UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

UNEMPLOYMENT BOOK (WAR) REGULATIONS,
1915.

The Board of Trade, in pursuance of Section 91 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Book (War) Regulations, 1915, and shall come into force on the date thereof.

2. If a workman employed in an insured trade on or in connection with munitions work in any establishment of a class to which the provisions of Section 7 of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, are applied by Order of the Minister of Munitions leaves work without having obtained a certificate from the employer by whom he was last so employed that he left work with the consent of his employer, or a certificate from the munitions tribunal that such consent was unreasonably withheld, the employer shall forthwith deliver the workman's unemployment book to a local office of the unemployment fund instead of returning it to the workman as required by Regulation 5 of the Unemployment Insurance Regulations, 1912.

Signed by Order of the Board of Trade, this twentieth day of August, 1915.

H. Llewellyn Smith,
Secretary to the Board of Trade.
