

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
8794	Lance-Corporal	Gormley, E. M. ...	1st Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For conspicuous ability and continuous good service as a company scout. Lance-Corporal Gormley has distinguished himself in obtaining good and reliable information, that furnished on the night of 27th-28th January, 1915, being particularly valuable.
9912	Lance-Corporal	Grainge, F. ...	3rd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on the 9th April, 1915, at Givenchy, in bringing in under a heavy fire three wounded men from the front of our line, who had all been wounded at the same time, when covering a working party.
7137	Serjeant ...	Gray, J. ...	2nd Battalion, York and Lancaster Regiment	For conspicuous ability as a platoon commander. Serjeant Gray has distinguished himself in the carrying out of many valuable reconnaissances.
3/7968	Private ...	Gray, W. ...	1st Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and intelligence when carrying messages under fire, and for exceptionally good work in the trenches, notably between 1st January and 31st March, 1915.
5576	Serjeant ...	Green, E. G. ...	1st Battalion, Norfolk Regiment	For conspicuous devotion to duty as Platoon Serjeant from the commencement of the war. He has attended to the wounded under fire on frequent occasions.
6243	Company Serjeant-Major	Green, L. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Warwickshire Regiment	For great zeal and devotion to duty from the commencement of the campaign, especially in the trenches at St. Yves. Company Serjeant-Major Green has set a splendid example to the men of his company.
13745	Serjeant ..	Greenhill, G. F. ...	4th Battalion, Royal Fusiliers	For conspicuous devotion to duty as Battalion Signalling Serjeant since the beginning of the war, notably at Ypres during February, 1915. He has frequently laid and repaired lines under fire.
8513	Company Serjeant-Major	Greenwood, F. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Fusiliers	For consistently good work and devotion to duty. Company Serjeant-Major Greenwood has shown himself as ever ready to volunteer for any dangerous duty.
164	Company Serjeant-Major-	Gregory, C. ...	2nd Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry and ability from the commencement of the campaign. During the fighting this Company Serjeant-Major has displayed the greatest coolness and courage, and has frequently been brought to notice for good work.
8884	Company Quartermaster-Serjeant	Griffin, A. J. ...	23rd Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous gallantry and ability throughout the campaign, and especially from the 20th December, 1914, to the 21st April, 1915. He has shown constant zeal and fortitude under heavy fire and in the most trying circumstances, and performed invaluable work with the greatest courage and devotion to duty.
3167	Private ...	Griffiths, R. ...	4th Battalion, Rifle Brigade	For conspicuous gallantry at St. Eloi on 1st March, 1915, in crawling out alone from his trench towards a German saphead, using an old disused French trench he came upon two Germans, one of whom he shot. This reconnaissance was carried out on his own initiative. Later in the day, when accompanied by another man, he again went out to see if the sap was occupied, and was immediately fired on by the enemy.