

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
—	Trooper ...	Cooke, A. ...	East African Mounted Rifles	For gallant conduct on 3rd November, 1914, during the engagement at Longido (East Africa), when he assisted to carry a wounded comrade into cover whilst subjected to a very severe close-range rifle fire.
19032	Serjeant ...	Cooke, J. ...	No. 6 Sanitary Squad, Royal Army Medical Corps	For conspicuous gallantry, resource, and marked initiative on 26th August, 1914, when he forcibly took possession of and removed a complete supply train from Boue to Etrenx. The driver escaped with his engine at the latter place, and Serjeant Cooke at once commandeered another engine and driver, and having placed all the wounded in the train, took it safely into Havre on 29th August. During the journey the enemy directed a heavy fire on the train, but did little damage.
6626	Private ...	Cooney, F. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 25th and 26th April, 1915, at Givenchy, in assisting to rescue Officers and men from a deep mine full of poison gas. The courage and devotion to duty displayed were very pronounced, the risk of death through asphyxiation being very great.
6348	Squadron Serjeant-Major	Coss, A. F. ...	2nd Dragoon Guards	For conspicuous gallantry near Ypres from 11th to 17th November, 1914, when he led a party and succeeded in killing 17 of the enemy, and subsequently for going out by night under fire and bringing 3 wounded men into cover. Has shown a fine example of devotion to duty during the campaign.
4721	Squadron Serjeant-Major	Croft, H. ...	5th Dragoon Guards...	For conspicuous gallantry at Zillebeke on 27th February, 1915, when he crept over his parapet on a bright moonlight night and silenced a German advanced post. He has been noted for courage and enterprise on previous occasions.
6329	Serjeant ..	Crookes, W. ...	1st Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For conspicuous gallantry, resource, and ability on 10th March, 1915, at Givenchy. In company with another serjeant and a small party of men he captured a trench from the enemy at 8.15 a.m., and held possession with great determination until 2.0 p.m., notwithstanding heavy losses—including the two Officers.
45298	Bombardier	Crowhurst, W. J. ...	45th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry and resource at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915. He accompanied an Officer who was laying the telephone line, and when this Officer had been wounded he remained in attendance on him until he died. Subsequently Bombardier Crowhurst telephoned to his headquarters all the useful information obtainable.
1000	Private ...	Cummings, J. ...	6th (Bant' and Don-side) Battalion, Gordon Highlanders. (T.F.)	For the gallantry displayed at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915. Rendered conspicuously good service in the command of his section whilst exposed to shell fire.
8541	Private ..	Cunningham, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 4th November, 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
1328	Private ...	Currie, J. ...	1st Battalion, Manchester Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915, in bringing the wounded into cover whilst under heavy rifle and machine-gun fire.
