

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8074	Private ...	Goodman J. ...	1st Battalion, Bedfordshire Regiment	For gallant conduct at Neuve Chapelle on 29th October, 1914, when he accompanied another man and set fire to a farmhouse occupied by about 50 of the enemy whilst exposed to heavy fire. The enemy were thereby forced to leave the farm, which was an important tactical position.
606	Lance-Corporal	Gordon, J. S. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders	For conspicuous gallantry and ability in leading a bombing party under fire through barbed wire entanglements over exposed ground, which resulted in the capture of a German trench and 71 prisoners. Many of the enemy were killed by this party.
8172	Lance-Corporal	Gray, V. ...	4th Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Kemmel on 28th April, 1915, in entering a mine gallery to rescue his comrades who had been overcome by gas, and persisting with great courage until all had been saved.
9004	Private ...	Green, A. ...	2nd Battalion, South Wales Borderers	For gallant conduct on the night of 5th-6th November, 1914, at Tsingtau in assisting in the rescue of a wounded comrade whilst exposed to very heavy fire at close range.
10545	Private ...	Gregory, J....	2nd Battalion, Border Regiment	For gallant conduct on 10th March, 1915. Although wounded in the ankle he continued on his journey and delivered a despatch to the firing line at Neuve Chapelle.
354	Corporal ...	Griggs, S. C. ...	Royal Flying Corps	For gallant conduct and exceptionally good work on 10th-11th March, 1915, in assisting to repair one of our aeroplanes close to the front line of trenches, under heavy shell fire.
3158	Shoering Smith	Grimes, J. T. ...	5th Dragoon Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on numerous occasions, especially on 26th February, 1915, at Zillebeke, in voluntarily undertaking the dangerous task of ascertaining what mining operations the enemy were engaged upon. He succeeded, although under heavy fire—no cover being available. On a previous occasion, in November, near Ypres, he conducted a relief party to our advanced trench situated only 16 yards from the enemy.
7845	Corporal ...	Gurdon, W. ...	Motor Cyclist, Meerut Signal Company, 2nd Presidency Volunteer Rifles	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 13th March, 1915, when he carried important despatches under fire by day and night, and always with success.
17048	Sapper ...	Guy, A. ...	2nd Field Squadron, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry and great daring on numerous occasions. On the night of 21st February, 1915, he assisted in the erection of a three-strand wire fence 80 yards from the enemy. On the next morning he crawled up to and inspected the enemy's barricade, and then threw a hand grenade through a loop-hole on the enemy at a distance of only three yards. Sapper Guy subsequently brought into cover the body of a comrade which had been lying close to the enemy's trench.
1182	Private ...	Hacking, S. ...	Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 28th February, 1915, in assisting in the rescue of a wounded comrade under most difficult and dangerous circumstances.
