

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
29650	Corporal	Chadwick, R. ...	Motor Cyclist, Royal Engineers (attached Lahore Signal Company)	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, in conveying messages on three occasions over ground swept by very heavy shell fire: The distance travelled on each occasion was $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and the fire was continuous.
10297	Private ...	Chawk, H. ...	2nd Battalion, Gordon Highlanders	For gallant conduct on many occasions, especially at Neuve Chapelle on 13th March, 1915, when he was continually employed in carrying messages under heavy fire.
2190	Lance-Corporal	Ching, J. I. ...	1/5th Battalion, South Lancashire Regiment (T. F.)	For conspicuous gallantry, energy, and devotion to duty near Le Touquet from 25th February to 9th April, 1915, when engaged in working underground (continually in water) preparing a mine, which was successfully exploded on the latter date. This work was very arduous, and most hazardous, as the possibility of the German counter-mine being exploded at any moment was ever present.
8753	Corporal ...	Chuter, A. E. ...	56th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915, in leading his party up to the enemy's position, and subsequently for his very good organizing work with the infantry attacking party, who had lost their Officers and Non-commissioned Officers.
7934	Private ...	Clark, F. E. ...	1st Battalion, Wiltshire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915, when he left his trench under fire, went out in front for a distance of 150 yards and rescued a wounded man who was still being fired at by the enemy.
33587	Bombardier	Clarke, H. H. ...	59th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct in repairing telephone lines under fire. Has been of great assistance to his battery commander, showing initiative, great energy and devotion to duty.
5625	Private ...	Clarkstone, F. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 25th and 26th April, 1915, at Givenchy, in assisting to rescue Officers and men from a deep mine full of poison gas. The courage and devotion to duty displayed were very pronounced, the risk of death through asphyxiation being very great.
7086	Acting Squadron Quartermaster-Serjeant	Clenshaw, W. ...	5th Lancers ...	For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on 25th August, 1914; when in charge of the rear troop of the rear-guard, he maintained his position with great ability against a very superior force of the enemy, thereby enabling a battery to withdraw in safety.
10677	Private ...	Clifford, W. ...	1st Battalion, Highland Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry and ability at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915. During the attack he laid a telephone wire, with the assistance of another man, from the second line to the firing line under very severe fire. Two men had previously been killed whilst endeavouring to perform this work.
8782	Private ...	Collins, J. ...	1st Battalion, Leinster Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and very great daring on 14th February, 1915, near St. Eloi, when he stood on the parapets of his trench for several minutes in full view of and only ten yards from the enemy, rallying the men of his company under heavy fire. The gallant conduct of this soldier was largely instrumental in preventing any further advance by the enemy.
