

coupons, and his place of residence to the best of the suspecting presentee's knowledge and belief.

(c) The circumstances producing suspicion in the mind of the suspecting presentee, and the name of the suspected enemy and his place of residence to the best of the suspecting presentee's knowledge and belief.

(d) The submission of the suspecting presentee to answer all such inquiries relating to the application of the money paid into Court as the Court or a Judge may make or direct.

(e) The place where the suspecting presentee is to be served with any petition summons or order or notice of any proceeding relating to the money paid in.

3. On making any payment into Court as aforesaid, the suspecting presentee shall forthwith proceed to give, so far as may be, notice thereof by prepaid letter through the post to the party actually presenting the suspected coupons and to the suspected enemy or to some person thought likely to be in communication with the suspected enemy.

4.—(1) No petition or summons relating to the money paid in shall be answered or issued unless the petitioner or applicant has named therein a place where he may be served with any petition or notice of any proceeding or order relating to the money paid in or any income thereof.

(2) Service shall be made or such other notice or intimation given as the Court or a Judge shall direct on or to such persons (if any) as the Court or a Judge shall direct of any application in respect of the money paid in or any income thereof: Provided that (by way of extension of the powers and practice of the Court) the Court or a Judge may if thought fit proceed in the absence of any such service, notice, or intimation on or to any enemy (including the suspected enemy) or other person who may be or appear to be abroad, or whose whereabouts may not be known.

(3) Applications to deal with money paid into Court under the Act shall be intitled in the same manner as the affidavit on which the money was paid in.

5. Money paid in under Section 7 of the Act and these Rules may, on the request of the suspecting presentee when paying in or on any subsequent application, be placed on deposit or invested in any securities available for the investment of cash under the control of the Court.

6. The proceedings and practice with reference to moneys paid into Court under Section 7 of the Act and the dealings therewith shall, so far as not otherwise provided for by these Rules, be in accordance with the ordinary practice of the Chancery Division with reference to moneys paid into Court on affidavit under Section 42 of the Trustee Relief Act, 1893.

7. These Rules may be cited as "The Trading with the Enemy (Suspected Coupons) Rules, 1915," and shall come into force forthwith.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by section 2 of the Proclamation relating to Trading with the Enemy, dated the 7th day of January, 1915, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby permit persons, firms or companies resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding anything contained in section 1 of the said Proclamation to enter into transactions in respect of banking business with any establishments of the Imperial Ottoman Bank,

the National Bank of Turkey, situate in France, Cyprus, or Egypt, or situate in any part of the Turkish Dominions which may for the time being be occupied by the forces of His Majesty or His Majesty's allies.

This permission may be modified or revoked at any time by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.
