

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
1598	Sergeant (Acting Company Serjeant- Major)	Higgins, G. ...	Royal Engineers ...	For conspicuous gallantry on 26th October, 1914, at the Paschendale-Mecelaere Road position, in leaving his trench under very heavy rifle and machine-gun fire, and bringing back ammunition. Three men were previously killed in attempting this duty.
14435	Second Corporal	Hill, E. L. ...	Royal Engineers ...	For gallant conduct on 28th October, 1914, during the attack on Neuve Chapelle.
641	Private ...	Hill, G. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps (S.R.)	For gallant conduct on many occasions, especially at Neuve Chapelle, where he showed a fine example of devotion to duty in leading stretcher bearers under fire.
6444	Corporal ...	Hilton, H. B. ...	1st Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For the gallantry displayed at Givenchy on 18th February, 1915, when he threw German bombs with great effect into the enemy's trench, causing general alarm along their line.
7491	Lance- Sergeant	Hirst, T. ...	2nd Battalion, West Riding Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Wulverghem on 22nd December, 1914, when he left his trench whilst exposed to heavy machine-gun and rifle fire and rescued a badly wounded man from in front of the enemy's position, which was only forty yards distant. Has been noted for his good service during the campaign.
17907	Private ...	Hobson, J. E. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct in the performance of his duties, collecting the wounded whilst under fire.
17711	Corporal ...	Holland, D. C. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct and good work near Troyon on 20th and 21st September, 1914, in attending on the wounded under fire.
9835	Private ...	Holloway, F. ...	1st Battalion, Hamp- shire Regiment	For the gallantry he displayed in the engagement at Ligny.
B 431	Private ...	Holton, A. E. ...	3rd Battalion, Rifle Brigade	For conspicuous gallantry and great daring near Armentieres on the night of 3rd February, 1915. In company with another man he crawled close to the German trenches to ascertain their movements, he then returned to our lines, and obtaining a hand grenade went back and threw it amongst them, scattering the enemy in all directions. To achieve his object it was necessary to crawl through the German wire entanglements, and the risk was very great.
4506	Trumpeter	Hopgood, G. R. ...	15th Hussars ...	For gallant conduct on 22nd September, 1914, near Presles, in going to the front of his trench and obtaining valuable information concerning the enemy's position. Has been noted for constantly carrying out patrol duties successfully.
5557	Private ...	Hopkins, R. J. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the campaign from August to November, especially on 16th September, and at Soupir Ridge on 14th October, 1914, in gallantly attending to the wounded in the fire-trenches. Again at Langemarck on 21st October and throughout the operations around Ypres, he attended on the wounded under heavy rifle and shell fire.
7024	Private ...	Hotchkins, W. ...	1st Battalion, Gloucestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and marked resource on 25th January, 1915, at Givenchy. In command of a section he placed the men in position, and by skilful handling succeeded by his effective fire in enabling the attack to be repulsed. Some of the enemy on this occasion had previously managed to get behind our trench, and the position was thereby rendered critical.