Schedule.

FORM OF ORIGINATING SUMMONS UNDER SECTION 4.

In the High Court of Justice,
Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice

In the matter of the Trading with the Enemy
Amendment Act, 1914,

And in the matter of A.B. an Enemy within the Act.

Let A.B. of a person alleged to be an enemy within the above Act and the Public Trustee of the custodian for England and Wales under the above Act attend at the chambers of Mr. Justice at the time specified in the margin hereof [or on the day of 19 at o'clock in the noon] on the hearing of an application of C.D. of who claims to be a creditor of the said A.B. [or to be entitled to recover damages against the said A.B. or to be interested in the property hereinafter referred to belonging to or held or managed for or on behalf of the said A.B.] that the under-mentioned real or personal property or rights in or arising out of real or personal property may vest in the said custodian and that there may be conferred on him such powers of selling managing and otherwise dealing with the property as may seem proper.

The following constitutes the real or personal property or rights to which this summons refers, namely [here give short description].

NOTE.—It will not be necessary for you to enter an appearance in the Central Office, but if you do not attend either in person or by your solicitor at the time and place above mentioned [or named in the endorsement hereon], such order will be made and proceedings taken as the Judge may think just and expedient.

TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT, 1914.

RULES.

THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY (SUSPECTED COUPONS) RULES, 1915, MADE UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1914.

1. In these Rules—

The expression "the Act" means the Trading with the Enemy (Amendment) Act, 1914.

The expression "enemy" has a meaning corresponding with that given by the Act to the expression "enemies."

The expression "suspecting presentee" means any company, municipal authority, or other body or person to whom during the continuance of the present war a coupon or other security transferable by delivery is presented for payment, and who has reason to suspect that it is so presented on behalf of the benefit of an enemy, or that since the commencement of the present war it has been held by or for the benefit of an enemy.

The expression "suspected coupons" means any coupon or coupons or other security or securities transferable by delivery, or batch of such coupons or securities that may during the currency of the present war be presented for payment to a suspecting presentee.

The expression "suspected enemy" means the enemy on whose behalf or for whose benefit the suspected coupons are suspected of being presented or, as the case may be, by whom or for the benefit of whom they are suspected of having been held since the commencement of the present war.

2. Where a suspecting presentee desires under Section 7 of the Act to make a payment into Court of money due in respect of suspected coupons, he shall make and file in the Chancery Division of the High Court an affidavit intituled in the matter of the suspected coupons (described so as to be distinguishable so far as may be) and in the matter of the Act, and setting forth or indicating either in the affidavit itself or in one or more exhibits thereto:—

(a) Short particulars of the suspected coupons with names, numbers, dates, and amounts for the purpose of the identification thereof, so far as reasonably practicable.

(b) The name, so far as known, of the party actually presenting the suspected
