

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
52287	Bombardier	Laming, A. D. du T.	70th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	Conspicuous gallantry in laying and repairing telephone wires generally under rifle, as well as shell fire. Four out of the seven men employed on this work have become casualties, including himself.
7102	Private ...	Law, G. V. ...	1st Battalion, Gloucestershire Regiment	For gallantry on 19th September in going forward 100 yards to pick up a wounded scout, and helping to bring him in under a heavy fire.
55243	Acting Bombardier	Lawrence, H. F. ...	42nd Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous courage in remaining at his post with battery, when the remainder of detachments were forced by heavy shell fire to take cover.
8124	Private ...	Lawrence, R. ...	1st Battalion, Royal West Surrey Regiment	For gallantry in helping to bring in wounded men under heavy fire, and showing great coolness under trying circumstances.
4591	Company Quartermaster-Serjeant	Lester, W. G. ...	1st Battalion, Wiltshire Regiment	For gallantry at Caudry on 26th August, was of great assistance in rallying men of all corps; and at Vailly, from 13th to 23rd September, he brought supplies daily across the bridge under shell fire.
2653	Trooper ...	Lewis, R. ...	1st Life Guards ...	For gallantry on 6th November. Always volunteering, he carried several messages under fire.
39817	Driver ...	Light, E. W. ...	44th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	Conspicuous gallantry in going with his lieutenant to a cottage between the German trenches and our own, so as to be better able to direct the battery's fire. Remained there for three days under heavy rifle fire directing with success by telephone.
18722	Private ...	Leach, W. J. J. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For exceptionally good work at the dressing stations at Bucy Le Long, and St. Marguerite, during the bombardment of the 14th to 18th September.
4867	Company Serjeant-Major	Lovatt, G. R. ...	2nd Battalion, Yorkshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry by leading an attack and recapturing a lost trench under a very heavy fire.
1272	Private ...	Lynn, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers	For gallant conduct. Took charge of an isolated machine gun when his Serjeant was killed, brought it out of action when jammed, and took it back again to the firing line when repaired.
7085	Private ...	McCarthy, F. ...	1st Battalion, Cheshire Regiment	On 15th September, at Missy Sur Aisne, volunteered to fetch ammunition under fire, and at night, at the imminent risk of being shot by both friend and foe, assisted 2nd Lieutenant Atkinson to rejoin his company.
3726	Lance-Serjeant	McGoldrick, P. ...	Irish Guards ...	For valuable and efficient work on 4th Brigade Staff. Has delivered urgent messages under fire with promptitude and despatch.
8922	Serjeant ...	McNeir, J. M. ...	3rd Battalion, East Kent Regiment	For the gallant manner in which he brought up his section to the attack at Radingham on 29th October.
669	Private ...	Marlborough, T. A.	Royal Army Medical Corps, No. 6 Field Ambulance	Highly commendable conduct on 26th October, when he helped to carry a wounded officer and men from collecting station to ambulance wagon over fire-swept ground several times. Has performed consistently good work during the campaign.
7191	Private ...	Mears, R. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For exceptionally good work at the dressing stations at Bucy Le Long, and St. Marguerite, during the bombardment of the 14th to 18th September.