

(c) wilfully makes or signs, or causes to be made or signed, any false return of any matter specified in the form; or

(d) refuses to answer, or wilfully gives a false answer to, any question necessary for obtaining the information required to be obtained under this Act; or

(e) refuses, or without lawful excuse neglects, to perform any other duty imposed on him by or under this Act, he shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5. 0. 0., and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding £1 0. 0. for each day during which the offence continues.

(4) If any person falsely represents himself to be a person to whom a Certificate of Registration has been issued under this Act, he shall on summary conviction be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding 3 months, or to a fine not exceeding £20. 0. 0., or to both imprisonment and fine.

Recovery of Penalties.

15. All penalties imposed by this Act shall be recovered at the suit or instance of the Registrar-General, or of a Head-Constable, and all penalties when recovered shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Isle of Man to be added to the General Revenue thereof.

Definitions.

16. In this Act—

“Summary Conviction” shall mean conviction before a High Bailiff, or two Justices of the Peace.

“The Registrar-General” shall mean the Registrar-General appointed under the Civil Registration Act, 1878.

Short Title and Duration.

17.—(1) This Act may be cited as the National Registration (Isle of Man) Act, 1915.

(2) This Act shall continue in force during the continuance of the present War and no longer, without prejudice, however, to the taking or prosecution of proceedings for any offence committed before the expiration of this Act.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His late Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 22nd day of November, 1909, in exercise of the powers in that behalf vested in Him by the Statutes made by the University of Durham Commissioners, to appoint six Members of the Senate of the said University:

And whereas John Wilson, Esquire, M.P., being one of the Members so appointed as aforesaid, is deceased, and it is necessary to appoint another Member in his place:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to appoint Frank Walter Goldstone, Esquire,

M.P., to be a Member of the Senate of the University of Durham, in place of John Wilson, Esquire, deceased.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 1st day of July, in the year 1915, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the Parishes of Finchley, Hendon, and Kingsbury, in the County of Middlesex, now vested in us:

“Whereas under and by virtue of the several Indentures, particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, the tithes or tithe-rentcharges, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the Parishes of Finchley, Hendon, and Kingsbury, aforesaid, and particularly described in the same Indentures and Schedule, became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us:

“And whereas none of the said tithes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:—

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said tithes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such tithes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by Instrument or Instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said tithes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said several Indentures or any of them, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same
