At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of March, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 21 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more Benefices which have been heretofore united, or which may be hereafter united, under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that when two or more Benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one Benefice, and, with respect to his own Diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any Diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the Benefices within his Diocese, of which such United Benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case, and, if on such Inquiry, it shall appear to him that such Union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such Benefice or Benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such Inquiry to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own Diocese a Statement in Writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation, to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the Church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the Benefices forming part of the United Benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such Disunion, and, if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the Inquiry and Consent, when the Patron's Consent is necessary, to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned Benefice or Benefices from such United Benefice, and for declaring the rights of Patronage of the several Patrons, if there be more than one Patron, and such Order shall be registered in the Registry of the Diocese to which such United Benefice shall belong; which Order the Registrar of such Diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately, if such United Benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such Union shall be, ipso facto, dissolved, so far only as regards such Benefice or Benefices so proposed to be separated from such United Benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned Benefice or Benefices shall be, and be deemed and taken to be, a separate and distinct Benefice or Benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such Union had taken place, and the Patron or Patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so, from time to time, upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no Benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the Consent in writing of the Patron or Patrons thereof."

And whereas by Section 23 of the said Act it is further enacted that "Whenever two or more Benefices which have at any time been united into one Benefice shall be disunited and become separate Benefices under the provisions of this Act, whether the Order for Disunion shall extend to the whole number of Benefices of which such united Benefice consisted, or to one or more of such Benefices only, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the Consent of the Patron or Patrons of such Benefices respectively, (such Consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such Patron or Patrons), to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such United Benefice to each of such Benefices respectively as to His Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the Benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such Benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the Disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole United Benefice, and in the case of mortgages with the Consent of the mortgagees in writing under their hands and seals."

Representation in writing, dated the 13th day of February, 1914, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the Disunion of the United Benefice consisting of the Vicarage of Ulceby and the Rectory of Croxton, in the County and my Diocese of Lincoln, by the separation of the said Rectory of Croxton from the said Vicarage of Ulceby, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

"EDWARD, LINCOLN."

And whereas, on the 25th day of February, 1914, the said Archbishop inquired into the circumstances of the case.

And whereas the said Bishop did, by a further Representation in writing, dated the 7th day of March, 1914, furnish to the said Archbishop a Statement of Circumstances as follows:—

"Whereas your Grace having inquired of me, Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, what are the circumstances of the case upon which I found my opinion that the Disunion of the United Benefice consisting of the Vicarage of Ulceby and the Rectory of Croxton, both in the County and my Diocese of Lincoln, by the separation of the Rectory of Croxton from the Vicarage of Ulceby, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, I do hereby represent to your Grace that the following are the circumstances:—

"That the Parish of Ulceby is separate from Croxton for all civil purposes, and that the distance between the said Benefices, computing such distance from the Church of Ulceby to the Church of Croxton, is 2½ miles or thereabouts.

"That according to the Census of 1911 the population of Ulceby is 947 persons, and that according to the same Census the population of Croxton is 119 persons.

"That the net yearly income arising from the said United Benefice, on an average of the last three years, is £416 10s. 7d. or thereabouts, and that the sources from which such income is derived are as follows:—Ulceby, £282 14s. 7d. or thereabouts, arising from Glebe Lands, Allotments, Fees and an annual charge of £170 upon the revenues of the Rectory of Croxton created by an Order in Council dated the 13th day of August, 1855: Croxton, £133 16s. 0d. or thereabouts, arising from Glebe Land and Fees.

"That there is one Church belonging to the Parish of Ulceby affording accommodation for about 290, and there is one Church belonging to the Parish of Croxton affording accommodation for about 90 persons, and there is no other Church or Chapel of the Church of England in either of the said Parishes but there is a Mission Room with accommodation for about 80 persons in the said Parish of Ulceby.

"That there is a good and sufficient House of Residence belonging to each of the said Benefices.

"That the said United Benefice, which is now held by the Reverend Hector Mawson, is in the patronage of the Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting for and on behalf of His Majesty The King.

"That, in the event of the said Rectory of Croxton being separated from the said Vicarage of Ulceby, it is proposed that the House of Residence situate at Ulceby shall be the House of Residence of the Vicarage of Ulceby, and that the House of Residence situate at Croxton shall be the House of Residence of the said Rectory of Croxton.

"That, if your Grace shall be satisfied that such an apportionment will under the circumstances be right and proper, it is desired that you shall recommend to His Majesty in Council, conformably with the provisions of the 23rd Section of the Act 1 and 2 Victoria, Chapter 106, that His Majesty in Council do assign and attach to the said Vicarage of Ulceby all the following pieces or parcels of land, situate in the Parish of Croxton aforesaid, and now belonging to and forming part of the endowments of the said Rectory of Croxton, namely:—

together with a right of way over and along the south-eastern side of Field numbered 39, which said pieces or parcels of land and right of way are delineated and set forth in the Map or Plan hereto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow, subject to all charges and outgoings in respect thereof, such assignment to be in lieu of and substitution for the aforesaid charge of £170 per annum which is now payable out of the income of the said Rectory of Croxton to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Vicarage of Ulceby, under the provisions of the aforesaid Order in Council of the 13th day of August, 1855, such charge to utterly cease and determine: And further that His Majesty in Council do order that the whole of the outstanding Mortgage Debts upon the United Benefice of Ulceby with Croxton, and amounting to £31 9s. 1d. and £19 9s. 1d. respectively, due to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne shall be a debt or charge upon the Glebe and Revenues of the said Benefice of Croxton exclusively, and that the said Vicarage of Ulceby shall be exempted from all liability to pay the said debts or any part thereof: That the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, as such Mortgagees as aforesaid, do consent to such recommendation, as appears by an Instrument in writing under their Common Seal hereunto annexed: In all other respects the said Vicarage of Ulceby and the said Rectory of Croxton shall each retain its own original endowments and emoluments, and bear its own charges and outgoings.

"That this proposed Disunion forms part of an intended rearrangement of certain Benefices in my said Diocese, which rearrangement when carried into effect will be an advantage to the interests of religion, as it will make better provision for the growing population in certain districts not now ecclesiastically well served: For this reason it appears to me that the Disunion of the said United Benefice of Croxton and Ulceby will be an advantage to the interests of religion.

"That the said Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting for and on behalf of His Majesty The King as such Patron as aforesaid, consents to such Disunion, and to the several matters and things above proposed, as appears by an Instrument in writing under his hand hereunto annexed.

"EDWARD, LINCOLN."

And whereas on the 29th day of June, 1914, the said Archbishop certified to His Majesty in Council as follows:—

"We, the undersigned, Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:—

"That the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Lord Bishop of Lincoln, in whose Diocese is situate the United Benefice consisting of the Vicarage of Ulceby and the Rectory of Croxton, in the County of Lincoln, having represented unto us that the Disunion of the said United Benefice, by the separation of the Rectory of Croxton from the Vicarage of Ulceby, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such Inquiry it appeared to us that such Union might usefully be dissolved, and that the Right Honourable Richard Burdon, Viscount Haldane, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting for and on behalf of His Majesty The King being the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said United Benefice of Ulceby with Croxton in case the same were now vacant, consents to the proposed Disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such Inquiry and Consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid Representation to be affixed to the principal outer doors of each of the Parish Churches of Ulceby and Croxton with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such Disunion, but no sufficient cause has been shown.

"The Representation of the said Lord Bishop of Lincoln, our Inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the Statement of Circumstances in reply thereto, the Consent in writing of the said Patron of the said United Benefice, and the Copies of the Representation and Notices before mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the Inquiry and Consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council, to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may, in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for the Disunion of the said United Benefice by the separation of the Rectory of Croxton from the Vicarage of Ulceby, so as to constitute each of them a separate Benefice with Cure of Souls for ecclesiastical purposes only, and we recommend that the House of Residence situate at Ulceby shall be the House of Residence of the Vicarage of Ulceby, and that the House of Residence situate at Croxton shall be the House of Residence of the Rectory of Croxton: And we further recommend that there be assigned and attached to the Vicarage of Ulceby all those pieces or parcels of land containing 146a. 1r. 16p., with the appurtenances situate in the Parish of Croxton, and now belonging to and forming part of the endowments of the Rectory of Croxton, as the same are more particularly described in the before mentioned Statement of Circumstances, such assignment to be in lieu of and substitution for the charge of £170 per annum as therein mentioned, and also that the whole of the outstanding mortgage debts upon the United Benefice of Ulceby with Croxton, and amounting to £31 9s. 1d. and £19 9s. 1d. respectively, due to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, shall be a debt or charge upon the Glebe and Revenues of the said Benefice of Croxton exclusively, and that the said Vicarage of Ulceby shall be exempted from all liability to pay the said debts or any part thereof: In all other respects the said Vicarage of Ulceby and the said Rectory of Croxton shall each retain its own original endowments and emoluments, and bear its own charges and outgoings.

“RANDALL, CANTUAR.”

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said United Benefice, consisting of the Vicarage of Ulceby and the Rectory of Croxton, situate in the County and Diocese of Lincoln, shall be disunited by separating the said Vicarage of Ulceby from the said Rectory of Croxton.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is further pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, with the consent of the Patron, to direct that the House of Residence situate at Ulceby shall be the House of Residence of the said Vicarage of Ulceby, and that the House of Residence situate at Croxton shall be the House of Residence of the said Rectory of Croxton, and to assign and attach to the said Vicarage of Ulceby all those pieces or parcels of land containing 146a. 1r. 16p., with the appurtenances situate in the Parish of Croxton, and now belonging to and forming part of the endowments of the said Rectory of Croxton, as the same are more particularly described in the hereinbefore mentioned Statement of Circumstances, such assignment to be in lieu of, and substitution for, the charge of £170 per annum as therein mentioned, and also that the whole of the outstanding mortgage debts upon the United Benefice of Ulceby with Croxton, and amounting to £31 9s. 1d. and £19 9s. 1d. respectively, due to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, shall be a debt or charge upon the Glebe and Revenues of the said Benefice of Croxton exclusively, and that the said Vicarage of Ulceby shall be exempted from all liability to pay the said debts or any part thereof.

And His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to direct that in all other respects the said Vicarage of Ulceby and the said Rectory of Croxton shall each retain its own original endowments and emoluments, and bear its own charges and outgoings.

The KING has been pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal of the Second Class for saving life on land to Mr. James Julian Carter, a brakeman of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in recognition of his gallantry in saving the life of a little girl named Violet Freeman at Tweed, Ontario, on the 10th May, 1914.

On the day in question Carter was on the engine of a train running between Havelock and Smith's Falls in the Province of Ontario. The train was rounding a curve near Tweed at a speed of about 18 miles an hour, when Carter, who was on the inside of the curve, saw the child trying to cross the line 200 feet ahead. He shouted to the driver to stop, and immediately made his way along the footboard to the "pilot" on the front of the engine. Realising that the train, the speed of which had been reduced to about 8 miles an hour, could not be pulled up in time, he jumped from the engine, and, rushing forward, just succeeded in rescuing the child, falling with her into the ditch at the side of the line. The train was stopped when the engine and 8 coaches had passed the spot where the child was rescued.
