WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of February, 1915, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider it desirable to confer on the Captain selected to supervise the Training Service of Your Majesty's Navy the rank of Commodore, First Class, and to grant him a consolidated salary of £1,200 a year, together with Table Money at the rate of 30s. a day payable when absent on inspection duties:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by

Your Order in Council, to sanction the rank and emoluments of this Officer accordingly, temporarily during the period of hostilities, with effect as from the 1st January, 1915.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Lord Chamberlain,
Lord Farquhar,
Sir Frederick Ponsonby,
Mr. E. S. Montagu.

WHEREAS by Section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is (amongst other things) enacted that if, by any Law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within that Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are, or are suspected of being, therein, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either:—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to that Foreign State, and so long as that Law continues in force there, and no longer;

Or direct that the Law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act:

And whereas by an Ordinance, numbered 8 of 1914, enacted by the Governor of the Gold Coast Colony, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance (Ashanti), 1914," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under 'The Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906,' are hereby vested in and may in Ashanti be exercised and done by any Provincial, Travelling, or District Commissioner of Ashanti, or the Police Magistrate, Coomassie, in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said 'Acts':"

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall, by Order in Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within Ashanti as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been published in the Gold Coast Government Gazette, and with effect from the date of such publication thereof:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in Ashanti, without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of February, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 393 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is (amongst other things) enacted that a boy under the age of sixteen years shall not be taken to sea for the purpose of serving in any capacity connected with the sea-fishing service unless he is bound by an Indenture of Apprenticeship or Agreement made in conformity with Part IV of the said Act:

And whereas by section 395 of the same Act it is (amongst other things) enacted that Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service, and Agreements with boys under the age of sixteen years with respect to that service shall be in such form and contain such covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates as are prescribed by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, and that any directions given in the forms so prescribed shall be complied with:

And whereas by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, dated the 12th day of December, 1894, it was, among other things, ordered and prescribed that on and after the 1st day of January, 1895, Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service should be in the form set forth in the Schedule thereto, and should contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein mentioned with respect to the said Indentures:

And whereas by an Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, dated the 19th day of October, 1908, it was ordered and prescribed that on and after the 1st day of November, 1908, any Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service made before the Superintendent at the Port of Grimsby should either be in the form set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council, dated the 12th December, 1894, and contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates in the said Schedule mentioned with respect to Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service, or be in the form set forth in the Schedule to the Order in Council now being recited, and should contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein mentioned:

And whereas the Board of Trade have recommended that after a certain date Indentures of Apprenticeship shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto, and it is expedient to prescribe the same accordingly, save and except that an alternative form may continue to be used at and for the Port of Grimsby:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Him by the said recited Act and of all other powers in that behalf, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order and prescribe that Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service made on and after the 10th day of February, 1915, shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto, and shall contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein mentioned; save and except that any Indentures of Apprenticeship to the sea-fishing service made before the Superintendent at the Port of Grimsby shall either be in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto, and contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates therein mentioned, or be in the form set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council, dated the 19th day of October, 1908, and contain the covenants, provisions, stipulations, endorsements, and certificates in the said Schedule mentioned.

APPRENTICESHIP INDENTURE.

SEA FISHING SERVICE.

THIS INDENTURE made the day of , 19 , between aged years, a native of in the County of , (hereinafter called the Apprentice) of the one part, and of in the County of , Owner of not less than Eight Sixty-fourth Shares in (or Skipper of) the Fishing Boat of (hereinafter called the Master) of the other part. Witnesseth that the Master (which term shall include the Executors Administrators and Assigns of the Master if consistent with the context) and the Apprentice hereby mutually covenant and agree to the terms conditions and stipulations set out in the body and upon the back of this Indenture:—

(1) The Apprentice binds himself Apprentice to the Master for the term of years from the date hereof, subject to a probationary period of as hereinafter more particularly mentioned.

(2) During such time the Apprentice will faithfully serve his Master and obey his lawful commands and keep his secrets and when requisite give to his Master true accounts of his goods and money which may in any way come into the hands of the Apprentice. The Apprentice will not during the said term do any damage to his Master nor will he consent to any such damage being done by others but will if possible prevent the same and give warning thereof, and will not embezzle waste or otherwise wrongfully deal with the goods of his Master nor frequent Taverns or Alehouses nor absent himself from his Master's service without leave.

(3) The Master will during the said term of Apprenticeship use all proper means to teach the Apprentice or cause him to be taught the business of a Seaman and Fisherman and will provide the Apprentice with sufficient meat drink lodging washing medicine and medical and surgical assistance sea-bedding wearing apparel and necessities.

(4) All wearing apparel provided by the Master for the use of the Apprentice shall during the said term remain the property of the Master, the Apprentice having full right to the use thereof at all times for his own sole use and wear but he shall not acquire any right or title thereto for the purpose of selling, pledging or otherwise disposing of such apparel, until the expiration of the Apprenticeship when such apparel shall become the Apprentice's property.

(5) The Master shall not during the said term pay to the Apprentice any money for the purpose of enabling him to obtain board and lodging for himself, but the Master will provide the Apprentice with suitable and sufficient board and lodging to the satisfaction of the Superintendent. The Superintendent referred to throughout this Indenture shall mean the Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office who for the time being may have cognizance of the matter upon the application of either party, or upon his own initiative or otherwise howsoever.

(6) The Master will pay to or on account of the Apprentice the Remuneration specified on the back of this Indenture under the letter "A" at the times and in manner hereinafter or in such endorsement appearing.

All remuneration to which the Apprentice shall become entitled whether as spending money perquisites or share of salvage shall (except as next hereinafter provided) be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be forthwith paid by him into the Seamen's Savings Bank to the Account of the Apprentice. Provided that when the Apprentice is ashore the Master shall pay into his own hands the daily or weekly sums specified on the back hereof under the letter "B," and if such daily or weekly sum is more than the spending money hereby agreed to be paid, the Master shall be entitled to receive the difference from the Superintendent at such times as he may think proper out of the fund standing in the name of the Apprentice in the Seamen's Savings Bank. Provided that if the Superintendent shall be of opinion that on account of misconduct, or the state of the fund or for other sufficient reasons the Apprentice ought not to receive into his own hands any sums whatsoever or that the sum ought to be reduced and shall in writing so inform the Master, the payments to the Apprentice or such part thereof as the Superintendent shall specify shall thereupon be discontinued for such period as the Superintendent may determine and the spending money or the balance if any remaining after paying the reduced amount to the Apprentice shall be paid by the Master to the Superintendent to be placed to the credit of the Account aforesaid. Subject to all necessary withdrawals by the Superintendent from the said Account in the Seamen's Savings Bank for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned and for the payment of any sum in the nature of a fine imposed upon the Apprentice by a Court of competent jurisdiction and for other special purposes which the Superintendent shall in his discretion think proper to allow, the amount standing to the credit of the said account shall there remain until the expiration or other sooner determination of the said term of apprenticeship, whereupon the balance standing to the credit of the said account after providing for all payments and deductions then proper to be made shall be paid or transferred to or to the credit of the Apprentice.

(7) The Apprentice shall not be required to serve in any Fishing Boat in which the Master is not during the continuance of such service himself serving as Skipper, Second Hand or Seaman or in which the Master if not so serving does not during the continuance of the Apprentice's service in such Fishing Boat possess an interest therein of at least Eight Sixty-fourth Shares. Provided that if in the opinion of the Superintendent it is desirable and the Apprentice consents it shall be lawful for such Apprentice to serve in some other Fishing Boat approved by the Superintendent for a period not exceeding two months.

(8) The Master will attend with the Apprentice before the Superintendent within twenty-eight days after the expiration of the probationary period hereinbefore referred to, or if they or either of them are or is at sea during that time then immediately on return to port. And if this Indenture is not then cancelled as hereinafter provided, the Master shall also attend with the Apprentice once at least in every half-year during the continuance of this Indenture before the Superintendent with a view to the investigation by him of questions affecting the remuneration or earnings and service of the Apprentice and will give a full true and faithful account and report of such remuneration or earnings and of the character conduct and efficiency of the Apprentice. And in the event of any change of abode or of any gross misconduct on the part of the Apprentice or of any serious accident happening to him the Master will forthwith as soon as practicable give notice thereof to the Superintendent.

(9) The Master will allow the Apprentice a reasonable holiday in each year during the continuance of the said term of apprenticeship to the satisfaction of the Superintendent for the purpose of visiting his relations or friends unless in the opinion of the Superintendent the Apprentice is not entitled to such holiday in any year by reason of misconduct.

Direction with regard to Clause 10.—This clause may be deleted when not required. The deletion shall be verified by the Superintendent of the Mercantile Marine Office placing his initials against it in the margin.

(10) The Apprentice agrees that he will each day on eighteen days at least during his time ashore in each year of the said term attend at the or other places appointed by the Master during such hours as may be from time to time arranged to receive instruction in all or any of the following subjects or matters, viz., navigation, signalling, the making, fixing and mending of fishing nets, general seamanship, cooking and other subjects appertaining to the fishing industry; and the Master agrees that he will allow the Apprentice reasonable time for such attendance.

(11) If during the probationary period hereinbefore referred to or upon the first attendance of the Master and Apprentice before the Superintendent at the expiration thereof in pursuance of the covenant hereinbefore contained, the Superintendent is of opinion in all the circumstances of the case that it will not be desirable in the interest of the Apprentice to allow this Indenture to remain in force, or—

If at any time during the continuance of the said term of Apprenticeship the Superintendent is of opinion that the Master is or will be unable within a reasonable period to provide the Apprentice with such service as is intended and permitted under this Indenture,—

The Superintendent shall in either event have power to cancel and determine this Indenture from such date and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such payments by way of compensation or adjustment of accounts between the Master and Apprentice as the Superintendent may deem to be just and proper in the circumstances of the case and he may thereupon certify the same on the back hereof under the letter "E." Upon such certificate being signed and notified to the Master and Apprentice it shall take effect according to the terms thereof and be binding upon the parties and any amount payable thereunder to the Apprentice shall be recoverable as wages due to him. And any amount payable thereunder to the Master may be paid to him out of the fund (if any) then standing in the name of the Apprentice in the Seamen's Savings Bank.

(12) Breaches of agreement or discipline alleged to have been committed by the Apprentice during the probationary period shall not be taken before any Court for adjudication unless and until the Superintendent shall have declined to inquire into or adjudicate upon the same.

(13) For the performance of the covenants, conditions, terms and stipulations contained in the body and on the back of this Indenture the Master binds himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators unto the Apprentice his executors and administrators in the penal sum of £ : Provided that notwithstanding the penal stipulations herein contained any Justice or Justices of the Peace may exercise such jurisdiction in respect of the Apprentice as he or they might have exercised if no such stipulations had been herein contained.

In Witness whereof the Master and Apprentice have executed this Indenture.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 14th day of January, in the year 1915, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘The said Benefice’) of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, (formerly Crown-street), Soho, Westminster, in the City of Westminster, and in the Diocese of London.

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, Soho, Westminster, is vested for an estate in fee simple, in possession, free from incumbrances, in the Reverend John Henry Cardwell, of Chapel House, Mattock-lane, Ealing, W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in London, Frederick George Brunton Trevor, of Redholme, Richmond, in the County of Surrey, Esquire, C.I.E., and William Charles Beasley Robinson, of 6 and 7, Great Tower-street, E.C., Esquire, (hereinafter called ‘The said Trustees’) upon trusts declared in relation thereto by a Deed dated the 30th day of May, in the year 1856, and made between the Reverend Nugent Wade, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector of the Rectory of Saint Anne, Soho, Westminster, of the first part, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of London, of the second part, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria's Commissioners for Building New Churches of the third part, and the said Nugent Wade, the Reverend Bartholomew Price, Clerk in Holy Orders, Professor of Natural History in the University of Oxford, Mary Shephard, of Tunbridge Wells, in the County of Kent, Spinster, and John Charles Sharpe, of Fleet-street, in the City of London, Banker, of the fourth part.

“And whereas the said Trustees are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, Soho, Westminster, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, now Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric.

“And whereas the said Arthur Foley, now Bishop of London, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, Soho, Westminster, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson, so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say, in the New Parish of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, Soho, Westminster.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Trustees (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Mary, Charing Cross-road, Soho, Westminster, now vested in them the said Trustees as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

Almeric FitzRoy.

"Treaty" includes any capitulations, convention, agreement or arrangement made by or on behalf of His Majesty with any State or Government, King, Chief, people, or tribe, or to the benefits of which His Majesty has succeeded, whether the Sultan is or is not a party thereto.

"Will" means will, codicil, or other testamentary instrument.

Expressions used in any enactments applied to Maskat or in any rules, regulations, or orders made under this Order, shall, unless a contrary intention appears, have the same respective meanings in this Order.

5.—(1.) In this Order words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing or to more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to the feminine, as the case may require.

(2.) Where this Order confers any power or imposes any duty, then, unless a contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

(3.) Where this Order confers a power, or imposes a duty on, or with respect to, a holder of an office as such, then, unless a contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by, or with respect to, the holder for the time being of the office or the person temporarily acting for the holder.

(4.) Where this Order confers a power to make any rules, regulations, or orders, the power shall, unless a contrary intention appears, be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like consent, and conditions, if any, to rescind, revoke, vary, or amend the rules, regulations, or orders.

(5.) This article shall apply to the construction of any regulations, rules, or orders made under this Order, unless a contrary intention appears.

6. Where this Order refers to any specified Act or Acts of Parliament, such reference shall, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to include any Act or Acts amending or substituted for the same.

7. In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from Maskat of the Political Agent for the time being, all and every the powers, authorities, and immunities by this Order granted to him shall, until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified through the Governor-General of India in Council, be vested in the Political Resident.

8. The powers conferred by this Order shall extend to the persons and matters following, in so far as by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means His Majesty has jurisdiction in relation to such persons, matters, and things, that is to say:—

(1.) British subjects, as herein defined, within the limits of this Order.

(2.) Maskat subjects registered in the Political Agency as being in the regular service of British subjects; with the proviso that all cases wherein such Maskat subjects are concerned shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Part V. of this Order.

(3.) Foreigners with respect to whom any State, King, Chief, or Government, whose subjects, or under whose protection they are, has, by any Treaty as herein defined or otherwise agreed with His Majesty for, or consented to the exercise of power or authority by His Majesty.

(4.) Maskat subjects and foreigners, other than those within sub-articles (2) and (3), in the cases and according to the conditions specified in this Order and not otherwise.

(5.) The property and all personal or proprietary rights and liabilities within the said limits of British subjects and of Maskat subjects within sub-article (2), whether such persons are themselves within or without the limits of this Order.

(6.) British ships with their boats, and the persons and property on board thereof, or belonging thereto, being within the limits of this Order.

9. All His Majesty's jurisdiction exercisable within the limits of this Order for the hearing and determination of criminal and civil matters, or for the maintenance of order, or for the control or administration of persons or property, or in relation thereto, shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of this Order, so far as this Order extends and applies.

10. Every judge and officer of the Courts established under this Order shall, as far as there is proper opportunity, promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse to litigation, of matters in difference between persons subject to this Order, or between persons subject to this Order and persons who are not subject to this Order, within the limits of this Order.

PART II.—APPLICATION OF LAW OF BRITISH INDIA AND OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

11.—(1.) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, and to any Treaties for the time being in force relating to Maskat, His Majesty's criminal and civil jurisdiction in Maskat shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of, and in conformity with, the enactments for the time being applicable as hereinafter mentioned of the Governor-General of India in Council, and of the Governor of Bombay in Council, and in accordance with the powers vested in, and the course of procedure and practice observed by and before the Courts in the Presidency of Bombay beyond the limits of the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay, according to their respective jurisdiction and authority, and so far as such enactments, powers, procedure, and practice are inapplicable, shall be exercised in accordance with justice, equity, and good conscience.

(2.) The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall as from the commencement of this Order apply to all persons subject to this Order.

(3.) Any other existing or future enactments of the Governor-General of India in Council, or of the Governor of Bombay in Council, may be applied to Maskat by King's Regulations under Article 78 of this Order.

(4.) Any Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, or of the Governor of Bombay in Council, whether passed before or after the commencement of this Order, amending or substituted for any Act of either of those Legislatures which applies or may be applied to Maskat, shall, subject to the provisions of this Article, also apply to Maskat.

(5.) The Court may construe any enactments in force in Maskat, under the provisions of this Article, with such alterations not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt the same to the matter before the Court.

12. The enactments described in the first Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, shall apply to Maskat, as if it were a British Colony or Possession, but subject to the provisions of this Order, and to the exceptions, adaptations, and modifications following, that is to say:—

(i.) The Political Resident in the Persian Gulf is hereby substituted for the Governor of a Colony or British Possession, and the Chief Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court or Supreme Court, and the District Court for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of a Colony or British Possession.

(ii.) For the portions of the Merchant

Shipping Acts, 1854 and 1867, referred to in the said Schedule, shall be substituted Part XIII. of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

(iii.) In section 51 of the Conveyancing (Scotland) Act, 1874, the Court of the Political Agent is substituted for a Court of Probate in a Colony.

(iv.) With respect to the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881:—

(a.) So much of the 4th and 5th sections of the said Act as relates to sending a report of the issue of a warrant, together with the information, or a copy thereof, or to the sending of a certificate of committal and report of a case, or to the information to be given by a Magistrate to a fugitive, shall be excepted, and in lieu of such information the person acting as the Magistrate shall inform the fugitive that in the British Possession or Protectorate to which he may be conveyed he has the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or other like process.

(b.) So much of the 6th section of the said Act as requires the expiration of fifteen days before issue of warrant shall be excepted.

(c.) The Political Resident shall not be bound to return a fugitive offender to a British Possession unless satisfied that the proceedings to obtain his return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that Possession.

(d.) For the purpose of Part II. of the said Act, Bahrein, Maskat, the Persian Coast and Islands, and all other places on the shores of the Persian Gulf or the Gulf of Oman, Aden, and British India, shall be deemed to be one group of British Possessions.

13. Where, by virtue of any Imperial Act, or of this Order, or otherwise, any provisions of any Imperial Acts, or of any Law in force in India, or of any Orders in Council other than this Order, are applicable within the limits of this Order, or any forms, regulations, or procedure prescribed or established by or under such Act, Law, or Order, are made applicable for any purpose of this Order, or any other Order relating to Maskat, such Acts, Laws, Orders, forms, regulations, or procedure may be construed or used with such alterations and adaptations not affecting the substance as may be necessary having regard to local circumstances, and anything required to be done by, to, or before any Court, Judge, Officer, or Authority may be done by, to, or before a Court, Judge, Officer, or Authority, having the like or analogous functions, or by, to, or before any Officer designated by the Secretary of State or by the Court (as the case may require) for that purpose; and in case any difficulty occurs in the application the Secretary of State, or with his previous or subsequent assent the Governor-General of India in Council, may direct by, to, or before whom and in what manner anything is to be done, and such Act, Law, Order, form, regulation, or procedure shall be construed accordingly.

Where, under any such Imperial Act, Law, or Order, any publication is required to be made, as respects any judicial proceeding in any "Gazette" or otherwise, such publication shall be made by such mode as the Court shall think fit to direct.

PART III.—CRIMINAL.

14.—(1.) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Criminal Procedure and the other enactments relating to the administration of criminal justice in British India for the time being shall be applicable to Maskat. The Political Resident in the Persian Gulf shall hold and form a Court, to be called the Chief Court, which shall have all the powers of a High Court of Judicature; the Political Agent at Maskat shall be deemed to be the District Magistrate and Sessions Judge; the Judicial Assistant to the Political Resident shall be deemed to be the additional District Magistrate and additional Sessions Judge; and the powers of the Governor-General in Council and of the Local Government under those enactments shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council.

Notwithstanding, in any case triable by a subordinate Magistrate under Chapters XVI. to XXIII. inclusive of the Indian Penal Code, if both the complainant and defendant are Mohammedans and are acquiescent in such procedure, the Political Agent may order the case to be tried by a Qazi, a representative from the Agency attending to record briefly the proceedings. In such suits the judgment passed by the Qazi cannot be carried into effect until it is ratified by the Political Agent, and the Political Agent is empowered to revise the finding and sentence as if the Qazi were a subordinate Magistrate, or to return the case for retrial to the same or another Qazi. The sentence of the Qazi, when ratified by the Political Agent, shall for all purposes be regarded as if it were the decision of the Political Agent in the District Court.

(2.) Any jurisdiction exercisable by the Chief Court in criminal matters under this Order may be exercised by the Judge of that Court either within the limits of this Order or elsewhere.

15. In cases in which the Code of Criminal Procedure requires the sentence of a Court of Session to be confirmed by the High Court, the sentence shall be referred for confirmation to the Governor-General of India in Council instead of to the Chief Court.

16. Where a person subject to this Order is accused of the commission of an offence the cognisance whereof appertains to the Court, and it is expedient that the offence be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in a British Possession, the accused may (under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, section 6) be sent for trial to Bombay.

The Chief Court may, where it appears so expedient, by warrant under the hand and seal of the Political Resident, cause the accused to be sent for trial to Bombay accordingly.

The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at Bombay, according to the warrant.

Where any person is to be sent to Bombay, the Court before which he is charged shall take the preliminary examination, and shall bind over such of the proper witnesses as are British subjects in their own recognisances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

17.—(1.) The Political Resident may by General Order prescribe the manner in which, and the places at which, sentences of imprisonment are to be carried into execution within the limits of the Order.

(2.) The Court may in any case by warrant, sealed with its seal, cause an offender convicted and sentenced to imprisonment before the Court to be removed to, and imprisoned in, any place that shall be prescribed by the Political Resident under the authority provided for in subsection (1) of this article.

18. Where an offender convicted before any Court under this Order is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Political Resident proceeding under section 7 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect elsewhere than within the limits of this Order, and the offender is accordingly sent for imprisonment to a place outside the limits of this Order, the place shall be either a place in the Presidency of Bombay, or a place in some other part of His Majesty's Dominions, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this article, or a place in which by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means His Majesty has jurisdiction, provided that if a person is not a British subject he shall only be sent under this article to a place in His Majesty's Dominions.

19.—(1.) In cases of murder or culpable homicide, if either the death or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death happened in Maskat, a Court acting under this Order shall have the like jurisdiction over any person to whom this Order applies who is charged either as a principal offender or as an abettor as if both such criminal act and the death had happened in Maskat.

(2.) In the case of any offence committed on the high seas or within the Admiralty jurisdiction by any person who at the time of committing such offence was on board a British ship, or by any British subject on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, have jurisdiction over such person as if the offence had been committed within its jurisdiction.

(3.) In cases tried under this article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the crime were tried there.

(4.) The foregoing provisions of this article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, of the following enactments, namely:—

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849;

The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860;

The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, Part XIII;

and those enactments shall apply accordingly, and be administered in Maskat.

20. Where a person is convicted of an offence, the Court before which he is convicted may, if it thinks fit at any time before he is discharged, require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, cause him to come or be brought before the Court.

21.—(1.) Where it is shown by evidence on oath, to the satisfaction of the District Court, that any British subject has committed, or is about to commit, an offence against this Order, or is otherwise conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order, or is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of Maskat and His Majesty, or is intriguing within the limits of this Order against His Majesty's power and authority, the Court may, if it thinks fit, by order under its seal, prohibit that person from being within the limits of this Order, during any time therein specified, not exceeding two years.

(2.) The Court, by order in writing under its seal, may vary any order of prohibition (not extending the duration thereof), and may revoke any order of prohibition or removal.

(3.) The Court shall forthwith report the order and the grounds thereof to the Chief Court, which shall forthwith report to the Governor-General of India in Council every order made under this article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

22.—(1.) If any British subject fails to give security for good behaviour or for keeping the peace when lawfully required to do so, or fails to comply with an order of prohibition made under this Order, the Chief Court or the District Court may, if it thinks fit, order that he be deported from any place within its jurisdiction as prescribed by this Order.

(2.) If the order of deportation is made by the District Court, it shall forthwith report to the Chief Court the order and the grounds thereof.

(3.) Thereupon the person ordered to be deported shall, unless the Chief Court thinks fit otherwise to direct, be as soon as practicable, and in the case of a person convicted either after execution of the sentence or while it is in course of execution, removed in custody under warrant to the place named in the warrant.

(4.) The place shall be a place in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, or in the British Protectorate, to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order.

(5.) The Court, on making an order of deportation, may, if it thinks fit, order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation, to be fixed by the Court in the order. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, or, with the previous or subsequent assent of the Secretary of State, the Governor-General of India in Council directs.

(6.) The Chief Court shall forthwith report to the Governor-General of India in Council every order of deportation made under this Order, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

(7.) If a person deported under this Order returns to Maskat without permission in writing of the Chief Court, or the Governor-General of India in Council, or the Secretary of State (which permission the Chief Court, or the Governor-General of India in Council, or the Secretary of State respectively may give), he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

(8.) He shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported under the original or a new order, and a fresh warrant.

23. An appeal shall not lie against an order of prohibition, of removal, or deportation made under this Order.

24.—(1.) Where under this Order a person is to be sent or removed or deported from any place within the jurisdiction of the Court as prescribed by this Order he shall, by warrant of the Court sealed with its seal, be detained, if necessary in custody, or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then be put on board a vessel belonging to, or in the service of, His Majesty, or, if no such vessel is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(2.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution, and to the Commanding Officer or Master of the vessel, to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to send or remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(3.) In case of sending or removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police, or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

25. If any person to whom this Order applies does any of the following things, namely:—

(1.) Wilfully by act or threat obstructs any Officer of, or person executing any process of, the Court in the performance of his duty; or

(2.) Within or close to the room or place where the Court is sitting wilfully misbehaves in a violent, threatening, or disrespectful manner to the disturbance of the Court, or to the intimidation of suitors or others resorting thereto; or

(3.) Wilfully insults any member of the Court, or any assessor, or any person acting as a Clerk or Officer of the Court during his sitting or attendance in Court, or in his going to or returning from Court; or

(4.) Does any act in relation to the Court or a Judge thereof, or a matter pending therein, which, if done in relation to a Superior Court in England or in India, would be punishable as a contempt of such Court, or as a libel on such Court or the Judges thereof, or the administration of justice therein; such person shall be liable to be apprehended by order of the Court with or without warrant, and, on enquiry and consideration, and after the hearing of any defence which such person may offer, without further process or trial, to be punished with a fine not exceeding 100 rupees, or with imprisonment not exceeding twenty-four hours.

A Minute shall be made and kept of every such case of punishment, recording the facts of the offence and the extent of the punishment.

Provided that, if the Court thinks fit, instead of proceeding under the preceding provisions, it may direct or cause the offender to be tried in a separate criminal prosecution or proceeding, in which the offender shall be liable to any punishment to which he would be liable if the offence were committed in relation to the Court of a Sessions Judge in India.

Nothing herein shall interfere with the power of the Court to remove or exclude persons who interrupt or obstruct the proceedings of the Court.

26. If any person to whom this Order applies smuggles or imports into or exports from Maskat any goods whereon any duty is charged by or payable to the Sultan, with intent to evade payment of the duty, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or a sum equal to treble the value of the goods (whichever shall be the greater), or with both imprisonment and fine.

27. If any person to whom this Order applies smuggles or imports into or exports from Maskat any goods the importation or exportation whereof is lawfully prohibited, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with a fine which may extend to 2,000 rupees, or to a sum equal to treble the value of the goods (whichever shall be the greater), or with imprisonment and fine.

28. Any act which, if done in British India, would be an offence against the law for the time being in force in British India, relating to trade-marks, merchandise marks, copyright designs, or inventions, shall, if done in Maskat by a person to whom this Order applies, be an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

29.—(1.) If any person to whom this Order applies—

(i.) Publicly derides, mocks, or insults any religion established or observed within the limits of this Order; or

(ii.) Publicly offers insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any place within those limits, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any religion established or observed within those limits, or belonging to the ministers or professors thereof; or

(iii.) Publicly and wilfully commits any act tending to bring any religion established or observed within those limits, or its ceremonies, modes of worship, or observances into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace;

he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof liable to imprisonment, which may extend to two years, with or without a fine not exceeding 500 rupees, or to a fine alone not exceeding 500 rupees.

(2.) The Political Agent shall take such precautionary measures as seem to him proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

30. Any person being within the limits of this Order may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for piracy wherever committed.

31. If any person subject to this Order violates, or fails to observe within the limits of this Order, any stipulation of any Treaty between His Majesty, his predecessors, heirs, or successors, and the Sultan, for the time being in force, and applicable to such person, in respect of the violation whereof any penalty is stipulated for in the Treaty, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof under this Order shall be liable to a penalty in accordance with the stipulations of the Treaty or the provisions of this Order.

32. The Foreign Jurisdiction Neutrality Order in Council, 1904, shall apply to all persons and to all property subject to this Order.

33. Where a person entitled to appeal to the Chief Court from any judgment or order passed in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under this Order desires so to appeal, he shall present his petition of appeal to the Court which passed the judgment or order; and the petition shall with all practicable speed be transmitted to the Chief Court with certified copies of the charge (if any) and proceedings, of all documentary evidence submitted or tendered, of the depositions, of the notes of the oral testimony, and of the judgment or order, and any argument on the petition of appeal that the appellant desires to submit to the Chief Court.

34. The Court against whose judgment or order the appeal is preferred may postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal, and shall, if necessary, commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or detain him in prison for safe custody, or shall admit him to bail, and may take security, by recognisance, deposit of money, or otherwise, for his payment of any fine.

PART IV.—CIVIL MATTERS.

35.—(1.) Subject to the other provisions of this Order, the Code of Civil Procedure and the other Indian enactments relating to the administration of civil justice and to insolvency and bankruptcy, shall have effect as if Maskat were a district in the Presidency of Bombay. The Political Agent shall be deemed to be the District Judge, and his Court shall be deemed to be the District or Principal Civil Court of Original Jurisdiction in the district; the Judicial Assistant to the Political Resident shall be deemed to be an additional District Judge, and his Court shall be an additional District Court of Original Civil Jurisdiction; the Court of the Political Resident shall be deemed to be the highest Civil Court of Appeal for the district, and the Court authorized to hear appeals from the decisions of the District Court; and the powers, both of the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government under those enactments, shall be exercisable by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council.

(2.) Any jurisdiction exercisable by the Chief Court under this Order in civil matters may be exercised by the Judge of that Court, either within the limits of this Order or elsewhere.

36. When a suit between persons to whom this Order applies is filed in the Political Agency, the Political Agent shall enquire from the several parties whether they desire that proceedings shall be instituted in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure and the Indian enactments made applicable to Maskat, or in accordance with local usage, and shall record their replies.

37. When any of the several parties desire that the suit shall be determined in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure and other enactments made applicable to Maskat, the District Court shall forthwith proceed to decide the suit in accordance with the provisions of such enactments, as far as local conditions permit.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the District Court from referring any matter in the progress of a suit which involves a point of Mohammedan law to a Qazi for decision, or from sending any party or witness, being a Mohammedan, to a Qazi for the administration of an oath; or from referring any matter in the progress of a suit between parties belonging to the same community which, in the discretion of the Court, is a fit and proper subject for the decision of the local leaders of that community, to a punch or jama'at of the leaders of such community; or, in commercial cases, from referring any matter in the progress of a suit which, in the discretion of the Court, is a fit and proper subject for the decision of the principal local merchants to a punch or jama'at of such merchants.

38.—(1.) The Foreign Jurisdiction (Admiralty) Order in Council, 1910, shall apply to Maskat, and the Chief Court shall have the jurisdiction conferred by Article 4 of that Order, and the District Court shall be deemed to be a Provincial Court, and the Registry thereof a District Registry within the meaning of the said Order.

(2.) Admiralty actions commenced in the said Registry shall be tried in the District Court, unless the Chief Court is at the time sitting within the limits of this Order, or unless all parties agree that the action shall be tried in the Chief Court sitting elsewhere than within the limits of this Order.

(3.) The duties of the Registrar and of the Marshal, either of the Chief Court or of the District Court, under the said Order shall be performed by such Officers as the Political Resident shall direct.

(4.) Nothing in this Order shall prevent the Political Agent from exercising all such jurisdiction in matters arising out of the Slave Trade as is conferred on him under the Slave Trade (East African Courts) Acts, 1873 and 1879.

39.—(1.) The District Court shall endeavour to obtain, as early as may be, notice of the deaths of all British subjects leaving property in any place within the jurisdiction of the Court as prescribed by this Order, and all such information as may serve to guide the Court with respect to the securing and administration of their property.

(2.) On receiving notice of the death of such a person the Court shall put up a notice thereof at the Court-house, and shall keep the same there until probate or administration is granted, or, where it appears to the Court that probate or administration will not be applied for or cannot be granted, for such time as it thinks fit.

(3.) The Court shall, where the circumstances of the case appear so to require, as soon as may be, take possession of the property left by the deceased in any place within the jurisdiction of the Court as prescribed by this Order, or put it under its seal (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law; perishable articles being disposed of as the Court may consider best in the interests of the State.

(4.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Court in so doing shall be the first charge on the property of the deceased, and the Court shall, by sale of part of that property, or otherwise, provide for the discharge of these expenses.

(5.) When a British subject dies within the jurisdiction of the Court, as prescribed by this Order, intestate, his property, or so much thereof as is within those limits, shall, until administration is granted, vest in the Political Agent.

40. If a person to whom this Order applies, who is named executor in a will, and to the establishment of whose title as such it is necessary to obtain probate of that will, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, and does not obtain probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any proceeding respecting probate or administration, he shall be liable to pay double the amount of any fees chargeable on obtaining probate, and he shall also be liable to a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

41. If any person to whom this Order applies, other than the person named executor, or the administrator, or a person entitled to represent the deceased without obtaining probate or letters of administration, or an Officer of the Court, takes possession of and administers, or otherwise deals with, any part of the property of the deceased, he shall, as soon as practicable, notify the fact and the circumstances to the District Court, and shall furnish to the Court all such information as the Court requires, and shall conform to any direction of the Court in relation to the custody, disposal, or transmission of the property or the proceeds thereof, and, in case of any contravention of this Article, he shall be punished with a fine, which may extend to 1,000 rupees.

42.—(1.) When the peculiar circumstances of the case appear to the District Court so to require, for reasons recorded in its proceedings, the Court may, if it thinks fit, of its own motion or otherwise, grant letters of administration to an Officer of the Court.

(2.) The Officer so appointed shall act under the direction of the Court, and shall be indemnified thereby.

(3.) He shall publish such notices, if any, as the Court thinks fit, in Maskat, the Persian Coast and Islands, Bombay, the United Kingdom, and elsewhere.

(4.) The Court shall require and compel him to file in the proper Office of the Court, his accounts of his administration at intervals not exceeding three months, and shall forthwith examine them and report thereon to the Chief Court.

(5.) The accounts shall be audited under the direction of the District Court.

(6.) All expenses incurred on behalf of the Court in execution of this article shall be the first charge on the estate of the deceased as dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Order; and the Court shall, by the sale of that estate or otherwise, provide for the discharge of those expenses.

43. In cases where parties are Mohammedans the District Court may refer any question concerning probate of wills or administration of property of deceased persons to whom this Order applied to a Qazi for settlement under the general supervision of the Court.

PART V.—MASKAT AND FOREIGN SUBJECTS AND TRIBUNALS.

(a.) Criminal.

44.—(1.) When any person not subject to this Order desires to institute a complaint against a person to whom the said Order applies, the Political Agent shall entertain the same, and shall (a) himself hear and determine it in his District Court, or (b) if both parties are Mohammedans, refer it, with their consent, to a Qazi for decision, sending a representative of the Agency to record briefly the proceedings. Such decision, when endorsed by the Political Agent, shall for all purposes be considered as if it were that of the District Court.

(2.) Provided that the Maskat subject or person not subject to this Order, if so required by the Court, first obtains and files in the proper Office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any) on behalf of his own nation to his submitting, and that he does submit by writing, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, and damages, and abide by and perform the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(3.) A cross suit shall not be brought in the Court against the plaintiff, being a person not subject to this Order.

(4.) When a person to whom this Order applies desires to institute a complaint against a person not subject to the said Order, who is a subject either of the Sultan or of some other non-Christian Power not represented by a Consular Official in Maskat, the Political Agent shall entertain the same, and, after satisfying himself that prima facie grounds for complaint exist, shall cause the matter to be brought before and decided by the highest authority of the Sultan, or some person specially delegated by him for the purpose. The proceedings and final decision in a case shall not, however, be considered legal unless notice has been given and an opportunity afforded for the Political Agent or Officer appointed by him for the purpose to attend at the hearing and final decision.

(b.) Civil.

45.—(1.) When any person not subject to this Order desires to bring a suit against a person to whom the said Order applies, the Political Agent shall admit the complaint, and may (a) hear and determine the suit in his District Court, or (b) with the consent of the several parties, may refer the case to one or more arbitrators for settlement.

(2.) Provided that the Maskat subject or person not subject to this Order, if required by the Court, first obtains and files in the proper Office of the Court the consent, in writing, of the competent authority (if any), on behalf of his own nation, to his submitting, and that he does submit, by writing, to the jurisdiction of the Court, and, if required by the Court, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such reasonable amount as the Court thinks fit, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, and damages, and abide by and perform the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(3.) A cross suit shall not be brought in the Court against a plaintiff, being a person not subject to this Order.

(4.) When a person to whom this Order applies desires to institute a suit against a person not subject to the said Order, who is a subject either of the Sultan or of some other non-Christian Power not represented by British Officials in Maskat, the Political Agent shall admit the same, and after satisfying himself that prima facie grounds for bringing a suit exist, shall cause the matter to be brought before and decided by the highest authority of the Sultan, or some person specially delegated by him for the purpose. The proceedings and final decision in a case shall not, however, be considered legal unless notice has been given and an opportunity afforded for the Political Agent, or Officer appointed by him for the purpose, to attend at the hearing and final decision.

(5.) The award of the Arbitrator under sub-article 1 (3) shall be final, and shall not be open to appeal unless the same shall within a reasonable time have been ordered by the Political Agent to be set aside on the ground that it is not final, or is defective, or that the Arbitrator has exceeded his authority, or has been guilty of misconduct in the matter.

(6.) Nothing herein mentioned shall prevent the District Court from referring any matter in the progress of a suit which involves a point of Mohammedan law to a Qazi for decision, or from sending any party or witness, being a Mohammedan, to a Qazi for the administration of an oath.

46.—(1.) Where a person to whom this Order does not apply obtains, in a Court established under this Order, a decree or order against a defendant being a British subject, and in another suit that defendant is plaintiff and the person to whom this Order does not apply is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subject, stay the enforcement of the decree or order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit.

(2.) Where a plaintiff, being a person to whom this Order does not apply, obtains a decree or order, in a Court established under this Order, against two or more defendants being British subjects, jointly, and in another suit one of them is a plaintiff and the Maskat subject is defendant, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the British subjects, stay the enforcement of the decree or order pending that other suit, and may set off any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by one party in one suit against any amount decreed or ordered to be paid by the other party in the other suit, without prejudice to the right of the British subject to obtain contribution from his co-defendants under the joint liability.

(3.) Where in a suit a person to whom this Order does not apply is co-plaintiff with a British subject, who is in Maskat, it shall not be necessary for the Maskat subject to give security under this Article as regards fees and costs, unless the Court so directs, but the co-plaintiff British subject shall be responsible for all fees and costs.

47.—(1.) Every agreement for reference to arbitration between a person to whom this Order applies on the one hand, and a person not subject to the said Order, on the other hand, may, on the application of any party, be filed for execution in the Office of the Court.

(2.) The Court shall thereupon have authority to enforce the agreement, and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings before and after the award in such manner and on such terms as the Court may think fit, in concert with the Sultan or his representative.

(c.) General.

48.—(1.) Where it is proved that the attendance of a person, to whom this Order applies, to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required before a Maskat Tribunal, a Court established under this Order may, if it thinks fit, in a case and in circumstances in which the Court would require the attendance of that person before the Court, order that he do attend as required.

(2.) If the person ordered to attend, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall, independently of any other liability, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

49. When a person to whom this Order applies invokes or submits to the jurisdiction of a Maskat Tribunal, and engages in writing to abide by the decision of that Tribunal, or to pay any fees or expenses ordered by that Tribunal to be paid by him, the Court may, on such evidence as it thinks fit to require, enforce payment of such fees and expenses in the same manner as if they were fees payable in a proceeding in the Court, and shall pay over and account for the same, when levied, to the proper Maskat authority, as the Court may direct.

50.—(1.) If a person to whom this Order applies wilfully gives false evidence in a proceeding before a Maskat Tribunal, or in an arbitration between a person to whom this Order applies, on the one hand, and a person to whom this Order does not apply, on the other hand, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall, on conviction, be liable to be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

(2.) Nothing in this article shall exempt a person from liability under any other British Indian law to any other or higher punishment or penalty:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

PART VI.—REGISTRATION.

51. A register of British subjects shall be kept in the Political Agency.

52.—(1.) Every British subject resident in Maskat, being of the age of 21 years or upwards, or being married, or a widower, or a widow, though under that age, shall, in the month of January of every year, register himself, or renew his registration certificate, at the Political Agency.

(2.) A British subject arriving in Maskat must apply for registration within one month after arrival in Maskat:

Provided that a person who fails to apply for or to obtain registration within the time limited by this article may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the Political Agent.

53. The registration of a man shall comprise the registration of his wife, or wives, if living with him; and the registration of the head of a family shall comprise the registration of all females and minors, being his relatives, in whatever degree, living under the same roof with him at the time of his registration.

54.—(1.) The Political Agent shall, on the first registration of any person, issue to him a certificate of registration signed and sealed.

(2.) On the renewal of a registration the old certificate of registration shall be produced, or its absence accounted for to the satisfaction of the Political Agent.

(3.) The renewal of a registration shall, unless the Political Agent thinks fit to issue a new certificate, be effected by an endorsement on the old certificate.

(4.) Where a new certificate is issued, the Political Agent may require the old certificate to be delivered up to him.

(5.) The names and descriptions of females and minors whose registration is under the provisions of this Order, comprised in that of the head of the family, may be endorsed on the certificate of the head of the family.

55. Every person, who has not previously been registered, applying to be registered under this Order shall, unless excused by the Political Agent, attend personally for that purpose at the Political Agency; but no person applying for the renewal of his registration need attend personally unless directed by the Political Agent so to do.

56.—(1.) Every person shall, on every registration of himself and on every renewal of the registration, pay a fee of 1 rupee, or such other fee as the Secretary of State from time to time appoints. The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes, if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed 2 rupees.

(2.) Where any person applies to be registered, he shall be entitled to the assistance of the Political Agent in the preparation of any affidavit that may be required for the purposes of such registration without a fee.

57. If any British subject neglects to obtain registration under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject in Maskat, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 25 rupees for each instance of such failure; but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts established by this Order.

58.—(1.) A person not of Asiatic or African descent arriving in Maskat and applying to be registered as a British subject shall be so registered if the Political Agent is satisfied, after such enquiry as he may deem fit, that he is entitled to the status of a British subject.

(2.) A person of Asiatic or African descent arriving in Maskat and applying to be registered as a British subject shall be so registered if he (a) produces a passport as a British subject from British India or a British Possession or Protectorate; or (b) files an affidavit or sworn declaration showing that he was born within His Majesty's Dominions or within the territory of any Prince or State in India under the suzerainty or in alliance with His Majesty, or in a British Protectorate, or that he has been naturalised in the United Kingdom; and (c) in either case gives satisfactory evidence of his identity.

In the case of a person of Maskat origin his registration shall be subject to the proviso that the Sultan has no reasonable grounds to claim him as a Maskat subject while in Oman territory, or consents in writing to his being registered as a British subject.

59.—(a) A person born in Maskat, being the child of a British subject, may be registered as a British subject if it is proved that the father (1) was registered as a British subject, or (2), being entitled, was prevented from being so registered by causes for which he was not responsible.

(b.) The Political Agent may, without fee, register any British subjects, being minors, living in the houses of foreigners or Maskat subjects.

60.—(a.) British subjects and British-protected persons are prohibited from alienating to or acquiring from any person of whatever nationality any land or household property within the dominions of the Sultan, either by gift, purchase, mortgage, or other form of conveyance, without due execution of signature and registration previous to the transfer of such property by the Political Agent.

Any British subject charged with any breach of this paragraph shall be liable to, and on conviction punishable under this Order by, a fine up to 500 rupees, or to the total value of the property purporting to be so transferred, or imprisonment up to one calendar month or both.

(b.) Any such deed, or instrument of gift, purchase, mortgage, or other form of conveyance, purporting to transfer property otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of 60 (a) may, on that ground alone, be declared void and of no effect by any Court acting under this Order.

61. A register of companies incorporated or registered in the United Kingdom or in any British Possession, and carrying on business in Maskat, shall be kept in the Political Agency.

62. On the registration of a company at the Political Agency, there shall be deposited and filed a copy of the certificate of incorporation of the company or other document corresponding thereto, a statement showing the nominal capital of the company and the amounts thereof which have been subscribed and paid up respectively, and, if the company has been incorporated under a law which provides for the periodical filing of a list of the shareholders, a copy of the last list so filed.

63. The Political Agent shall, on the registration of a company at the Political Agency, issue to the person making the registration a certificate, signed and sealed, that the company has been so registered.

64.—(1.) Every company registered under this Order shall register the name and address of the manager or other chief local representative in Maskat, and shall from time to time, as may be necessary, register any alteration of the representative of the company or in his address,

(2.) Rules of Court made under Article 68 may provide that service of writs, notices, or other documents upon the person registered under this article, or at his address, shall be good service of such documents upon the company.

65. Registration of a company under this Order shall not require to be renewed annually, but may be renewed from time to time as the parties may desire, and must be renewed when any change takes place in the name of the company.

66. On every registration of a company under this Order, and on every renewal thereof, there shall be payable a fee of 10 rupees, and on every registration under Article 64 (1) there shall be payable a fee of 1 rupee.

67.—(1.) A company shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British company unless it is registered under this Order, but shall, although not so registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts established by this Order.

(2.) Nothing in this article shall affect the right of the Secretary of State to direct that the British protection shall not be accorded to a company, even though it has been registered under this Order.

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

68. Subject to the control of the Secretary of State, the Political Resident may, from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, make rules of procedure and other rules, consistent with this Order, for the better execution of the provisions herein contained in respect of any matter arising in the course of any civil or criminal case, including insolvency and bankruptcy proceedings.

69.—(1.) Subject to the control of the Secretary of State acting with the concurrence of the Treasury, the Political Resident may from time to time, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council, make rules imposing fees leviable in respect of any proceedings in, or processes issued out of, any Court established under this Order.

(2.) But a Court before which any matter is pending may, in any case, if it thinks fit, on account of the poverty of a party, or for any other reason, dispense in whole or in part with the payment of any fees chargeable in respect of such matter.

70.—(1.) All fees, charges, expenses, costs, fines, damages, and other money payable under this Order, or under any law made applicable by this Order, may be enforced under order of the Court by seizure and sale of goods, and, in default of sufficient goods, by imprisonment as a civil prisoner for a term not exceeding one month, but such imprisonment shall not operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of the liability.

(2.) Any bill of sale or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with the view of avoiding such seizure or sale, shall not be effectual to defeat the provisions of this Order.

(3.) All fees, penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under this Order upon a British subject, and fees, other than actual Court fees, that may be levied under the provisions of this Order, on a person to whom this Order applies, shall be paid to the public account, and shall be applied in such manner as the Secretary of State, with the consent of the Treasury, or, with the previous or subsequent assent of the Secretary of State, as the Governor-General of India in Council, may direct.

71. Whenever an Acting Political Agent or Acting Judicial Assistant has commenced the hearing of any cause or matter, civil or criminal, he may, unless the Political Resident otherwise directs, continue and complete the hearing and determination thereof, notwithstanding that his authority to act as Political Agent or Judicial Assistant has otherwise ceased by reason of the expiration of the time for which he was appointed to act, or by reason of the happening of any event by which his authority is determined.

72.—(1.) If an Officer of the Court, employed to execute a decree or order, loses, by neglect or omission, the opportunity of executing it, then, on complaint of the person aggrieved and proof of the fact alleged, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order the Officer to pay the damages sustained by the person complaining, or part thereof.

(2.) The order may be enforced as an order directing payment of money.

73.—(1.) If a Clerk or Officer of the Court, acting under pretence of the process or authority of the Court, is charged with extortion, or with not paying over money duly levied, or with other misconduct, the Court may, if it thinks fit, enquire into the charge in a summary way, and may for that purpose summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary persons as in a suit, and may make such order for the repayment of any money extorted, or for the payment over of any money levied, and for payment of such damages and costs as the Court thinks fit.

(2.) The Court may also, if it thinks fit, on the same enquiry, impose on the Clerk or Officer such fine, not exceeding 50 rupees for each offence, as the Court thinks fit.

(3.) A Clerk or Officer punished under this article shall not, without the leave of the Court, be liable to a civil suit in respect of the same matter; and any such suit, if already or afterwards begun, may be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) Nothing in this article shall be deemed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other British or British Indian law for any act or omission punishable under this article, or from being liable under that other law to any other or higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this article:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

74. The Political Resident or the Political Agent may exercise any power conferred on any Justices of the Peace within His Majesty's Dominions by any Act of Parliament, for the time being in force, regulating merchant seamen or the mercantile marine.

75. Where under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, anything is authorised to be done by, to, or before a Consular Officer, such thing may be done in any place in Maskat by, to, or before the Political Resident or the Political Agent.

76. The Political Resident and the Political

Agent shall each be entitled in Maskat to act as a Notary Public.

77. The Court shall have jurisdiction from time to time to make an order requiring a person to whom this Order applies to contribute in such manner as the Court directs to the support of his wife, or to the support of his or her child, whether legitimate or not, being, in the opinion of the Court, under the age of 16 years. Any such order may be made in a summary way, as if the neglect to provide for the support of such wife or child were an offence, and any failure to comply with any such order shall be deemed to be an offence, and shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding 10 rupees for any one default, and the Court may direct any penalty imposed for such offence to be applied for the support of such wife or child in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

78. The Political Resident shall have power to make Regulations (to be called King's Regulations) for the following purposes (that is to say):—

(a.) For the peace, order, and good government of persons to whom this Order applies in relation to matters not provided for by this Order.

(b.) For securing the observance of any Treaty or arrangement for the time being in force, relating to any place within the limits of this Order, or of any native or local law or custom, whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter.

(c.) For applying, amending, modifying, or repealing with respect to Maskat any Acts or enactments which apply, or are made applicable, or have been brought into operation in Maskat, by or under any of the provisions of Article 11 of this Order.

(d.) For regulating or preventing the importation or exportation in British ships, or by any person to whom this Order applies, of arms or munitions of war, or any parts or ingredients thereof, and for giving effect to any Treaty relating to the importation or exportation of the same.

(e.) For requiring returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into Maskat, by or on account of any person to whom this Order applies, or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which, and the persons by whom, such returns are to be made.

(f.) For the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons.

79.—(1.) Any Regulations made under the preceding article may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, or of any Treaty or any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

(2.) Any person to whom this Order applies committing a breach of any such Regulations shall, in addition to any forfeiture prescribed thereby, be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to a fine, or to both.

(3.) Any fine imposed for a breach of Regulation shall not exceed 1,500 rupees: provided that in the case of any breach of any native or local law relating to customs law, or under which the importation or exportation of any goods is prohibited or restricted, the fine may extend to a sum equivalent to treble the value of the goods in relation to which the breach is committed.

80.—(1.) King's Regulations shall not take effect until they are allowed by a Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council: provided that in case of urgency declared in any such Regulations the same shall take effect before such allowance, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are disallowed by the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, by the Governor-General of India in Council, and until notification of such disallowance is received and published by the Political Resident, and such disallowance shall be without prejudice to anything done or suffered under such Regulations in the meantime.

(2.) All King's Regulations shall be published by the Political Resident in such manner and at such places as he may think proper.

(3.) In this Order "breach of the Regulations" includes the breach of any native or local law or custom, the observance of which is required by any King's Regulations.

81. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof, and of the appointment of the Political Resident, Political Agent, and Judicial Assistant, and of the constitution and limits of the Courts and districts and of the seals and signatures, and of any rules and regulations made or in force under this Order, and no proof shall be required of any of such matters.

82. Nothing in this Order shall deprive the Political Resident, or an Officer subordinate to him, of the right to observe, and to enforce the observance of, or shall deprive any person of the benefit of, any reasonable custom existing in Maskat, unless this Order contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance thereof.

83. Nothing in this Order shall—

(i.) Affect any power or jurisdiction conferred by, or referred to in, the Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, entitled the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879, (Act XXI of 1879), or in the Indian (Foreign Jurisdiction) Order in Council, 1902; or

(ii.) Affect any jurisdiction for the time being exercisable by the Political Resident under any Imperial Act other than the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890; or

(iii.) Prevent the Political Agent from doing anything which His Majesty's Consuls in the Dominions of any State in amity with His Majesty are for the time being, by law, usage, or sufferance, entitled or enabled to do.

84. If a question arises whether any place is or is not in Maskat for the purposes of this Order, it shall be referred to the Political Resident, and a certificate under his hand and seal shall be conclusive on the question, and shall be taken judicial notice of by any Court established under this Order.

85. Not later than the 31st day of March in each year, or such other day as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, directs from time to time, the Political Resident shall send to the Governor-General of India in Council, for transmission to the Secretary of State, a Report on the operation of this Order up to the 31st day of December in the previous year, or such other date as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, directs from time to time, showing for the last twelve months the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken under this Order, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and such other information, and being in such form as the Secretary of State, or, with his previous or subsequent assent, the Governor-General of India in Council, from time to time directs.

86.—(1.) A printed copy of this Order, and of all Rules of Procedure and other Rules for the time being in force under this Order, shall be kept open to inspection free of charge in the Office of the Political Agent and of each Court established under this Order.

(2.) Printed copies thereof shall be sold in Maskat at such reasonable price as the Political Agent from time to time directs.

87.—(1.) This Order shall be published in the "Gazette of India" within such time after the passing thereof as the Secretary of State may prescribe, and shall come into force on such day, (in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order), within six months after that publication, as the Governor-General of India in Council may, by notification in the said "Gazette," appoint in this behalf.

(2.) But any appointment under this Order may be made at any time after its passing, and no proof shall, in any proceedings, be required of any of the matters prescribed by this article.

88.—(1.) As from the commencement of this Order, the Order in Council mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Order shall be repealed to the extent therein mentioned; but this repeal shall not—

(a.) Affect the past operation of that Order, or any appointment made, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under that Order, before the making of this Order;

(b.) Interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding or action, criminal or civil, in respect of any offence committed against or forfeiture incurred or liability accrued under or in consequence of any provision of that Order, or any regulation confirmed by any such Order or made thereunder;

(c.) Take away or abridge any protection or benefit given or to be enjoyed in relation thereto.

(2.) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Order aforesaid, all rules and regulations approved or confirmed by or under such Order so repealed shall continue and be as if this Order had not been made; but so that the same may be revoked, altered, or otherwise dealt with under this Order, as if they had been made under this Order.

(3.) Criminal or civil proceedings begun under the Order repealed by this Order, and pending at the time when this Order comes into operation, shall, from and after that time, be regulated by the provisions of this Order, as far as the nature and circumstances of each case admit.

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Crewe, K.G., and the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Bart., K.G., two of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WILD BIRD (ENGLAND).

The Wild Birds Protection (Administrative County of Kent) Order, 1915.

Dated 11th February, 1915.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the Wild Birds Protection Acts, 1880 to 1908, and upon application by the Council of the administrative county of Kent, I hereby make the following order:—

Title.

I. This Order may be cited as "The Wild Birds Protection (Administrative County of Kent) Order, 1915."

BIRDS.

Extension of Close Time throughout the County.

II. The time during which the killing or taking of Wild Birds is prohibited by the Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880, shall, except as regards the Common Wild Duck, be extended throughout the administrative county of Kent, so as to be between the last day of February and the 2nd day of September in each year.

Additions to the Schedule of the Act of 1880.

III. The Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880, shall apply to the following species of Wild Birds in the same manner as if those species were included in the Schedule to the Act:—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

[No. 101 of the year 1915.]

CAUTION WHEN APPROACHING BRITISH PORTS.

PART I.

Closing of Ports.

Former Notice.—No. 1 of 1915; hereby cancelled.

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that it may be necessary to forbid all entrance to certain ports of the Empire, this is to give Notice that on approaching the shores of the United Kingdom, or any of the ports or localities of the British Empire, referred to in Part III of this Notice, a sharp look-out should be kept for the signals described in the following paragraph, and for the vessels mentioned in paragraph (5), Part II, of this Notice, and the distinguishing and other signals made by them. In the event of such signals being displayed, the port or locality should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehended that obstructions may exist.

(2) If entrance to a port is prohibited, three red vertical lights by night, or three red vertical balls by day, will be exhibited in some conspicuous position; in or near to its approach, which signals will also be shown by the vessels indicated in paragraph (5), Part II, of this Notice.

If these signals are displayed, vessels must either proceed to the position marked

"Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty charts and anchor there, or keep the sea.

(3) At all the ports or localities at home or abroad referred to in Part III of this Notice, search-lights are occasionally exhibited for exercise.

Instructions have been given to avoid directing moveable search-lights during practice on to vessels under way, but mariners are warned that great care should be taken to keep a sharp look-out for the signals indicated in paragraph (2) above, when search-lights are observed to be working.

PART II.

Examination Service.

(4) In certain circumstances it is also necessary to take special measures to examine vessels desiring to enter the ports or localities at home or abroad, referred to in Part III of this Notice.

(5) In such case, vessels carrying the distinguishing flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7) will be charged with the duty of examining ships which desire to enter the ports and of allotting positions in which they shall anchor. If Government vessels, or vessels belonging to the local port authority, are found patrolling in the offing, merchant vessels are advised to communicate with such vessels with a view to obtaining information as to the course on which they should approach the Examination Anchorage. Such communication will not be necessary in cases where the pilot on board has already received this information from the local authorities.

(6) As the institution of the Examination Service at any port will never be publicly advertised, especial care should be taken in approaching the ports, by day or night, to keep a sharp look-out for any vessel carrying the flags or lights mentioned in paragraph (7), and to be ready to "bring to" at once when hailed by her or warned by the firing of a gun or sound rocket.

In entering by night any of the ports mentioned in Part III, serious delay and risk will be avoided if four efficient all-round lamps, two red and two white, are kept available for use.

(7) By day the distinguishing flags of the Examination Steamer will be a special flag (white and red horizontal surrounded by a blue border) and a blue ensign.

Also, three red vertical balls if the port is closed.

By night the steamer will carry:—

(a) Three red vertical lights if the port is closed.

(b) Three white vertical lights if the port is open.

The above lights will be carried in addition to the ordinary navigation lights, and will show an unbroken light around the horizon.

(8) Masters are warned that, before attempting to enter any of these ports when the Examination Service is in force, they must in their own interests strictly obey all instructions given to them by the Examination Steamer. In the absence of any instructions from the Examination Steamer they must proceed to the position marked. "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty Charts and anchor there, or keep the sea.

Whilst at anchor in the Examination Anchorage, Masters are warned that they must not lower any boats (except to avoid accident), communicate with the shore, work cables, move the ship, or allow anyone to leave the ship, without permission from the Examination Steamer.

(9) In case of fog, Masters are enjoined to use the utmost care, and the Examination Anchorage itself should be approached with caution.

(10) Merchant vessels when approaching ports are especially cautioned against making use of private signals of any description, either by day or night; the use of them will render a vessel liable to be fired on.

(11) The pilots attached to the ports will be acquainted with the regulations to be followed.

PART IV.

Sweeping Operations.

H.M. Vessels are constantly engaged in sweeping operations off ports in the United Kingdom.

Whilst so engaged, they work in pairs connected by a wire hawser, and are consequently hampered to a very considerable extent in their manœuvring powers.

With a view to indicating the nature of the work on which these vessels are engaged, they will show the following signals:—

A black ball at the foremast head and a similar ball at the yardarm, or where it can best be seen, on that side on which it is dangerous for vessels to pass.

For the public safety, all other vessels, whether steamers or sailing craft, must keep out of the way of vessels flying this signal, and should especially remember that it is dangerous to pass between the vessels of a pair.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. F. PARRY,

Hydrographer.
