the intended Act shall not be reckoned in the limit of borrowing prescribed by the Public Health Act, 1875.

To make provision in regard to the borrowing, reborrowing and repayment of money by the Corporation, and the formation, maintenance and application of sinking funds and other financial matters.

To authorize the Corporation to invest their sinking funds in statutory securities, including the securities of local authorities; to use any of their sinking funds instead of borrowing; and to borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft for their current expenses as a municipal education or sanitary authority or for their gas undertaking.

To authorize the Corporation to use one form of mortgage for all purposes for which they are for the time being authorized to borrow money charging the money upon all or any of the revenues, rates or property of the Corporation.

To make provisions with respect to the accounts to be kept by the Corporation in respect of their gas undertaking, the application of the revenue arising in connection with that undertaking, the formation of a reserve fund and the application of the moneys standing to the credit thereof, the method of meeting any deficiency in the revenues or receipts of the Corporation on account of their gas undertaking and the charge thereof upon and the payment thereof out of the district fund and general district rate.

To empower the Corporation from time to time to make, vary and rescind byelaws, rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions of the intended Act; to prescribe penalties for securing compliance with any such byelaws, rules and regulations and any of the provisions of the intended Act, and to make provision as to authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents, and for imposing, demanding and recovering penalties and for the application thereof; the evidence of appointment of officers of the Corporation; the indemnification of persons acting under the powers conferred by the intended Act; the inquiries by the Local Government Board; the saving for indictments and judges or justices not being disqualified.

To confer all such other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid or any of them, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights, powers and privileges which would or might in any manner interfere with any of the objects or purposes of the intended Act, and to confer, vary or extinguish other rights, powers and privileges.

To incorporate, alter, amend, enlarge, extend or repeal or re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1914 and any other Act or Acts or Provisional Order or Provisional Orders relating to the Company, and any Act or Acts or Provisional Order or Provisional Orders relating to or affecting the Corporation.

To incorporate with the intended Act, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, the Public Health Act, 1875, the Local Loans Act, 1875, the Arbitration Act, 1889, and any Act or Acts amending or extending those Acts respectively or any of them.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1914.

ROTHERHAM CORPORATION.

(Power to Corporation to construct New Streets and Street Work; New Tramways and Incidental Works; Narrow Places, Gauge; Motive Power; Power to Corporation to Work Tramways and take Tolls and Charges; Running Powers to Corporation and to Sheffield Corporation; Limitation of Powers of that Corporation to run Omnibuses on certain Tramway Routes; Power to Corporation to Use Motor Omnibuses; Amendment of Provisions of Rotherham Corporation Act, 1911, as to contribution towards Maintenance of Roads forming Trolley Vehicle Routes; Compulsory Purchase of Lands; Provisions as to Compensation; Agreements; Electricity Provisions; Streets and Buildings and Sanitary Matters; Borrowing of Money, Sinking Funds, Accident Fund, and other Financial Provisions; Bye-Laws and Penalties; Incorporation, Amendment and Repeal of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of Rotherham (hereinafter called "the Corporation" and "the Borough" respectively) for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

[Where in this Notice a junction of two streets or roads is referred to, it is to be taken as the point at which lines drawn along the centres of the streets or roads and continued would intersect each other.

A point described as opposite to or at a specified distance from any street or road is to be taken as being opposite to or at the specified distance from the centre of such street or road.

All distances and lengths stated in the description of any work or narrow place are to be read as if the words "or thereabouts" had been inserted after each such distance or length.]

1. To empower the Corporation to make and maintain in the parish and County Borough of Rotherham the new streets hereinafter described with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say):—

Work No. 1.—A new street, being a continuation in a straight line of Parkfield-road from the south-eastern end thereof to Lister-street.

Work No. 2.—A new street, being a continuation of Clifton-crescent North from the north-eastern end thereof to a point in Lister-street 10 yards north-east of its junction with Badsley-street.

Work No. 3.—A new street, being a continuation in a straight line of Middleton-road from its junction with Lister-street to Gilberthorpe-street.

2. To authorise the Corporation in the parishes of Bramley and Maltby, in the rural district of Rotherham, in the West Riding of the County of York, to make the following street work (that is to say):—

An alteration or lowering of the levels of the Bawtry and Tinsley main road between the west side of the Approach-road to the Bramley Goods Station and the west side of the culvert carrying the said main road over the Hellaby Brook.

together with all proper and necessary works and conveniences connected therewith.

3. To enable the Corporation to construct, form, lay down, maintain and work all or some of the new tramways hereinafter described, together with all necessary and proper rails, plates, sleepers, channels (including in that word where used in this Notice channels, passages and tubes for ropes, cables, wires and electric lines), junctions, turntables, turnouts, crossings, passing places, posts, poles, brackets, wires, stables, carriage-houses, engine, boiler and dynamo houses, waiting rooms, sheds, buildings, engines, dynamos, works and conveniences connected therewith respectively, and to alter the position of or remove so much of any existing lines of tramway as will or may be rendered unnecessary by the construction of such tramways or any of them.

4. The following are the new tramways proposed to be authorized by the intended Act:—

Tramway No. 1, wholly in the parish and county borough of Rotherham commencing by a junction with the existing tramways of the Corporation in Effingham-street 14 yards south of its junction with Howard-street, passing thence along Effingham-street, Effingham-square and Frederick-street, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramways of the Corporation in the last-mentioned street at or near its junction with Nottingham-street:

Tramway No. 1a, wholly in the said parish and county borough commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 1 in Effingham-street at a point 11 yards south of its junction with Frederick-street, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramways of the Corporation in Effingham-street at a point 50 yards north of the junction of that street with Frederick-street:

No. 28981.

Tramway No. 2, in the said parish and county borough and in the parishes of Whiston, Wickersley, Bramley and Maltby, in the said rural district of Rotherham, commencing by a junction with the existing tramways of the Corporation in the Rotherham and Barnby Moor road at a point opposite Herringthorpe-lane, passing thence along the Rotherham and Barnby Moor-road and the Bawtry and Tinsley main road to the junction of that road with Grange-lane and Muglet-lane at Maltby.

5. In the following instances it is proposed to construct or lay the tramways so that for a distance of 30 feet or upwards there will be a less space than 9 feet 6 inches between the outside of the footpath on the side or sides of the streets or roads hereinafter mentioned and the nearest rail of the tramway, namely:—

Tramway No. 1—

In Effingham-street, on both sides thereof—
Between Howard-street and Frederick-street.

In Frederick-street—

On the north-west side thereof—

Between Drummond-street and St. Ann's road.

On the south-east side thereof—

Between Effingham-street and Nottingham-street.

Tramway No. 1a—

In Effingham-street, on the west side thereof—

Between Frederick-street and Drummond-street.

Tramway No. 2—

In Rotherham and Barnby Moor-road, on both sides thereof—

Between points respectively 120 yards and 192 yards west of Brecks-lane.

In Bawtry and Tinsley main road, on both sides thereof—

Between points respectively 128 yards and 152 yards east of Brecks-lane.

Between points respectively 369 yards and 543 yards west of Sledgate-lane.

Between points respectively 28 yards and 72 yards east of Nether Moor-lane.

Between points respectively 23 yards and 95 yards east of Goose-lane.

Between points respectively 53 yards east of the junction of Plow-street and the said main road and 158 yards west of Cumwell-lane.

Between points respectively 18 yards and 87 yards and 161 yards and 262 yards west of Hellaby-lane.

Between points respectively 37 yards and 103 yards and 158 yards and 219 yards east of Hellaby-lane.

Between Makins Hill and a point 357 yards west thereof.

On the north side thereof—

Between Braithwell-road and a point 154 yards east thereof.

On the south side thereof—

Between points respectively 68 yards and 154 yards east of Makins-hill.

On both sides thereof—

Between Grange-lane and a point 207 yards west thereof.

6. The new tramways are proposed to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, or such other gauge as may be approved by the Board of Trade, and it is not intended to run thereon carriages or trucks adapted for use upon railways.

7. The motive power to be used on the new tramways is animal power or electrical power, to be applied by means of motors in the engines or carriages or communicated by electric lines in or under ground or overhead, or steam, gas, air or other mechanical power applied by means of locomotive engines, or by motors in the carriages, or by means of wire or rope cables worked by stationary engines (all which powers other than animal power are hereinafter included in the expression "mechanical power").

8. To constitute the new tramways part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation and to empower the Corporation for the purposes of "the Corporation tramways" or "the tramway undertaking" (which expressions, where used in this Notice, and the context so admits, include the new tramways and any other tramways for the time being owned, worked, leased or run over by the Corporation and any trolley vehicles and motor omnibuses provided or run by the Corporation) and for the other purposes of the intended Act to break up the surface of any street, road or place, and to lay down, construct and maintain on, in, under or over the surface thereof and to attach to any house, building, bridge or tree such posts, supports, brackets, fittings, conductors, wires, tubes, mains, plates, cables, ropes and apparatus, and to make and maintain such openings and ways in, on, or under any such surface as may be necessary or convenient for the construction or working of the Corporation tramways or any tramway within or without the borough which may for the time being be connected with the Corporation tramways, or for connecting any portions of the said tramways or any tramways within or without the borough with any tramways or light railways within or without the borough which can be worked in connection with the Corporation tramways, or for providing access to or forming connections with any generating station or stations, car sheds, depôts, engines, machinery or apparatus.

9. To authorize the Corporation to utilise for the purposes of Tramway No. 2 any cables, wires, posts, poles and other apparatus used by the Corporation for or in connection with their trolley vehicles.

10. To empower the Corporation on any of the Corporation tramways to substitute single or interlacing lines for double lines or double or interlacing lines for single lines or double or single lines for interlacing lines, and to empower the Corporation when any road in which a tramway is laid, or authorized to be laid, is altered or widened to reconstruct or construct such tramway in such position as they think fit or the intended Act may authorize or prescribe.

11. To provide that so much of section 34 of the Tramways Act, 1870, as limits the extent of any carriages used on any tramway beyond the outer edge of the wheels of such carriages shall not apply to carriages used on the Corporation tramways.

12. To empower the Corporation to make from time to time such turnouts, crossings, passing places, sidings, loops, junctions, temporary tramways and other works in addition to those specified herein as may be necessary or convenient for the efficient working of all or any of the Corporation tramways, or for affording access to the stables, carriages, engine, boiler and dynamo houses, buildings, sheds and works of the Corporation or their lessees or other persons, or for effecting junctions with other tramways or light railways.

13. To empower the Corporation from time to time, when by reason of the execution of any work in or the alteration of any street, road, highway or thoroughfare in which any tramway, channel, or electric line shall be laid or placed, it is necessary or expedient so to do, to alter, remove, or discontinue all or any part of such tramway, channel or electric line, and to make, lay down and place temporarily in the same or any adjacent street, road, highway or thoroughfare a substituted tramway, channel or electric line or substituted tramways or light railways or channels or electric lines.

14. To empower the Corporation (notwithstanding anything contained in the Tramways Act, 1870) and their lessees to place and run carriages on the Corporation tramways or any of them, and on any tramway within or without the Borough which may for the time being be connected with the Corporation tramways, and to work and demand and take tolls, rates and charges in respect of the use of such tramways and carriages, and for the conveyance of passengers, animals, goods, minerals, merchandise and other traffic thereon and therein, to alter existing tolls, rates and charges, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from such tolls, rates and charges, to provide stables, buildings, carriages, trucks, horses, harness, engines, motors, machinery, apparatus and steam, electric, cable and other plant (fixed and movable) necessary or convenient for working such tramways by any motive power hereinbefore mentioned, and to sell, exchange or dispose of such of the before-mentioned articles and things as may not be required.

15. To empower the Corporation both within and without the borough to make in any streets, roads, footways and thoroughfares all such alterations of levels and widths of roadways and footways as may be expedient for or in connection with the construction or alteration of the Corporation tramways and intended street works, and to make junctions and communications with any existing streets intersected by or interfered with thereby or contiguous thereto, and to stop up, alter, divert and interfere with, either permanently or temporarily (and if permanently to appropriate the site and soil of and to extinguish all rights of way over), and to cross over, under or upon all such streets, highways, bridges, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, tramroads, streams, brooks, watercourses, sewers, drains, gas and water and other pipes, and telegraphic, telephonic, and electric wires, tubes, pipes, boxes and other apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, divert, interfere with or cross for any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide for the application of road materials excavated in the construction of the intended works.

16. To provide that the sites of all lands laid into a public street and all streets altered under the intended Act shall be repaired and maintained in like manner and out of the like fund or rate as other streets in the area in which the same are situate; and to empower the Corporation on the one hand and the authority having the control or management of any street or road outside the borough along which any tramway is intended to be laid or street work made, on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect contracts or agreements with respect to the construction and maintenance of the intended works, the alteration of levels and widths of roadways and footways and to the position in the street or road in which any intended tramway shall be laid.

17. To empower the Corporation on the one hand, and any other corporation, company, body or person on the other hand, to enter into and fulfil working agreements and agreements for or in relation to the leasing (whether for any period in excess of that prescribed by the Tramways Act, 1870, or not), working, running over, management and maintenance of and interchange of traffic on and the supply of rolling-stock or motive power for, and the making of junctions between their respective undertakings and the fixing, collection, payment, appropriation and distribution of tolls on their respective undertakings, and for the appointment of joint committees for the purpose of carrying into effect any such agreement.

18. To empower the Corporation, for the purpose of carrying passengers and passengers' luggage, to run over and use with their electric tramcars, and with their officers and servants, upon such terms and conditions and upon payment of such tolls, rates, and charges or other consideration as may be prescribed by the intended Act the following tramways of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens of the city of Sheffield (hereinafter referred to as "the Sheffield Corporation") (namely): The tramways of the Sheffield Corporation commencing at the termination of the tramways of the Corporation at or near the junction of Weedon-street with Sheffield-road, passing thence along Sheffield-road, Attercliffe Common, Attercliffe-road, Savile-street, Wicker, Waingate, Haymarket and Fitzalan-square, and terminating at the southern end of that square, together with all sidings, works and conveniences and electrical or other motive power connected therewith or used for the purposes of the tramways so run over and used as aforesaid.

19. To empower the Sheffield Corporation, for the purpose of carrying passengers and passengers' luggage, to run over and use with their electric tramcars, and with their officers and servants, upon such terms and conditions and upon payment of such tolls, rates and charges or other consideration as may be prescribed by the intended Act, the following tramways of the Corporation (namely): The tramways of the Corporation commencing at the termination of the tramways of the Sheffield Corporation at or near the junction of Weedon-street with Sheffield-road, passing thence along Sheffield-road and the Doncaster and Tinsley-road into the borough, and thence along Sheffield-road, Westgate, High-street, College-street and Effingham-street, and terminating in that street at a point 14 yards south of its junction with Howard-street, together with all sidings, works, and conveniences and electrical or other motive power connected therewith or used for the purposes of the tramways so run over and used as aforesaid.

20. To empower the Corporation and the Sheffield Corporation to demand, take and recover tolls, rates and charges for the conveyance of passengers and their luggage in the exercise of such running powers, to make provision as to the service of cars to be run on the said tramways and the supply of motive power therefor by either Corporation to the other, to provide for the through booking of passengers and passengers' luggage from, to and over the tramways of the Corporation and the Sheffield Corporation, and for the issue of the tickets used thereon, and for the fixing, ascertaining and apportioning of the tolls, rates and charges arising from such traffic, to require reasonable and proper facilities to be afforded by the Corporation and the Sheffield Corporation respectively for the accommodation of all traffic passing over the said tramways, and to make all such further and other provision as may be necessary or expedient with respect to or in connection with the exercise of the said running powers, and to provide for the settlement of disputes arising between the said Corporations out or in respect of any of the matters aforesaid.

21. To prohibit the running of motor omnibuses by the Sheffield Corporation in any street or road so long as the tramways laid in such street or road are owned by the Corporation, and to alter, amend or repeal all or some of the provisions of section 16 of the Sheffield Corporation Act, 1907, and of the Sheffield (Extension) Order, 1911, extending the application of that section.

22. To re-enact, enlarge and extend the powers granted to the Corporation under the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1911"), to provide, equip, maintain and run motor omnibuses so as to enable them to provide and run such omnibuses within the following areas along the following routes:—

In the parish of Ecclesfield in the rural district of Wortley—

Route No. 1 From the borough boundary in the Rotherham and Wortley Road at or near Elder Tree Cottage, Thorpe Common, along that road, Cowley Hill, Cowley Lane and Rotherham and Penistone-road to the bridge carrying the Chapeltown Branch of the Midland Railway over that road at Chapeltown:

In the parish and urban district of Greasbrough—

Route No. 2 From the borough boundary in the Rotherham and Greasbrough Road along that road, Car Hill, Potter Hill, Main Street and Church Street to the junction of that street with Coach Road at Greasbrough:

In the parishes of Whiston and Aston-cum-Aughton in the rural district of Rotherham—

Route No. 3 From the borough boundary in the Rotherham and Pleasley road along that road and the Attercliffe and Worksop road to the junction of that road with Lodge Lane at Aston.

23. To repeal the provisoes to Subsection (1) of Section 23 of the Act of 1911 and the Rotherham (No. 2) Order, 1914, and to provide that the Corporation may run motor omnibuses along all the routes authorized by the said Section freed from all and every restriction as to the purchase of motor omnibuses or as to obtaining the consent of the Rotherham

Rural District Council, or as to the cesser of powers from and after the opening for traffic of a trolley vehicle service on the said routes.

24. To make provision with reference to the maintenance of roads run over by the motor omnibuses of the Corporation under the Act of 1911 or the intended Act, and of roads along which trolley vehicles are run under the Act of 1911, and to prescribe payments to be made to certain road authorities in respect thereof, and provide for the alteration and reduction thereof in certain events; to enact that no claim shall be made against the Corporation under the provisions of Section 23 of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, as amended by Section 12 of the Locomotives Act, 1898, in respect of extraordinary traffic by reason of the running of their motor omnibuses or trolley vehicles, and to empower the Corporation to inspect and take copies of and extracts from the books of the road authority relating to the expenditure on maintenance of such roads, and to repeal or amend all or some of the provisions of Section 41 of the Act of 1911 with respect to the payments to be made and other protection to be afforded to the West Riding County Council in regard to the running of trolley vehicles over the roads under the jurisdiction or maintained at the cost of the said County Council.

25. To provide for the application of the revenue from the tramway undertaking of the Corporation and as to any deficiency therein.

26. The intended Act will or may incorporate or make applicable all or some of the provisions of the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1900, the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1904 (hereinafter respectively referred to as "the Act of 1900" and "the Act of 1904"), and the Act of 1911, with such alterations and amendments as may be deemed expedient, and will repeal such of those provisions as are inconsistent with the provisions of the intended Act, and will enable the Corporation to exercise some of the powers granted by the Act of 1900, the Act of 1904, and the Act of 1911, or any of them as well as the powers hereinbefore mentioned.

27. To empower the Corporation within the parishes and places hereinbefore referred to and elsewhere for the purposes of the intended street works or for providing space for the erection of houses and buildings adjoining or near thereto, and of the Corporation Tramways, and for the purposes of recoupment or exchange, and for other the purposes of the intended Act or any existing Acts and Orders, to acquire by compulsion or agreement and to hold lands, houses, buildings and other property, and also any rights and easements in or over lands, waters, and other property which may be required for such purposes, and to empower the Corporation to appropriate and use for the purposes of the intended Act any lands belonging to or vested in them, and to make exchanges of land with other bodies and persons, and upon any such exchanges to pay or receive money for equality of exchange.

28. To authorize the Corporation to hold, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any lands which they may acquire under the authority of the intended Act or otherwise, freed from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to superfluous lands, and to provide for the application of moneys received in respect of such sale, lease or disposal.

29. To exempt the Corporation from the operation of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, so as to enable them to purchase compulsorily part only of certain properties.

30. To make provision as to the payment in certain events of costs incurred in cases of disputed compensation by persons claiming compensation from the Corporation, and as to determining the purchase money and compensation payable in respect of lands and property required for the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide for limiting the amount thereof and claims in respect thereof, in cases of recent buildings and alterations and recently created interests therein.

31. To authorize deviations, laterally and vertically, from the lines and levels of any of the intended works, as shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

32. To empower the Corporation and any local authority, company or person to enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, including the construction of road widenings and the acquisition of lands therefor, and to confirm and give effect to any such agreement which may have been or may be made prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to empower the Corporation and any such local authority to apply to any of the purposes aforesaid any of their corporate funds or other moneys under their control.

33. To confer further powers on the Corporation for the more efficient conduct of their electricity undertaking, and to enable the Corporation to attach to any houses or buildings brackets insulators wires cables and other apparatus for the purpose of carrying electric lines or wires for the supply of electricity for street lighting, to define the period for which a meter for registering electrical energy supplied by the Corporation and becoming defective shall be deemed to have been defective and to make provision with reference thereto and to define the respective positions and liabilities of the Corporation and the consumer in the case of a defective meter.

34. To prescribe penalties on persons obstructing any officer of the Corporation in carrying out the provisions of the Electric Lighting Act 1882 or any other Act or Order relating to the electricity undertaking, and to enable the Corporation to recover a charge for reconnecting any electric line or other work which may have been disconnected by reason of the default of the consumer.

35. To confer further powers on the Corporation with reference to the laying or placing of any conduits cables mains wires apparatus or other works in connection with the supply of electricity in over along or across streets not dedicated to public use and with reference to the breaking up and interference with such streets, and to enable the Corporation to lay down construct maintain and use any electric cables or other works in over under along or across any river or stream and the bed banks and foreshore thereof.

36. To make further provision in regard to streets and buildings and sanitary matters, and especially in the following respects (that is to say):

To enable the Corporation before giving their approval to the formation of new streets or the widening of existing streets to require to be furnished with plans as to the laying out of any building estate the development of which will be commenced or continued by the laying out of such new street: to authorize the Corporation to modify and relax their bye-laws as to open spaces in the case of estates laid out with a limited number of houses to the acre or in such other cases as the intended Act may prescribe; to make provision with respect to the dimensions of rooms in certain dwelling houses, to require the removal of ruinous dilapidated or neglected buildings and in certain cases to empower the Corporation to recover the cost of such removal, to require the submission to and approval of plans by the Corporation before watercourses are culverted or covered over, to provide that a stream or watercourse choked up so as to obstruct the proper flow of water shall be deemed a nuisance under the Public Health Acts, to empower the Corporation to make orders prohibiting the introduction of dangerous or injurious substances or liquids into sewers and drains; to prescribe penalties on persons causing any drain closet privy or ashpit to be a nuisance or wilfully damaging the same or any apparatus connected therewith or improperly using the same; and to require the provision of proper bins for dust and refuse.

37. To empower the Corporation to pay or contribute towards the payment of bands and other entertainments and to provide such bands to play in public recreation grounds or buildings for the time being belonging to or used by them, to advertise the performance of such bands and to charge for admission, and to make all such regulations as may be necessary or expedient in connection therewith.

38. To authorize the Corporation to establish a golf course and to acquire or take on lease or hold such lands as may be necessary therefor and to make such charges and regulations for the use thereof as they think fit, and to make provision as to the application of revenue arising from such undertaking or any deficiency on account thereof, and to empower the Corporation to make bye-laws and regulations with reference to the said golf course and the conduct thereof.

39. To enable the Corporation to use the Corporation tramways for sanitary or road watering purposes and for the conveyance of scavenging stuffs, road metal and other materials required for the works of the Corporation, free of all tolls and charges in respect of such use, and to provide all such vehicles and apparatus as may be necessary for such purposes.

40. To authorize the Corporation to borrow and re-borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and for the purposes of their tramway undertaking, and for such other purposes as may be deemed expedient, and to charge the moneys so proposed to be borrowed and the interest thereon on the tramway revenue of the Corporation, the borough fund and borough rate and the district fund and general district rate or other local rates and the estates, undertakings, tolls, rates, rents, revenues and other property of the Corporation or any of such securities, and to execute and grant mortgages, debentures, debenture or other stock and annuities in respect thereof, to authorize the Corporation to apply any of their funds to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to make, levy and recover rates and increase existing or authorized rates for any of such purposes, and generally to make further and better provision with regard to the borrowing and re-borrowing of money, and the finance of the borough.

41. To authorize the Corporation to use any moneys standing to the credit of any sinking fund or sinking funds in lieu of borrowing, and to empower the Corporation to make schemes for equating all or any of their loans and to prescribe the periods within which such loans shall be paid off, and to borrow for the purpose of giving effect to any such scheme.

42. To empower the Corporation to establish out of the rates and revenues of the Corporation an accident fund to meet claims against them by their employees or third parties under the Common Law, the Employers' Liability Act, and the Workmen's Compensation Acts or any other Act, and to authorize them to grant gratuities to their officers and servants in certain cases.

43. To extend the period within which rates levied by or in pursuance of any order or precept of the Corporation may be recovered, and to empower the Corporation to appoint further auditors in addition to the auditors appointed under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.

44. To empower the Corporation to require evidence of title before registering transfers either of mortgages or stock or other securities of the Corporation, to refuse to register transfers or transmissions of their securities except upon satisfactory proof of the validity of such transfer or transmission, and to close their transfer books at certain times.

45. To provide that persons acting in contravention of the intended Act under the direction of the Corporation shall not be personally liable, and for the authentication and service of notices; to prescribe by whom informations are to be laid; to make provision as to the recovery and payment of penalties and demands and as to settlement of amount to be paid in respect of damages and charges, the determination of compensation, and the qualification of justices.

BRIGHTON AND HOVE GAS.

(Extension of Limits of Supply; Rates, Rents and Charges; Breaking Up Streets, &c.; Reserve Fund; Subscriptions to National and Other Funds; Pensions, &c., to Officers and Servants; Purchase of Gas in Bulk; Fixtures Let on Hire or Hire Purchase Agreements; Appointment of Proxies; Voting by Joint Holders; Company Need Not Supply in Certain Cases; Cutting Off Supply; Re-connection of Dis-connected Supply; Supply where Separate Supply of Gas; Power to Apply Funds; Auditors; Directors, Managing Directors, Increase of Directors, Directors' Fees; Entry and Removal of Fittings, &c.; Repeal and Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session by the Brighton and Hove

General Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following and other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas, and to authorize them to supply gas in the parishes of Botolphs and Coombes, in the rural district of Steyning West, in the county of West Sussex, or either of such parishes, and to enable the Company within such extended limits of supply to have and exercise all or some of the rights, powers and privileges which they now have or may exercise within their existing limits of supply, and to extend and make applicable to such extended limits of supply the provisions, or some of the provisions, of any Act or Acts relating to or affecting the Company and of the intended Act, and to authorize the Company to make, demand, collect, levy and recover rates, rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas within such extended limits of supply, and, if thought fit, to provide for different rates, rents and charges in different portions of the limits of supply as so extended.

2. To enable the Company to lay down and repair, take up, alter or relay or renew mains, pipes and culverts for the supply of gas or for other purposes of their business, and to apply to such purposes all or any of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking-up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes and for the protection of pipes when laid.

3. To empower the Company to form a reserve fund, to provide for the investment of the moneys forming the same, and to vary or repeal any existing provisions with respect to such matters.

4. To make new and further provision with respect to directors and auditors of the Company, to require notice of candidature for the offices of director or auditor; to increase or provide an increase in the number of directors in certain circumstances or on certain occasions, and the directors' fees to be paid or payable on such increase, to provide for the appointment of managing directors, and to make other provisions with reference or incidental to all or any such matters.

5. To authorize subscriptions or donations out of the moneys of the Company to any fund raised in any national emergency or to infirmaries, hospitals, convalescent homes, exhibitions or other institutions, or to benevolent or sick funds of the employees of the Company, or all or any of such objects; to authorize the payment out of such moneys of gratuities, pensions, allowances or payments to employees of the Company disabled, injured or wholly or partially incapacitated while serving with the forces engaged in war, or to the widow, family or dependents of any such employee killed in action or dying of wounds or disease received or contracted in the war; to enable the Company to grant pensions and retiring allowances to their officers and servants; and to confer powers on the Company and their directors with reference thereto.

6. To provide for the payment by the Company of interest on money deposits made with them, for the appointment of proxies by attorneys of holders of capital in the Company to vote on behalf of such holders, and to make provision as to voting by joint holders of any such capital.

7. To provide that fittings and other apparatus and appliances of the Company let under hire-purchase agreements or on hire shall remain the Company's property, and that even when they are fixed or fastened to any part of any lands or premises.

8. To enable the Company to obtain supplies of gas in bulk and to use the same for all or any purposes of their undertaking, and to make and carry out agreements for such purpose and to confirm any such agreements made prior to the passing of the intended Act.

9. To make further provision and to confer further powers on the Company with reference to charges in respect of gas supplied to any person or premises having a separate supply of gas, or the terms on which the Company shall supply in such cases; with respect to the entry on premises and the removal of pipes and the Company's fittings and apparatus therefrom, the cutting off of supply and mode thereof, the payment by owners or occupiers of premises of the expense of re-connecting a discontinued supply, and freeing the Company from obligation to give supplies which they consider would interfere with their general supply, or in such other cases as may be prescribed or provided for by or under the intended Act.

10. To enable the Company to apply any funds or revenue of the Company or any funds which they have or are authorised to raise, to any of the purposes of the intended Act and to the general purposes of their undertaking.

11. To confer upon the Company all powers, rights, authorities and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying the powers or objects of the intended Act into effect, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

12. To incorporate and to apply to the Company and their undertaking with such variations and modifications as may be deemed expedient some or all of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, or any statute already passed or to be passed in the ensuing Session of Parliament relating to gas undertakings.

13. To alter, amend, extend or repeal, and if thought fit, to re-enact, with or without modification or alteration all or some of the provisions of the Brighton and Hove Gas Acts, 1839 to 1912.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the 17th day of December next printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

SUTTON DISTRICT WATERWORKS.

(Construction of Additional Waterworks; Acquisition of Lands and Interests therein; Power to take Easements by Agreement; Power to Repair Communication Pipes; Application of Funds; Further Capital; Incorporation, Repeal and Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session by the Sutton District Water Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Company to make and maintain in the county of Surrey the following additional waterworks, or some of them or some part or parts thereof respectively, viz.:—

Work No. 1.—A well or wells and pumping-station with pumping engines or engine filtration and softening works, adits and other works and conveniences connected therewith, situated in the parish of Cheam, in the rural district of Epsom, on lands the property of the Company, on the west side of Gander Green lane, near Cheamhall Farm, being the enclosure numbered 248A, and portions of the adjoining enclosures numbered 248 and 136B on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Surrey Sheet XIII, 15 (edition 1913), of the said parish.

Work No. 2.—A conduit or line or lines of pipes wholly in the said parish of Cheam, commencing at the pumping station hereinbefore described, passing along Gander Green lane, York-road, Burdon-road, Burdon lane, and the approach road, the property of the Company, and terminating at the service reservoir next hereinafter described.

Work No. 3.—A service reservoir in the said parish of Cheam, situated on the property of the Company on the east side of Cheam Warren, forming a portion of the enclosure numbered 255 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Surrey Sheet XIX, 3 (edition 1913), of the said parish.

2. To authorize the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the proposed waterworks shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned to such extent as may be shown on the said plans and sections or be prescribed by the intended Act.

3. To authorize the Company to open, break up, divert, alter or stop up temporarily all such roads, streets, pipes, sewers and bridges as it may be necessary or convenient, to pass along, cross, divert, alter or stop up for the purposes of the intended Act.

4. To enable the Company to pump, collect, impound, take, use, divert and appropriate for the purposes of their undertaking all such streams, springs and waters as will or may be intercepted by any works of the Company to be authorized by the intended Act or any other works of the Company.

5. To enable the Company to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement and to lease and hold lands, buildings, wells, springs, streams, easements and rights of water and other rights and easements and hereditaments for the purposes of the intended works and of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all rights over any such lands and properties, and to sell and dispose of lands and buildings.

6. To empower the Company to repair communication pipes and to recover the expenses incurred by them in so doing.

7. To amend or repeal wholly or in part section 52 of the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1871, and apply to the undertaking of the Company section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863.

8. To enable the Company to apply their existing funds and any moneys which they have power to raise to the purposes of the intended Act, and for those purposes and the general purposes of their undertaking to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock of one or more classes, with such preference or priority in payment of dividend as may be prescribed by the intended Act, and by borrowing on mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock.

9. To constitute the proposed works for all purposes as part of the undertaking of the Company, and to extend and apply the provisions of section 5 of the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1887, to any lands acquired by the Company under the intended Act.

10. The intended Act will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the purposes thereof, and will confer upon the Company all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for such purposes, and will incorporate, with or without alteration, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1899, the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, and such portion of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as relates to roads and the temporary occupation of lands, and the intended Act may or will alter, amend, extend or repeal the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1871, the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1887, the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1903, the Sutton District Waterworks Act, 1906, the Sutton District Waterworks Order, 1910, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company, the Act 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 11, and any other local or personal Acts which it may be necessary or expedient to alter, amend or repeal for any of the purposes of the intended Act, and will confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections showing the lines, situation and levels of the intended works, and the lands and other property which may be taken under the powers of the intended Act, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey, at his office at Kingston-upon-Thames, and on or before the same day a copy of the said plans, sections and book of reference, together with a copy of this Notice published as aforesaid, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk to the Epsom Rural District Council at his office at Gynsdale, Waterloo-road, Epsom, and with the Clerk to the Cheam Parish Council, at his office at Malden-road, Cheam.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

EAST GRINSTEAD URBAN DISTRICT ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

(The Production, Storage and Supply of Electricity by the Urban District Council of East Grinstead within the East Grinstead Urban District in the County of East Sussex; The Construction of Works for the Generation of Electrical Energy; The Breaking up and Interference with Streets, &c.; The Laying Down and Erection of Electric Lines, Pipes, Wires and other Apparatus; the Taking and Recovering of Rates, Rents and Charges; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the East Grinstead Urban District Council (hereinafter called "the Council"), and whose address is Urban District Council Offices, London-road, East Grinstead, intend to apply to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order"), under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909, for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Council to produce, store, transform, supply, sell and distribute electricity for all public and private purposes as defined by the said Acts within the parish and urban district of East Grinstead (hereinafter called "the area of supply").

2. To empower the Council to open, break up, alter, obstruct or interfere with all streets, roads, places, ways, footpaths, railways, tramways, bridges, culverts, drains, subways, sewers, gas and water mains or pipes, telegraph and pneumatic tubes or pipes, telegraph and telephone and electric wires or conduits within the area of supply, and to lay down, set up, maintain, renew, repair, remove and alter either on, above or below ground or otherwise all necessary pipes, tubes, wires, posts, casings, troughs, inspection boxes, apparatus and other works or things as may be necessary or convenient for carrying out the objects of the Order.

3. To authorize the Council on the lands hereinafter described or any part or parts thereof to construct, provide, lay down, alter or renew, maintain and enlarge all necessary stations and works for the generation, storage, transformation, distribution and supply of electricity, together with all buildings, steam and other engines, dynamos, batteries, machinery, apparatus, works and appliances necessary or convenient for the purposes aforesaid or other purposes of the undertaking. The lands hereinbefore referred to are as follows:—

belong to the Council situate in the parish and urban district of East Grinstead, which piece of land is bounded on or towards the north partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to Arthur Curtis Waters and partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to George Webb, on or towards the south by land belonging or reputed to belong to Charles Turner, Henry Turner, and Frederick Turner, on or towards the east by the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, and on or towards the west partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the said George Webb, partly by a roadway leading from the said piece of land to Durkins-road, and partly by a strip of land belonging or reputed to belong to the Council, and which said piece of land forms part of the enclosures numbered 1032 and 1038 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map (edition 1910) of the said parish.

4. To empower the Council to supply electrical energy for purposes incidental to the working or lighting of any railway, tramway or canal situate partly within and partly without the area of supply.

5. To authorize the Council to demand, take, collect and recover rates, rents and charges for or in connection with the supply of electricity.

6. To empower the Council if thought fit to transfer to any authority, company, body or person all or some of their powers and obligations and works for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon or prescribed or provided for by or under the Order.

7. The names of streets and parts of streets in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down in the area of supply within a period to be specified in the Order are as follows:—

High-street, London-road (between High-street and Windmill-lane), Lingfield-road (between Highfield-road and London-road), Station-road, Queen's-road, Railway Approach.

8. The Council propose to take power to break up the following streets and highways and parts of streets and highways not repairable by them as the local authority in the area of supply (that is to say):—

Park-road, Crescent-road, Grosvenor-road, Imberhorne-lane (from Park-road to the highway between London-road at North End to Hazelden Cross), Railway Approach (between Union Workhouse and the Railway Station Offices of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway Company), Station-road (portion under the bridge carrying the Tunbridge Wells Railway of the said Railway Company), highway leading from Railway Approach to Turners Hill-road, road known as Red-road or Coombe Hill-road, Medway Drive (Coombe Hill), Forest View-road, Coronation-road, Stockwell-road, Hackenden-lane, Mount Noddy-path from Cranston-road to Hackenden-lane, St. John's Footpath from St. John's-road to the said Mount Noddy path, Pesthouse-lane, Windmill-lane, Garland-road, Sandy-lane (from Moat-road footbridge to College-lane), Boyleys-lane, Dormans Park-road and the portions of London-road and the highway leading from that road at North End to Hazelden Cross over bridges and approaches carrying the said road and highway over the railways of the said Railway Company.

9. To confer upon the Council with or without variation all or any of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909, and the enactments incorporated therewith, and to incorporate with the Order and apply to the undertaking such of the provisions contained in the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, as are applicable to cases in which the undertakers are the local authority subject to such variations and exceptions as may be contained in the Order, and to alter, vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with any of the objects of the Order, and to confer other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

And notice is hereby given, that the draft of the Order will be deposited at the offices of the Board of Trade on or before the 21st day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Order when so deposited and of the Order when made may be obtained at the price of one shilling for each copy at the offices of the under-mentioned Solicitor and Parliamentary Agents respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that a map showing the boundaries of the area of supply and the streets in which it is proposed that electric lines shall be laid down within a specified time, and also a plan of the land on which it is proposed to erect a station for the generation of electricity and a copy of this advertisement as published in the London Gazette will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of East Sussex at his office at Lewes, and at the office of the Council at East Grinstead.

And notice is hereby further given, that every local or other authority, company or person desirous of bringing before the Board of Trade any objection respecting the application must do so by letter addressed to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it "Electric Lighting Acts," on or before the 15th day of January, 1915, and a copy of such objection must also be forwarded to the undersigned Solicitor or Parliamentary Agents.

CATTEWATER HARBOUR.

(Provisional Order.)

(Notice of Application to the Board of Trade under the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, for a Provisional Order to Amend, Repeal and Consolidate the Cattewater Harbour Orders, 1874, 1876 and 1885; To Confirm Existing Works thereby Authorized; To Confirm Power to Purchase Undertaking of Sutton Harbour Company by Agreement; To Levy Tolls, Rates and Duties and to Alter Existing Tolls, Rates and Duties; To Provide for Nomination of Commissioners and Regulation of Elections, Registration of Voters, Incorporation of Acts, and other Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Cattewater Commissioners intend to apply to the Board of Trade, under the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, on or before the 23rd day of December next, for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. (a) To alter, amend, extend and enlarge or to repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Provisional Order, the provisions of the Cattewater Harbour Orders, 1874, 1876 and 1885, and to consolidate the said last-mentioned Orders.

(b) To incorporate, with or without variations, such of the provisions as may be thought fit of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, and such other Acts as may be necessary, and all other Acts, public or local, amending or extending the said Acts or any of the provisions thereof affecting the Cattewater Harbour, with such modifications, variations and amendments as may be deemed expedient, and to enable the Cattewater Commissioners to exercise all or any of the powers contained in the said Acts.

(c) To confirm the existing works authorized by the Cattewater Harbour Orders, 1874, 1876 and 1885.

(d) To construct and erect on the breakwater or on the land belonging to the Cattewater Commissioners buildings and other conveniences, and to make reasonable charges for the use thereof.

(e) To confirm the power to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire by agreement the undertaking of the Sutton Harbour Company as contained in the Cattewater Harbour Order, 1885.

(f) To amend and alter certain provisions of the Cattewater Harbour Orders with reference to the election of Commissioners, and to provide for the nomination of Commissioners to be elected and for registration of electors, and the method of voting and the management of elections.

(g) To authorize the Commissioners to demand, collect and recover amended tolls, rates and duties, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates and duties.

(h) To confer powers on the Commissioners with respect to the provision of reserve and contingency and insurance funds.

2. No new works within the meaning of the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, or the said Amendment Act are proposed.

3. And notice is also hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Devon, at his office in Exeter, and at the Custom House at Plymouth, in the same county, at the Admiralty, Whitehall, London, and at the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London.

And notice is also hereby given, that the draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Order, when deposited, and of the Order when made, may be obtained at the price of one shilling for each copy at the office of the Cattewater Commissioners at No. 30, Woolster Street, Plymouth, and at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors.

And notice is also hereby given, that every Company, Corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before that Board any objection respecting this application must do so by letter addressed to the Harbour Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1915, and copies of such representations or objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such representations the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been forwarded to the promoters or their agents.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next by or on behalf of the Melton Mowbray Gas Light and Coke Company (Limited) (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), in pursuance of the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, as amended by the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order") for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas so as to include within those limits the following parishes, that is to say:—Sysonby, Welby, Asfordby, Frisby, Kirby Bellars, Brentingby, Wyfordby, Waltham, Goadby Marwood, Freeby, Scalford, Wycombe, Chadwell, Saxby, Holwell, Abb Kettleby, Wartnaby, Burton Lazars, Great Dalby and Thorpe Satchville, all in the County of Leicester (hereinafter referred to as "the new limits").

To extend to and apply within the new limits the provisions of the Melton Mowbray Gas Order, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1889"), subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the Order, and to confer upon the Company and to enable the Company to exercise within the new limits all and the like powers, privileges and authorities which they have or may exercise within their existing limits of supply, including the powers of opening and breaking up roads, bridges and other property, and laying down, constructing and maintaining mains, pipes and other works and to sanction and confirm the laying down and construction of, and to authorize the Company to maintain and use any mains, pipes or other works which have been or may before the commencement of the Order be laid down or constructed within the new limits or any part thereof, and to empower the Company to demand, levy, take and recover such rents, rates and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas and of meters and fittings within the new limits, as may be prescribed by or under the Order, including different rents, rates and charges in different parts of the new limits.

To authorize the Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of their Undertaking by the creation and issue of new ordinary or new preference shares or stock and by borrowing on the security of their Undertaking, and in respect thereof to amend or repeal section 7 (Capital) and section 16 (Limit of borrowing power) of the Order of 1889.

To empower the Company to apply to any of the purposes of the Order any moneys which they have raised or are authorized to raise under the Order of 1889.

To fix the standard price of the gas supplied by the Company and to provide for different standard prices in different parts of the Company's limits of supply, or otherwise to authorize the Company to charge different prices for gas supplied within different parts of such limits, and to repeal or amend section 29 (Fixing maximum price of gas with sliding scale) of the Order of 1889.

To empower the Company to create and maintain a special purposes fund out of the revenues of the Company, and to provide for the application of the fund so formed and for the investment of the moneys forming the same.

To amend or repeal section 18 (Application of excess of profits over prescribed rates) and section 19 (Power to create a reserve fund and application thereof) of the Order of 1889, and to make other provisions with regard to the disposal of any profits of the undertaking in excess of the prescribed rates of dividend, and with regard to the formation, investment and application of a reserve fund.

To confer upon the Company the same powers of laying down and maintaining pipes and apparatus in roads and streets not dedicated to the public use as are conferred by the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, in respect of public streets and roads.

To empower the Company to lay down, repair, take up, alter, relay and renew mains, pipes and culverts within their limits of supply for the purpose of procuring, conducting or disposing of any oil or other materials and residual products or for any other purpose connected with their business, and to apply for such purposes the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets, and for the protection of pipes when laid.

To regulate the construction and placing of pipes and apparatus between the mains of the Company and the meters on the premises of consumers.

To enable the Company to require the use of anti-fluctuators, and to provide for the repair, testing and inspection thereof; to extend the powers of entry for the removal of fittings conferred by section 22 of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871; to make provision with regard to the notices to be given by consumers removing or discontinuing the use of gas; to enable the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt for other premises; to make provision with regard to the period of error in the case of defective gas meters; to prescribe the terms upon which a supply may be given to persons having a separate installation for the supply of gas or a supply of electricity; to regulate the service of notices by the Company, and to provide for the authentication thereof; and to make provision for the prosecution of offences against the Order of 1889 and the Order and for the recovery of penalties, forfeitures, costs, and expenses imposed thereby or recoverable thereunder.

To enable the Company to supply gas in bulk to local authorities, companies, and persons authorized to supply gas in districts adjacent to the Company's limits of supply and to make contracts for that purpose.

To empower the Company to purchase or lease and to erect, fit up, and maintain houses for persons in their employment and offices, show-rooms, and other buildings and to let the same.

To alter the dates prescribed by the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, for the making up of the annual statement of the accounts of the Company and for the forwarding of the same to the local authorities of the districts within the limits of supply.

The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and will or may confer other rights and privileges and will or may amend or repeal other provisions of the Order of 1889 in addition to those hereinbefore specifically mentioned.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1914, a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection in the office at Leicester of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Leicester and on or before the same day a copy of this Notice and a map showing the existing and proposed limits of supply will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments House of Lords and in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.

Printed copies of the draft Order will be deposited at the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and copies thereof and of the Order when made may be obtained at the price of one shilling for each copy at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

Every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade on or before the 15th day of January, 1915, and copies of such objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents. In forwarding such objections to the Board of Trade the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the promoters or their agents.

Board of Trade.—Session 1915.

OAKHAM GAS.

(Provisional Order.)

(Extension and Definition of Limits of Supply; Confirmation of Mains, Pipes and Works; Alteration and Regulation of Rents, Charges, Standard Prices, Dividends and Sliding Scale; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; Application of Funds; Special Purposes and Other Funds; Houses for Employees, Offices, &c.; Quality, Testing, and Pressure; Storage of Gas; Reduction of Interest on Deposits with Company; Pipes, &c., for Ancillary Purposes; Breaking-up, &c., of Public and Private Streets, &c.; Specification, Inspection and Removal of Pipes, Fittings, &c.; Prepayment Meters; Antifluators; Condition of Supply to Persons having Separate Supply of Gas or Electricity, and to other Persons; Defective Meters; Entry on Premises; Bulk Supply beyond Limits; Notices; Incorporation of Acts; Amendment of Order, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, by or on behalf of the Oakham Gas Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend and define the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas, and to provide that from and after the passing of the Act to confirm the intended Order such limits shall consist of and include the following urban district and parishes and portion of parish all in the county of Rutland, or some or one of them or some part or parts thereof respectively (that is to say):—

(a) The urban district of Oakham.

(b) In the rural district of Oakham, the parishes of Barleythorpe, Langham, Whisendine, Ashwell and Braunston, and so much of the parish of Burley as lies to the west of an imaginary line drawn parallel to and at a distance of 100 yards eastwards from the easterly boundary of the road leading from Oakham to Ashwell, which limits of supply hereinbefore described are hereinafter in this notice referred to as "the gas limits," and to extend and make applicable throughout the gas limits all or some of the provisions of the Oakham Gas Order, 1888 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1888"), subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the intended Order, and to confer upon the Company and enable them to exercise within the gas limits all or any of the powers, privileges and authorities which they have or may exercise within the limits of supply defined in section 5 of the Order of 1888, including the powers of opening and breaking up roads, bridges and other property, and laying down and constructing mains, pipes and other works, and to sanction and confirm the laying down and construction of and authorize the Company to maintain and use any mains, pipes, or other works which may have been or may before the commencement of the intended Order be laid down or constructed by the Company within the gas limits or any part thereof and especially within the parishes of Whissendine and Burley.

2. To empower the Company to demand, levy, take and recover such rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas and meters and fittings within the gas limits as may be prescribed by or under the provisions of the intended Order, including different rents and charges in different parts of the gas limits, to prescribe the standard price or prices for gas in different parts of the gas limits, and to increase or otherwise alter the rents and charges now levied or leviable by the Company and the existing standard price prescribed by the Order of 1888, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rents and charges.

3. To increase the capital and borrowing powers of the Company for the purposes of their undertaking, to alter, define and regulate the dividends and interest payable on any class or classes of share or loan capital of the Company and the sliding scale applicable to all or any of such dividends, and to empower the Company to apply all or any of their capital funds and revenues to all or any of the purposes of the intended Order.

4. To empower the Company to form and create a special purposes fund out of the revenues of the Company, and to provide for the application of such fund, to make further provision with reference to the reserve and other funds of the Company and the moneys to be set aside therefor, and the application of such moneys and the carrying forward or disposal of any balances in hand.

5. To empower the Company to purchase, take on lease, erect, fit up, maintain and let houses for persons in their employ, offices, showrooms and other buildings.

6. To make further provision with reference to the testing, quality and pressure of gas supplied by the Company, and the burner and other instruments to be used for such testing, and to reduce the standard illuminating power of the gas so supplied.

7. To amend the provisions of the Order of 1888 with regard to the storage of gas by the Company.

8. To reduce the rate of interest payable by the Company upon moneys deposited with them by way of security.

9. To enable the Company to lay down, repair, take up, alter, relay and renew mains, pipes and culverts within the gas limits for the purpose of procuring, conducting or disposing of any oil and other materials and residual products, or for any purpose connected with their business, and to apply to such purposes the provisions or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets and other matters, and to confer upon the Company the same powers of laying down and maintaining pipes and apparatus in roads and streets not dedicated to the public as are conferred by the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, in respect to public streets and roads.

10. To make provision with reference to the charges to be made for prepayment meters and fittings and gas supplied through such meters; the specification, construction, placing and inspection of pipes, apparatus and appliances on consumers' premises; the use, repair, testing and inspection of antifluctuators in the case of gas engines; the rights of the Company of entry and removal of fittings; the terms and conditions upon which a supply is to be given by the Company to persons or premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity and to persons in debt for other premises; the allowance or surcharge to be made in cases of meters registering erroneously and meters failing to register; the service of notices by or on the Company on or by consumers, the authentication of such notices, and the recovery of penalties and demands.

11. To enable the Company to supply gas in bulk to local authorities, companies and persons authorized to supply gas in districts adjacent to the gas limits, and to make contracts for that purpose.

12. To repeal, vary or amend all or any of the provisions of the Order of 1888 relating to any of the aforesaid matters, and to vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November, 1914, a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade, and also for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Rutland at his office at Oakham.

And that on or before the 23rd day of December next the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the offices of the Board of Trade, and printed copies thereof as so deposited and of the Provisional Order when made by the Board of Trade may be obtained at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling for each copy.

Every Company, Corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, on or before the 15th day of January next ensuing, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents.

In forwarding to the Board of Trade such representation or objection, the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Company's Solicitors or Agents.

Mr. Justice Joyce.

1914, T. No. 089.

In the Matter of the TRACTION AND POWER SECURITIES COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 10th day of November, 1914, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company unanimously passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 22nd day of October, 1914, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 9th day of November, 1914, and which Resolution runs as follows:—

"That the provisions of the Company's memorandum of association with respect to the objects of the Company be altered by striking out the following sub-clauses of clause 3 thereof, namely sub-clauses (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (l) and (m), and by inserting after sub-clause (d) of such clause in substitution for the sub-clauses so struck out the sub-clauses hereinafter mentioned and by re-lettering consecutively the whole of the sub-clauses of the said clause as so altered.

"The following are the sub-clauses to be so inserted, namely:—

"(e) To vary any investment for the time being held by the Company, and for that purpose to sell or exchange any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, obligations, warrants or certificates of indebtedness and securities as aforesaid.

"(f) To receive the interest, dividends, bonuses or other profits, income and advantages from time to time payable or receivable in respect of the Company's investments for the time being, and to apply the same respectively according to the provisions of the articles of association of the Company for the time being in force.

"(g) To make advances upon any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, obligations, warrants or certificates of indebtedness and securities as aforesaid, or upon the security of landed property, buildings or hereditaments or any interest therein.

"(h) To amalgamate with, promote, form, establish, register, obtain the organization of, purchase, co-operate with or otherwise acquire, conduct and carry on the business or any part thereof, or interest therein, of any corporation, company, firm or person carrying on or proposing to carry on any business with objects the same as or similar to the objects of this Company or any of them."

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Eve, on Tuesday, the 8th day of December, 1914; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, shareholder or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitors, Messieurs Surtess, Phillpotts and Co., of 6, St. Helen's-place, London, E.C., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Dated the 20th day of November, 1914.
