Whereas the benefice of Austwick, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the thirty-first day of December last past by the retirement, under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend William James Courtney (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension, under the said Resignation Acts, of seventy-five pounds (hereinafter called the said pension). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations, dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund, first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof, the yearly sum of forty-four pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said thirty-first day of December last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

Whereas the benefice of Saint John the Baptist, Chester, in the county of Chester and diocese of Chester, was avoided on the thirtieth day of January last past by the resignation of the Reverend Samuel Cooper Scott (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent). Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations, dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent, subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said thirtieth day of January last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

Whereas the benefice of Saint John the Divine, Fairfield, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Liverpool, was avoided on the first day of February last past by the retirement, under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Edward Hicks (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension, under the said Resignation Acts, of sixty pounds. Now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations, dated the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent, subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said first day of February last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.
