

Distinguished Conduct Medals—Continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
26648	Company Serjeant-Major (now Lieutenant)	Price, C. B.	14th Canadian Battalion	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at St. Julien, in going to the assistance of a man who, while on patrol, had been wounded by Germans whom he had encountered. Company Serjeant-Major Price went out, and shooting the two Germans who had wounded him, brought in the man, undoubtedly saving his life. His conduct all through the action was of the most meritorious and self-sacrificing kind.
7942	Private	Prince, R. L.	1st Battalion, Somerset Light Infantry	For conspicuous courage and devotion to duty on the 8th March, 1915, in continuing to operate the telephone in an advanced trench in front of Ploegsteert Wood, after being hit in the mouth by shrapnel.
34209	Serjeant	Prior, G.	26th Heavy Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery	For gallant conduct and devotion to duty between the 23rd December, 1914, and the 2nd January, 1915, at Annequin, when, by his coolness and courage, he kept the men of the battery steady while under a heavy shell fire.
21190	Private	Quigley, H. S.	2nd Infantry Brigade, Staff, Canadian Contingent	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when acting as linesman during the action of 22nd to 27th April, 1915, during which time he repaired at least 100 breaks under heavy shell fire. Private Quigley also assisted a wounded officer to a place of safety. He was himself wounded when repairing a line under fire on 2nd May.
767	Gunner	Rafferty, J....	Motor Machine Gun Service	For conspicuous devotion to duty during the attack on "Hill 60" on April 17th and 18th, 1915. He continued working his gun under heavy shell fire until he was severely wounded.
6756	Serjeant	Rastall, G. H.	1st Battalion, Royal Lancaster Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry near Le Touquet on 20th April, 1915, in volunteering to accompany an officer and another non-commissioned officer in entering a mine gallery, which had been pierced by the enemy. Serjeant Rastall was the leading man of the party, who exchanged shots with the enemy and forced them to retire.
6754	Private	Rawlinson, J.	1st Battalion, Royal Lancaster Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in mending telephone wires under fire, in the open, behind the trenches near Le Touquet.
2108	Serjeant	Rayment, F.	1st Battalion, Hertfordshire Regiment (T.F.)	For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on the 7th February, 1915, when he led his platoon to support under a very heavy fire. He showed a fine example of courage and devotion to duty.
43790	Gunner	Reece, J. E.	33rd Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Neuve Chapelle on 10th to 12th March, 1915, when employed at a forward observation post, and for repeatedly repairing his telephone wire under heavy fire.
