

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
10366	Private ...	Reid, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Scots Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry and resource at Neuve Chapelle on 12th March, 1915. When the enemy succeeded in breaking through a portion of our line, this man, on his own initiative and single handed, brought up a machine gun, and by its effective use was largely instrumental in stopping any further advance by the enemy. Private Reid's prompt action averted what might otherwise have been a very serious situation.
9732	Private ...	Ridgeway, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 4th November, 1914, during the attack at Tanga (East Africa), and for general good work performed under a heavy fire.
11299	Private ...	Riggs, F. E. ...	1st Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle. Although twice wounded whilst covering a distance of 250 yards he still went forward in the attack, and finally when his platoon was ordered to retire he helped to drag the wounded into safety.
12877	Private ...	Riley, J. ...	1st Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle. Whilst advancing with his platoon in the attack he attended to several wounded men at great personal risk. Subsequently he was severely wounded in the head and both legs whilst performing similar acts of gallant conduct.
43269	Gunner ...	Risk, J. ...	7th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry at Neuve Chapelle when he remained at his post from 10th to 13th March, 1915, in an exposed observation station, under continuous fire. During the operations at Neuve Chapelle, extending from 30th October, 1914, to 13th March, 1915, he was constantly engaged in repairing wires under fire.
1296	Private ...	Robertson, J. M. ...	Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 28th February, 1915, in assisting in the rescue of a wounded comrade under most difficult and dangerous circumstances.
76095	Sapper ...	Robertson, J. W. ...	8th Signal Company, Royal Engineers	For gallant conduct in repairing telephone lines under fire at Neuve Chapelle from 10th to 14th March, 1915. Showed much resource and initiative in opening up communication with a neighbouring Brigade after being forced to abandon direct communication with his own Brigade.
4050	Serjeant ...	Robinson, J. ...	1st Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For conspicuous gallantry, resource, and ability on 10th March, 1915, at Givenchy. In company with another Serjeant and a small party of men he captured a trench from the enemy at 8.15 a.m., and held possession with great determination until 2 p.m., notwithstanding heavy losses—including the two Officers.
12196	Private ...	Robinson, W. J. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 25th and 26th April, 1915, at Givenchy, in assisting to rescue Officers and men from a deep mine full of poison-gas. The courage and devotion to duty displayed were very pronounced, the risk of death through asphyxiation being very great.
9776	Serjeant (Acting Company Serjeant-Major)	Robson, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Irish Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 14th March, 1915, when, almost encircled by the enemy, he held the trench against superior numbers with marked ability, and by his determination and example greatly contributed to the complete success which was eventually attained.
