

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of June, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Stockton, in the County of Wiltshire, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council, to the effect that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Stockton, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

STOCKTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of St. John the Baptist, in the Parish of Stockton, in the County of Wiltshire; and in the Churchyard attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say :—

(a) In a vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard, and belonging, or reputed to belong, to Mrs. John Fleming, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b) In the family earthen graves now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Albert Edward Fleming and Mrs. Thomas Hayter Gay, at their decease, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has taken place within the period of 14 years prior to the date of this Order, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott Yeatman-Biggs, D.D., Lord Bishop of Worcester, William Huyshe Yeatman-Biggs, Miss Margaret Barbara Yeatman-Biggs, or of any member of the above-named families, Miss Alice Walton, Mrs. Mary Anne Viney, Mrs. John Gay, the Reverend Arthur Goodman and his wife, Mrs. Anna Maria Goodman, Mrs. E. J. Pope, and Miss Arabella Giles, at their decease, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 28th day of July next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 28th day of July.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of June, 1915.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales did, in accordance with the provisions of the 23rd Article of the Charter of Incorporation of the said Institute, by Resolution passed at the Annual General Meeting of the said Institute, held on the 5th day of May, 1915, and confirmed at a subsequent Special General Meeting of the said Institute, held on the 31st day of May, 1915, make a new Bye-law, numbered 46a, the said Bye-law to come into operation and take effect so soon as it should be allowed by the Lords of the Council :

And whereas by the 26th Article of the said Charter of Incorporation it is provided that Bye-laws made by the said Institute shall not have effect until they have been submitted to and allowed by the Lords of the Council :

And whereas the said new Bye-law so made by the said Institute as aforesaid has been submitted to the Lords of the Council :

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said new Bye-law (a copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, are pleased to allow the same.

Almeric FitzRoy.

BYE-LAW referred to in the foregoing Order of Council.

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

Bye-law 46a.

"46a.—An annual subscription shall not be payable by any Member not in practice who has served or is serving in His Majesty's Forces during the war in any year before the last day of July in that year, and who shall give proof of such service to the satisfaction of the Council; provided, that where any Member who is entitled to exemption under this Bye-law has paid the Annual Subscription for the year in respect of which he is hereby entitled to such exemption, he shall be entitled to have such money refunded on application made in writing to the Secretary on or before the last day of September in that year."
