

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
213	Serjeant ...	Lowe, N. M. ...	1/14th County of London Battalion. The London Regiment (London Scottish) T.F.	For conspicuous gallantry and marked ability and resource consistently shown throughout the campaign, when he constantly acted as a scout in front of the entrenchment, often under a heavy fire from snipers and machine guns. He supplied sketches and much invaluable information in connection with the enemy's trenches and wire entanglements.
8077	Lance-Corporal	Lucy, S. ...	1st Battalion, East Kent Regiment	For conspicuous and unselfish devotion to duty in attending to the wounded throughout the campaign. Lance-Corporal Lucy has twice previously been brought to notice in this connection.
7909	Private ...	Luddington, E. ...	2nd Battalion, Northamptonshire Regiment (Attached 8th Signal Company)	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle on 10th March, 1915, when, on communication being rendered impossible owing to damage to cable by shell and rifle fire, he, in company with another man, repeatedly endeavoured to repair the line, and, on failing to do so, they brought back an important message from the trenches under heavy shell and machine gun fire.
757	Private ...	Ludgate, R. ...	South Irish Horse	For conspicuous gallantry and good work throughout the campaign as a Dispatch Rider, particularly during October and November, 1914, at Ypres. During this period he was constantly employed day and night frequently under fire, and gave a fine example of devotion to duty.
59909	Bombardier	Luke, F. C. ...	37th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous courage and ability while employed as a Battery telephonist. Bombardier Luke has carried out a large amount of difficult and dangerous work while repairing telephone wires under fire.
29519	Serjeant ...	Lunn, C. ...	16th Canadian Battalion	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion near St. Julien on the morning of 23rd April, 1915, following a night attack, in twice going out under fire and dressing a man who was badly wounded in the arm and covering him with a blanket.
28776	Private ...	MacArtair, A. ...	Canadian Signal Company	For conspicuous gallantry on 22nd to 25th April, 1915, when telephone lines were down, in carrying orders, under heavy shell and rifle fire, to St. Julien-Ypres Salient.
7614	Serjeant ...	MacDonald, A. W. ...	1st Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment	For conspicuous zeal and ability, and for consistent good work from the commencement of the campaign.
30004	Serjeant ...	Macdonald, J. ...	Canadian Divisional Train	For conspicuous ability and coolness while employed in carrying rations to the troops, and in picking up wounded and bringing them back to dressing stations under heavy shell fire.
9740	Lance-Corporal	Mackenzie, J. D. ...	2nd Battalion, Cameron Highlanders	For gallant conduct at St. Eloi, on 20th February, 1915, after leading a relieving party to his trench, in going back under a heavy fire which had been opened by the enemy, killing and wounding eight men, to look for these men. Finding none, he returned and assisted to safety an Officer who had been wounded. On 6th April, 1915, Lance-Corporal Mackenzie went out in the evening with a reconnoitring patrol and, having lost his bearings, remained inside the enemy's wire entanglements all the following day, returning after dark with useful information.
