His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from His Majesty's Ambassador in Rome the following translation of a Royal Decree, dated June 3rd last, and published in the Italian Official Gazette of June 15th:—

ARTICLE I.

During the present state of war the Government of the King will adopt and enforce the dispositions of the Declaration signed at London on February 26, 1909, with the exception of Articles 22, 24 and 28, and of any modifications contained in the following articles:—

ARTICLE II.

A neutral ship, which according to her papers has a neutral destination, and which in spite of the destination indicated on her papers is making an enemy port, will be subject to capture and confiscation if she is encountered before the end of her return journey.

ARTICLE III.

The destination indicated in Article 33 of the Declaration of London will be presumed to be the real one (in addition to the presumptions provided for in Article 34) if the cargo is consigned to an agent of an enemy State or to order of an agent of an enemy State.

ARTICLE IV.

In spite of the dispositions of Article 35 of the Declaration of London, conditional contraband will be subject to capture on board a vessel proceeding to a neutral port if the ship's manifests do not indicate the name of the consignee, or if they show that the consignee resides in territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy.

ARTICLE V.

In the cases indicated in the preceding Article IV. the burden of proving the innocent destination of the goods rests with their owner.

ARTICLE VI.

When the King's Government learns that an enemy Government is supplying its armed forces by means of or across a neutral country, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Marine may take concerted action to exclude from the operation of Article 35 of the Declaration of London all vessels proceeding to ports in such countries.

Decisions of this nature will be published in the Official Gazette, and will be enforced until superseded by another decision of the same nature.

For the whole period during which such decisions are in force, vessels carrying conditional contraband to ports of such countries will be liable to capture.

TO be sold or realised by tender, pursuant to an Order made by Mr. Justice Warrington, dated the 22nd day of July, 1913, and a further Order made by Mr. Justice Sargant, dated the 28th day of July, 1914, both in an action of SELLON v. COLLINGE, 1912, S. 2431, the groups of Silver Lead and Zinc Blende Mines and Mineral Claims, known as the Bosun and Monitor groups and the Ajax, situate in the West Kootenay District, Slocan Mining Division, British Columbia, with a concentrating mill, situate on the Slocan Lake. The property comprises sixteen mineral claims, together with certain forest and other lands, comprising about 149 acres more or less, and certain lots of townsite lands, some of them having a frontage to the Slocan Lake. The mill has a capacity of about 160 tons per diem, and is worked by water power. A branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway runs through the property. The mines have been considerably developed, and have in past years shipped large quantities of very rich ore, but for want of capital have not been worked since the year 1907. A large sum has been spent upon the purchase of the properties and upon the mill and in development. The mining properties, including the mill and the town site, forest and other lands can be divided up, and may be treated for in separate lots or parcels. Offers may be made by way of: (a) Purchase for a cash consideration, or (b) lease on approved conditions in consideration of a premium in cash, a dead rent and royalties on the output, with or without an option to the lessee to purchase the properties demised during the currency of the lease at a fixed price. The vendor does not undertake to accept the highest or any tender, but any proposal to deal with the properties otherwise than by tender under the conditions of sale or lease above mentioned can be made and will be considered by the vendor.

Particulars of the several properties and conditions of sale and forms of tender may be obtained at the office of Messrs. White, Borrett and Black, Solicitors, 3A, Dean's-yard, Westminster, London, S.W., or at the office of Messrs. A. D. and L. J. D. Brockman, Solicitors 112, Sandgate-road, Folkestone, where a report of Messrs. Tenders are to be made in sealed envelopes addressed to Master Romer, Room No. 292, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, not later than the 14th of October, 1915.—Dated the 25th day of June, 1915.
