(g) If the service by which any person is qualified for a pension has been rendered by him partly as Tutor or Lecturer and partly as Bursar, the sum allowed as pension for such service shall be provided in part by the Tutorial Pension Fund and in part out of the corporate revenue of the College. The proportion of the two parts of such pension shall be determined by the ratio between the total amount of the yearly stipends received by the pensioner as Tutor or Lecturer of the College and the total amount of the yearly stipends received by him as Bursar during his whole period of service.

(h) If any person to whom a pension shall have been granted shall at the date of the grant hold or shall thereafter be appointed or elected to any Office in the University, or in any other University, or to any Office or Fellowship with emolument in any College or Public Hall in the University, or in any other University, or to any Office in the service of the Crown, he shall not receive during his tenure of such Office or Fellowship any larger part of the yearly pension allowed to him than such a sum as will together with the emoluments of such Office or Fellowship amount to £1,000 a year, and such part of his pension as shall be in excess of such sum in any year of his tenure of such Office or Fellowship shall return to the Tutorial Pension Fund or to the corporate revenue of the College, or rateably to such fund and revenue, as the case may be.

(i) In the interpretation of this Statute the term "period of service" shall include any time during which the person concerned shall have acted either as Tutor or as Lecturer or as Bursar of the College, or in more than one of these capacities: and the term "stipend" shall be taken to include any annual remuneration paid to him in respect of his service in one or more of these capacities, and in the case of a Fellow of the College also to include the emoluments of his Fellowship, and in the case of an Official Fellow of the College holding the Office of Tutor or Lecturer also to include the sum of £100 payable to him from the corporate revenue of the College: provided that in any case where a distinction has to be made between the stipend received by any person as Tutor or Lecturer and that received by him as Bursar the emoluments of any Official Fellowship so held by him shall be reckoned as part of the stipend of that Office in respect of which he was elected to such Official Fellowship, and the emoluments of any other Fellowship in the College held by him shall be deemed to be equally divided between the remaining two portions of his total stipend.

2. A pension may be granted to any Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar of the College, who is compelled by ill-health or other infirmity to retire from the service of the College before the date at which he would have become qualified for a pension under the last preceding clause, provided that

(a) Such pension shall not in any case exceed the sum of £200 a year.

(b) In determining the amount of such pension the President and Fellows shall take account of the special circumstances of the case, and of the length of the period of service of the person to whom it is granted.

3. For the provision of pensions for the Tutors and Lecturers of the College there shall be a Tutorial Pension Fund to which shall be transferred upon the approval of this Statute by His Majesty the King in Council the whole capital of the Pension Fund established and maintained under the Statute of 1881 as to Pensions and under the subsequent Statutes of 1888, 1899, and 1910, together with other sums standing to the credit of that Fund. Ten per cent. shall be deducted from the yearly income of the Tuition Fund and contributed to the Tutorial Pension Fund, and there shall also be paid to the Tutorial Pension Fund a yearly contribution of not less than £500 nor more than £700 from the corporate revenue of the College. The President and Fellows may further contribute to the Tutorial Pension Fund from surplus revenue such annual or other sums as may be allowed or directed to be so applied under any scheme for the disposal of surplus revenue sanctioned by the Visitor of the College under the provisions of Statute XIV. clause 3 of the Statutes of 1881 and in force for the time being.

4. If at any time it shall be the case that the Tutorial Pension Fund amounts to a sum sufficient to meet all existing claims for pensions and to provide for all such as are likely to arise, the Visitor may order the partial or total suspension of the payment of any contribution to the Fund from corporate revenue or from the Tuition Fund, and such payment shall thereupon cease until the order for its suspension is withdrawn or modified.

5. In the administration of the Tutorial Pension Fund the President and Fellows may make provision for pensions for Tutors and Lecturers either by payments from the income of the Fund or by the purchase of immediate or deferred annuities, and may for these purposes enter into agreements with any principal Life Insurance Company incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom, or with the University, or with any College or Colleges in the University.

6. No Tutor or Lecturer of the College shall continue to hold his appointment after the completion of the fifty-seventh year of his age, unless by a resolution of the President and Fellows passed upon the recommendation of the Tutorial Board his tenure is prolonged for a further period. Such further period shall not in any case extend beyond the date at which the Tutor or Lecturer will complete the sixtieth year of his age, and shall not, except by special resolution of the President and Fellows, be reckoned as part of his period of service for the purpose of computing the amount of his pension.

7. The President and Fellows may by resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting (but in the case of a Tutor or Lecturer only upon the recommendation of the Tutorial Board) enforce the retirement of any Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar of the College. Such resolution shall not affect any claim to a pension which may have been acquired by such Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar, unless the resolution shall have been passed in consequence of neglect of duty or misconduct on his part, in which case it shall be at the absolute discretion of the President and Fellows to allow or to refuse a pension, or to reduce the amount of any pension to which he would otherwise have been entitled at the date of his retirement.

8. Subject to the conditions contained in this Statute the President and Fellows may by bye-laws passed at a stated General Meeting prescribe a scale of pensions for Tutors and Lecturers of the College, and may in like manner provide that every Tutor or Lecturer qualified for a pension under this Statute shall upon his retirement be entitled to a pension of the amount appropriate to his case according to such scale, and may from time to time vary or rescind any such bye-laws.

9. All pensions which have been granted to Tutors or Lecturers of the College before the date of the approval of this Statute by His Majesty the King in Council, and which at that date are a charge upon the Pension Fund, shall upon the approval of this Statute as aforesaid become a charge on the Tutorial Pension Fund, and shall be provided by means of that Fund in the same manner as pensions which may hereafter be granted to Tutors or Lecturers under the provisions of this Statute.

10. Any pension which has been granted to a Bursar of the College before the date of the approval of this Statute by His Majesty the King in Council, and which at that date is a charge upon the Pension Fund, shall upon the approval of this Statute as aforesaid become a charge on the corporate revenue of the College.

11. The Statutes of 1888, 1899, and 1910 as to Pensions are hereby repealed.

The Common Seal of the President and Scholars of the College of St. Mary Magdalen, in the University of Oxford, was hereunto affixed in the presence of

C. R. Carter,
Bursar.

STATUTES to alter and amend the Statutes of Trinity College, Cambridge, which amending Statutes were duly made at a College Meeting, being a Meeting of the Governing Body of the College specially summoned for this purpose, and held on the 28th day of November, 1914, and having been passed at such Meeting by the votes of more than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, are now submitted for the approval of His Majesty the King in Council.

We, the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, in the University of Cambridge, in exercise of the powers given to us by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby alter and amend the existing Statutes of our said College in the manner following:—

By adding to Statute X intituled "The Fellows" the following Section to form Section 7 of the same Statute:—

"7. The Council shall have power by a resolution passed within six calendar months after the approval of this Statute by His Majesty in Council to suspend temporarily all or any of the provisions in the Statutes of the College contained relating to the annual election of Fellows (including those relating to the computation of vacancies, the suspension of fellowships, the provision of temporary additional fellowships, and the persons eligible). Such suspension may be terminated either by a resolution of the Council or by a resolution carried at a College Meeting by a majority of those present and voting on the question, and shall continue until it is so terminated. During the period of such suspension the Council shall have power to make and from time to time to alter and amend regulations to take the place of the provisions so suspended, and the election of Fellows under title (a) shall take place either annually or otherwise under such regulations. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend so as to enable the Council to alter the tenure or the value of any fellowship."

By repealing Section 4 of Statute XLVIII intituled "Accounts and Audit," and substituting therefor the following Section to form an amended Section 4 of the same Statute:—

"4. All the accounts of the College shall be audited every year. For this purpose the Council shall in each year appoint an Auditor, not being the Master or a Fellow or Officer of the College, and shall pay to him such a stipend as they shall determine, and they shall also appoint from the Fellows of the College one or more Assessors to whom they may assign such reasonable remuneration as they shall think fit. The Auditor shall examine and verify all the said accounts and the vouchers thereof, and shall ascertain the balance on each account and compare the same with the respective balances as shewn by the books of the College Bankers. The Assessors shall attend at such part of the annual audit as the Council shall from time to time direct, and shall report to the Council on such matters connected with the College accounts and finances as are referred to them and such other matters (if any) connected therewith as they may consider desirable. The conclusion of the audit and final passing of the accounts shall take place in the presence of the Council and of such Fellows as may choose to attend. The Auditor shall pass the several accounts by signing the same or shall state in writing to the Council his reasons for not passing the accounts or any of them, and such statement (if any) shall be communicated to all the Fellows."

By repealing Section 12 of Statute XLIX intituled "Distribution of Revenues," and substituting therefor the following Section to form an amended Section 12 of the same Statute:—

"12. The Council shall fix for the year the amount being not more than two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) free of income tax to be called a modulus. And there shall be paid to each Fellow (not being a Supernumerary Fellow) his proper dividend fixed as hereinafter mentioned by reference to the amount of the modulus."

BYE-LAWS REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER OF COUNCIL.

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

Bye-law 34a.

34A.—The Council may at a meeting convened as prescribed by Section 14 of the Royal Charter and in exercise of the powers thereby conferred elect as an Associate any candidate for admission who has served, or is serving in His Majesty's Forces during war; provided such candidate shall have complied with the provisions of the Royal Charter and these Bye-laws relating to service under Articles and Examinations which are applicable in his case, with such exceptions therefrom and modifications thereof as the Council may by a Resolution passed under the provisions of this Bye-law have made in his favour.

The Council may by a Resolution passed at a meeting specially convened with notice of the object, at which meeting there shall be present not less than twenty-four of the Members of the Council, and for which Resolution not less than three-fourths of those present and voting shall vote, make in the case of any person who purposes to become a candidate for admission who has served, or is serving, in His Majesty's Forces during war such exceptions from or modifications in the provisions of the Royal Charter and these Bye-laws relating to service under Articles and Examinations as are below referred to and as may to them seem reasonable in the circumstances of his case, that is to say:—

(f) That the candidate's period of service in His Majesty's Forces during war be proved by the Certificate of the candidate's superior officer or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Council.

Any of the aforesaid exceptions or modifications in favour of a candidate may be made in the manner aforesaid from time to time as the occasion for each such exception or modification arises, and without prejudice to the power of the Council to make further exceptions or modifications as are above referred to in favour of the same candidate at a later stage in his candidature.

Bye-law to be substituted for the existing Bye-law numbered 74.

74.—Every person desirous of becoming an Articled Clerk shall, before he be articled, pass a Preliminary Examination to test his general education; save that the following persons shall be entitled to exemption from such examination:—

Provided, nevertheless, that if any person seeking exemption under paragraphs 3 and 4 has not passed in all the subjects required, it shall be lawful for the Council to make such arrangements (including the charging of fees) as they may see fit for his examination in any subject or subjects in which he has not been examined, such examination to be either one held by one of the examining bodies, or a subsequent Preliminary Examination of the Institute. Provided also that the Council shall determine whether any of the subjects required may be considered to be included in or to find their equivalents in any subjects in which any person has passed in the examination of one of the examining bodies.

Any person, upon satisfying the Council that he has graduated in any of the above Universities, or passed any of the above examinations in accordance with the above conditions, shall be entitled to receive a certificate to the effect that he is exempt from passing the Preliminary Examination of the Institute, upon payment of such fee, not exceeding one guinea, as the Council shall from time to time determine.
