| Regimental No. | Rank. | Name. | Corps. | Action for which commended. |
|----------------|-------------------|-----------------------|---|---|
| M.T. 1871 | Private ... | Payne, F. ... | Army Service Corps (S.R.) | For gallantry and coolness at Ypres in voluntarily assisting to save the transport lorries under heavy shell fire. His action was quite successful. |
| 2161 | Private ... | Pickstone, E. ... | 3rd Hussars ... | For gallantry on the night of 31st October near Messines, when he reached the enemy's lines under a heavy fire, and brought back valuable information. He also acted with gallantry on a previous occasion. |
| 1599 | Acting-Corporal | Pinchin, A. E. ... | 2nd Battalion, Monmouthshire Regiment | For very gallant conduct in leaving his trench under heavy fire to assist a wounded comrade, and, although himself wounded, remaining with the man until he died. |
| 4188 | Corporal ... | Pitman, F. J. ... | 5th Field Company, Royal Engineers | For gallantry on 8th November. At Polygoneveld, in company with another man, repaired a barbed wire fence at night, which had been cut by the enemy, whilst under heavy shell fire and without any support from our Infantry. On a subsequent occasion he performed a similarly dangerous duty. |
| 47993 | Gunner ... | Pond, G. L. ... | 115th Battery, Royal Field Artillery | For conspicuous gallantry on 15th September at Vendresse, when the guns had to be withdrawn after three Officers had been wounded, he assisted, under heavy fire, in preventing the horses stampeding and placed them under cover. He then returned and assisted in removing the guns by hand. |
| 64614 | Bombardier | Pratt, H. W. ... | 117th Battery, Royal Field Artillery | For gallantry and coolness on 31st October, near Veldhoek, was the driver of the leading team in a narrow lane, withdrawing the guns under a destructive fire from the enemy. |
| 7586 | Acting-Serjeant | Pudney, P. A. ... | 2nd Battalion, Essex Regiment | For conspicuous bravery in the field at Meteren on 13th October. |
| 13211 | Corporal ... | Pugh, M. ... | 3rd Battalion, South Wales Borderers (S.R.) | For gallantry on 31st October in assisting to collect unattached men and bringing them to the trenches under a heavy fire, and again on 2nd November in gallantly assisting to extricate men who had been buried by a shell, under heavy fire. |
| 9803 | Private ... | Pym, J. ... | 1st Battalion, Royal Berkshire Regiment | For great gallantry on 31st October, when he went alone into a house occupied by a number of the enemy who were firing on his Company, and cleared them out, only three Germans escaping. He was subsequently wounded. |
| 8637 | Private ... | Ranger, H. J. ... | Royal Army Medical Corps | For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on numerous occasions, between 22nd October and 20th November, in rendering aid to the wounded, making journeys constantly under very heavy fire. |
| 1008 | Corporal ... | Redpath, R. ... | 1st Battalion, Royal Highlanders | For gallantry on 2nd November in collecting unattached men and bringing them into the firing line under heavy fire. On two subsequent occasions he acted with gallantry and ability. |
| 8683 | Serjeant ... | Richardson, C. C. ... | 1st Battalion, Middlesex Regiment | For gallantry on 12th November at La Boutillerie, in bringing into safety a wounded man, under shell fire. |
| 2569 | Corporal-of-Horse | Rose, A. ... | 1st Life Guards ... | For conspicuous gallantry on 20th November, in re-occupying his trench after being twice blown out by shell fire. Was subsequently killed. |
