

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
9027	Private ...	Rae, J.	2nd Battalion, Scots Guards	For gallantry on many occasions whilst engaged on scouting duties.
8290	Corporal ...	Rawlins, A.... ..	15th Hussars	For gallant conduct on 22nd September, 1914, near Presles, in going to the front of his trench, and obtaining valuable information concerning the enemy's position. Has been noted for constantly carrying out patrol duties successfully.
9125	Lance - Corporal	Raynor, J. W.	1st Battalion, Gordon Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 14th December, 1914, in going to the assistance of wounded comrades who were lying within 20 yards of the enemy's trench under heavy fire, and succeeding in rescuing an Officer and one man under great difficulties. He distinguished himself throughout the day in command of his platoon.
8594	Company - Serjeant - Major	Reeves, F.	2nd Battalion, Royal Warwickshire Regiment	For gallantry and good service during the operations round Ypres.
4498	Squadron - Serjeant - Major	Reeves, W.... ..	7th Hussars (Permanent Staff, North Somerset Yeomanry)	For gallant conduct at Zillebeke on 13th February, 1915, when he picked up a bomb, the fuse of which was still burning, and threw it out of his trench. This prompt action undoubtedly saved the lives of three of his comrades.
8846	Serjeant ...	Reeves, W. G.	2nd Battalion, Royal West Surrey Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry in delivering messages under very heavy shell fire, and, although wounded, remaining at his post.
1392	Private ...	Reid, A.	1st Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders	For gallant conduct on 20th December, 1914, near Givenchy, when he rescued a comrade whose leg had been blown off, whilst exposed to accurate fire from the enemy's mortars.
3991	Private ...	Rex, A. H.	1st Battalion, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry	For gallant conduct on 16th December, 1914, in assisting in the filling up of a trench 100 yards from the enemy, whilst exposed to their fire for a period of three hours.
4796	Private ...	Richardson, F.	2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For gallant conduct on 1st February, 1915, at Cuinchy, when he was one of the bombing party in the successful counter-attack on the enemy's position. This work demanded great coolness and skill.
35318	Bombardier	Richardson, T.	37th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct in repairing telephone wires under fire, close to the enemy's position.
6484	Private ...	Rickman, T.	1st Battalion, Scots Guards	For gallant conduct and ability between 27th October and 11th November, 1914, north of the Menin road, when he carried out reconnaissance duties at great risk, and obtained much valuable information relative to the enemy's positions.
195	Lance - Corporal	Riddoch, J.	2nd Battalion, Gordon Highlanders	For great gallantry on 29th November, 1914, when surrounded by the enemy, and subsequently for his gallant conduct in our counter-attacks.
8271	Serjeant ...	Riley, W. E.	2nd Battalion Border Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 29th October, 1914, at Gheluvelt. A large number of the enemy having advanced into position north of the Menin road opened a heavy shell fire on our trenches, and Serjeant Riley with three men brought our machine guns across a turnip field and taking up four positions compelled the enemy to retire by his effective fire.
5499	Company - Serjeant - Major (Acting Serjeant - Major)	Ring, J.	2nd Battalion, Royal Munster Fusiliers	For gallantry, marked ability, and coolness during the whole period of the campaign. Has shown a fine example of devotion to duty under very trying circumstances.
