or the goods are consigned to a person in territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy; (c) the goods are destined for an armed place of the enemy or a place serving as a base of operations or supplies to the armed forces of the enemy.

RUSSIAN DECREE RELATING TO CONTRABAND OF WAR.

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from His Majesty's Ambassador at Petrograd the following memorandum, prepared by the Commercial Attaché to His Majesty's Embassy:—

The official "Bulletin of Laws" of Petrograd of December 14th/27th, 1914, publishes an Imperial Decree, dated December 8th/21st, 1914, revising sections 1 to 5 of the Decree of September 1st/14th, 1914, concerning the application of the regulations of naval warfare, as drawn up at the London Naval Conference of 1908-1909. These sections 1 to 5, now revised as below, are the whole of the Decree of September 1st/14th, 1914, with the exception of the enclosure to the same, which consists of the Naval War Regulations drawn up by the said Conference. By the above-mentioned Decree of December 8th/21st, 1914, sections 1 to 5 of the Decree of September 1st/14th are replaced by the following:—

Section 1.

Absolute and Conditional Contraband.

(Here follow, with 26 and 15 headings respectively, two lists of articles to be treated as absolute and conditional contraband respectively. These lists are identical in all respects with those given in Schedules 1 and 2 of the King's Proclamation of October 29th, 1914.)

Section 2.

A neutral vessel, whose papers indicate a neutral destination, but which, in spite of the destination apparent from its papers, proceeds to an enemy port, shall be subject to seizure and confiscation, if met with before the close of its next voyage.

Section 3.

The destination, referred to in section 33 of the Naval Warfare Regulations drawn up by the London Conference, shall be supposed proved, in addition to the cases enumerated in section 34 of the said regulations, also when the goods are directed to an agent of an enemy country or for him.

Section 4.

In deviation from section 35 of the regulations drawn up by the London Conference, articles of conditional contraband shall be subject to seizure on a vessel proceeding to a neutral port, if the goods are being sent "to order," or if the ship's papers do not indicate the receiver of the goods, or if they indicate a receiver in enemy territory or in territory occupied by the enemy.

In the cases referred to in this present section the obligation of proving that the destination of the goods was allowed, lies on the owner of the goods.

Section 5.

If the Russian Government is convinced that an enemy Government is obtaining provisions for its armed forces from any neutral country whatever or through it, the Minister of Marine, in agreement with the Minister for Foreign Affairs, is authorised to take the necessary steps that section 35 shall not be applied to vessels proceeding to ports of this country.

Dispositions in this connection must be published in the "Bulletin of Laws," and will remain in force till repealed. While this remains in force a vessel carrying conditional contraband to ports of the said country shall not be free from seizure.

Any person acting in contravention of this bye-law shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws, to pay the amount of any damage so done.

9. Any person whose dress or clothing will, in the opinion of the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Council, soil or injure the seats, lining or cushions of the motor omnibus, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or any person who may for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be allowed to enter or remain in or upon any motor omnibus, and may be prevented from mounting or entering such motor omnibus, and any such person found in or upon any motor omnibus shall, on the request of the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Council, leave the motor omnibus upon the fare (if previously paid) being returned. Provided that on motor omnibuses specially run for artisans, mechanics and daily labourers, no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in or on a motor omnibus under the provisions of this bye-law on the ground of the conditions of his dress or clothing, if such condition is solely due to the nature of his employment.

10. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Council the fare legally demandable for the journey.

Any passenger paying for a stage less than the whole journey run by the motor omnibus shall be deemed to have completed his journey at the end of the stage paid for; if the passenger remains on the motor omnibus he shall pay the fare legally payable for the remainder of his journey as a new passenger.

11. Each passenger shall immediately upon demand show his ticket to any officer or servant of the Council, and shall also when required so to do (except in the case of workmen's return tickets which are available for a second or homeward journey) either deliver up his ticket, or in default thereof pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger. Tickets shall not be transferable, and shall only be available for the motor omnibus on which they are issued.

12. Any person entering or mounting upon any motor omnibus and having any luggage (including the tools of an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer) shall, if so requested by the conductor, place such luggage upon either of the platforms, and shall not take or place the same in the interior of the motor omnibus unless permitted by the conductor so to do. No person shall bring on to any motor omnibus luggage of a size or bulk which, in the opinion of the conductor, is likely to cause inconvenience, hindrance or annoyance to passengers.

13. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Council shall travel on the steps or platforms of any motor omnibus, or sit on the railings or guards of any motor omnibus, or stand on the top deck of any double-decked motor omnibus, and any person so travelling, standing, or sitting shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

14. No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount any motor omnibus.

15. No person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any motor omnibus, or travel therein or thereon, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers except in the interior of the carriage with the consent of the conductor.

When any motor omnibus contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount or remain in or on any such motor omnibus when warned by the conductor not to do so.

16. If at any time a motor omnibus becomes disabled or in any way injured or damaged, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same; and if such passengers have paid their fares, they shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid, but on production of their tickets shall be entitled to travel by the next available motor omnibus the remainder of the distance in respect of which they have paid their fares.

17. No person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, platform chains, or any part of a motor omnibus or its equipments, or signal a motor omnibus to start. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws and regulations, to pay the amount of any damage done.

18. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave, any motor omnibus whilst in motion.

19. No person shall take a dog or other animal into or upon any motor omnibus after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any motor omnibus in breach of this regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the motor omnibus immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

20. No person shall travel in or on any motor omnibus with firearms, or dangerous articles or things, provided that nothing contained in this bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Territorial, Reserve, or other of His Majesty's Forces, carrying unloaded firearms.

21. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Council in the execution of his duty upon, or in connection with, any motor omnibus.

22. No person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any motor omnibus, or attempt so to do, and no driver or conductor shall wilfully or knowingly suffer or permit any such person so to do.

23. Any person who shall commit, whilst in or on any motor omnibus, any breach of these bye-laws and regulations, shall, if the offence is continued, be liable, in addition to incurring the penalty hereinafter provided, to be immediately removed from the motor omnibus by or under the direction of the conductor, and if such person shall have paid his fare, he shall not be entitled to claim its return.

24. Every conductor or driver shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these bye-laws and regulations, and prevent the breach thereof.

25. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these bye-laws and regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, and in the case of a continuing offence to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.

26. There shall be placed, and kept placed, in a conspicuous position inside of each motor omnibus in use, a printed copy of these bye-laws and regulations.

27. These bye-laws and regulations shall come into force on the first day of August, 1915.

The Corporate Common Seal of the Borough of West Bromwich was affixed hereto by order of the Council on the fifth day of May, 1915, in the presence of

Alfred Wickham,
Town Clerk.

L. S.

I hereby certify that a true copy of the foregoing Bye-laws and Regulations has, in accordance with the provisions of section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, been laid before the Board of Trade, not less than two calendar months before such Bye-laws and Regulations came into operation, and that such Bye-laws and Regulations have not been disallowed by the Board of Trade within the said two calendar months.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 408 of the year 1915.

ENGLAND, EAST COAST.

River Tyne Boom Defence—Entrance Signals and Traffic Regulations.

The undermentioned regulations have been made, in regard to the Boom Defence of the River Tyne, under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, and will remain in force until further Notice:—

The following signals will be displayed to indicate that the Boom is open to traffic:—

By Day - - 2 Black Balls, vertical.
By Night - - 2 White Lights, vertical.

The above signals will be hoisted on board the Satellite and at the following Distant Signal Stations:—

(a) For Incoming Traffic.—At the Light-house on the end of the North Arm of the Breakwater.

(b) For Outgoing Traffic.—At Dunstan Staithes, Ballast Hill, and on the West Drum Head of Tyne Dock.

The absence of these signals will denote that the Boom is closed to traffic.

Vessels entering or leaving the Tyne, after passing the Pier Heads when bound inwards, and after passing Hay Hole Point when bound outwards, are to so regulate their speed that until the line of the Boom is passed they shall not come within a distance of 200 yards from their stern to the stern of the next vessel ahead proceeding in the same direction. Whilst navigating between Hay Hole Point and the Pier Heads, no vessel should attempt to overhaul and pass ahead of another vessel proceeding in the same direction.

When crossing the line of the Boom, all vessels are to preserve a mid-channel course as far as is consistent with safe navigation. Vessels of 25 feet draught and above are to stop their engines when crossing the line of the Boom at or about the time of low water.

Incoming and outgoing vessels must not cross the line of the Boom at the same time. Vessels proceeding against the tidal stream must so regulate their speed that any vessels proceeding with the tide shall first pass the obstruction.

With the above exceptions, the Rules and Regulations for the Navigation of the Tyne are to be adhered to.

Authority.—The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

By Command of their Lordships,

J. F. PARRY,
Hydrographer.
