GEORGE MARTIN.

THOMAS SAVILLE WHITEHEAD.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 23rd day of November, 1914, made in the Matter of the estate of Clara Emily Whitehead, deceased, and in an action Mary Ann Whitehead v. Samuel Whitehead and another, 1914, W. 1515, whereby the following enquiries were directed, namely:—(1) An enquiry whether Thomas Saville Whitehead, in the said order named, is living or dead, and, if dead, when he died, and if he survived the intestate, who is his legal personal representative. (2) An enquiry whether the said Thomas Saville Whitehead left any, and what, Widow or issue who survived the intestate. Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said enquiries are, personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 1st day of June, 1915, to enter their claims in a book kept for that purpose at the Chambers of the Judge, Room No. 705, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, and also, on or before the 8th day of June, 1915, to come in and prove their claims at the said Chambers, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 8th day of June, 1915, at 11.30 of the clock in the forenoon, at the said Chambers, Room No. 704, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 18th day of January, 1915.

J. C. FOX, Master of the Supreme Court.

NOTE.—The said intestate, Clara Emily Whitehead, died on the 18th February, 1913. The said Thomas Saville Whitehead, son of George Francis Whitehead, is alleged to have sailed from London for New Zealand in the year 1879, and when last heard of (in the year 1880) was in South Australia.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, England, dated 20th July, 1914, made in an action in the Matter of the estate of JOHN BEATTIE, deceased, the Public Trustee, plaintiff, v. Eliza Gwyther and others, defendants (1914, B. 1956), the following enquiry was directed to be made, that is to say:—"An enquiry whether Charles Joseph Beattie, the nephew of the testator in his will named, is living or dead, and if dead, when he died, and whether he was ever married, and if so, when and to whom, and whether he had any child or children, and if so, when such child or children respectively were born, and whether such child or children or any and which of them are living or dead, and if dead, when they respectively died, and who are the legal representatives of any such children as have died after having attained the age of 21 years." Now all persons claiming to be interested in the said enquiry are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of February, 1915, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Joyce and Mr. Justice Eve, Room No. 696, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Friday, the 26th day of February, 1915, at 12 of the clock at noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims.

NOTE.—The testator, John Beattie, died 15th July, 1883. Charles Joseph Beattie was his nephew, and was at one time a Clerk in the employ of the Cambrian Railway Company at Welshpool, and it is believed that subsequently to 1882 he was in the employ of the Wiltshire and Andover Railway Company at Swindon, and that he left that employ for the employ of the Manchester Ship Canal.—Dated 18th January, 1915.

ARTHUR F. RIDSDALE, Master.

EDWARD WALTER HAINES, 10, Serjeants'-
124 inn, Fleet-street, London, Solicitor for the Plaintiff.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 15th July, 1914, made in the Matter of the estate of HANNAH ROBINSON, deceased, and in an action of Edmundson against Priestley, 1914, R. No. 652, Matthew Pearson Goundry, the half brother of the said Hannah Robinson, if living, or if he died after the 17th June, 1913, his legal personal representative, or if he died before the said 17th June, 1913, the children of the said Matthew Pearson Goundry, or the legal personal representatives of such of them as have died since the said 17th June, 1913, and the children of Elizabeth Mollison (the Wife of Mollison), if living, or the legal personal representatives of those who died after the said 17th June, 1913, or if all such children died before the 17th June, 1913, then their children, if living, or the legal personal representatives of such last mentioned children who died subsequent to the said 17th June, 1913, are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 27th February, 1915, to come in and prove their claims at the Chambers of the Judge, Room No. 288, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, and
