2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carlisle.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carlisle shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the County where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section 13 of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "The Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Cumberland shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Cumberland, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said Counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. 7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cumberland, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. Any person who, after the date of this have taken place but for the Winter Assizes enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order or in relation to a prisoner committed for trial under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoners had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, or for the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known Agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter

Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877. His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Montgomery, the County of Merioneth, the County of Denbigh, and the County of Flint shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 4.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Ruthin.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Ruthin shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the County where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section 13 of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "The Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Denbigh shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Denbigh, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said Counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County, who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Ruthin, to be brought there; and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any County comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriffs of any of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, other than the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the County where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 4."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order or in relation to a prisoner committed for trial under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Ruthin, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, and of the prisoners (if any) to be transmitted under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Ruthin.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody three

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoners had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, or for the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known Agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1915.

The provisions of Section 13 of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes, as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "The Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Brecknock shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Brecknock, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said Counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County, who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Brecon, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Brecknock, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either County comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper Officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Radnor.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the County where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 7."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order or in relation to a prisoner committed for trial under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Brecon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, and of the prisoners (if any) to be transmitted under the provisions of the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Brecknock, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Brecon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Brecon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the County where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoners had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned County.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the County or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the County or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, or for the Assizes and Quarter Sessions Act, 1908, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known Agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such Orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the County or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1915.

Almeric FitzRoy.

The KING was pleased, at Buckingham Palace, on Monday, the 12th instant, to present to Mr. Walter Russell Brown, Acting British Vice-Consul at Chungking, China, the Albert Medal of the Second Class for gallantry in saving life on land, as detailed below:—

On the 21st September, 1913, when fierce street fighting was raging in the City of Chungking, Mr. Brown, assisted by his French colleague, Monsieur Bodard, in response to a message from the Chamber of Commerce, acted as intermediary between the two forces, and succeeded in bringing about a suspension of the hostilities. Both the officers ran great risk, as they were frequently exposed to the firing of the troops, and but for their prompt intervention it is probable that the fighting would have resulted in one body of troops being exterminated and the City, which contains a population of between 300,000 and 400,000 inhabitants, many of them British subjects, being pillaged and burnt to the ground.

Whitehall, July 14, 1915.

His Majesty the KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to George Lofthouse under the following circumstances:—

On the 4th of August, 1914, blasting operations were in progress at the bottom of a pit at Wingate, County Durham, 21 feet deep. The morning shift had fired three charges of gunpowder (between 30 and 40 pounds) at the bottom of the pit, and, when a man belonging to the afternoon shift was let down in a kibble or tub at 12.30, he was overcome by the fumes. His mate at the top shouted for assistance, and Lofthouse, who was not concerned in the operations in the pit, but was working some distance away, immediately ran to the pit and went down the rope to attempt a rescue. He got hold of the man and signalled to be raised, but, almost as soon as the kibble was lifted, both men fell out. Those at the top swung the kibble to and fro in order to clear away the fumes, and eventually, about 1.15, both men were brought out. Artificial respiration was resorted to; Lofthouse did not regain consciousness until two hours later, and the other man could not be revived.

Lofthouse was experienced in the use of explosives and knew the danger of descending into the fumes, and his action was, therefore, extremely courageous.

Also to John Lodge under the following circumstances:—

On the 21st November, 1913, John and Edward Lodge, two brothers, employed in the Dunkerton Colliery, had drilled and charged eight shot holes in the face of a stone drift, the fuse in each succeeding hole being four inches longer than that in the preceding one. The tools were then collected and carried some distance back, and Edward Lodge returned to light up the fuses. When he had lighted seven of the fuses, a charge in one of the holes exploded. John Lodge immediately went into the face and finding Edward lying on the floor conscious, but with the right thigh broken, dragged him away, though other charges were still exploding, thus, in all probability, saving his life. He himself was injured in the head from stones projected by shots that went off during the rescue, and his action was courageous to the highest degree.

Also to James Dally, under the following circumstances:—

On the 28th of October, 1914, two workmen were engaged in painting the Crumlin Viaduct on the Great Western Railway, on a staging 175 feet above the ground, when a piece of timber forming one of the horizontal supports of the staging broke. One of the men fell to the ground and was killed on the spot; the second man succeeded in gripping an iron stretcher forming part of the bridge. Dally, who was standing on the gangway of the bridge at the time of the accident, went to the man's assistance, crawling along the diagonal bracings between the booms of the girders, and persuaded him to swing his legs until they came within reach. He then instructed the man to move his hands gradually nearer, and in the end succeeded in drawing him into safety on the gangway. The man would probably have lost his life had it not been for the courage and presence of mind shown by Dally.

These Medals were presented by His Majesty the King at Buckingham Palace on the 12th July, 1915.

Whitehall, July 14, 1915.

1. That the provisions of the Company's memorandum of association, with respect to its objects, be altered in manner following, that is to say:—

(a) That the following clause be substituted for Clause 3 (b):—

To grant or make policies, contracts or other instruments of assurance indemnifying the person or persons to whom such policies are issued or with whom such contracts or instruments are made (who are hereinafter referred to as the assured) against (1) liability to make compensation to workmen or their dependants in respect of personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of their employment, and against liability to indemnify employers of workmen against payment of such compensation; (2) any payment made by way of compensation by the assured, either voluntarily or under any contract, express or implied, to any workman or to his dependants who was at the time of the accident hereinafter mentioned either employed by him or was being employed by other persons upon or in connection with any work or with the delivery of goods or materials in the execution or delivery of which the assured was interested in respect of personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment of such workmen, and sustained by him either within or outside the United Kingdom, and either on land or sea, and any such policy may provide that such accident shall be deemed to arise out of and in the course of such workman's employment if it shall happen at any time and from any cause (save the wilful default or misconduct of the workman) while he is either at sea or out of the United Kingdom under a contract of service.

(b) In Clause 3 the words "The Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, and every other Act incorporated therewith, or any Act or Acts of Parliament substituted therefor," shall be substituted for the words "The Workmen's Compensation Act, 1897."

(c) The following sub-clauses to Clause 3 shall be inserted after Clause 3 (c):—

(d) To take such steps, and do all such things, as may seem to the Company expedient, with a view to investigating the circumstances of any accident, or alleged accident, and all other material facts, and to obtaining any information or evidence which may seem to have any bearing upon any claims or demands made, or to be made, in respect of such accident, or alleged accident, and to oppose, resist, compromise, or satisfy, wholly or in part, any such claims and demands.

(e) To protect and indemnify the members of the Company from and against fraudulent and unfounded claims, and to take such steps to oppose and defeat such claims, and to punish those who are concerned in making or supporting them.

(f) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company.

(g) To establish and support or aid in establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employés or ex-employés of its members, or the dependants or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any general or useful object, provided that the Company shall not carry on life assurance business as defined by the Assurance Companies Act, 1909.

(h) To undertake and execute any trusts in connection with the business of the Company, the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and either gratuitously or otherwise.

(u) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

(d) The words following shall be inserted at the end of Clause 3:—

And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in these presents shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
