

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
10705	Lance-Corporal	Lock, F. ...	1st Battalion, King's Royal Rifles Corps	For gallantry on 14th November in conveying information from a forward trench, under a heavy fire to Battalion Headquarters and then returning to his post.
9874	Serjeant ...	Longden, E. ...	2nd Battalion, Welsh Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 2nd November near Gheluvelt, when he served his machine gun until he was wounded, and had become isolated. On two previous occasions he behaved with the greatest gallantry and resource in emergencies.
24183	Pioneer ...	Loose, T. ...	3rd Signal Company, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct and ability during a severe engagement in keeping up continuous telephone communication under heavy shell fire.
23561	Pioneer ...	Lowry, W. ...	Reserve Signal Company, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct during the attack on the Wytshaete-Messines line on 31st October in carrying messages over fire-swept ground until wounded, showing great coolness and resource.
8859	Private ...	Lucas, A. H. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on numerous occasions between 22nd October and 20th November, in rendering aid to the wounded, making journeys constantly under very heavy fire.
5470	Private ...	Lusty, A. E. E. ...	5th Dragoon Guards...	For gallant conduct on 31st October at Messines, although wounded early he remained in action the whole day and assisted to bring other wounded men into cover.
5772	Lance-Serjeant	Mackay, W. ...	15th Hussars ...	For very conspicuous gallantry, ability, and resource in action and on reconnaissance. Has rendered very valuable services in most difficult circumstances on numerous occasions, exhibiting a total disregard of danger. Was wounded on 1st November.
8824	Private ...	Macredy, H. ...	2nd Dragoons...	For very gallant conduct in remaining for two hours in attendance on a mortally wounded comrade, under a heavy fire the whole time.
5241	Serjeant ...	McLellan, P. H. ...	1st Royal Dragoons ...	For gallantry and ability on 17th November during a reconnaissance in front of our trenches when he killed two of the enemy. Was brought to notice on 30th October for great coolness in the action at Chateau de Hollebeke.
4570	Private ...	Marshall, F. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on numerous occasions between 22nd October and 20th November, in rendering aid to the wounded, making journeys constantly under very heavy fire.
8702	Lance-Corporal	Marshall, G. M. ...	1st Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For gallant conduct on 14th November at La Boutillerie, in bringing into cover a wounded man under machine-gun fire, and subsequently rescuing under fire another man who had been buried by a shell.
7814	Serjeant ...	Mart, A. J. ...	1st Battalion, Bedfordshire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 10th November in assisting to recover one of our abandoned machine guns, killing one German who was watching the gun. Serjeant Mart distinguished himself previously on dangerous services.
4439	Private ...	Mathews, W. J. ...	No. 2 Field Ambulance, Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty, in collecting the wounded under heavy shell fire, especially on the 1st November near Zillebeke, where he was severely wounded.