

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
4654	Private ...	Tyrrell, A. J. ...	2nd Battalion, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry	For gallant conduct on 3rd and 4th November, when he voluntarily carried messages on four occasions over a distance of a half mile under heavy shell fire. Was previously noted for his distinguished conduct.
3468	Sapper ...	Vye, W. P.... ...	5th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For gallantry and resource on 11th November, being left behind by his company, in a crisis he joined a French battery, with four other men, and, under the orders of the Commander, he assisted in leading the other four men in an attack on a house, capturing two Germans and driving away the remainder.
2772	Private ...	Wellings, H. W. ...	6th Dragoon Guards...	For conspicuously gallant conduct on 31st October in removing wounded men of the London Scottish under heavy shell fire, and showing a fine example under trying circumstances. He showed great gallantry on another occasion the same day in a dangerous situation, in resisting the enemy at a range of ten to fifteen yards, in company with his Squadron-Commander.
T/22849	Driver ...	Wells, T. ...	Army Service Corps, (attached 5th Field Ambulance)	For gallant conduct on 12th November at Zonnebeke when he assisted to remove wounded men from a building into safety during a heavy bombardment, and subsequently performed a similarly gallant act.
2050	Company-Serjeant-Major	Whiteley, B. F. ...	2nd Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For gallant conduct in leading all the available men of two companies in a charge at Veldhoek. Was wounded, but refused to go into hospital.
19541	Sapper ...	Wilson, J. ...	5th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct on 11th November, in bringing an urgent message over very dangerous ground, under heavy rifle and machine-gun fire, and subsequently performing a similarly dangerous duty.
8476	Acting-Serjeant	Winter, W.... ...	1st Battalion, Royal Berkshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 2nd November, when he left his trench at great risk and recovered a machine gun which had been buried by a shell. He then worked the gun by himself—the Officer and man previously manning it having been wounded.
5179	Serjeant ...	Woodland, W. G. ...	4th Dragoon Guards...	For conspicuous gallantry on 3rd November, near Wulverghem, under heavy shell fire whilst detached from his Regiment, and after losing his Officer and three men of the Section, he repulsed with machine-gun fire three advances of the enemy, showing the greatest determination.
15022	Serjeant ...	Woodward, F. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps, (attached Royal Scots Greys)	For conspicuously gallant conduct on 2nd November near Kemmel, when he continued to attend on the wounded, although a shell had burst in the room in which they lay and he had been stunned by the concussion.
10628	Lance-Corporal	Wootton, W. H. ...	2nd Battalion, Durham Light Infantry	For gallantry on 28th October in dressing an Officer's wounds and helping to bring him into safety under fire.

The list of recipients of the Distinguished Conduct Medal which appeared in the London Gazette of the 1st instant, pages 11 to 13, is repeated herein with some amendments.
