

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
14741	Private ...	Mills, R. H. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct in searching for wounded men, on his own initiative, in a house which was being shelled by the enemy.
2431	Private ...	Mitchell, A. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry on 22nd October, when he conveyed a wounded man in a barrow across fields to an ambulance, whilst exposed to heavy machine-gun and rifle fire, and then returned to his section still under fire. Was previously brought to notice for his gallant conduct.
3384	Private ...	Moir, D. ...	1st Royal Dragoons ...	For gallant conduct on 30th October, in the handling of machine gun during the attack on Chateau de Hollebeke.
8086	Private ...	Molloy, T. ...	2nd Battalion, Connaught Rangers	For conspicuous gallantry in carrying urgent messages over very dangerous ground, twenty per cent. of the messengers being killed or wounded on this duty. An example in devotion to duty.
7774	Company-Serjeant-Major	Monaghan, M. ...	2nd Battalion, Connaught Rangers	For conspicuous gallantry in carrying urgent messages over very dangerous ground, twenty per cent. of the messengers being killed or wounded on this duty. An example in devotion to duty.
4015	Private ...	Moore, W. ...	1st Battalion, Irish Guards	For conspicuous gallantry near Klein Zillebeke on 16th November, in endeavouring to rescue a wounded comrade under very dangerous circumstances, but was immediately badly wounded himself.
9651	Private ...	Moore, W. F. ...	1st Battalion, Shropshire Light Infantry	For conspicuously consistent gallantry for nearly a month in carrying messages over dangerous ground to the firing line. Was wounded on 15th November.
1664	Lance-Serjeant	Moran, C. ...	1st Battalion, Irish Guards	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the fight for Rentel Ridge on 26th October, when his untiring efforts were used to rescue the wounded, who no doubt owe their lives to his gallant behaviour.
9577	Private ...	Moran, T. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For gallantry and ability in the defence of a point d'appui on 11th November, when surrounded by the enemy.
8940	Private ...	Morgan, C. H. ...	1st Battalion, Liverpool Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 26th and 27th October, when he remained in a house in front of our trenches, harassing the enemy by sniping, being only 80 yards from their trenches.
28086	Corporal ...	Morrison, J. S. ...	No. 1 Signal Company, Royal Engineers (Motor Cyclist)	For conspicuous gallantry at Lange-mark, 23rd-25th October, in voluntarily carrying messages, under heavy rifle and shell fire, and again at Gheluveld, on 31st October, when he voluntarily repaired the telephone line after others had failed owing to the heavy fire.
7102	Private ...	Murray, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers	For gallantry on 7th November, after his section leader had been wounded, led his men in a charge on a German trench under very heavy fire.
2977	Private ...	Mutter, J. ...	2nd Dragoons... —	Volunteered to carry a wounded man on a stretcher, saying he was stronger than the man detailed for that duty, and was mortally wounded on his journey.
