

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
—	Corporal ...	Drake, A. J. ...	Indian Volunteer Maxim Gun Company	For gallant conduct, coolness, and ability during the engagement on 3rd November, 1914, at Longido (East Africa). Whilst under heavy fire he handled his machine-gun very effectively against the enemy in their counter-attack.
25707	Private ...	Drake, R. H. ...	14th Battalion, Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Rue du Bois on 26th March, 1915, when he went out under heavy fire to the assistance of wounded comrades. He was immediately wounded himself, but nevertheless succeeded in dragging one man into safety and then rendered "first aid" to him.
11588	Private ...	Draycott, J. S. ...	1st Battalion, Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915. On one occasion he went out with another man and threw bombs on a crowd of the enemy, which caused them to retire in confusion.
9884	Serjeant ...	Drinkall, R. ...	3rd Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry in the assault on the enemy's position at Spanbroek Molen on 12th March, 1915. Was one of the first to enter the German trench and by marked determination and ability succeeded in holding the right end for nearly three hours, notwithstanding the bombardment with grenades and machine-gun fire by the enemy.
7129	Serjeant ...	Drummond, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915, in constantly repairing the telephone wires at great risk under very severe fire. The maintenance of communications was all important at this period, and Serjeant Drummond was very successful.
11116	Private ...	Dryden, C. ...	2nd Battalion, West Riding Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry, initiative and ability on the evening of the 19th April, 1915. During the attack on "Hill 60" Private Dryden, with another man, became separated from their company, and they at once attacked a German trench by themselves, killing three men, capturing two and dispersing the remainder.
4867	Serjeant ...	Durrant, E. M. ...	The Connaught Rangers	For conspicuous gallantry, marked ability and initiative from 14th to 22nd March, 1915, near Rue du Bois, in reconnoitring the enemy's position at close quarters and obtaining very exact information under circumstances of great risk.
8214	Private ...	Duffy, J. ...	1st Battalion, Highland Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915, when he went out voluntarily from his trench under heavy rifle fire and brought eight wounded men into cover.
28742	Corporal ...	Duncalf, J. C. ...	Motor Cyclist, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct on many occasions in carrying messages under heavy fire. Has shewn remarkable coolness and presence of mind in the performance of dangerous duties.
1650	Corporal ...	Edwards, J. ...	3rd Hussars ...	For conspicuous gallantry at Klein Zillebeke on 30th October, 1914, when he went to the assistance of a severely wounded Officer and brought him into cover. He was himself wounded in so doing.
10504	Private ...	Entwistle, W. ...	2nd Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and untiring zeal in rescuing the wounded, under shell and rifle fire, throughout the whole engagement at Neuve Chapelle.
