PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 2nd and 3rd years of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts of the Metropolis," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the Police Courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the Metropolitan Police District as should be found expedient, and that every such Court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed:

And whereas also, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of Justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of

And whereas, by divers Orders in Council made under the said Acts, a Police Court Division has been constituted and assigned to the Police Court called Marlborough Street Police Court, and the extent of such Division altered and defined from time to time:

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His said Council, has deemed it expedient that the said Police Court should be removed to a certain new building which has been erected at Great Marlborough Street, in the City of Westminster, in the County of London, and within the Metropolitan Police District, from the date hereinafter mentioned:

His Majesty is pleased therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the Police Court now holden in a certain building in Francis Street, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of London, and within the Metropolitan Police District, and known by the name of Marlborough Street Police Court, shall, from and after the 28th day of June, 1915, be removed therefrom to a certain building recently erected at Great Marlborough Street, in the City of Westminster, in the County of London, and within the Metropolitan Police District, and shall be thenceforth there holden by the name of Marlborough Street Police Court, and for the same Division as was assigned to the said Marlborough Street Police Court by His Majesty's Order in Council dated the 6th day of July, 1907.
