

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
6615	Lance-Corporal	Brewer, R. ...	2nd Battalion, Border Regiment	For gallant conduct on the 18th December, 1914, at Rouges Bancs, in advancing with great gallantry to within ten yards of the enemy's trenches and assisting another man to rescue a wounded Officer.
6283	Lance-Corporal	Bristow, J. ...	4th Battalion, Royal Fusiliers	For gallant conduct on 1st February, 1915, at Spanbroek, near Kemmel, in voluntarily undertaking a dangerous reconnaissance duty within 30 yards of the enemy's lines, during which he was wounded. On a previous occasion he voluntarily undertook a similar risky duty.
4711	Private ...	Bristow, W. J. T. ...	3rd Battalion, Rifle Brigade	For conspicuous gallantry and great daring at Armentières on the night of 3rd February, 1915. In company with another man, he crawled close to the German trenches to ascertain their movements; he then returned to our lines, and, obtaining a hand grenade, went back and threw it amongst them, scattering the enemy in all directions. To achieve his object it was necessary to crawl through the German wire entanglements, and the risk was very great.
863	Company-Serjeant Major	Brittan, E. D. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry at Cuinchy on the night of 6th-7th February, 1915, when he made a successful reconnaissance in circumstances of great danger and shot ten of the enemy himself. Subsequently he was brought to notice for coolness and the able handling of his men.
5103	Second Corporal	Britton, A. T. ...	Royal Engineers	For gallantry and efficiency in the performance of his duties.
3630	Private ...	Brooks, J. W. ...	1st Battalion, Rifle Brigade	For gallantry on 26th August, 1914, in bringing up ammunition to the firing line, whilst exposed to a heavy fire.
11727	Corporal ...	Brown, A. ...	2nd Battalion, King's Own Scottish Borderers	For conspicuous gallantry and resource on 13th October, 1914 during the attack on Cuinchy. By effective sniping he prevented the enemy from occupying a position which, if occupied by them, might have rendered a portion of our firing line untenable. Although wounded, he succeeded in furnishing a clear report of the situation and then requested to be allowed to return to his post.
5940	Serjeant ...	Brown, C. ...	1st Battalion, Connaught Rangers	For the gallantry displayed near Neuve Chapelle on 14th-15th November, 1914, when he led a small party in the attack on the enemy's trenches.
7037	Private ...	Brown, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Yorkshire Regiment	For gallant conduct on many occasions in conveying messages whilst exposed to heavy fire.
700	Second Corporal	Bryan, H. ...	East Anglian Field Company, Royal Engineers (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry on 20th February, 1915, at Givenchy, in rescuing two men who had been wounded during the advance of his storming party, and subsequently for gallantry in bringing into cover another wounded man.
9117	Acting Serjeant	Buchanan, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Highland Light Infantry	For gallant conduct and ability on 7th November, 1914, when he promptly took command, after his Officer had been wounded, and handled his men in a skilful manner.
7584	Serjeant ...	Buck, T. C. ...	1st Battalion, Coldstream Guards..	For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Givenchy 21st to 23rd December, 1914, in going forward under heavy fire to select positions for machine guns, and subsequently for rescuing a wounded man who was lying out under fire. He also behaved gallantly on 29th October, near Gheluvelt when in charge of machine guns.
